Major General Commanding His Excellency Governor Morron, Indianapolis. WASHINGTON, October 18, 1862.

Mr. Joseph Short, Salem, Mass.:

Sir: Our regiment (19th Indiana, General Gibbons' brigade) purchased, in the month of March last, eight hundred of your knapsacks; we did this in pickerence to drawing the Government ones, for which we kad requisition. We had used knapsacks slung in the ddiway during eight months' service, and have used yors for six months. We say for ourselves, and we believelvery man in the regiment, were he living, would coincite with us, that we should prefer purchasing your knaplacks with our own means rather than suffer, as we did, with the old way of carrying them. No coldier who hal seen service with the old one will regret having purchased yours with his private money, if he can have it is no other way.
