THE PRESS.-PHILADELPHIA, SATURDAY, JANUARY 3, 1863.

THE POLICE.

[Before Mr. Alderman Welding]

[liefore Mr. Alderman Welding] Alleged Robbery. Join Robinson and William Way were arraigned yesterday morning, having been arrested at the New York Saloon on the charge of highway robbery, by Reserve Officer Wilson. The evidence against the accused is that, on New Year's eve, a Mr. Higgins, belonging to Pittaburg, Pa., having placed his bng-gage in readiness at the Pennsylvania Raikroad de-pot, to start for Pittaburg, thought he would take a stroll about town, he having several hours spare time. On mingling with the crowd on Cheatnut street, he fell in with the company of the defendants, who seemed to be very clever and inclined to be social. Mr. Higgins was not insensible to the gen-tiemanly deportment of the strangers, and kindly invited them to take & social drink with him. They did not refuse.

invited them to take & social drink with him. They did not refuse. The New York Saloon being handy, the three men entered therein, and the refreshments were called for. Mr. Higgins tendered a $10 Treasury note in payment, and put the change in his pocket-book. After a while he started to go away, and the defend-ants accompanied him into the street. He alleges they knocked him down, and robbed him of all the money he had, being the change that he had received from the ten-dollar note. The two men escaped. The loser remained in town, and on Thursday night he saw the two men in the New York Saloon, and, calling the aid of Officer Wilson, they were at once taken into custody. We have quite a number of strangers in Philadelphia at the present time. The fate of gMr. Higgins may warn them to look out for clever, gentlemanly, social. strangers. The defend-ants were committed to answer.

[Before Mr. Alderman McMullin.]

[Before Mr. Alderman McMullin.] A Trie of Professionals.. Bernard McIhenny, Richard Potter, and Frank Morris, alias Tom Mullin, were arraigned yesterday morning, on the charge of picking pockets at the Musical Fund Hall, on New Year's afternoon and even-ning. The bread bakers of Philadelphia gave their an-nual ball on Thursday afternoon and evening; this time being necessary to afford the day and night hands an opportunity to indulge in the festivity of such an occasion. As a general thing, the bakers belong to a class of citizens who well know how to enjoy themselves.

enjoy themselves. At the ball three persons lost their watches, and this information was given to the police. On look-ing around, the officers discovered the three defending around, the officers discovered the three defend-ants, whom they regard as professional thieves. There was nothing found upon their persons, and the case went over for another hearing, to afford the losers of the watches a chance to appear and iden-tify, if possible, the accused. It may be that they cannot be held on the present charge, in the event of which they will probably be committed under the ninety-day law. The prisoners are well known to the old detectives.

[Before Mr. Alderman Dougherty.] Pig-Catching Extraordinary.

A case was preliminarily investigated yesterday morning, by the recently elected alderman of the Fifth ward, W. W. Dougherty, that forcibly re-minded us of the old nursery couplet, that— "John, John the piper's son, Stole a pig and away he run."

Stole a pig and away he run." It seems that a man giving the name of Arthur Briggs, was attracted by the fine appearance of a pig, hanging at the doorway of a public house at Fourth and Cherry streets, on Thursday evening. It was intended for raffing. Briggs, however, thought that he might as well take a chance at it as anybody else, and put himself upon the? hazard of the die." lifted if from the hook, and started down the street as fast as he well could, under the weight of pork. He was observed—the alarm was given— stop thief wasshouted—the proprietor of the tavern caught the fugilitie, and with the aid of the officers, took him to the Cherry-street station-house. The evidence was positive against him. He had nothing to say in his own defence. After a hearing the de-fendant was committed in defaut of $500 bail.

[Before Mr. Alderman Beitler.]

[Before Mr. Alderman Beitler.] Alleged Larceny. Three persons, doing business, as a firm, on Arch street, were arraigned before the alderman, at the Central Station, yesterday afternoon, on the charge of the larceny of some army clothing, the property of Mr. J. F. Rosenberg. The recovery of these goods, on Wednesday night, was duly chronicled in The Press on the following morning. The evidence, so far, is slightly circumstantial. It is stated the de-fendants can make a good defence. The case went over for another hearing.

[Before Mr. U. S. Commissioner Hearlett.]

Encouraging Deserters. John Rockey was araigned before the U. S. Com-missioner yesterday afternoon on the charge of en-ticing John Keyser and John Harris, and others, to desert from the army in which they had enlisted. The accused was simply put under bonds to appear at a future time. It is said that the "substitute burgings?" has been partial on by "ischarment" to business" has been carried on by "sharpers" to so great an extent that desertion is the result. The developments in this case will prove to be of more than usual interest.

[Before Mr. Alderman Miller.] An Assault with a Pitchfork. An Assault with a Fitchark. Francis Keller, who resides somewhere on the Baltimore pike, in the southern part of the Twentyfourth ward, was arraigned, yesterday, on the charge of assaulting, with a pitchfork, a neighbor named McCue. The testimony elicited the following facts : A month or two ago Mr. McCue traded a cow to the defendant, and was to receive from him four bushels of white potatoes, to balance the account. Mr Mc., not being in any want of potatoes at the time, per-mitted them to remain until New Year's day. He then proceeded to the farm of Mr. Keller and asked for them. Mr. Keller asked him why he did not call for them before. "Simply because I didn't want them at the time,"

"Simply because I durit want them at the time," he replied. "Well," rejoined Mr. K., "potatoes have riz since then, and are worth twice as much now; I can only give you two bushels, and thus we'll square the ac-count." "I won't take two bushels."

"I won't take two bushels." "Then you'll take none." "We'll see about that." Finally, an angry discussion arose between the two men, and it is alleged that Keller seized a pitch-fork and made a dash at NeCue. The latter, being afraid of the fork thus disposed of, sought safety in flight, and was soon upon the public highway. Kel-ler was held to bail in the sum of $400, to answer at the Court of Ouarter Sessions. he Court of Quarter Sessions.

READ THE FOLLOWING CAREFULLY. About twelve months ago I had a severe attack of Diabetes, attended with other difficulties too numerous to mention. My desire for drink was constant, and al-though I drank gallons per day, my thirst was never allayed; I was only able to sleep at short intervals, which seemed like a trance. The mucous surface of my month and hroat had become so parched and feverish, that I was in constant insery. I was also suffiring from all the horrors of Dyspepsia, loss of appetite, Nan-see, and frequent and severe attacks of vomiting; and so prostrated was my general system, that I was scarcely able to move about. I had availed myself of the science and skill of distinguished medical mon, both of the Allo-pathic and Homeopathic school, and exhausted their catalogue of remedics, but found only temporary relief. In this condition, when every ray of hope seemed para-lyzed, I heard of the discovery of Professor Bolles in the use of Electricity, and the wonders he was performing in curing disease, and placed myself and friends, in two operations my Diabetes was controlled, and other diffi-entities soon disappeared; my appetite has returned, sleep undisturbed, and, in fact, I feel like one made anew. I would further state that I have seen other remark-able cures performed by Prof. Bolles, and would advise the discased to call at 1220 Walnut street, and he restored to health. I shall be glad to give any one information calling on me. Read the following from a preacher of the Methodist Episcopal Church, No. 1633 Holmuth street, Philadelphia.
