If he sends his wool for sale to a commission house, he is not liable to a dealer's li-cense; but, if he makes his own sales, he is liable to take license as a wholesale or retail dealer. The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has decided that Commissioner of Internal Revenue has decided that 2,240 pounds constitute a ton in all cases under the excise law. The decision is important to iron manufacturers and others. When persons are employed by tobacconists or dealers in cigars, whether in the sume town or at a distance, to manufacture eigars, and for this purpose receive tobacco from their employers to be made into cigars, which, when finished, are returned to their employers, such persons may not be required to pay the value thereof, provided, at the request of the assessor, they make out a list, subscribed and sworn to, which list shall state the number of cigars so made during each month, and, as near as may be, the value thereof, with the name and residence of the person to whom the cigars have been returned. If the said employer, to whom the cigars are returned, shall not reside, nor have his usual place of business, in a district in which the list is made out, then the assessor shall transmit it to the district where such employer resides, to the end that the duties thereon, under the excise law, may be paid by the employer. But if the parties live in the same district, the assessor will assess the amount due in such lists to the employer. The term "outside dealers" has been given to a class of pediers or hucksters, who having no regular place of business, buy and sell large amounts of produce and other merchandles. Tax Duplicates.—The Mayor has vetoed a supplementary ordinance of Councils which provides for the repeal of certain sections of an ordinance in the municipal code fixing the powers and duties of the City Commissioners. By this code, which passed by Select Council three or four years ago, it was ordained that a certain amount of money should be appropriated to make out the tax duplicates for the different wards. At that time the sums designated were sufficient, though with the progress of the city the sums must necessarily increase. The municipal code was intended as a permanent law in the city government. In such wards as the Fifteenth, Nineteenth, and Twentieth, where properties are continually going up, the precincts increasing in size, and the wards dividing, no arbitrary rule can be established with justice. The City Commissioners, therefore, made application early this year for the revision of the code, with a view of making the price correspond with that which is charged for the making out the duplicate books. The section was, therefore, repealed, and the Mayor vetoed the repeal on the ground that the original bill was a necessary restraint on municipal expenditures. It is understood that the Mayor sent to Councils his veto message merely because of his general desire to curtail expenses. In the original ordinance it was also provided that tax duplicates should be made out and deposited with the City Controller. These cost about $5,000, and have been found to be utterly worthless, and have wisely been abolis hed by Coun-TAX DUPLICATES.—The Mayor has vecost about $5.000, and have been found to be utterly

LERY.—This regiment, now encamped on Cooper's creek, Camden, numbers nearly 1,500 men. Twelve full batteries, of 147 men each, with five commanding officers, are to be raised, making, in all, nearly 1,800 privates. The men are progressing rapidly in 1,800 privates. The men are progressing rapidly in the drill, and as only 300 recruits are yet wanted to fill the organization, active measures should at once be taken by the authorities for its completion. Col. Segebarth is putting forth every energy to make up this small deficiency, but recruiting has for some time past progressed very unsatisfactorily, although the hounties offered by this regiment are higher than those offered by any other. Col. Segebarth is much liked among his men and officers, and possesses those traits which cannot fail to unite him strongly with his command. The comforts and necessities of the men of the regiment are well looked to, and this, of itself, is the strongest recommendation which can be presented to those who are about attaching thembe presented to those who are about attaching them-selves to some military organization. The regiment will, most undoubtedly, whether completed or not, be soon moved to a scene of more active duty, where its great value will be heard of and duly appreciated. It is seldom that we see in so large an organization as this officers of such intelligence and skill, upon whom alone depends the future prosperity and success of the regiment.

ALEX. G. CATTELL, Treasurer. PROGRESSING.—The new railroad from North Branch, New Jersey, to Flemington, is progressing. This road will be about fourteen miles in length, and will pass through the richest agricultural length, and will pass through the richest agricultural region of New Jersey. It will afford an outlet not heretofore enjoyed by that portion of the State to Philadelphia and Southern cities, forming, as it will, a close connection at Flemington with the local road extending to Lambertville, and there connecting with the Belvidere and Delaware Railroad. It will also form a channel by which the produce of that rich region will find its way to the New York market in much larger quantities than it has hitherto done. This will add to the facilities now offered of reaching New York from New Hope and parts adjacent.

LOCOMOTIVE BUILDING.—New cars and locomotives are constantly needed because of the immense amount of business transacted upon the various Northern railroads in the Government's behalf. Seven hundred men are now employed by Messrs, Baldwin & Co., to supply the demands of Messrs. Baldwin & Co., to supply the demands of various companies. During November nine first-class locomotives were built by them, this number being the largest ever built in their manufactory during one month. South America and Cuba, as well as the loyal States, negotiate for them, and help to increase the supply, which, for some time past, has averaged eight per month. The Pennsylvania, and other railroads in this State, at present claim a considerable number. Some are likewise getting ready for the Don Pedro Railroad at Rio Janeiro, and last week two coal-burning locomotives, first-class, were shipped to Cienfucgos, Cuba. CHRISTMAS DINNER AT THE WEST PHI-LADELPHIA HOSPITAL.—The lady visitors of the West Philadelphia Hospital intend giving a Christ-mas dinner to the sick and wounded under their mas dinner to the sick and wounded under their charge, which, by the 25th, will probably number about 3,000 persons. This noble object will require the co-operation of liberal and patriotic citizens in the way of donations of turkeys, chickens, hams, cranberries, onions, and pies, which will constitute the bill of fare. Any contributions of the above may be sent on or before the 19th to the following-named gentlemen: W. C. Harris, 227 Arch street; Samuel Field; northwest corner Front and Walnut streets; H. C. Townsend, 811 Arch street.

A NEW VESSEL FOR THE FIFTIETH MAS-SACHUSETTS .- The Niagara, the vessel which acommodated the five companies of the 50th Massachusetts which recently arrived here, still retains them. In a couple of days another ship is expected from New York, and will then accommodate these troops, whose destination will be that of Banks' expedition—a whereabouts which every one is privileged to speculate upon.

SALE OF CAPTURED RAILROAD IRON. Yesterday morning, by order of United States marshall 1.858 bars railroad iron sold at auction, at prices varying from $50 to $52 per ton. This iron was captured in the taking of Jeckel's Island, Ga., and condemned by the prize court. 1,200 bars of the lot were brought here by the schooner J. C. Horner, and 658 bars in the schooner Wm. Wilson. Insurance Premiums.—The insurance companies have initiated a movement, which will probably be successful, to adopt a new and higher tariff of insurance rates. Companies in this and other cities have been solicited to join in the "strike." A committee for the purpose will meet cheetly in the city of New York. shortly, in the city of New York.

At half past nine o'clock yesterday morning, J. Walter, a resident in Ohio, was seized with a paralytic stroke. The right side was affected, the seizure occurring at Sixteenth and Market streets. Medical advice was summoned immediately upon his removal to the Sixth-district police station. AN INSANE MAN FOUND. - Jas. Simpson, a man evidently deranged, was found on Tuesday, evening by the police of the Fourteenth ward. The intelligence he gave was that he came from Wilmington, Del. He was sent to the insane department of the Almshouse, there to await the action of his friends. SHELL AT THE NAVY YARD.—At the Philadelphia navy yard a quantity of fifteen-inch shell has lately arrived. They belong to the ord-nance of 1862, and carry fuses of five, ten, and fif-teen seconds, being the largest and heaviest now used in the navy of the United States. AN IMPERATIVE COMMAND.—Orders have been issued that no soldier must be seen in the street after half past seven o'clock in the evening. No exception is allowed, and all disobedient to the mandate will be arrested by the provost guard. MAN RUN OVER .- At six o'clock on Tuesday evening, Michael Ferris, a man residing at No. 209 Pegg street, was run over by a horse and cart at Front and Coates streets. His head and body were seriously injured. A CALL ACCEPTED.—The rectorship of St. David's Church, Manayunk, has, we learn, been accepted by the Rev. Samuel E. Edward Causland was arrested, at Third and Chestnut streets, and arraigned before Alderman Welding yesterday, on the charge of violating an ordinance of the city. He was driving his horse and wagon so closely behind another wagon that the people were compelled to stop at the street crossing. In a few minutes the sidewalks at the corner became so crowded that it was impossible to get along. The defendant caused all this, and being rather inclined to indifference, he was arrested.

The alderman read the law to the defendant, to which he replied that he had been driving in Philadelphia for six years, and did not know anything about the municipal act.

"Suppose," said the alderman, "there were a hundred horses, carts, drays, and wagons in a string so close together that people could not get through, what are they to do?"

The witness replied, scratching his head at the same time, "Why, let the people stand at the corners until we all get past!"

The alderman rendered judgment for the penalty. It would be well, perhaps, if the Highway Department were to furnish the law relative to driving through the streets. This might be done when the licenses are given out.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE. Common Pleas - Judges Thompson and Allison. THE DUFFIELD CASE. -- A PERSMPTORY MANDAMUS AWARDED AGAINST THE DEFENDANT COUNCIL-The interest created by the Duffield mandamus case was exhibited by a crowded court room yesterday. Lewis C. Cassidy, Esq., presented the return of the respondents in the writ of mandamus. It is an embodiment of the ground taken by Mr. Phillips and Mr. Wharton in their argument on the motion to quash. They aver the vesting of legislative power in the Councils of Philadelphia by the Consolidation act, the requirement as to qualifications of members, and the power of Councils to judge and determine thereon. They aver that the relator holds the office of general superintendent of the clothing department of the Arsenal at Philadelphia, under appointment from the Secretary of War, and they charge this fact as the cause of their netion declaring his seat vacant. They also aver that the matter complained of in the suggestion filed, in this case tooks place and was resolved by the respondents while in the exercise of their legislative duty, conferred upon them as Councilmen of the city of Philadelphia by the Constitution and laws of the Commonwealth, and they are advised and believe and submit to the Court that they cannot lawfully be questioned in any other place than a meeting of said. Council in reference to their said action.

They further aver that they having been informed. The interest created by the Duffield mandamus said action.

They further aver that they having been informed by their counsel that this honorable court did, in its decision of the motion made in their behalf to quash the said writ of mandamus, express the quash the said writ of mandamus, express the opinion, and did decide that the action of Common Council, on the 4th inst., in relation to the subject matter of the relator's suggestion, was irregular and void, because the same was done without notice to relator, and giving him an opportunity to be heard, these respondents, desirous of conforming to the decision of the court, and of doing their whole duty in the premises, will forthwith proceed to reseind the resolution complained of, and will further proceed to inquire into, judge, and determine the questions of the alleged disqualification of the relator to be a member of said Comdification of the relator to be a member of said Com-The return concludes with a prayer to be dismissed. with the reasonable costs.

Upon the conclusion of its reading, Mr. Brewster moved that judgment be entered for the relator, notwithstanding the facts set out in the answer, and that a peremptory mandamus issue.

This was opposed by Messrs. Phillips and Wharton, for the respondents, on the ground that judgment could not be entered in the present state of the pleadings; that the answer of the respondents having been presented, issue must be taken upon it either by demurrer or traverse.

Mr. Gilpin, who closed the argument for the relator, contended that neither a demurrer nor a plea was necessary. The defendants had first comwas necessary. The defendants had first commenced their answer with a justification, and then closed it with an admission of their wrongdoing, and an averment of their intention to do right. The motion to disallow the return and enter judgment, notwithstanding, had the sanction of precedent, and the case of the Commonwealth ex rel. Thomas vs. The Commissioners of Allegheny, reported in 8 Casey, was cited as directly in point. On the conclusion of his argument Judge Thompson stated that the question was a peculiar one. Upon the answer of the respondents the relator asks the court to award a peremptory mandamus, for reason of the insufficiency of the return. This, according to practice, was not strictly in form, the unsatisfactory return should be either demurred or pleaded to; but the court had determined to pursue, in this case, precisely the course the Supreme Court dd in to; but the court had determined to pursue, in this case, precisely the course the Supreme Court did in Thomas' case, cited in the argument, and which was identical with the present application. That was also a motion to disallow the return, and for a peremptory mandamus, and the Supreme Court treated the motion to disallow as a demurrer to the return, and entered judgment accordingly. That the court would do here; they would consider the motion to disallow the return as a demurrer to it, and the question, then presented was whether the facts question then presented was whether the facts averred in it were a sufficient answer to the writ. It was admitted in the answer that this proceeding did take place in the manner complained of, without notice to him, in his absence, and without a house property of the property of the process of the process ing did take place in the manner complained of, without notice to him, in his absence, and without a hearing having been afforded him. He was unquestionably improperly and illegally removed, and it was no answer to say that facts could be established justifying his removal. The party must be restored to his rights before a justification of the wrong could be allowed, and it was the province of the courts to compel the performance of that duty.

Another ground on which the court should award the peremptory mandamus was that the answer amounted to a submission to the action of the court. They admitted they had acted illegally and improperly, and aver their intention to resolud their illegal resolution. The writ of peremptory mandamus was therefore allowed.

When Judge Thompson had concluded, Mr. Brewster presented a decree he had drawn out, but it embodied in it a statement that the court had heard and considered a motion to disallow the return, whereas counsel for the respondents contended that no such motion had been made, the motion of Mr. Brewster being for judgment on the answer and the award of a peremptory mandamus.

A long and excited discussion ensued, in the course of which Judge Thompson informed the counsel for the respondents that the court had understood the motion to be a motion to disallow, had so understood the argument, and had decided it as such.

Mr. Wharton and Mr. Phillips both stated that they had not so understood. Judge Thompson replied that if counsel could not understand each other the court understood it, it was not the fault of the them. If they did not understand the motion as the court understood it, it was not the fault of the Mr. Wharton then moved to strike off the motion Mr. Wharton then moved to strike off the motion to disallow, as the act of Assembly required that the answer should be either pleaded or demurred to. The court refused this, saying it was too late after the court had decided the motion.

Mr. Phillips wanted the court to give them leave to move to strike off the motion to disallow, but the court refused to permit this to go on the record, unless it appeared on it that it was not made until after the decision of the court. The counsel for respondents would not do this, and so the paper was not filed, and the court adjourned. and the court adjourned.

The Douglass-Mitchell case was still on trial yesterday in the Supreme Court at Nisi Prius, counsel having occupied the entire day in summing up. IN THE ORPHANS' COURT FOR THE

CLOSULA DLI AMES S. CHAMBERS, Navy Agent. PORTABLE MILLS FOR THE ARMY.

OFFICE OF DEPOT COMMISSARY OF SUBSISTENCE,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. — 1803.
Inventors and manufacturers are invited till the 20th
December, 1802, to present models and samples of Portable Mills for grinding wheat and corn for the use of the December, 1822, to present models and samples of Portable Mills for grinding wheat and corn for the use of the army.

The following are the essential conditions the mills must combine to receive consideration when presented by plan, specification, model, and sample:

4t. Not to weigh over twenty-five pounds.

2d. The grinding surfaces to be of burn-stone, grooved chilled iron or stocl, and the general construction of the mill to be analagous to that of a coffee mill.

3d. Each mill to be capable of grinding 50 pounds of fine flour or meal per hour, and to be capable of being worked by one man.

4th. Each mill to be so constructed, if necessary, that it can be separated into two parts of equal weight, so as to be carriage too laborious for one man.

5th. Each mill to be capable of the men, or other cause render its carriage too laborious for one man.

5th. Each mill to be capable of being attached to a wagon tongue, branch of tree, or stack of muskets. Inventors will submit plans, specifications, or models of their mills, or sample of the mill itself, in the presence of a board of officers. They will be required to present indisputable evidence of their mills combining the essential conditions above enumerated by causing the mill to be worked in the presence of the said board.

If a mill be presented containing all of the above conditions, and its cost be sufficiently reasonable in the opinion of the Department to warrant its purchase, a large number will very probably be bought for the use of the army.

DEALING POWERS OF ELECTRI.

HEALING POWERS OF ELECTRICATION OF THE CONTROL OF T

Philadelphia, May 1st, 1860.

Read the following from a preacher of the Methodist Episcopal Church, No. 1833 Helmuth street, Philadelphia:
In attempting a definition of my disease, I can only give some of the many symptoms which, taken altogether, were the most horrid; and even medical men did not know my disease from pathological symptoms. How ever, Professor C. H. Bolles, by whom I was cured, located my disease from pathological symptoms. How ever, Professor C. H. Bolles, by whom I was cured, located my disease in the pelvic viscera, in five minutes after I entered his office, and offered to warrant a perfect cure in eight applications. And I frankly admit that in eight applications of Electricity, administered by Professor Bolles, 1220 Walnut street, Philadelphia, I am perfectly cured; and to me this is most astonishing, for I had exhausted the catalogue of old-school remedies, and grew worse all the time.

I had long believed that in Electricity resided a potent agent for the cure of disease, if a right application could be made; and now I can comprehend, from its powerful effects on me, for a speedy cure, although no shocks were given. All was pleasant, and accomplished as if by magic.

I will give most of my symptoms, for the benefit of suffering humanity. I had dyspepsia, bad marasmus, or wasting of the tissues of the whole body; at times a difficulty of breathing, some palpitation of the heart, nuch bronchitis, trembling of the limbs after exercise, aversion to business and company; at times gloomy, inability to collect my thoughts vigorously on any subject, a loss of memory, pain in various parts of the body; suffered much from lumbago, deranged secretions of the kidneys and other glands of the system, constant dragging pains in the lumbar region, and severe nervous dizziness.

I believe it is my duty, as a lover of humanity, to re-kidneys and other glands of the system, constant dragging pains in the lumbar region, and severe nervous dizziness.

I believe it is my duty, as a lover of humanity, to recommend this discovery of Professor BOLLES to Ithe afflicted of all classes. There seems to be no guesswork, no confusion, no matter of doubt in his treatment. He proceeds on fixed principles, and according to fixed laws, which seem to me infallible and harmonious. He warrants, by special contract, the most obstinate, chronic and acute cases, and charges nothing, if he fails. Ladvise all of the diseased to try his treatment.

EDWARD T. EVANS, Preacher in M. E. Church,

ANOTHER CURE OF PARALYSIS OF THE LOWER LIMBS (Paraplegia) AND APOPLEXY COMBINED.

Read the following:

PRILADELPHIA, March 31, 1862.

PROFESSOR BOLLES, 1220 Walnut street: The remarkable cure which I have derived from your method of applying Electricity compels me to thus acknowledge the great obligations I am under to you for snatching me, as it were, from immediate death. About two years ago, while a resident of Cincinnati, Ohio, I was visited with an attack of paralysis of the lower extremities, which rendered me almost entirely unable to stand upon my limbs. I employed some of the most celebrated physicians to be found in that section, but received no apparent henefit, and after a lapse of about eighteen months was taken with a spasm, which one of my physicians pronounced a fit of apoplexy. Two weeks elapsed from that time before I became the least conscious of anything that had transpired, nor could I concentrate my mind or converse upon any subject without becoming very visionary and excited, until I placed myself under your valuable treatment. After my arrival in Philadelphia my attention was called to your treatment by a pamphlet handed me by my father, which contained the names of some gentlemen whom I had been formerly acquainted with, and whose statements I could rely upon. I immetionary and excited, until I placed myself under your treatment. I have now been the reci

N. B.—It will be well for the diseased to recollect that Prof. B. has given a word of caution in his pamphlet to guard them against trusting their health in the hands of those in this city claiming to treat diseases according to his discovery. This caution may seem severe on those using Electricity at hazard, but it is the severity of truth, and designed for the good of humanity. See advertisement in another column.
