QUOTA FILLED .- The Proclamation of his Honor the Mayor, calling upon the residents of the city to canvass their different precincts and wards, with a view of ascertaining the correct number of volunteers furnished from each, has had the effect of adding largely to the numbers credited us by the commissioners, and of rendering a draft unnecessary. The various wards and precincts formed their canvassing committees, through whose exer-tions no less than two thousand six hundred and eight names were added to the regular anrollment up to Friday night, and their claims have been allowed. This left but about five hundred men still needed to fill the quota of the city. On Saturday, fifteen hundred additional names, properly verified, were filed. The probability is that but a few, if any, of these names will be rejected; and Philadelphia will thus be proved to have filled her quots by the strictest construction of the commissioners, and that she has at least a thousand men to spare in her allotment. Of course, this will render the draft—which was fixed for to-merrow—entirely unnecessary.

The enrollment, as taken by the ward committees, showed some gross errors as having been committed. A ourlous feature, however, in one precinct, was that the new canvass disclosed that the deputy marshal had returned more men as enlisted than the committee was able to figure up. The canvass of the precinct was very careful, but it was no use; the number would persist in being less than that for which the commissioners had given credit. Under the circumstances, it was doemed best not to report that precinct to the commissioners. This was the case in a single precinct. The anrouncement that there will be no draft will indeed be sad news to those who were holding back in hopes of being able to bite at the many tempting offers for substitutes, in case conscription had been reserted to. Notwithstanding the great inducements held out to volunteers, in the shape of bounties, yet the number of man obtained during last week and since the draft was postponed was exceedingly small. Those who had any notion of becoming toldiers were determined to hold back, expecting by this arrangement to realize small fortunes. What a disappointment? Now that our citizens and Councils see that we are safe from the draft, it is more this, the enlistments will be heavy for a day or so, or as long as the present bountles are continued. CAMP PHILADELPHIA-LIST OF THE COMPANIES AND THEIR OFFICERS -This camp, the rendezvous for drufted men, was visited by a large concourse of people yesterday. There are now at the camp about 7,000 men, all of whom are either substitutes or draftees. Squad and company drills take placedaily, and matters are beginning to assume a military appearance. As usual, squatters have surrounded the camp ground with their booths and wagons; and, in addition, pies, cakes, nuts, cider, &c., articles that are contraband inside the lines, are sold by the outside dealers. The drafted men from Wayne and Delaware counties are expected to arrive at the camp early this week. Those present now than likely that in a very few days all the tempting offers vidual will be left in the cold. The usual bounties will only be given. It is more than likely that, in view of to recruits will be withdrawn, and many a greedy indi-

Chester county has had a draft of 1156, of whom 990 men are now in camp. The others, it is understood, will be in camp by Wednesday of this week at farthest.

PERSONAL.—Levi Short, Esq., "Greek Fire" notoriety, and at present United States Government agent for the application of his new "means for destruction" to medern warfare in various ways, is in town, and will remain in Philadelphia for some days. Mr. Short has just recovered from a long and severe attack of paralysis, which was suddenly developed by his arduous labors during the Peninsa ar campaign. Bev. Dr. Eddy, the new pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist church at Eighteenth and Chestnut streets, occupied bis pulpit for the first time yesterday morning, and and attentive congregation.

Major General Schuyler Hamilton, the man who first conceived the idea of catting a canal around New Madrid, Missouri, by which means that place fell into the hands of the United States forces, has been stopping at the Continental for some days past,

CHESTNUT-HILL HOSPITAL .—The large military hospital near the Mermaid station, on the Chest nut Hill Railroad, is fast approaching completion. When finished, it will accommodate some three thousand patients. The site selected is a piece of upland, not far distant from the water works, from which the people of Chestnut Hill obtain a sufficient supply of water. The middle part of the hospital is in the form of an ellipsis, the wards for the soldiers diverging from it like the will be eighteen or twenty in number. By this arrangement the principal, from a stand-point in the centre, will be able to take a bird's eye view of the entire establishment. It will be one slory high, so that it will not be necessary to carry the sick soldiers up or down stairs. There will be plenty of light and ventilation in the wards The ground, in that section of the city, is higher even than the highest building in the old city proper. ARRESTED.—A man who has been enlisted a few weeks in Colonel Sagebarth's heavy artillery was arraigned on Saturday afternoon before Alderman Beitler on the charge of stealing a couple of beds and bedding, the property of Henry Harms, residing at 118 South Eighth street. The accused claims possession to the following title: A. Giboun Delevan Antonio La Chapelle. He took boarding at the house of Mr. H. and last night, one week ago, picked up a couple of beds and proceeded to the pawn shop at Sansom and Eighth streets, where he "spouted" them in the name of J. Josephie. He admitted having purloined them, but said he was ready to pay for them. He was committed in default of $500 bail to answer. The prisoner does not understand a word of English.

- PROVOST MARSHAL'S OFFICE.—A com. mittee of ladies were recently authorized by General Montgomery to examine the quarters of the soldiers under charge of the provost marshal, of this city, and to see what might be done to render them more comfortable. The provest offers the ladies every facility to execute their commission, and there is hope that his office may speedily become as comfortable as our hospitals. Contributions are urgently needed for this purpose. The articles required are pillows, blankets, coverlets, brooms, brushes, buckets, and mops. They may be sent to Nafional Guards' Hall, Ruce street, near Sixth.

POCKET PICKING.—A man giving the name of James Hopkins was taken before Alderman Beitler on Saturday, on the charge of picking the pocke of Edwin Derious of a gold watch valued at $140. Mr. Derious testified that he was at the public meeting held in the State House yard on Friday evening, and during a ruth in the crowd he felt a jerk at his fob-chain. Of reaching out his hand he found his watch in another hand. He took a tight grass of the holder, and the prisoner was then taken to the lock-up The accused admitted he was in the crowd, but denied that he took hold of the watch.

He was committed in default of $1500 to answer. MINERVA BASE BALL CLUB -This club held heir meeting on Friday last, when the following gentlemen were elected to serve for the ensuing three

NEW TELEGRAPH LINE. The American Telegraph Company are preparing to build a new line from New York to Pittsburg, via Easton, Reading, and Harrisburg. The section between Harrisburg and Pittsburg is already finished, and the line between Harrisburg and New York will be commenced as soon as the wire can be furnished. This line is to be used entirely for through business, and will have instruments attached only at Easton, Reading, and Harrisburg.

IMPORTANT RELATIVE TO THE TAX LAW.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has deoided that dealers in coal, lumber, and plaster, and country storekeepers, although they keep an assorted stock, require only a dealer's license. Butchers must take license as dealers. Cattle brokers require but one license, which must be taken where they

Market men buying in the country and selling in Philadelphia, must take license as dealers in that city.

FOUND DEAD .- The body of a man, supposed to be one of the drafted soldiers from Lehigh county, was found dead on Saturday, in a corn shock, in the vicinity of the camp ground, Twenty-fourth ward.

His body was removed to the coroner's green house. FATAL ACCIDENT. - About six o'clock en Saturday evening a little girl, named Emily Wiseborn, aged five years, was run over by a railroad car, at Tenth and Callowhill streets, and was instantly killed.

A SHARP TRIOK .- James C Rose, a drafted man, from Pike country Pa., arrived in this city a day or two since, in search of a substitute. While topping at his hotel, he became acquainted with a couple of gentlemen, with whom he took a short walk for the purpose of seeing the "sights." Finally, the new acquaintances became quite familiar and proposed that the gentlemen from Pike county should advance some money on a note-of hand, on which he could draw gold, and with this balt would more readily catch a substitute. He frather guesard that would do better. He advanced the sum of $135 in green-backs and other good paper money, and one of the men, calling himself Henry Gratified with his great financial transaction, M Rose proceeded to draw the money on the note, when he learned, for the first time, that he had been duped. He made application for redress at the Central Station, and then proceeded to the camp at Haddonton with the view of hunting up a substitute.

A NEW RAILROAD.—The construction of a new railroad is progressing on the west bank of the Schuylkill river, from Columbia bridge to Gray's Ferry bridge-a distance of about five miles. It wil unite the Reading road with the Pennsylvania Central, and the Philadelphia, Wilmington, and Baltimore with the Media and West Chester road. From the Columbia bridge it will keep near the river on the west side, crossing the Pennsylvania Central near the Wire bridge, passing under Market and Chestnut streets by tunnels. and terminating at Gray's Forry bridge. This will enable freight intended to be transferred from one road to another to pass around the city, and thus evade the present nulsance of cars by horse-power, reducing the expense, and greatly facilitating and increasing the business of the Philadelphia termini of these roads. The anticipated cost of the road will be $500,000. It is boing built by contract, and will be owned jointly and equally by the Reading, Pennsylvania Central, and Baltimore

SHOCKING OUTRAGE. - On Saturday afternoon, a man, named Hulse, who lives at No. 511 Federal street, went to the house of Mr. Berger, in Mc. Tivaine street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, and knecked at the door. The call was answered by Mrs. Berger, when she was attacked by Hulse with a hatchet. The head of the unfortunate woman was laid open, and a very serious wound was inflicted. After committing the act Hulse went home and to bed, where he was arrested and taken before Alderman Harmer, who committed him to await the result of Mrs. Berger's injuries. The only motive known for the attack is the fact that a boarder of Hulse's recently went to Berger's to make his home. Bulse had been drinking hard for some time before the

INTERFERING - The Deputy United States Marshal appointed for the Ninth precinct of the Fourth ward, and the canvassers appointed by the citizens of said precinct, came in collision on Friday, and the result was a scene of pugilism as interesting as novel. In consequence of this affair Mr. James Devine was appointed assistant marshal by the commissioners, and entered on his duties forthwith. On Saturday he returned to them the names of one hundred and sixty-four persons who had enlisted in Pennsylvanian regiment from the Ninth precinct of the Fourth ward. THE RECENT MURDER AT BRIDES. BURG -On Saturday, Judge Thompson, in the Court of Quarter Sessions, was engaged in hearing cases on writs of habeas corpus. The case of Henry Glibert, charged with the murder of Benedict Reinhart, at Bridesburg, on the 15th of September, was heard. After hearing the testimony the court remanded the accused without bail. SOLDIERS' FAIR .- The teachers and pupils of the public schools of the Ninth section will hold a ladies' fair, commencing on the 25th inst., at the Library and Reading Room, Twentieth, above Chestaut street. The affair, we understand, will be of a most recherche character.

ECDALITY CELEBRATION.—Last evening, the sodality attached to St. Patrick's Church held their twelfth annual celebration, in the presence of a large congregation. The society embraces in its membership 214 males and 327 females.

Collision.—About five o'clock on Saturday afternoon a train of cars came in collision with a horse and cart at Seventeenth and Washington streets throwing the locomotive from the track and instantly killing the horse that was attached to the cart. The accident caused much confusion on the track for a time. SUDDEN DEATH.—An aged man, unknown, died suddenly, just as he entered a railroad car at Twenty-third and South street, on Saturday afternoon His body was taken to the Eighteenth-ward station house, and the Coroner was sent for.

POSTPONED.—The ceremony of blessing a new bell for St. Paul's R. C. church, Christian street, near Tenth, which was to have taken place vesterday afternoon, was postponed in consequence of the illness of the Rt. Rev. Bishop Wood.

BARN BURNED.—The barn of William Harrison, situate near Torresdale, in the upper part of the county, was destroyed by fire, between ten and
