Mr. LEFOH said he thought the motion was out of order. We have just voted to suspend the rules to move a reconsideration, and we have no right to do anything else but vote upon the matter before us. Mr. Quint then withdrew the resolution, and offer-ed another to the effect that the resolution be recon-sidered. Agreed to. He then moved that it be referred to a committee of five.

Mr. LEIGH resumed. The point he intended to make was, that the court had directed that Mr. Duf-field be entitled to all the benefits of a member of Council, and this order was defied. These men ap-pear to have consciences, which God forbid that I should have one like unto them. [Laughter.] He contended that these unworthy practices would re-teoil unon the offenders.

of five. Mr. BARGER seconded the motion. Mr. FREEMAN said that this was a serious mo-tion, and rivals, in its haste, the resolution by which Mr. Duffield was expelled. The act of Assembly di-rects have the series of the second second second be drawn. Is that committee to be appointed, so that each individual member of it will be an oppo-nent of Mr. Duffield The act of Assembly pre-scribes that this committee shall be appointed as in contested-election cases. Even if this be overruled, let there be a decency manifested. This is a matter of law, a matter about which there is considerable difference of opinion. Let it then be referred to the Committee on Law, if you will not submit to written law. ED SOLDIERS -- Early yesterday morning a train containing about five hundred sick and wounded soldiers arrived at the Baltimore depot. Among them those wounded at the late battle of Fredericksburg numbered forty, and were conveyed to the hospital at Fifth and Buttonwood. The remainder. convalescents from the hospitals in Washington, were principally sick. They were taken to the Citizens' Volunteer. Hospital, opposite the depot, and, upon the arrival of the firemen's ambulances, were removed to the various hospitals. The following difference of opinion. Let it then be reterred to the Committee on Law, if you will not submit to written law. Mr. FREEMAN read from the Laws of the State to sustain his position: "No complaint of undue elec-tion or false return shall be acted upon unless pre-sented within ten days after the organization of Councils." Now, Mr. Quin proposes to erect a partisan committee, and to that committee it is, in-tended to present a paper, which is not sworn to, and whose allegations are not fairly sustained. We gentleman from the Eighteenth ward is really dis-qualified from holding his seat, the speaker's vote will be given in favor of the expulsion. We again plead for order and decency. We appeal to you to create your committee properly, and investigate the charges with a proper understanding of the matter. This paper which, it is proposed shall be sent to the committee as a basis of investigation, is believed to be a false statement. On that paper Mr. Duffield was expelled by a party majority, who will no doubt expel him again, without any further knowledge than is contained in that paper. He recognized the importance of Mr. Duffield being present this after-noon in his seat, and he regretted that the seat was vacant. If he were here, he could make his own statement, and throw light upon this all-important matter. Let the subject be properly considered, and let justice be done. are the names of those who belong to Pennsylvania and New Jersey regiments :

It is that party that erect Hastiles; and suspend all law for the government of the people. Mr. Duffield's name is on the roll, in accordance with the decree of the court. If he is not here to answer to his name; that is not the fault of the Democratic party. If he is entitled to his seat, he will have it. Mr. FIREMAN, after some further argument, moved to lay the resolution upon the table. Not agreed to. them in the public estimation. A man who is weak or corrupt is generally more tender on his weak points than upon any other, and when I hear a man talk about the consciences of others, I rather sus-peet his own conscience is all wrong. It is said that we turned a man out of the Chamber whom we be-lieved not to be entitled to a seat. When the court said that that the was wrong the Democratic members Wm H Warley, E, 27 It should seem hardly necessary to subjoin the reminder that the resources of that most generous of institutions, the Citizens' Volunteer Hospital, have been, of late, completely drained. Oharity, hourly and daily, supplies its requirements, and the demands upon charity as continually exhaust these supplies. Philadelphia has acted most magnificently upon every charitable occasion. A worthy object has only to be mentioned to enlist her sympathies. When one remembers the noble ladies, who, moving in circles of wealth and of nature's nobility, have consecrated their days to the maintenance of the Citizens' Volunieer Hospital, we cannot doubt for a moment that that maintenance will ever fail in kind or in degree. To all interested in the soldiers' cause, (and what loyal heart is no?) we commend the charitable and patriotic work of this hospital. Do-nations of every kind are needed. They will be re-ceived at the hospital by the president, T. T. Tasker, secretary, T. L. Gifford, or any of the mangers.

Before Mr. Aldorman Beitler.] A Narrów Eksenpe. Yesterday afternoon a carter was brought before Alderman Beitler by an officer who had arrested him on sight for driving a cart over a lady at or near Front and Walnut streets. Tt seems from the testi-mony of a conductor of a car on the Ohestaut and Walnut-street line, that he had stopped the car for the purpose of letting two ladies get out. Just as one of them alighted the horse and cart, came pass-ing along, and the alighting passenger did not ob-serve either. She struck against the shaft and fell and, before the cart could be stopped, the wheel passed over her lower extremities. Under these dir-cumstances, the officer took the carter into custody. The lady was 'very kindly attended to by a gettle-had passed over the greater part of her dress but did not do her any serious personal iojury. "This being the case, the carter was discharged. It may be as well to state in this connection, that people get-ting out of cars at street corners should at least cast a glance up or down the street. Drivers of vchieles generally, when they see a passenger cars top to let out a passenger, should be careful now they drive. If alongside of the car. Conductors should be careful not to start a car until the passenger has fully alighted from or gained the platform, in getting off or on. It was only by the simple chance of luck that the lady above mentioned had not received, perhaps, a severe fracture of her lowertimps. Stephen N. Groodwin. a soldier belowing to as perhaps, a severe fracture of her lowekilmbs. A Hazardous Operation. Stephen N. Goodwin, a soldier belonging to a camp located a short distance from Philadelphia, was arraigned before Alderman Beliler, yesterday morning, on the charge of malicious mischief. It seems, from the evidence adduced, he appeared on. Chestnut street on Wednesday afternoon. He was very much intoxicated, and being untable to take care of himself, a police officer conducted him to the station-house. He became pretty well sobered by nine of clock, when he was liberated by Lieut. Hen-derson, of the Reserves. Goodwin promised to go at once to camp, but instead of making good his word, he proceeded to Sixth and Chestnut streets, where he was attracted by the brilliant giare of an illuminated restaurant. He entered the place and desired something to drink. He was refreed. In a few moments he stepped to the rear end of the res-taurant and went through a number of military tactics, though he had never been in battle. He was for line the was attracted by an unber of military tactics, though he had never been in battle. He was tauties, though he had never been in battle. He was finally put into the street, when he stopped for a moment, as though contemplating the sad annoyance. for the want of a "fip" under certain exigencies. Fresently he pulled his hat down-over his face, and made a desperate dive through a pane of glass in the boot. The crash caused some consternation. The soldier escaped with a few cuts about his face and neck. He was re-arrested and taken to the lock-up; and after the hearing yesterday was sent to prison.

[Before Mr. Alderman White.]

A Similar Case to the Above. A Similar Case to the Above. George Williams was arraigned yesterlay before. Alderman White on the charge of malicious sis-cines, in breaking the glass door of the public house of John Kean, in the vicinity or Front and Spines, streets. The evidence against him was that, on Wednesday night, Williams came to the place and demanded some liquor. The proprietor thought he, had, enough already, and refused to give him any more. The applicant then went into the street and stormed the tavern with brickbats and other his-siles, and smashed a number of panes of glass. The alderman asked the accused what he had to say to the charge.

Confiscation Revoked.

Confiscation Revoluted. Captain Burns, whose canal boat was seized a few days since, because a large quantity of blasting powder was on board of it, has had the combustible material restored to him, and he has gone with it to the coal region. The authorities gave him a patient hearing, and though it was a clear infraction of the law, yet it was one of those instances that some-times occur because of being beyond human control. The sudden cold snap of weather caught the boat at the Schuylkill-canal locks. The ice made so fast that navigation on slack-water can to a full stop very suddenly. As the powder low captain and owners of the powder had no intent to violate that law, and as the authorities of Philadelphia did not desire to obstruct the coal trade, the restoration was made. desire to obstruct the coal trade, the restoration was 8 - 22 C. 12 M.

The special order of the day—the bill authorizing the continuance of the contract with R. A. Smith for cleansing the streets—was called up. Mr. ARMSTRONG moved that, as a number of bids for oleansing the streets had been received, the sub-icat be notifying for another work.

for cleansing the streets had been received, the sub-ject be postponed for another week. Mr. MEGARY called the yeas and nays, and the motion was lost by a vote of 7 yeas to 10 nays. Mr. ARMSTRONG wanted to know if the gentle-men who had signed the report would give their reasons why this contract should be continued. The speaker was quite abusive on the present con-tractor; and contended that, according to the act of consolidation, Councils had no right to award a con-tract without advertising proposals. Mr. WETHERILL said he had signed the report of the committee in order that it might get before the

the committee in order that it might get before the Chamber. He did not think the streets of the city could be cleansed for the amount now paid the pre-sent contractor. The committee themselves admit-that the terms of the contract have not been com-

Applause from the galleries, which was soon silenced by the Chair.] The laws are written, and we must carry them out. Even if laws are wrong, we must submit to them, if the court decrees them to be executed. He deemed it a high privilege to have an opportunity to submit to the decision of the judiciary.. Mr. FREEMAN said that we had nothing to do with the arrests of the Federal Government, and it is idle to bring that subject into this debate. He had not endorsed them, but that was not for us here to con-sider. What we have to deal with its the case of Mr. Duffield. By order of the court, the Democratic members of this Chamber are required to "restore Mr. Duffield's name to the roll." Mr. LEIGH moved that the committee be appoint-ed according to law, as in contested scats. The CHAIR decided the motion out of order. Mr. HARPER moved to appeal from the decision of

The CHAIR stated that it was a rule of Council that all committees shall be appointed by the presi-dent, unless otherwise ordered. Mr. TREGO had always respected the decisions of the president, but this time he took issue with him. The point taken was, how could he rule a motion out of order, when that motion has for its object the appointment of a committee, by order of Councils. The CHAIR decided that his objection to the ap-pointment of a committee, according to the order of the Ohamber, was out of order at this time. The motion to refer being still in order,

THE LATE DR. W. D. BRINCKLE .- At a day the Philadelphia City Guards, 157th Regiment P. V., Colonel William A. Gray, struck tents at Camp Puleston. At eleven o'clock they left by Deficitions argument yesterday, morning a few minutes after 10 o'clock, and concluded it shortly after 1, o'clock. Justice Thompson then charged the jury, carefully and fully going over the evidence in the case, and about 3 o'clock they retired, with permission to seal their verdict and bring it in ithis morning. The interest in the case continued unabated from the opening to the jury or trial with perday, morning.

Justice Thompson then called the week's list, in order to learn what cases were ready for trial. A number were answered to, and Sheriff Thompson was sent for, so that a special venire might issue to secure jurors for the case remaining to be tried, the present panel being exhausted. In this connection, the judge stated that but twenty-one out of the was afraid that a practice had grown up with the deputy sheriffs to neglect the return of jurors through favor, and he expressed a hope that particular care would be the inter to secure those drawn. Sheriff Thompson stated that he had already given interesting the favor, and he expressed a hope that particular care would be the further to secure those drawn.
