The sestimony of a Medical Man of the Old Schools, thirty years—fifteen years in the Allopathic School and fifteen in the Hemceopathic—and has for two years since, being qualified by Prof. B., made Electricity a specialty, has cured thousands never benefited by medicines:

Some five months ago I was attracted by a card of Professor Bolies, No 1220 Wainut street, Philadelphia, claiming a discovery that he had made in the use and application of the various forms and medifications of Electricity for the cure of all curable diseases. I called on this gentlemen, and after listening to his theory of the tricity for the cure of all curable diseases. I called on this gentlemen, and after listening to his theory of the Electrical laws governing life, health and disease, and his discovery in the application of Electricity in accordance with the polarities of the brain and norvous system. I was impressed that he had something new, and at once applied for instructions on the subject. I now speak from experience, as I have remained in his office for two months, watching the result of his operations and having mysel; the charge of one of the treating rooms for nearly the whole time, and treated from twelve to fitteen cases daily, comprising nearly every kind and grade of curonic disease. Although my expectations were high, I must confees they have been fully realized. I have seen a daily, comprising nearly every kind and grade of curonic disease. Although my expectations were high, I must confess they have been fully realized. I have seen a great number of patients who had availed themselves of the best medical skill and remedial agents for years—cases I well knew to be incurable by all other known remedics—permanently cured by a few applications of Electricity; and what has surprised me most, was the rapid improvement and cure of many cases pronounced well-many consumption by their physicians, because I rapid improvement and cure of many cases pronounced pulmonary consumption by their physicians, because I had been instructed by Dr. Paige to avoid all such cases, as the treatment tended to injure. I feel impelled by a sense of duty to caution the public against the indiscriminate use of Electricity, as I have known injury to result from its use, in the hands of the ignorant. I would here remark that I have never in my whole experience, or observation from books, pamphlets, or intercourse with men, read or heard of the general or special application of Electricity to the cure of disease, as taught by

I would say to those tampering with this mighty agent of life and death to beware lest-you strike a blow at the citadel of life, and never think of applying it to the living organism until you understand its nature, and when, where, and how to apply it.

I would here take occasion to recommend my professional brethren throughout the country to turn their attention to this important sgent as taught by Professor tolles, who has certainly, in my opinion, discovered the only reliable mode of its application, and thus rendered an important service to the healing art, and a lasting

eases, smong which are numerous cases never benefite

What I have now to say is from actual observation, as I have spent most of my time for the last two months with Prof. Bolies, and have witnessed the effects of the Electrical agent on from fifteen to twenty-five patients a day, suffering from almost every form of chronic disease; and as strange as it may appear, in a majority of cases a perfect ourse was effected in from five to fifteen days. And I will here remark that most of his patients were afflicted with long-standing complaints, considered incurable by all other known remedies.

Prof. Bolles: I believe your discovery to be a reliable therapoutic agent, and feel it my duty to recommend it. Since I have received instruction from you, I have applied it in cases of Aphony, Brenchitis, Cores, Amenorrhea, Asthma, and Congestion, and find that I have the same success that you had when I was under your instruction. I invariably recommend medical men to avail themselves of an opportunity of becoming acquainted with your new method of applying Electricity. Detroit, Michigan. DAVID THURSTON, M. D.

I have found by many experiments that Electricity is a gafe therapeutic agent in all acute and chronic cases when applied according to your discovery. I desire that medical men should become conversant with your discovery.

PROF. BOLLES.—DEAR SIR: The more I investigate his system of practice, the more confident I am that it s all-powerful to meet the ten thousand diseases to which

You, who first discovered Electricity to be a reliable therapeutic agent; should be considered a great benefac-tor of the race, for it is the only reliable system of our

or the woes and ills of suffering humanity. It is strang that physicians have become so wedded to their systems, brought up from the darkness of past ages, that they will close their eyes against the light now beaming forth through this system of practice. All other systems I regard as the morning star to the rising sum.

Prof. Bolles: The nearer I conform to your system of application, the more successful I am, and as I have examined all the guides and works published upon the subject, and seen nothing in reference to your theory, I do not hesitate to say I believe it to be original with you, and the only reliable system extant for ouring disease.

The opinion of a medical man, after thirty years' practice, fifteen in Allopathy and fifteen in Homes-

pathy:
PROF. BOLLES—DEAR SIR: I never have, since you gave me instruction in your new discovery of applying Electricity, and God forgive me if I in the future ever do, practice either Homeopathy or Allopathy. I have been strictly governed by the philosophy you laid down, and for the best of reasons—namely: That I am generally successful, and I frankly say to you that I am done with medicine ferever.

My success has been great since I have been in Newark, N. J.

W......Wby N. Wby N. N......NNE.....NNE THE COURT REFUSE AN INJUNCTION IN THE CASE OF THE GERMANTOWN WATER WORKS -On Saturday, Judge Ludlow rendered his decision in the case of the Germantown Water Company against William McCallum, to restrain the latter from emptying refuse matter from his mill, situated two miles above the water works, into the stream which supplies the works. After reviewing the evidence in the case, the judge said: Here is a stream, or rather a creek, which must be crossed with ease at almost any point; into it flow many impurities. During the past summer the water has been very low; suddenly, about the middle of September, a furious storm of rain visited this section of the country, and undoubtedly had a tendency to carry down the creek, and into the dam, these impurities. In the fall of the year decaying vegetable matter must accumulate; and on the lat of October the water in the dam appears to be stagnant and unfit for use, "and full of dead loaves."

I cayes."

We do not intend to establish any particular theory which will account for the impurity of this water, but we must declare that the smidavity produce a most serious doubt as to the cause of this impurity, and this doubt ous court as to the cause of this impurity, and this doubt must be fatal to the presont application.

In a case in which the defendant has submitted testimory tending to prove that he has used this stream as he now uses it for more than twenty-one years, it would be grossly unjust suddenly to arrest his business operations, when the main question—to wit; the fact of his having corrupted it at all—remains in doubt. Nor can it be argued that the injunction will do him no harm if he corrupts not the water, for he is a manufacturer employing a large number of workmen, and is under bonds in a large sum to complete a heavy contract. To ston his large sum to complete a heavy contract. To stop his business may produce irreparable injury.

Besides, the aid now invoked by the complainants is of the most powerful nature. In clear cases we never heat tate to excrete it; but a doubt in a case of this nature state to extreme it; our a goods in a case of this nature state the arm of the judge. That this is a well-settled principle we need not now stop to prove; the authorities are clear upon this point; and any other doctrine would scon destroy the power itself, which will be respected as long as it is firmly but judiciously exercised. At the present time, and with the evidence now before me, I cannot great this motion. As, however, the result of an analysis of this water, and an examination of this aircam by scientific and practical men, may throw additional light upon the subject, I am willing to allow this tional light upon the subject, I am willing to allow this motion to stand over until the analysis can be finished, and an accurate investigation can be made. The interests of a large body of citizens demand that this course should be pursued, while the defendant cannot object, because, it he in fact corrupts the water, his legal right so to do must then be established by the affidevits in the case, and the application to them of the principles of law heretofore stated in this opinion, which principles will then, with the evidence before the court, be more particularly the subject of consideration. Honlarly the subject of consideration. In furtherance of the suggestion in regard to an analysis, the judge named Professers Rodgers and Leidy, and Strickland Kneass and the Chief Engineer of the

A FORTUNE TELLER IN TROUBLE,-On Saturday morning in the Quarter Sessions, before Judge Ludlow, the case of Nathaniel Williams, colored charged with obtaining money under false pretences, had a hearing on a writ of habeas corpus. Williams resided at Seventh and St. Mary streets, and had displayed a sign representing himself as a doctor. The present charge is preferred by Charles Tauvee, a Chinaman, long resident in this city. Tauves had been in the United States naval service, and, upon arriving at this port, a few days ago, he lost $50 in United States Treasury notes. He was persuaded to consult Williams, whose TOWERS BS & CODJURGE Were represented to be extraordi. nary. Tauvee called, and upon being ushered into the nos of Williams, was introduced to a monstrous black cat. Tauvee stated his errand, whereupon the black cat was requested to do its duty, and its duty consisted of rubbing its nose against the clothing of Tanvee. In the smelling operation the cat reached the pocket of Tauves, and Williams, who pretended to know nothing of Tauvee's loss, at once announced that the money was taken from a pocket. But before proceeding further, Williams required $25, which was to be returned in case he failed to secure a return of the money. Tauvee paid the money. What followed in the way of incantations to recover the lost money was told by the Ohinaman in court. It consisted in pulling hair from the black cat, outting Tauvee's toe nails, and burning together the nails and hair; the placing of a silver spoon in a coffin, and firally requiring Touvee to stand upon the coffin and discharge a gun This completed, he was told to return to his ship, where he would notice some one with a pain in the stomach, and that would be the individual who robbed him. The money, however, would structions, but failed to find any one with a pain in the stomach. He then instituted this suit The court did not think a case of false pretence had been made out, but concluded to hold Williams to answer the charge of being a fortune teller. Bail in $1,000 was required, and in default Williams was again sent to Moy-DISPUTE ABOUT AN INSANE MAN. - On Saturday a writ of habeas corpus was partly heard before Judge Ludlow, in the case of Eii Griffith, at present confined in the Pennsylvania Hospital for the Issane. It is alleged that Mr. Griffith, who is reported to be worth $10,000, resides when at home in Montgomery county Some time since, his relatives (cousins) alleged that he indulged in liquor so constantly, and to so great an extent, as to impair his reason. Preliminary proceedings were instituted in Montgomery county to obtain posses sion of his property, and a physician gave a certificate of the insanity of Griffith. He was placed in the custody of Dr. Kirkbride, where he has remained to the present time. The writ of habeas corpus was taken out to tes the question of insanity. The absence of witnesses made it necessary to postpone an investigation at the present time. Judge Ludlow fixed next Saturday week as the time when the case will be fully heard. Mesers, Boyer and Boyd appeared for Mr. Griffith... George W. Biddle (not the painter), for Dr. Kirkbride. and J. H. Shoemaker for the relatives of Mr. Griffith. The case is one in which the lawyers as well as th parties feel a deep interest. Gustom-house officers are now stationed at the various railroad deports in this city to prevent the shipment of such goods, unless they have first been regularly permitted by the custom-house. In order tha permits may not be improperly obtained, stringent rules have been established; and Collector Thomas, acting upon instructions from Washington, on Friday gave no tice that no goods for the points named would be permitted unless evidence of both shipper and consignee having taken the oath of allegiance was first filed at the custom. house in this city. AN IMPORTANT TEST CASE. - A CASC of some interest to those who enlisted in Philadelphia regiments on the Monday on which the commissioners ennounced that there need be no draft in this city, is about to be tried in the Quarter Sessions. On the day in question, the 31 of Nevember, a large number were recruited in the various regiments in ler the promise of recising the $200 authorized by City Councils. On the 5th of Nevember, two days after the announcement by the draft commissioners, the committee having charge of the bounty gave official notice that no more would be paid, Philadelphia's quota being full. To those enlisted before this notice was give; the committee have declined about to be tried in the Quarter Sessions. On the day before this notice was give , the committee have declined to pay the bom ty. On Saturday John O'Byrne, Esq , filed in the Quarter Sessions the petition of Thomas Smith, a member of the 156 h Regiment, for a writ of habess corpus, to test whether he can be held after the promise made to him in regard to the $200 bounty has not been complied with A bearing in the case will be had

A SOLDIER BEATEN TO DEATH .-About 12 o'clock on Friday, night a man named Urlah Razer, a member of the 82d Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers, who was in the city on recruiting service, went with three companions to the Kossuth Exchange, a lagerbeer concert saloon, on Seventh street, above Chestnut. in search of a deserter. The doorkeeper refused to admit the party, and an altercation ensued, in which other persons took part. The result was a fight, in which Razer and his companions were roughly handled. Bazer, in particular, was very badly beaten, and he was thrown into the street by his assailants. He afterwards made the hest of his way to his home, in Darien street, above

The parties named were taken to the Central Station, where they were detained to await the result of the coroner's investigation. Razer was recently in active military service, and he passed safely through the campaign in the Peninsula to be murdered in a street brawl. The investigation of the coroner was commenced at the Central Station yesterday afterneon. A large crowd o spectators were in attendance, among whom were nume rous attachés of the concert saloon wherein the sad affair

Jacob Gearry, of the 82d Regiment, P. V., was the first witness called. He testified that on Friday night, he and the deceased and several others, on the way home from their recruiting office—when at the Kossuth Exchange, one of them proposed to go in and arrest a deserter belonging to their regiment. The men had a difficulty about being admitted, and a row ensuel between them and the door keepers. He saw Bazer being beaten, while in the street. Singularly enough, one old gentleman was picked out as the victim of all these attentions, and all these papers were handed to him first. Whether it was because he wore an air of extreme gravity and was fly naving great at cause his bulky figure protruded most prominently forward, it is impossible to say; but certain it is he was the ecipient of much misplaced attention, for, after the case had been concluded and given to the jury, with permission to seal their verdict and bring it into court next acrning, it was found, when they came to sign their
