A MERRY CHRISTMAS FOR THE SOLDIERS. -The sick and wounded soldiers now in the Washington hospitals number twenty-five thousand. The wife of the Secretary of the Interior, Mrs. Caleb B. Smith, is now employed in raising subscriptions for the purpose of providing them with a Christmas dinner. Every loval citizen of the Union is bound to support this generous proceeding to the utmost extent of his means. Mayor Henry, yesterday, received the following letter upon the subject: ceived the following letter upon the subject:

WASHINGTON, December 6, 1862.

SIR: I desire to provide a Christmas dinner for the side and wounded soldiers now in Washington and its vicinity. The number exceeds twenty-five thousands from all the loyal States. A large sum will be required to prepare a proper festival for our brave and gallant soldiers, and I feel confident that you can obtain a liberal contribution from the patriotic and benevolent citizens of Philadelphia to aid in this purpose. Any influence you may use will be gratefully appreciated, and any donation you may be pleased to make will be thankfully received, if forwarded to my address, 288 H street. Washington D warded to my address, 288 H street, Washington, D C., on or before the 15th inst.
Yours, very respectfully,
Mrs. CALEB B. SMITH.

Mrs. CALLEB B. SMITH.
Hon. ALEXANDER HENRY, Mayor of Philadelphia.
All the influence which Mayor Henry can exert we may feel assured will be exerted. Philadelphia will yield her share in the provision of so generous and extensive a repast.

SHOCKING ACCIDENTS .- Yesterday morning the wife of Captain Joseph H. Sinex was badly ided at her residence, on Ellsworth street, above Thirteenth, in the First ward. It seems that she was in the act of reaching for something behind the stove, in the kitchen, when her clothing caught on stove, in the kitchen, when her clothing caught on the spout of a kettle filled with boiling water. It was overturned in consequence, and Mrs. Sinex was shockingly scalded on her neck, body, and arms. Medical aid was speedily summoned. Though her injuries are severe and painful, yet she is not considered in a dangerous condition.

A similar accident happened in the same neighborhood, about the same time. A little boy had just gone into his home, on Twelfth street, below Ellsworth, and seating himself in front of the stove, put his feet up to the hearth to warm them. His grandmother, about the same moment, put a large boiler of scalding water on the floor near by. Presently the lad, in getting up from the chair, stepped into the boiler, and in an instant the skin; from his kneedownward, was peeled off. He suffered great agony.

Postmaster Walborn gives notice that, on and after next Monday, postage stamps which have been used as currency will be received at the post office and registered for redemption. The time for making application is limited to thirty days, after which the application is limited to thirty days, after which the Postmaster General warns all people not to use postage stamps for currency: if they do, it must be at their own risk. The postmaster of this city states that but one deposit of stamps will be allowed by or received from the same party, firm, or association. The parcels as received will be numbered regularly, and a check or receipt, with a corresponding number and name thereon, given to the applicant. When payments are ready to be made the public will be notified thereof by notice posted in the avenue of the post office of the numbers ready for delivery, when the holders thereof may receive their payments in Government notes or postage currency, on surrendering the receipts held by them. It being understood that no payments are to be made until on surrendering the receipts held by them. It being understood that no payments are to be made until after the expiration of the thirty days.

Only such postage stamps as have been in actual circulation as currency will be redeemed.

The Postmaster is authorized by the Postmaster General, whenever he may deem it expedient for the interest of the Department, to require an affidavit from any applicant for the redemption of postage stamps that he obtained the said stamps honestly and legitimately, and that they have never heen used and legitimately, and that they have never been used

THE NEXT COUNCILS.—On joint ballot; it appears that the Democratic party will have a ma-ority in the next Councils, if Mr. Duffield is not reority in the next Councils, if Mr. Duffield is not reparted ed. The expulsion of Mr. Duffield exalted the hopes of the numerous small office-holders who are dependent upon the City Councils for political crumbs. The precedent having been made, there is no reason to suppose that if it be found necessary to turn out another Republican member, in order to secure a Democratic majority, it will be done with as much haste, and with as little decency, as in the case of Mr. Duffield. The Fifth-ward difficulty has not yet been settled. The Democrats are confident that the member of Common Council elected from that ward will secure his seat. It will be remembered that the sherif's proclamation did not call for an election in that ward.

TESTIMONIAL TO A WORTHY MAN.-A beautiful gold medal is being manufactured in this city, for presentation to the railroad engineer, who so heroically saved the lives of a large number of so heroically saved the lives of a large number of passengers on the Allegheny mountains, last November. The medal is a beautiful piece of workmanship. Within a laurel wreath, on the obverse is the following inscription:

"Presented to Powell Sharp, engineer on the Pennsylvania Railroad, by the passengers on the train from Pittsburg, November 14th 1662, in testimony of their admiration for his noble and heroic conduct in saving their lives at the risk of his own." On the reverse is a handsomely engraved picture of a locomotive, within a laurel wreath.

THE ANNUAL APPROPRIATIONS.—The annual appropriations to the different departments of the City Government have all been reported and acted upon by Common Council, except that to the Survey Department. The school bill, though passed by Common Council, has not yet been taken up in the Select Chamber. The appropriation to the Water Department passed both Councils on Thurs-day. The ordinances making appropriations to the departments of City Commissioners and City Pro-perty have been reported back from Select Council with amendments.

THE PROCEEDS.—The net proceeds of the late fair held in Concert Hall, in aid of the Soldiers' Reading Room, under the auspices of the Directors of the Ninth school section, amounted to $875. Last evening this sum was presented by the committee, Messrs. Stille, Young, Huber, and Ludlow. A neat presentation speech was made by Mr. Ludlow. This fair continued only six days, and the success which attended it was almost unprecedented. To Mr. Stille, the active manager, much credit is due, and is freely given.

BASE BALL CONVENTION.—The National Convention of base-ball players, which assembled in New York on Wednesday evening, was very largely attended by delegations from the Philadelphia clubs attended by delegations from the Philadelphia citos. The Keystone and Athletic Clubs, of this city, took quite an active part in the proceedings. Thomas Fitzgerald, of Philadelphia, was elected president. The treasurer of the association submitted his annual report, showing the receipts for the year to be $494.37; expenses, $179.40, and balance on hand $214.97.

PRESENTATION TO COL. SEGEBARTH .-Colonel Segebarth, of the 3d Pennsylvania Artillery Regiment, a part of which is stationed at Fort Dela ware and part in barracks at Camden, is to be pre sented with a magnificent pair of pistols by the offi-cers and men of battery G. Captain James Martin, Jr. The presentation will take place to-day at the barracks in Camden. SAD ACCIDENT.—A lad named Robert Boyd, aged twelve years, had his right arm broken; and received other serious injuries, yesterday at the card factory at Thirteenth street, below Pine. He was taken to the hospital.

THE LATE MR. PLATT.—At a meeting of the Philadelphia Associates of the United States Sanitary Commission, held on the 26th ult., the following resolutions were unanimously adopted: Resolved. That the Philadelphia Associates of the Sanitary Commission have learned, with the deepest sorrow, the death of their late most faithful superintendent, William Platt, Jr., Esq., who fell a victim to disease contracted on the battle-fields of Maryland in the service of the Commission, and in the discharge of the highest duties of humanity and patriotism. patriotism.

Resolved, That the Associates desire to record their high appreciation of the character of Mr. Platt, and of his invaluable labors in the cause of the Sanitary of his invaluable labors in the cause of the Sanitary Commission.

Accepting the invitation of the executive committee, in June last, to undertake the superintendence of the business of the Philadelphia agency, Mr. Platt devoted all the force of a highly energetic, though gentle character, to the discharge of the duties of his post. Giving his whole time, and applying remarkable vigor to the business of the agency, he soon brought it to a state of efficiency not previously reached, while his judicious and effective applications to the friends of the Commission brought its claims under general notice in Philadelphia, and rapidly filled its treasury, so that the contributions, which, on his entering on his office, in June last, were but eight thousand dollars, had at the time of his death, in November, exceeded the sum of forty thousand dollars, an increase which the associates ascribe almost wholly to the labors of Mr. Platt, and of an agent of his own designation. own designation.
All the services of Mr. Platt were rendered gra All the services of Mr. Platt were rendered gratuitously. When the battles in Maryland were impending, in September last, Mr. Platt hastened to Washington, and volunteered to take charge of a wagon frain of hospital stores, for use in the field. Visiting and supplying the hospitals at Rockville, Frederick, and Middletown, and reinforced with other supplies, forwarded by the Commission, he left Middletown at eleven o'clock at night, on the 17th of September, and proceeded with his train of Middletown at eleven o'clock at night, on the 17th of September, and proceeded with his train of wagons to Boonsborough, and thence to Keedysville, and arrived at the headquarters of the army at nine o'clock the next morning. His own modest official report of his services can'ts mention of the fact that, as he came within sound of the cannon, he quickened his speed, driving the leading wagon himself, and when darkness threatened to delay the train he left it and walked in advance, carrying a lantern, and compelling the reluctant drivers to follow.

The supplies of the Commission thus brought to the battle-field by Mr. Platt anticipated those forwarded by the Government, and were at once distributed by the medical director and surgeons of the army, to the unspeakable relief of the sufferers. But Mr. Platt's carnestness was not satisfied with mere direction and supervision. On the 20th September, as the ambulances appeared bringing the sufferers from the bloody battle-field of Antietam, but unaccompanied by competent assistance for their re-ers from the bloody battle-field of Antietam, but unaccompanied by competent assistance for their removal, Mr. Platt gave himself up for a long time to this arduous service, carrying the wounded in his arms to places of shelter, and there rendering them the tenderest offices of a nurse. Thus engrossed, he overtasked himself, and, through fatigue and exposure, contracted the disease which, on the 22d November, brought to a close, in his 37th year, his short but well-spent life.

of private life, and particularly as an active member To those who knew and loved him in the relations of private life, and particularly as an active member of the church, which he adorned by a consistent Christian conversation, no public record is needed of his modest virtues. But as he fell in the service of his country—a willing offering in the noblest cause—his life has become part of his public history; and it is, therefore. cause—his life has become part of his public history; and it is, therefore,

Resolved, That the Philadelphia Associates of the Sanitary Commission desire to perpetuate their estimate of the services and worth of their late friend and officer by some enduring memorial, and they, therefore, most respectfully request that the family of Mr. Platt, and the vestry of St. Thomas' Church, Whitemarsh, (of which he was warden,) to allow them to creet in that church a mural tablet to his memory.

Resolved, That the foregoing resolutions be communicated to the family of Mr. Platt, and to the vestry of St. Thomas' Church, with the assurance of the most sincere sympathy of the Associates in their loss.

Resolved, That the foregoing resolutions be published.

They returned to West Chester in a special train last night, after the review. During the review Musical Fund Hall was crowded to excess, and the efficiency displayed by the young soldiers was alike creditable to themselves and their institutions.

A FATAL ACCIDENT.—Yesterday morning Coroner Conrad held an inquest upon the body of James A. B. Thomas, a colored man, employed by Mr. S. M. Hoxie as a coachman. On Thursday afternoon he was instantly killed by being thrown from a horse at Twentieth and Chestnut streets. SMALL FIRE. On Thursday a stable and frame dwelling, occupied by Wm. Elerton and located at Mount Airy, in the Twenty-second ward, was slightly injured by fire.

THE POLICE. Some years since we attended professionally an exciting and interesting debate on the subject of gambling between Mr. Green, the reformed gambler and Mr. Freeman, of South Carolina. The debate took place in the lecture room of the old Chinese Museum building, and continued for three evenings consecutively. Mr. Freeman defended gambling, and by the power and beauty of language elegantly expressed he fairly captivated his audience. Mr. Freen depended upon the audience for a verdict qy explaining in a logical and forcible manner the many tricks and devices resorted to by gamblers, generally, to dupe all who were allured by them into their gilded saloons. Recently, in a conversation with a young man who had fought the "tiger" until he could do so no longer, he stated, among many of the unfair tricks which gamblers often resorted to, particularly in the southwestern part of the country,

Marked cards, said he, are manufactured to exactly imitate the fair-playing cards in common use, and so ingenious are the devices that it is all but impossible for any but the initiated to detect the difference. One establishment in New York manufactures fifty different styles of these advantage cards, by which the color, size, and suite are told, after some practice, as well by the backs as by the faces. They are adapted to bluff or poker, all-fours, seven-up, euchre, cribbage, whist, loo, and all other games where knowing just what an opponent has in his hand would cause the winning of the game. The prices of these cheating implements vary with the style. The common sort are sold for six dollars per dozen. Marked strippers, containing all the advantages of marked cards and strippers, are put at ten dollars per dozen. Transparent cards are also manufactured, by which the gambler, who will not expose his own hand, sees what cards his adversary has through the backs. Our informant has seen no less than eight different

Our informant has seen no less than eight different ways of marking on the common "star-backed" cards. There is a certain character in the right-hand corner, placed in five different positions, to denote the ace, king, queen, jack, and ten. Another character in the same position denotes the nine, eight, seven, six. I five; and still another, the four, tray, and duce. These characters are part of the star, and must be noticed as differing from any other part of the eard. For suite there are four characters, differently shaped, one for each suite, found in the left-hand corner, the marks being at both ends. Sometimes, however, the marks for size and suite are placed in the same corner. In marked striped-back cards the size is told by the position of the stripe running out at the right-hand corner, high cards being denoted by a spread of the stripes; in low ones the stripe is contracted. The suite is told by the spread between the bars on the left-hand corner. In some marked cards, with fancy backs, the suite

In some marked cards, with fancy backs, the suite and size are denoted by leaves, flourishes, &c. It is very rare that the marks are placed lower than a quarter length of the card on the side, yet some are found to be in the centre. We might particularize further, but as the marks vary with the style of the back, it would be impossible to make the explanation intelligible to the reader.

Professional sharpers know where to obtain the advantage cards. Many have peculiar marks of their own, which they have the manufacturer to put upon the backs of the cards they order. The manufacturers of marked cards are at all times in league with the gamblers.

The individual caunaghing himself the Rev. J. Wesley Green, who has been practising the connecce game on President Lincoln, is known in Philadelphia as a most consummate scoundrel. The following is a made his appearance in this city, and preached in a number of Methodist churches. Great crowds of number of Methodist churches. Great crowds of people flocked to hear him. He was eloquent. At that time he resided in Poplar street. He gave out that he was the confidential agent of the Postmaster General of the United States, and had a large number of offices to give out. He induced many a young man, belonging to the Methodist church, to give up their clerkships and accept off an office in the postal department, in almost every part of the country, even as far as California. They did so, but just previous to going on their tour he exacted a bonus from each of them, in sums ranging from $25 to $50, and, in one or two instances, he received as high as a hundred. As the parties were ready to start, having relinquished their situations, sold out their household goods in some instances, he suddenly disappeared. A large number of highly respectable young men were thus duped. Information was left at the police marshal's office, and Detective Blackburn (now fire marshal) proceeded to Baltimore, and, with Officer Zell of that city, arrested the fugitive in his room, at Barnum's Hotel. When he saw the officers he endeavored to secrete himself under the bed upon which his wife city, arrested the fugitive in his room, at Barnum's Hotel. When he saw the officers he endeavored to secrete himself under the bed upon which his wife lay, having been taken suddenly sick. It was her sickness that delayed Green in Baltimore longer than he intended to stay. He was brought to this city, was tried before the Hon. Judge Kelley, now member of Congress from the Fourth district Penna. The charge against him was obtaining money under false pretences. He plead his own cause, and though a very smart man naturally, and an excellent scholar, he was convicted on May 6th, 1852. On the day he was called up for sentence, he made an eloday he was called up for sentence, he made an elo-quent appeal to Judge Kelley in mitigation of punish-ment. He was tried on two bills, and was sentenced to twelve months on one, and nine months on the other. He served his time out in the Eastern Penitentiary. While in Philadelphia, this fellow obtained two gold watches from Messrs. Stoddart & Wilson, at Third and Market streets. One of these was found at a pawn shop in Baltimore, and the other in possession of his wife. The watches were returned to the owners.

possession of his wife. The watches were returned to the owners. About two years ago he was arrested by Detective Calananin the La Pierre House, on Broad street; but there being nothing against him particularly, he was let off upon a solemn promise to leave the city. He is known in the police records of Philadelphia as J. Wesley Green, alias Leonard Wilson, alias Benjamin Grier, by which names he is known in other localities besides Philadelphia. White, the Counterfeiter. United States Marshal John Jenkins arrived in this city, from New York, last evening, bringing with him information that will be gratifying to bank officers particularly, that White the celebrated counterfeiter, who was recently arrested in that city, had ten true bills found against him yesterday. His trial is fixed for an early day.

Seizure of Gunpowder.

The canal boat Thomas F. Burns, commanded by Captain Joseph Burns, was taken to the State magazine, near the banks of the Schuylkill, in the First ward, yesterday morning, having been seized, by order of Chief Ruggles, for having powder stored on board of it. The boat arrived at the Schuylkill canal locks on Sunday last, and was detained there by the ice, which happened to be freely made about that time. The powder was enclosed in tin canisters, each holding twenty-five pounds; there were 3,109, all told, weighing in the gross 77,725 pounds, valued in all at $13,990. There is a very stringent law relative to the storage of powder, or bringing the explosive article within the city limits. It is confiscated by law. A fine of $600 is also imposed upon the owner of any powder, upon conviction, for violating the act of Assembly in such case made and provided. The revenue derived from the sale of powder thus confiscated accrues to the benefit of the Association configurated accrucs to the benefit of the Association for the Relief of Disabled Firemen.

At the present time, including that seized as above stated, there are about one hundred and twenty-five tons of powder in the State magazine. The people of this city, especially those residing in the southern part thereof, and others, ladies, gentlemen, and families, fond of taking a drive on pleasant summer afternoons, in the rural section of the First ward, petitioned the State authorities to remove the magazine. A bill was framed to this effect; it passed one branch of the Legislature, but it was never reached in the of the Legislature, but it was never reached in the other branch. An effort will be made early in the approaching legislative session to have the magazine removed to a more distant place from the built-up portion of the city.

Larceny of a Padlock.

George H. Curtin, a lad, was arraigned yesterday morning on the charge of stealing a padlock from one of the stalls in the Spring Garden market house on the previous evening. For some time past farmers and butchers have missed sundry things from the stalls after having carefully locked them. It is not known whether the accused figured in any of these transactions or not. In the present instance, a padlock that had been broken from a stall was found in his possession. He was required to enter hall in the his possession. He was required to enter ball in the sum of $200 to answer at court.

[Before Mr. Alderman Kennedy.] Cruelty to Animals.

Samuel Wieve was arraigned on the charge of cruelty to animals. He was taken into custody by one of the River and Harbor Police, on Front street, above Noble, for beating a mule in a most unmerciful manner with a heavy stick. The animal appeared to be stubborn, and the accused seemed to lay on the blows heavy and fast, without rhyme or reason. The driver was fined the usual penalty. Cruelty to Animals.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE. Supreme Court at Nisi Prius — Mr. Justice Thompson. THE DOUGLASS-MITCHELL CASE—THE PLAINTIFF'S REBUTTING TESTIMONY. The evidence for the plaintiff in rebuttal was commenced yesterday morning.

Judge Read was called to the stand, and testified that he was formerly associated with Mr. Rawle as counsel in the case, and continued so until he went on the Supreme Bonch; that he saw the two notes

Mr. Rawle then offered to read a commission to South Carolina, issued by defendant, and in response to defendant's counsel, stated that the object was to show the birthplace of the plaintiff, and the nature and extent of his business in Charleston.

This was objected to, as not rebutting anything proved in defendant's case.

Judge Thompson held that the birthplace and business of the plaintiff were entirely immaterial facts, but that his possession of money prior to and about the time of the loan was material.

He testified that he had known Douglass since 1848. tertified that he had known Douglass since 1848, when he came from Charleston, and livedlin witness's house. The rest of his testimony is important, and we give it in his own words.

I remember Mr. Mitchell coming to my house to see Mr. Douglass; he was in the habit of coming there; in 1849 he came for ice cream, and Douglass passed in, and he called to him, and I went out and told Douglass a gentleman wished to see him; he came back, and they talked together; I did not stay in the room; when Douglass came out I went in, and Mr. Mitchell told me that Douglass was his barber; A few weeks after Douglass bought the Ronaldsonstreet house, and Judge-Hare fixed the title for him, he asked me if I knew a good broker where he could get some money changed; I told him yes, and went with him in Third street above Chestnut; we went in and a gentleman asked how much he wanted to get changed; he said two thousand dollars; they got talking about the discount, and he agreed to give it; he had a red silk handkerchief with a roll of notes in it, and he rolled them off, and the gentleman counted it in thromy likes he is the mention of the service went in the provider of the service went in the provider when the service went in the servic

West Chester arrived in town yesterday, and made a street parade. There are about sixty in the company, and they presented a very handsome appearance. Last evening, at eight o'clock, they were reviewed at the Musical Fund Hall, by Gen. Pleasonton. They are in charge of Col. Hyatt, the principal of the institution. They returned to West Chester. Bonsall.

George W. Camblos, broker, Third street, testified to changing some $2,000, in South Carolina bank notes, into gold, for Douglass, in 1847 or '48, and to subsequently changing various sums, ranging from $200 to $500, into gold for him.

The cashier of Adams' Express Company testified to paying drafts in favor of Mrs. Douglass, drawn by the California Company, during '50 and '51, to the amount of nearly $4,000.

Deposits, of large amounts, during these years, in the Western Saving Fund and Bank of North America, by Mrs. Douglass, were also proven. It was also testified that Mr. Mitchell was in the habit of being shaved at the barber-shop of Wills & Langdon, Fourth street, near Walnut, where Mr. Douglass was employed, and by him.

being shaved at the barber-shop of Wills & Langdon, Fourth street, near Walnut, where Mr. Douglass was employed, and by him.

John C. Mitchell, the cousin of Mrs. Mitchell, testified that he knew Mr. Douglass, and recollected having transacted business for him while he was away in California. Among other things, he invested the sum of $1,600 in his own mortgage on property in West Philadelphia to a third party, and assigned to Mr. Douglass the drawing of a power of attorney money for him in two ground rents. Soon after Mr. Douglass' return from California he demanded the amount of the mortgage, and Mr. Mitchell immediately paid him.

Peter Glascow testified to the sale of the Ronaldson-street house to Mr. Douglass, and the payment of the purchase money, partly in cash, and the balance in a judgment note, which was afterwards paid off.

The copy of the deposition of Peter Basset was here called for by Mr. Rawle, and Mr. McMurtrie replied that they would produce it when proof was made of the loss of the original. This is one of the papers that were in the stolen tin box, and proof wsa made of the fact. Counsel for the defence then demanded that the plaintiff be put on the stand to show that it was not in his possession.

Mr. Douglass accordingly took the stand, and promptly denied possession of the lost document and all knowledge of the lost box. When asked where he was in the summer of 1860, Mr. Douglass became very much affected, and stated that he was in the Eastern Penitentiary, under sentence for perjury, of which, he said, he was unjustly convicted, through the efforts of parties engaged in the present case and others.
