CITY ITEMS. BEAUTIFUL SPECIMENS OF PHOTOGRAPHY. We have to acknowledge the reception from Mr F Gute-We have to accommende the reception from Mr F Gute-kinst, the Photographer of this city, of several speci-mens of his great cartes de visite of distinguished per-gons, among others those of Hon. Judge Stroud, Colonel garter (Baxter's Zouaves), Rear Admiral Dupont, and seer Bache, of the United States Coast Survey. for softness of tone, strength of likeness, artistic tasts in arranging the positions, and general excellence, they are unsurpassed by the finest French cartes that we hars ever examined, and fully explain the unparalleled aularity of his galleries, Nos. 704 and 706 Arch street. the larger sized pictures, also-the plain and rethed Imperials, life size, in orayon and oil, and the iouched Iversty po-Air G. has also a national reputa-

THE NOON-DAY UNION PRAYER MEETING, held in the Sansom street Church every day at 12 o'clock. is in the Canonical Three and four important objects are sell commune. And the first, our countert before the meeting day after day. First, our country in its peril. Second, our army and navy. Third, our sick and wounded soldiers and sailors. Fourth, our our site and his Cabinet. The attendance at these noonday gatherings for prayer, is not as large as it should be. idering their wortby object, and the numerous class for whom they are intended THE PLACE TO PURCHASE FALL AND WINTER GARNENTS.-Mesers. C. Somers & Son, No. 625 Chestnut sireet, under Jayne's Hall, have succeeded in establishing, in this city, such a Clothing Emporium as has long been needed, in which the advantages of a first-class ready-made Ulothing Store are combined with those of an A No. 1 Merchant Tailoring Establishment. Their stock of piece goods in extensive and admirable, selected for the best customer work, and, in their ready-made department, the highest regard is paid to style and supeviority of workmanship. Their prices are decidedly lower, also, than are charged elsewhere for the same

SPLENDID ASSORTMENT OF HATS AND BON-NEIS FOR UNILDRES AND MISSES - Most of our lady readers need not be told that the choicest and most extensive stock of Headgear for misses and children is to be found at Messre, Wood & Cary's, No. 725 Chastnut sireet; but we would state, for the benefit of strangers and those who have not made the acquaintance of this celebrated Bonnet Emporium, that their present stock of Children's Goods—all of their own manufacture and imrorinion—is more extensive and complete in all respects than any that they have ever exhibited. The very mo derate prices at which they sell affords another inducement to purchasors. THE FUR SEASON .- Messrs. Charles Oakford & Son, Nos. 824 and 836 Chestnut street, under the Continental Hotel, have inaugurated the Fur Season with more than usual colat. They had the sugacity to provide a superb a'ock of these elegant garments for winter, and the large amount of sales which they are already making proves that they will have an adequate deand for their immense stock Their extraordinary low prices give them great advantages.

SEASONABLE CONFECTIONERY .- Mr. A. L. Vansant, corner of Ninth and Chestaut streets, has now in store all the choicest new goods in his line, made from the purest materials-delicious Bon-bons of all flavors, Sweet Jordan Boasted Almonds, rich Oream Chocolates, Portuguese Secrete, and fine French and American Mixtures, the latter of which, at 25 conts per pound are fully equal in quality to those commonly sold at 50 cents. His cheice grapes, pears, &c , should also be remembered. FINE TEAS AND COFFEE, -Mr. C. H. Mattson desier in fine family grocerie, Arch and Tenth sircels, has now in store a fresh supply of all the best Black and Green Teas; also, pure Old Government Java and Liberia Coffee. The latter is the richest and most deliciously flavored coffee imported. MESSRS. OAKFORD & Son, under the Continental Hotel, now offer a splendid stock of Gents' Fur-Foreign Intervention .- A cock-and-bull story has been started to the effect that England and France are about to interfere in the American war, and that in the event of a refusal upon the part of Government to submit to mediation, then the bogus Confederacy is to be recognized. Ergland has too much gumption to doan such thing; while France has too much regard for her old friends and aliles to act so scurrily. There will be no intervention yet awhile; but there will be an printerrupted supply of elegant and comfortable suits for soldiers and civilians, kept up at the Brown-Stone Olething Hall of Rockbill and Wilson, Nos. 603 and 606 Chestnut street, above Sixth. Pensonal.-Mr. John E. Gowen, who rais. rated by the Emperor of Russia with the Cross of the Order of Saint Visdimic. Victor Emmanuel, King of Italy, has decorated him with the Cross of the Order of Saints Maurice and Lazzaro, and the Sultan of Turker hes conferred upon him the Imperial Decoration of the Medijish, and Granville Stokes, the Fashloner and Olothier, No. 600 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, will sell him a first-class suit of fall and winter clothes at his qual low prices.

SINGULAR SIGNALS OF SINGLENESS .- In the town of Quimber, in Brittany, a very singular custom prevails. The men wear a peculiar kind of one-cornered hat; the manner of wearing it gives very important information to the women of the neighborhood. A widower wears his list in such a way as to bring the corner right over the forekend, showing that his life has been overshadowed. The married man wears his so that the orner is over his back, signifying that he can only look eack for happiness. The "jolly bachelor" causes the corner to come jauntily over the ear, which may mean that he is open to proposals. Here almost everybody looks as if open for proposals, as almost everybody dresses in the sprace clothing from Charles Stokes
