THE WAR.

MAJOR GENERAL BURNETT, with a large portion of his army, has been ordered to the north of the Gulf. He immediately prepared an expedition, under General Grover, for the occupation of Baton Rouge.

English Politics.

LORD PALMERSTON has been nearly half a century in high office, but on a grand deal of common sense, and industry, which, through the years, has not diminished.

Napoleon in America.

NAPOLEON'S designs upon or against Mexico are gradually becoming more and more apparent. Contracts have been made with responsible parties to supply the French army in Mexico with provisions.

NEW YORK CITY.

The capture of the "Alabama" by the British-Confederate privateer, was the great sensation of yesterday, and creates no small interest in the city.

General Butler.

The New York Herald justly compliments General Butler's administration of affairs in New Orleans, when it says that the future history of the rebellion will set down General Butler's civil and military government over New Orleans as wonderfully efficient, comprehensive, and successful.
