SPECIAL NOTICES. A LAY OF HARD TIMES. BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL. Alas!" a mournful stripling sighed. "My life is all a desert drear! For fame and gain are both denied Since everything is now so dear.

"I have a lot of poems, which. I think, should in a book appear: But publishers are close, though rich. And paper is extremely dear. "I know a nymph of beauty bright, Yet love itself must yield to fear; The nuptial vow I fain would plight.

Sometimes I long my drooping mind With vivifying draughts to cheer, But 'tis to punch I am inclined, And sugar is immensely dear. "Cotton, I know, is very high. But hemp is not and off I fear "Pis hemp that I will have to try, Since other things are all so dear."

" Nay, listen," his wise friend did cry, 'If 'tis expensive things you fear, At Tower Hall your clothing buy, Where nicest goods are nowise dear." Having made our purchases for cash, early in the senson, before the recent heavy advance in prices, we are enabled to supply our customers with choice Cloth-

FOR A COUGH, Use JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT. Do not allow your cold o take its own course. Two-thirds of the victims of consumption owe their affliction to the fatal mistake of "waiting for a cough to get well of itself." Do not fall into this error, but avail yourself at once of a remedy which thir culty of breathing. FOR BRONCHITIS, Use JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT. This wide-spread disease, which may generally be described as an inflamma-tion of the fluc skin which lines the inside of the wind tubes or air vessels, spreading through every part of the lungs, is often taken for Consumption. The Expectorant subdues this inflammation, relieves the attending cough.

FOR CONSUMPTION, Use JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT. It cleanses the lungs from all irritating matters, while at the same time it heals and invigorates them. Of all the remedies which have been offered to the public for this dread disease, none popularity as this Expectorant. There is no remedy which so effectually overcomes this disease as the Expectorant. What parent can witness the sufferings of her children from this distressing complaint without doing all in her power for their relief? What medicine so sant to the taste, or so certain to produce immediate benefit? Give it a trial, then, and let it prove its efficacy. Use JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT. Children are subject to no disease more sudden in its attacks, or, in the absence of prompt relief, none more fatal in its results, than

Croup. Parents, therefore, should keep on hand a remedy sure and thorough. Such a remedy may be found in the Expectorant, and every careful mother will keep a supply by her. Is a standard medicine. Such a remedy is surely wanted by those who suffer from Stramous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their care must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted follow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:

SCROFLEA AND SCROPLIGES COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND SELTPINE DISEASES, LICERS, PUMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC APPRETIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALAGA OR THE DOLOREEX, DEBRITY, DYSEEPSIA AND INDICESTION, ERYSTHELAS, ROSE OR ST. This compound will be found a great promotor of health when taken in the spring to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bund. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul cruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions. If not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. During late years the public have twen misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Susaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been framis upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever-lience, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name useff is justly despised, and has become synonymeens with imposition and chent. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to surply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. LES MISERABLES. "CARLETON'S UNABRIDGED EDITION." The whole novel complete in one volume. CHEAP EDITION. Paper covers, price $1: cloth bound, $1.50. CAUTION.

. The publisher of the American copyright translation, in issuing this extraordinarily low-priced edition, takes occasion to warn booksellers, as well as the public, to be particular in ordering Carleton's Unabridues Edition, or they may have foisted upon them a lately published abridged British translation, both badly translated, and omitting a large portion of the original in deference to British and Romanist prejudices. The most remarkable chapters in the whole work, such as that entitled "Cambronne;" the most remarkable book, the magnificent and unsparing denunciation of the Convent: the finest poems, such as Fantine's Cradle Song and Jean Provaire's Rhymes; the grandest prose and the most difficult to translate, such as the chapter in Fantine, entitled "The Waters and the Shadows;" even the sublime Preface of Victo Hugo-all are among the large portion of the original omitted by Wraxall in his

British Abridgement. THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

BY PRINCE DE JOINVILLE. TRANSLATED BY WM. HENRY HURLBERT, With Notes and a Map. Svo. Paper. 38 Cents "The work is written in the grand historical style, in thick every word and every sentence appears studied in mm and irrefutable in fact, and it will stand as one of the best written chapters of historical events extant."—
