NUMBER OF WORDS IN ACTUAL USE. It is a curious thing that, with some 120,000 English words people can get on with very few. D'Orsay 3 philologist of ability, records that a county clergymen in England told him that some of the parts had not three hundred words in their vocabulary. On the average, the children of persons with ordinary twention do not use more than two hundred words, limil the age of ten. The great fact that the best he most comfortable, and the most elegant garments worn are those made at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestbut street, above Sixth, can be stated in so few words form conclusive evidence of the flexibility of the English language. PURCHASERS OF SEWING MACHINES WILL tonsult their own interest by selecting where they can have their choice of either stitch, with the Philippe of exchanging if not suited with their first thoice. JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT HAS BEEN thirty years the standard remedy for ASTHMA. CONSUMPTION, PLEURISY, OUGHS AND COLDS, HOARSENESS, WHOOPING COUGH. AND ALL PULMONARY COMPLAINTS. No better evidence of the great carative powers of this Expectorant can be offered than the grateful testimony of those who have been restored to health by its use, and the wide-spread popularity which, for so long a period, it has maintained, in the face of all competition period, it has created a constantly-increasing demand of it in all parts of the world. Here in parts of the estimony lately received. A SETTLED COLD AND COUGH CURED. CHARLES EDGINTON, of Garden Grove, Iowa, writes.
I have used your EXPECTORANT in a case of SET-TLED COLD attended with a COUGH. After employing une of our best physicians and receiving no benefit, I tried your Expectorent, which covered me before I had consumed one bottle of it. I have since used it in my amily for common Colds, and other complaints for which it is recommended, with the same success. "ONCE MORE LIKE MY FORMER SELF." Mr. SAMUEL C. DAWSON, of No. 1217 Clarion street, ease, BRONCHITIS, and finding that it was making sad havoe with my constitution, I sought the advice of a physician, and while under his treatment I must say that I seemed to regain my wonted strength almost as quickly as I lost it. After an interval of some months however, I was again prostrated, and, of course, sought my former remedy, but this time with no good results, liate relief, but in three or four days completely cured my Cold and removed my hoarseness. I therefore take pleasure in recommending the Expectorant as being, in my judgment, the best Cough Medicine before the public your Expectorant to a man who was troubled with very obstinate Cough, accompanied by Spitting of Blood and Heetic Fever, from the combined effects of which he was becoming rapidly reduced. He had, in compliance with the advice of a physician in his neighborhood tried various medicines, without relief, and was not in clined to look with any favor on the Expectorant. How-ever, having persuaded him to take the two bottles home with him, I was much pleased to hear, after the lapse o a week or ten days, that my friend had entirely recovered and I have since received a visit from him, during which he spoke emphatically in praise of the Expectorant, and Mrs. J. B. FISHER, of St. Johnsville, Montgomery Co.

My little daughter, aged 10 years, has always been subject to Cold, producing Croup, Congestion, Inflamma

Mr. T. ROBINSON, of Utica, Clark county, Indiana-

I have been afflicted for fifteen years with an obstinate and severe Cough, which prevented me from doing any work that required much exertion. I was so reduced that my friends thought I could not live. I tried many medicines, but stopped taking them through despair of being any better. Fortunately, I commenced using Dr. D. JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT, two bottles of which rid me of my Cough. I am in my fifty-ninth year, and

A VIOLENT COUGH, OF LONG CONTINUANCE.

Mr. ALFRED A. FORD, of Milton, Nova Scotia, writes: During the winter of 1860-61 I contracted a violent Cough, which, from its long continuance, was thought by many of my friends to indicate Consumption. While in this condition I obtained, through the persuasion of Mrs. D. O. Gaskill, of this place, a bottle of your Expectorant, and, having taken the same according to your directions, I was soon greatly relieved, and eventually cured, and my health has been excellent ever since. From my own experience, therefore, I cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers from Pulmonary Consumption.
