She had in tow the hospital ship St. Marc, with about the same number on board, and, on Sunday, about half past two A. M., was compelled to drop her, on account of heavy weather and a very high sea. THE INCARNATION OF INGRATITUDE. - A day or two ago, a farmer from Bustleton lost three hundred and fifty-four dollars. This sum of money was found at Frankford road and Norris street by Mr. Ezra Chambers, employed in the gas department of Philadelphia. Mr. Chambers accordingly advertised that he had found the money, and stated that the owner could have it by coming forward, proving property, and paying the costs of advertisement. The Bustleton farmer saw the advertisement, and, by his description of the several kinds of notes. gave satisfactory proof of being their owner. Cambers gave them into his hands. The eager clutch with which the worthy agriculturist closed upon them can well be imagined by any one having the misfortune to lose three hundred and fifty-four dollars. The farmer, having thus pocketed these three hundred and fifty dollars' worth, then extracted a one-dollar bill from his wallet, and, with a munificent air, presented it to the faithful discoverer of his losses. The latter insinuated that the cost of advertisement had already amounted to seventy-five cents. The former, that is to say, the farmer, replied that he was an extravagant creature for having paid so much! Verily, virtue is its own reward-so is finding other people's money. We presume both parties felt the truth of this proverb, although to such different dispositions it must have presented itself in different lights.

DECEASE OF A WELL-KNOWN MER-CHANT .- At a meeting of the Corn Exchange Association, held yesterday morning, the death of Charles H. Mellon, Esq., was announced as having taken place at his residence, No. 1734 Spruce street, on Monday morning. Mr. Francis A. Godwin made a few appropriate remarks in reference to the character of the deceased, and the high esteem in which he was held by his fellow-merchants. His amiability and uprightness met the approval of all, and none knew him but to love and respect him. He submitted the following preamble and resolutions, which were unaximously agreed to: Whereas, It has pleased Him, to whom we all owe our existence, to remove from our midst our late brother merchant, Charles H. Mellon, for many years one of the most useful and honored members of the Corn Exchange Association: Therefore, Resolved, That in the sudden demise of Charles H. Mellon this association experiences the loss of one of its most cherished members—one who was endeared to us by many ennobling virtues, integrity of Resolved. That while sorrowing in our own loss, we tender to the family of our deceased brother the heartfelt sympathies of this association, trusting that they will find consolation in the fact that he was a father, son, and brother, whose friendship all was a lather, son, and brother, whose friendship all were proud to be honored with.

Resolved, That as a token of our respect to the memory of the deceased, a committee of three be appointed by the chairman of this meeting, to attend the funeral of the deceased, and that they furnish a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions to the family. The president appointed on the committee, Francis Goodwin, John D. Wagner, and Edward D. Potts. THE RISK OF CONTRACTORS.—Those who, at the beginning of the year, entered into contracts for furnishing certain supplies in large quantities to various public institutions, have not made overwhelming fortunes. The estimates that were made some months ago are ruinous now to men who usually are very correct in their judgment. At the last monthly meeting of the Board of Controllers, Mr. Alexander Convery, who was awarded the contract for supplying 3,000 tons coal at $5.18 per ton, asked to be "let up," as this price was at present ruinously low. The price, as our readers know, has taken a sudden rice, and it is not likely that it will soon take a fall.

Mr. Convery asked for an advance of $1 per ton on 1,100 tons of his contract, that is to say, for all the coal furnished between the 1st of September and 15th of October. The Committee on Supplies yesterday refused to grant the request, as it is contrary to practice to reduce the rates at which contracts are executed for furnishing supplies. Mr. Convery will continue to furnish the coal at the contract price, though at a great loss. He estimates his loss thus far at $875. Those who take the sweet must take DESERTIONS AMONG THE DRAFTED MILI. TIA.—The Adjutant General has issued an order to the drafted militia who disregard their obligation to their country, and keep out of the way, and avoid delivery to the several camps of instruction, that they cannot divest themselves of their liability to faithfully perform nine months of military service; and that service can only commence from the date of their delivery to the military authorities. The citizens yet subject to draft are deeply interested in seeing that the recusants are promptly sent in, for as the General Government has required of the State a certain number of men, some of their citizens may be subsequently drafted in place of such recusants. Drafted militia who have deserted will be pursued, and when apprehended, will be required to make good the time lost by their unauthorized absence, and also be subject to such punishment as may be determined by a general court martial, under the articles of war.

PRESENTATION TO A FIRE COMPANY. A very handsomely chased silver horn was presented to the Moyamensing Hose Company by the Minerva Library Association, on Monday evening. The horn was presented, with a very appropriate speech, by Mr. Dougherty, on behalf of the association, and received, on the part of the hose company, by Wm. H. Fagan, Esq., the president—after which a fine supper was served, at which speeches were made by Messrs. McCusker, Sheran, and others. The whole affair was creditable to all concerned.

THE TOBACCO CROP.—The tobacco crop of Pennsylvania is fully as good as that of last year and, although the leaf is not quite as large, the quality is as good, if not better. Already dealers and speculators, at home and from abroad, are on the alert to secure their share of the crop, but as yet have not commenced buying. Tobacco is on the rise, and getting higher, and growers would do well to post themselves up in regard to the price. The Lancaster county crop has proved quite a success.

PENNSYLVANIA COTTON.—A lady residing in Germantown has recently directed her attention to the cultivation of cotton, in which she has proved quite successful. The cotton was cultivated more for ornament than use, but its success was so encouraging, that the lady picked, seeded, and prepared sufficient with her own hands, from which to make a finely quilted skirt. She considers herself entirely independent of the South, so far as a supply of raw cotton is concerned, and her example is worthy of the imitation of every lady in Pennsylvania.

The propelling wheel will be 10 feet in diameter. She will carry about 700

FIRE.—The alarm of fire, about 5 o'clock yesterday morning, was caused by the burning of some combustibles in the lager-beer saloon of Conrad Klein, Third and Harmony streets. The fire companies were called out by the State House bell, but their services were not required. The flames were extinguished before any damage had been done.

FROZEN TO DEATH. - Yesterday morning the body of an unknown woman was found in the hay-mow of a barn, located in the Twenty-fourth ward, near the Gray's Ferry Bridge. The deceased is supposed to have gone into the barn to sleep, and been frozen to death during the night. CONCERT.—A concert of noted colored singers takes place at Sansom-street Hall tomorrow evening. Among those announced in the programme we see the names of the Black Swan, Miss Scigwick, and Marco, the great tenor singer.

Mr. Freeborn presented a memorial signed by the Principals of the Girls' Common Schools of the city. It asks for the adoption or the following resolution: Resolved, That at the examination of the Girls' High School, no answer found in any of the authorized text books shall be counted incorrect, and that no question in Practical or Theoretical Arithmetic, or in Mensuration, be given, which cannot be answered from each and every one of the authorized text-books, viz: Emerson's Third Part, Vogdes' United States, and Greenleaps Common-school Arithmetics, and Rodgers' Mensuration, and Vogdes' Mensuration.

They also ask that on the day following the close of the examination, the Committee on the Girls' High School will be holding a meeting meeting and the files.

They also ask that on the day following the close of the examination, the Committee on the Girls' High School will, by holding a meeting, grant to the principals the opportunity of applying to them for redress in case of any violation of the resolution. And whereas, graduates of the Girls' High School receive, at the ages of seventeen and eighteen, certificates of qualifications for teaching on an average of sixty, and as scholars are eligible for admission to the Girls' High School at the age of fourteen, and as the questions given at the Girls' High School are frequently more difficult than those given by the Committee on Qualifications of Teachers; and whereas, gross injustice is done to applicants for admission to the Girls' High School in publishing them as "rejected" when they have obtained the high average of sixty-nine: therefore,

THE POLICE

TWENTY-FOURTH WARD ELECTION CASE.

Thomas H. Fagan, William Force, Fred: Osterhelt, J. T. Lodge, and James Torbert, five of the nine election judges of the Twenty-fourth ward, had a final hearing before Alderman Beitler yesterday.

The charge preferred against the defendants was that of fraudulently issuing a certificate of election to Philip Lowry, Jr., one of the candidates in that ward, at the recent election, for Select Council.

Charles Gilpin, Esq., appeared for the Commonwealth; Lewis C. Cassidy, Esq., for the defence.

There were no additional witnesses examined.

Mr. Gilpin, for the prosecution, addressed the magistrate in substance as follows: He asked that the defendants be bound over for issuing a certificate of election in violation of their sworn duty and the law. He did not ask it with any feeling of unkindness or partisanship, but as a duty he owed to the Commonwealth, the people of Philadelphia, and the District Attorney, whom he represented. The case may seem small, or of a trifling nature, to some gentlemen, but it should not be forgotten that the prompt application of law, already violated, tends to prevent any further violation. Small beginnings are apt to be followed by larger, and if, from caprice or otherwise, men will go beyond the law, they should be checked at once, or else there will be an end to self-government.

Mr. G. now proceeded to say that he had mingled much in public life, and had spent much of his time among the people in their elementary assemblages, tending to their organization, and he had seen the evils resulting from the first step taken in disregarding the principles of law. The fate of an empire may depend upon a single vote, and therefore the first attempt to subvert the expressed will of the people should be collared at once. If we do not do so, then we permit a blow to be struck at the rights of every one, even the Government itself. Mr. G. proceeded at great length, happily introducing the present rebellion, that at first had a small beginning, &c. In relation to TWENTY-FOURTH WARD ELECTION CASE. possession of it at the present time, but suggested that it be so held that if might be obtained at any time whenever the Commonwealth should want it. Mr. Cassidy, for the defence, said that he did not intend to reply to the speech of the gentleman who appears for the Commonwealth, but would say that he would not bind himself to refrain from giving the certificate to Mr. Lowry, in case he should want it at any time. As to the question of impounding it, he said that is a matter for future discussion, and in a speech of some length, Mr. C. contended that nothing had been proven against any of the defendants, except that, in accordance with the law, the precinct judges assembled, counted up the votes, and a majority of them voted in favor of granting the certificate to Mr. Lowry. He could not see anything wrong in this. Besides this, there certainly was not, nor can there be, produced a particle of evidence that the judges assembled with the intent to commit crime; and he suggested that unless the intent be proved, they cannot be held even to answer. He said he was instructed to say that his clients were willing to meet the charge, and if the alderman thought there was probable cause to bind them to appear at court, they were ready to enter bail in any reasonable amount.

The alderman required bail in the sum of $700.

The alderman required bail in the sum of $700 each, which was entered at once, and the defendants and their friends left the office. There is much interest manifested in this case. The office was pretty UNNATURAL CRIME.

A German woman named Teresa Rossner, whose sign, at house No. 147 Green street, sets forth that she, was a doctress, was arraigned before Ald. Beitler yesterday afternoon on the charge of abortion. The details of the evidence are revolting to the moral sense, and therefore unfit for these columns.

Five witnesses were examined among a young woman. well crowded with listeners, among whom we re-cognized the faces of leading ward politicians of the the moral sense, and therefore unfit for these columns.

Five witnesses were examined, among whom was a young woman who had been victimized by the defendant. Her statement was made without reservation, and was positively against the accused. The latter, however, with unblushing effrontery, denied ever having seen the witness. While another woman was detailing her evidence, she said that the doctress had some domestic difficulty with her husband, upon which the defendant called her a "liar."

The witness became exceedingly indignant, so much so that her tongue ran much faster than her judgment, and a perfect bedlam occurred, which the magistrate could not check. It required the effort of two or three detectives to prevent a collision. Fortunately for bonnets and feathers, the parties were kept apart, and finally the witness was accompanied into the detectives' room, where she told more of the unnatural crime than would probably be admitted under the ruling of the law. The names of several women said to have been under the professional attendance of Doctress Rossner were handed to the magistrate, but were not publicly announced. At the conclusion of the hearing, the accused was sent to prison to await her trial. For gross enormity the case stands almost without a parallel.

Three men, named David McCarty, Thos. Ward, and Robert Rathbone, were committed yesterday, by Alderman Brazier, to answer the charge of the larceny of a pocket-book containing about ninety dollars, the property of the proprietor of a public house on Cherry street. The evidence developed the fact that the three defendants, one of whom has lost an arm, came into the tavern to get something to drink. While the landlord was trying to make change, he laid his pocket-book, with the money in it, upon the bar. Presently it disappeared, and as nobody was near the spot where it was laid, the proprietor suspected them of having purloined the same. Under these suspicious circumstances, the alderman ordered them to enter ball to answer. The defendants stoutly deny the charge. PRESTO, BEGONE!

The defendants stoutly deny the charge. A WOMAN SHOT AT UPPERVILLE.—It is stated that during the expedition of General Stahl a part of his command was reconnoitring around Upperville, Va., when a squad of Confederate cavalry was encountered. Anong them were seen two women, supposed to be disguised spies. Shots were exchanged, and one of the women received a bullet in her leg, fracturing the bone. She was captured, and displayed much indignation at the man who inflicted the wound.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE. Supreme Court at Nist Prius - Justice Thompson. Thompson.
The douglass mitchell case again—sci. Fa. to REVIVE THE JUDGMENT-FRAUD AND FORGERY Douglass vs. Mitchell. Many of our readers will doubtless recollect the case of Douglass vs. Mitchell's executor, which was tried some years ago in the Nisi Prius, and attracted so much attention by reason of its peculiar features. Yesterday it presented itself in another form, the action this time being a scire facias to revive the judgment obtained in the original case. The jury was awaren to true the in the original case. The jury was sworn to try the issue joined between Robert J. Douglass and Clara Mitchell and Emily Mitchell, by their guardian, Samuel N. James, and to assess damages as to James W. Miller, who succeeded J. Eastburn Mitchell, executor of Thomas S. Mitchell, deceased. The original action was brought on two instruments of writing, as follows: $3,500. On demand, I promise to pay Robert J. Douglass, or order, thirty-live hundred dollars, with interest from date, without defalcation, for value received or order, thirty-live numerical from date, without defalcation, for value received; and I do hereby confess judgment therefor and release errors; and I hereby also waive all stay of execution from and after the maturity of the above note. THOS. S. MITCHELL.

The signatures to these papers it was admitted were genuine, but it was alleged by the defence that the body of each had been fraudulently written over the genuine signature. In support of this, a great deal of testimony was adduced, showing that the defendant's testator, Thomas S. Mitchell, was a conveyancer residing in this city, and engaged in a large and extensive practice. In September, 1854, he left the United States on a pleasure tour through Europe and to Asia Minor, and on the 16th of January, 1855, dicd at Damascus. The news of his death reached here in March, and, on the 20th of April, Douglass presented to the executor a claim for the $2,500 note, and subsequently for the $3,500 judgment note, which had been entered up. These notes were written on small picces of paper, and their existence, for the first time, thus became known. From the well-known neatness and carefulness of the decedent, in business and money matters, his executor deemed in birdly improbable that he had executed these papers. business and money matters, his executor deemed it highly improbable that he had executed these papers, and accordingly refused paying them. Besides this, the plaintiff was a colored man; had been employed by the decedent in his life time; was not known to possess money; and while he alleged that the con-sideration of these notes was loans made by him to Mr. Mitchell, that gentleman's bank book or books and papers showed no memorandum of the receip of any such amount as these notes respectively called for. called for.

On the other hand, the plaintiff showed that he was a free negro, born in the State of South Carolina; whence, in 1848, he removed with his wife's family to Philadelphia, bringing with him several thousand dollars; that he subsequently went to California, from where he remitted to his wife, in the course of a year posity 44 000 which shede California, from where he remitted to his wife, in the course of a year, nearly $4,000, which she deposited in the Western Saving Fund. In 1831 he returned from California, bringing with him $2,500 in gold. Investments of this money in mortgages and ground rents, by John C. Mitchell, brother of decedent, were also proven, which were afterwards sold by plaintiff, and this is the money alleged to have been loaned to Thomas S. Mitchell. Besides a draft by plaintiff, on Mr. Mitchell, for $5,000, and accepted by him, was proved, and given in evidence cepted by him, was proved, and given in evidence.
There was a great deal of evidence introduced into the case, however, that was very contradictory. The trial lasted ten days, and finally resulted in favor of the case, however, that was very contradictory. The trial lasted ten days, and finally resulted in favor of the plaintiff, damages being assessed in his favor to the amount of $8,206.25. The case was certified into the Supreme Court in Bane, where it was argued, and the judgment in the court below affirmed May 15, 1860. Of this judgment $558.71 has been paid, that amount having been realized from the personal estate of the decedent. That does not, however, cover the plaintiff's hill of costs, which amounts to $943.49, so that actually he has not received a cent of his judgment as yet.

This writ of seire facias et executio non was issued on the 11th of February, 1861, for the purpose of charging the real estate of the decedent in the hands of his devisees, Clara and Emily Mitchell, who are also his children, and by law they can contest the judgment on original grounds. They have accordingly pleaded that Thomas S. Mitchell was not indebted to the plaintiff, and issue was joined on that plea. As to the administrator, it is admitted that the former judgment is conclusive.

The case for the plaintiff was opened yesterday morning by William H. Rawle, Esq. He offered in evidence, first, the record of the original suit, and the judgment therein, February 12, 1859, for $8,206.25. Next, he offered the will of Thomas S. Mitchell, for the purpose of showing that by it J. Eastburn Mitchell was appointed sole testamentary guardian of the minors, and continued so to act until January, 1860, when Samuel N. James was appointed guardian in his stead. The plaintiff then closed.

R. C. McMurtrie, Esq., then opened for the defence. The general allegations of fraud and forgery are the same, but, in addition thereto, it is alledged that other evidence of that character will be submitted, which it was not in the power of the defence to present at the former trial. This evidence will consist of the testimony of J. Eastburn Mitchell, who, since the former trial, has settled his accounts, and been discharged as executor, and, in his pla

Joseph W. Miller, appointed administrator de bonis non cum testamento annexo. It refers to the presentation of the claim of Alr. Douglass soon after the news of Mr. Mitchell's death reached this country; other allegations of fraud are also made.

Eastburn Mitchell, in relation to his, claim. Counsel for the plaintiff here stated that they intended to raise a question which might dispose of all the testimony in the case. The point they should make was that the proceedings in the first cause were conclusive. It was agreed, however, in order not to detain the witness, that his testimony in order not to detain the witness, that his testimony should be taken de bene esse, and the point argued this morning. With this understanding the witness proceeded to state that the plaintiff called at the office of J. Eastburn Mitchell, on the 20th of April, 1855. What passed at the interview he could not state. The Court, on the conclusion of this testimony, adjourned until this morning.

William H. Rawle and William L. Hirst, Esqs., appear for the plaintiff, and R. C. McMurtrie and M. Russell Thayer, Esqs., for the defendants. HOLIDAY GOODS. CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.

one Sinch spike in each plank at each crossing. Around the edge of the wharf there is to be a cap sill 9 by 10 feet, of hard pine, well fastened and rounded on the top to shed the rain.

The fender piles are to be strongly bolted to the stringers and cap sills. Four clusters, of about six piles each, are to be driven, capped, and prepared as foundations for derricks. There are also to be twelve mooring posts of white oak timber, 12 inches in diameter, well driven and strongly secured to the wharf at the points indicated on the plan. These will be four feet above the floor of the wharf, and all piles are to be sheathed with zine, as before described.

At each end of the front wharf, and on each side of the wharf leading from the shore, there is to be a landing star 3 feet 6 inches wide, strongly secured to the wharf, and reaching to low-water mark.

The contractor will be required to build a bulkhead where the wharf, at the points indicated on the plan, will be four derricks for hoisting coal, similar to those used at the coal depots on the North river, provided with all the necessary falls, with sufficient rope to reach the hoisting engine, and shieves for changes of direction, and all ready for use in hoisting coal. A particular description of these derricks will be given.

There is to be a hoisting coal and to be of sufficient power to work the four derricks at the same time in hoisting coal. Over this engine there is to be a frame house to protect it from the weather.

In the cap silts around the wharf there are to be iron ring bolts of 1½-inch iron, and ring 6 inches diameter in the clear, placed at every 50 feet, and stronely fastened to the sills and stringers.

On the wharf, and extending up on to the land, will be a rail track of iron, about fifty ponnds to the yard, with such branches as may be required; the total length of single track being three-fourths of a mile; the track is to be provided with twelve dumping cars properly constructed for moving coal.

HEALING POWERS OF ELECTRICAND LINEAUTY DEMONSTRATED ON OVER FOUR THOUSAND ENVALIDS, AT 1220 WALNUT STREET, PHILADELPHIA.

The object of the following certificates is to show that cures at 1220 WALNUT Street are permanent and reliable. The first cure was performed nearly three years ago, the second was performed nearly three years ago, the second was performed nearly one year ago, the third about one year, and hundreds more of like cases might be shown.

READ THE FOLLOWING CAREFULLY.

About twelve months ago I had a severe attack of Diabetes, attended with other difficulties too numerous to mention. My desire for drink was constant, and although I drank gallons per day, my thirst was: never allayed; I was only able to sleep at short intervals, which seemed like a trance. The mucous surface of my mouth and throat had becomes op parched and feverish, that I was in constant misery. I was also suffering from all the horrors of Dyspepsia, loss of appetite, Nausea, and frequent and severe attacks of vomiting; and so prostrated was my general system, that I was scarcely able to move about. I had availed myself of the science and skill of distinguished medical men, both of the Allopathic and Homospathic school, and exhausted their catalogue of remedies, but found only temporary relief. In this condition, when every ray of hope seemed paralyzed, I heard of the discovery of Professor Bolles in the use of Electricity, and the wonders he was performing in curing disease, and placed myself under his treatment; and, to the astonishment of myself and friends, in two operations my Dialotes was controlled, and other difficulties soon disappeared; my appetite has returned, sleep undisturbed, and, in fact, I feel like one made anew.

I would further state that I have seen other remarkable cures performed by Prof. Bolles; and would advise the diseased to call at 1220 Wainut street, and be restored to health. I shall be glad to give any one information calling on me.

Rose Mill, West Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, May 1st, 1860.

In attempting a definition of my disease, I can only In attempting a definition of my disease, I can only give some of the many symptoms which, taken altogether, were the most horrid; and even medical men did not know my disease from pathological symptoms. How ever, Professor C. H. Bolles, by whom I was cured, located my disease in the pelvic viscera, in five minutes after I entered his office, and offered to warrant a perfect cure in eight applications. And I frankly admit that in eight applications of Electricity, administered by Professor Bolles, 1220 Walnut street, Philadelphia, I am perfectly cured; and to me this is most astonishing, for I had exhausted the catalogue of old-school remedies, and grew worse all the time.

I had long believed that in Electricity resided a potent agent for the cure of disease, if a right application could be made; and now I can comprehend, from its powerful effects on me, for a speedy cure, although no shocks were given. All was pleasant, and accomplished as if by magic given. All was pleasant, and accomplished as if by magic.

I will give most of my symptoms, for the benefit of suffering humanity. I had dyspepsia, bad marasmus, or wasting of the tissues of the whole body; at times a difficulty of breathing, some palpitation of the heart, much bronchitts, trembling of the limbs after exercise, aversion to business and company; at times gloomy, inability to collect my thoughts vigorously on any subject, a loss of memory, pain in various parts of the body; suffered much from lumbago, deranged secretions of the kidneys and other glands of the system, constant dragging pains in the lumbar region, and severe nervous dizziness. ging pains in the lumbar region, and severe nervous dizziness.

I believe it is my duty, as a lover of humanity to recommend this discovery of Professor BOLLES to the afflicted of all classes. There seems to be no guesswork, no confusion, no matter of doubt in his treatment. He proceeds on fixed principles, and according to fixed laws, which seem to me infallible and harmonious. He warrants, by special contract, the most obstinate, chronic and acute cases, and charges nothing, if he fails. I advise all of the diseased to try his treatment.

PHILADELPHIA, March 31, 1862.
PROFESSOR BOLLES, 1220 Walnut street: The remarkable cure which I have derived from your method of applying Electricity compels me to thus acknowledge the great obligations I am under to you for snatching me, as it were, from immediate death. About two years ago, while a resident of Gincinnati, Ohio, I was visited with an attack of paralysis of the lower extremities, which rendered me almost entirely unable to stand upon my limbs. I employed some of the most celebrated physicians to be found in that section, but received no apparent benefit, and after a lapse of about eighteen months was taken with a spasm, which one of my physicians pronounced a fit of apoplexy. Two weeks elapsed from that time before I became the least conscious of anything that had transpired, nor could I concentrate my mind or converse upon any subject without becoming very visionary and excited, until I placed myself under your valuable treatment. After my arrival in Philadelphia my attention was called to your treatment by a pamphlet handed me by my father, which contained the names of some gentlemen whom I had been formerly acquainted with, and whose statements I could rely upon. I immediately made up my mind to place myself under your treatment. I have now been the recipient of four treatments, and I now feel perfectly satisfied that I am restored to a sound condition, and thefore feel it my duty to gratefully neknowledge the benefits which I have received through your treatment. Merchant, office 126 South SECOND Street, Philadelphia.

Publisher of the National Merchant, office 126 SECOND Street, Philadelphia. N. B.—It will be well for the diseased to recollect that Prof. B. has given a word of caution in his pamphlet to guard them against trusting their health in the hands of those in this city claiming to treat diseases according to his discovery. This caution may seem sovere on those using Electricity at hazard, but it is the severity of truth, and designed for the good of humanity. See advertisement in another column.
