Yesterday morning, at 10 o'clock, in pursuance of the act of Assembly, the new City Councils assembled for the purpose of organizing. As it was generally anticipated that there would be considerable trouble in effecting an organization, an immense crowd of spectators was present. The State-house tow was crowded, and much interest was manifested by the friends of the two parties. The proceedings of yesterday were as follows: SELECT BRANCH.

This Chamber was called to order at a quarter past ten o'clock, by Mr. Rey, chief clerk, who called the roll of members who hold over. Mr. Catherwood was in his seat, and his name was called with the rest.

The credentials of the new members were then handed in and read by the clerk.

Mr. O'Rourke, who claims an election in the Twenty-fifth ward, in place of Mr. Catherwood, was present; but he was not called upon to present his certification. On motion, the name of Mr. Zane, who left his certificate at home, and had gone to the Prothonotary's office to get one, was placed upon the roll. Mr. Z. subsequently presented his certificate, and was super in was sworn in was sworn in.

The members were then qualified by the clerk.

The first business in order was the election of Mr. Armstrong nominated Samuel G. King (D). Mr. Lynd nominated Henry Davis (R). Mr. LYND nominated Henry Davis (R).
Mr. Lynd (R) was also nominated.
The CLERK then proceeded to call the roll. Three llots were taken, and on each the vote stood as ballots were taken, and on each the vote stood as follows:

For Samuel G. King—Messis. Armstrong, Baird, Barron, Catherwood, Davis, Harris, Kamerly, Marcus, McElroy, Nicholson, Ricketts, Weaver—12.
For Henry Davis—Messis. Ginnodo, Greble, King, Lynd, Manuel, Miller, Paullin, Riche, Spering. Uhler, Wetherill, Zane—12.
For James Lynd—Mr. Brightly—1.
As there was no election, a motion was made, and carried, to adjourn for an hour.
During the adjournment a private caucus of both sides of the house was held, Mr. Brightly refusing to take part on either side. to take part on either side.

At 12 o'clock the Chamber reassembled. The crowd on the outside had by this time become immense. The gallery was closely packed, and the jam in the ante-chamber was so great that the members could At twenty minutes after twelve Mr. Armstrong moved the clerk call the roll, when only the following hembers answered to their names: Messrs. Armstrong, Baird, Barron, Catherwood, Harris, Kamerly, King, Marcus, McElroy, Nicholson, Ricketts, Weaver—12.

Mr. Brightly and a number of the Republican members refused to answer to their names, as all had not yet come into the room.

A call of the house was asked for by Mr. Cathery wood, when it was suggested that the rest of members would be present in a few moments were Mr. CATHERWOOD then withdrew his most their The motion for the call of the house were their them.

Mr. King voted for Mr. Armstrong. 1
Mr. Lynd, having received the majority of the votes, was declared elected, and was escorted to the chair by Mr. King, who also administered to him the oath of the office.

Mr. Lynd addressed the Chamber in a few words, and pledged himself to discharge his duties to the best of his abilities.

The next business in order was the election of a hief clerk.
Mr. Brightly nominated Hen. C. Corfield.
Mr. Wetherill nominated J. Barclay Harding, Mr. Weaver Emanuel Rey. The vote on first ballot stood as follows: Harding.....12

Lorneid A motion was now made to adjourn for one A motion was now made to adjourn for one hour, which was agreed to by a vote of 13 yeas to 12 nays. The Chamber reassembled at the appointed hour, President Lynd in the chair.
One ballot was taken which resulted in the election of Mr. Corfield by the following vote:

All the Democrats, also Mr. Brightly, voted for Mr. Corfield. The announcement of the election of Mr. Corfield was received with loud and rapturous After the chief clerk had been sworn in by the President, the Chamber proceeded to elect an assistant clerk. Horace Martin, Dem., and Benjamin H. Haines, Rep., were nominated. One ballot was taken as follows: Mr. Martin was thereupon declared elected assist-

At the was thereupon declared elected assistant clerk.

For messenger Mr. Fougeray and Mr. Hemple were nominated. The vote cast was Fougeray 13; Hemple 12, resulting in the election of the former. At this time Mr. Quun, of Common Council, introduced himself, and stated that Common Council had organized by the selection of its old officers. Mr. HARPER, at the same time, made his appearance, and stated that Common Council had organized by the selection of other officers. [See Common Council report.]

Mr. Amstrand moved that the organization as reported by Mr. Quin be recognized. Mr. Armstrong moved that the organization as reported by Mr. Quin be recognized.

Mr. Wetherill moved to amend by recognizing the organization as reported by Mr. Harper.

Mr. Brightly said as he understood this case, one of these organizations had a member whose seat had been declared vacant by the old Councils. Until the couris declared that this gentleman (Mr. Duffield) was entitled to his seat he could not recognize him. The same organization also contained a member from the Twenty-first ward whom he thought not entitled to his seat. He could not vote to recognize an organization of this kind, and should, therefore, vote for the other.

Mr. Wetherill replied that, while the gentleman took one view of the case, there was another which he had overlooked. He alluded to the case of the Third and Fifth wards, where one member more was sent than the ward was entitled to. Another member was elected by one vote—perhaps that was sent than the ward was entitled to. Another member was elected by one vote—perhaps that cast by himself. Inasmuch as there is doubt in both cases, would it not be better to lay both communications on the table for future consideration?

Mr. BRIGHTLY replied, and said he did not allude to the Third and Fith wards, because one of these cases overbalanced the other. One organization has taken in two members not entitled to seats, while the other has only taken in one. This still gives them the majority and the organization. the other has only taken in one. This still gives them the majority and the organization.

Mr. Davis said this was a monstrous doctrine for the gentlemen to advocate at the commencement of their term. He hoped neither branch would be recognized until properly organized.

Dr. Uhler defended Mr. Charles T. Jones, the member elect from the Twenty-first ward, and alluded to by Mr. Brightly.

Mr. Miller arose and said that, after their organization two gentlemen appear before us and profess each to represent a body of Common Council. We have yet to learn which of these two bodies has the largest numbers. Who knows, and who will inform us? It is not right, under present circumstances, to ask that either of these bodies be recognized. If we proceed and cut short the matter now by our votes, the courts will throw the whole thing back on us

Mr. Riche desired, before the vote was taken, to enter his protest against any such proceeding. No one here can tell which of these bodies should be recognized. He asked the members not to do that which they must regret. which they must regret.

The yeas and nays were called on recognizing the organization, as reported by Mr. King. This passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Messrs. Armstrong, Baird, Barron, Bright, ly, Catherwood, Harris, Kamerly, King, Marcus McElroy, Nicholson, Ricketts, and Weaver—13.

NAYS—Messrs. Davis, Ginnodo, Grebie, Manuel, Miller, Paullin, Riche, Spering, Uhler, Wetherill, Zane, and Lynd, (President)—12.

The question was, therefore, decided in the affirmative. firmative.

A motion was then made to appoint a committee to wait upon the Mayor to inform him the Chamber was organized and ready for business. This was opposed, but passed by a vote of 13 to 12.

The CHAIR appointed Messrs. Armstrong, Wetherill, and Ginnodo.

Messrs. Wetherill and Ginnodo refused to serve on the committee, and Messrs. Brightly and Kamerly were substituted. On motion, Messrs. King and Davis were appointed a committee to inform Common Council of their organization. Mr. Davis refused to serve, and Mr. Baird was substituted. He also relused to serve, and Mr. Barron was appointed.

A motion was appointed.

A motion was made to take a recess.

Mr. GINNODO moved to amend by adjourning.

The CHAIR decided, as the committee were abse. he would not put the question to a vote until their return.

Mr. Davis thought it was an assumption of power for the Chair to refuse to put the question to adjourn.
The committee to wait on Common Council re-The committee to wait on Common Council returned and made their report.

Mr. Millen said he held in his hand a protest, which he desired read. It was as follows: We protest against any recognition of either of the bodies calling themselves the Common Council of Philadelphia, and desire this protest to be entered on the minutes.

Signed by E. Spencer Miller, E. C. Pauling, John Q. Ginnodo, H. Davis, Ed. Greble, Wm. M. Uhler, John P. Wetherill, Joshua Spering, Geo. Inman Riche, And. Zane, H. Manuel.

The committee to wait on the Mayor returned and reported having attended to their duty.

Mr. Weaven here presented a communication signed by certain citizens of the Twenty-fourth ward, complaining of E. Spencer Miller holding a seat in Select Council. The communication sets forth that Philip Lowry received a majority of all the votes east. [It will be remembered that the ballot-boxes that Mr. Miller was fairly elected.]

The Chair decided the communication was not in form, as the affidavit attached was signed by two and not by five presons. and not by five persons.

The communication was then withdrawn.

The communication was then withdrawn.
The old rules for the government of the Chamber were adopted, on motion of Mr. Kird.
The Chamber then adjourned until Thursday next. COMMON BRANCH. As the State House bell commenced to strike ten o'clock, there being a very full attendance in Common Council chamber, Mr. Wilson Kern called the Council to orderd, when Mr. HARPER moved that Isaac Sulger be appointed temporary clerk.

Mr. Kern called the chamber to order, and re-Mr. Kerr called the chamber to order, and re-fused to put the question on Mr. Harper's motion. Mr. Sulgen proceeded to the desk and began to call the roll of members. Mr. Lutts, clerk of the old Councils, also called the roll at the same time.

The Republicans answered to the roll-call of Mr. Sulger.
The Democrats answered to the roll-call of Mr.

The Democrate answered to the roll-call of Mr. Lutts.

Each announced a quorum of members present.

Mr. Thego was nominated for president.

On motion, his election was declared unanimous.

Mr. Kerr was also nominated for president.

On motion, his election was also declared unanimous. mous.
Common Council now presented a very rare anomaly, two presidents having been elected unanimously, and both discharging the duties of their high office simultaneously.
Mr. Kerr sat in the large cushioned chair of president sident.

Mr. Trego contented himself with a plain caneon motion, Mr. Kenn appointed a committee to wait upon the Mayor, and inform his Honor that Common Council was duly organized.

On motion, a similar committee was appointed by Mr. Trego.

Abraham Stuart assistant clerk, and Messrs. Zimmerman and Hall messengers.

The committee appointed by Mr. Trego to wait upon the Mayor now returned. They reported that "the Mayor would communicate when both Chambers were organized."

The committee appoined by Mr. Kerr, for the same purpose, reported that "the Mayor had nothing to say." Bay."

It was now one o'clock, and the prospect of an organization was as slim as when the members first collected together.

The chamber was still crowded, the two presidents occupied their seats, and the members talked and chatted together, walked the floor, and smoked cigars. Some had their hats on; some read newspapers, and almost all reclined in their seats, with their eet upon their desks.
Thus the valuable time of the City Fathers was expended, until 3 o'clock, when
A committee from Select Council was introduced, conveying the information that the body which they represented had organized and was now ready to proceed to business.

Mr. Quin said that the committee appointed by Mr. Kert to wait upon Select Council and inform that body that Common Council had organized by the election of Mr. Kerr, had discharged their business, and that the organization of Common Council had been recognized by a formal vote of Select Council. Mr. Baird, of the Democratic committee to wait upon the Mayor, reported that they had another in-terview with the Mayor, and that he peremptorily declined recognizing Common Council as at present organized.

BIr. Simpson, of the Republican committee, made MIT. SIMPSON, of the Republican committee, made a similar report.

MIT. LEIGH offered a resolution that the stated meetings of Councils be held on Thursdays.

The Democrats did not vote.

MIT. TRIGG declared the resolution adopted.

MIT. QUIN moved that the rules of the last Council be adopted for the government of this Council, until otherwise ordered.

The Republicans did not vote.

MIT. KERR declared the motion adopted.

MIT. QUIN moved to adjourn. Agreed to, the Republicans not voting.

Mr. Quin moved to adjourn. Agreed to, the Republicans not voting.
Mr. Sirrson moved to adjourn. Agreed to, the Democrats not voting, and thus ended the farce. The Democratic members evince a perfect indifference as to the organization of Common Council, and show no desire for a compromise. They still retain the heads of departments, and all the municipal patronage which fell to them last year. If Common Council should not be recognized by the Mayorduring the next six months, they will be the gainers, for all the "loaves and fishes" are theirs until some body else is declared to be entitled thereto. As 12 Chamber stood yesterday, there were 26 Republications body else is declared to be entitled thereto. As the Chamber stoody esterday, there were 26 Republish and 26 Democrats. MONTGOMERY COUNTY.-This new Episcopal church is located in that beautiful section of Lower Merion township, near the intersection of the Merion turnpike and the road leading to Manayunk, and about half a mile north of Merion Station, on the Pennsylvania Central Raifroad. This neighbor-hood is rapidly filling up, and now offers inducethe Pennsylvania Central Railroad. This neighborhood is rapidly filling up, and now offers inducements to our cifizens for summer residences by reason of the increased railroad facilities in that direction. The contract for the church has been awarded to a competent builder, and the plan and drawings do great credit to the taste of the architect employed by the vestry. The church building is in the Gothic style, having a front of twenty-five feet by fifty feet in depth. It consists of a nave, with a wide central aisle and two rows of open benches. The chancel, although under the same roof, is distinct, being divided from the nave by an equi-lateral pointed arch. The chancel is semi-octagonal, with a concave ceiling, intersecting at the centre. Over the communion table is a three-light foliated window of stained glass. The rail is circular, on plan of small columns and pointed arches. The vestry and robing rooms are on either side. Three principal trussed rafters of white pine, dressed and chamfered, support the roof, which, together with the open roof, is stained and varnished, as is also the interior wood work and fittings. The walls rough cast in tint. Externally the framing is weatherboarded vertically—the joints covered with chamfered battens. The front gable terminates with a neat bell-cot, beneath which is a crusped rose window and the entrance porch. The ridge of the roof has tre-foiled cresting. The details are all of the plain, simple, and expressive characteristics of the early English style, and cannot fail to make a neat and appropriate rural chapel. The church will be ready for service early in the coming month of July.

ARRIVAL OF A GUNBOAT FROM PORT ROYAL.-The United States gunboat Cimerone, Commander Maxwell Woodhull, arrived yesterday from Port Royal, S. C., which place she left on the 1st instant. The Cimerone has now been in commission some six months, during which time she has been most six months, during which time she has been most actively employed. She left this port last summer very hurriedly for the James river, where McClellan's army was at that time. She had two month's service on that river during which time she beat off a rifle battery opposite Harrison's Landing, after an engagement of two hours. On McClellan's recrossing the Chickahominy she was ordered to join Admiral Wilkes' squadron.

On her way to Nassau she encountered a gale of wind, and was compelled to put into Port Royal in distress, where she was surveyed and condemned as unseaworthy. distress, where she was surveyed and condemned as unseaworthy.

Batteries having been erected in St. John's river, by the rebels, she was detailed by Admiral Dupont, in company with the Paul Jones, to reduce them. This was accomplished after two engagements with them, and the river perfectly cleared, and the Cimerone left to take charge and prevent their reconstruction, having some two hundred miles of river coast to look after. This duty was entirely performed, besides accomplishing the destruction of salt works, etc., in the vicinity.

The Cimerone has been ordered home for the necessary repairs. The following is a list of her officers: officers:
Commander, Maxwell Woodhull; lieutenant commander, Bush B. Taylor; acting masters, George E. Thurston, Ed. D. March, S. A. Waterbury; chief engineer, E. A. C. Du Plaine; acting assistant paymaster, D. W. Hale; assistant surgeon. E. S. Olcott; second assistant engineer, Reynolds Driver; third assistant engineers, G. J. Burnap, G. W. Beard, David Jones; acting master's mates, P. J. Blarkoe, Augustus Lippitt, William H. Herring; captain's clerk, Charles H. Poor, Jr.; gunner, John Caulk.

THE CORN EXCHANGE REGIMENT. Messrs. Samuel L. Ward, Samuel Witmer, and John K. Wagner, the committee appointed by the Coin Exchange Association to visit their regiment and present to them their New Year's gifts, have returned. They conveyed to the army 352 packages of goods, every one of which was delivered into the hands of the parties to whom they were directed. They also distributed among the men a large number of gum blankets. They are now-furnished with more comforts than any other regiment attached to the Army of the Potomac.

Colonel Charles M. Prevost, who was severely wounded in the fight at Blackford Ford, is still in this city, and slowly recovering from his wounds. Major Charles P. Herring, who was wounded at Fredericksburg, has nearly recovered; and will return to the regiment in a few days.

Capt. Sharswood, of Company C, who was detailed for recruiting service in this city, left yesterday morning for the camp with a squad of fifteen or twenty men.

The wounded of the regiment have been properly cared for, and most of the convalescents have returned to duty. As far as could be ascertained, no serious case of illness prevails in the regiment. returned. They conveyed to the army 452 packages

CALEDONIAN BENEFICIAL SOCIETY.—The annual tea-drinking gathering of this society took place at Sansom-street Hall on New-Year's evening.
Over 600 of both sexes, and literally of all ages, were present, under the presidency of Mr. William Stuart. Mr. D. McIntyre, Mr. James Taylor, Mr. McGowen, and other singers, amateur and professional, kindly contributed to the enjoyment of the company. The society has seventy members, nearly all hard-working Scotchmen. Each member pays ten cents a week, and, in case of sickness, is paid 33 a week. In the event of death, $20 are paid out of the fund towards funeral expenses. The society winds up every year, and then starts anew. This is winds up every year, and then starts anew. This is the best guarantee against defalcation. The officers for 1863 are: Mr. William Stuart, president; Mr. Alexander Gordon, treasurer; Mr. Duncan Wright,

A FESTIVE OCCASION.—On New Year's afternoon the artillery regiment of Colonel Segebarth, which is now awaiting marching orders, at the camp on Cooper's creek, were handsomely entertained by the ladies of Camden, at the new Baptist Church on Fourth street. Over one hundred roast turkies, together with myriads of delicacies of a miscellaneous nature, were piled upon the long tables, and thousands of flags decked the interior of the church. After the soldiers had amply satisfied the interior wan pitty and nativity received and apply satisfied. the church. After the soldiers had amply satisfied the inner man, pithy and patriotic speeches were made by different clergymen present, and a resolution of thanks was tendered to the members of the church for the use of the building, and everything passed off in the most joyous manner. After a short street parade, the regiment returned to camp cheering for the ladies of Camden.

Its tail was twenty degrees long and one degree broad (or about twice the diameter of the moon) at its widest part. It appeared to be moving from the northwest to the southeast, and nearly in a horizontal line, and when in the northeast it was ten degrees below the stars Castor and Pollux, and about thirty degrees vertically above the horizon. High buildings prevented the entire passage of the meteor from being seen.

THE POLICE. An Important Arrest of Alleged Forgers.
Mr. Robert Hague, the Chief of Police of the city of Pittsburg, Messrs. Edward Carlin and Samuel Henderson, of the detective force of Philadelphia, yesterday arrested two men on the charge of being orgers. The prisoners were taken to the Central Station, where they were detained for a hearing, which will probably take place at two o'clock this Sternoon.
One of them is named Charles F. Melville, One of them is named Charles F. Melville, alias Manning, alias Tappan; the other is Benjamin F. Bmory, alias Austin, alias Major John Dana, paymaster of the United States army. It seems that on October 7th Mr. Melville presented a check for $353, at the banking house of Messrs. Ferree & Co., on Third street. He represented that he had just received it from parties in New York. The banking firm not being intimate with the signatures referred the documents to Mr. Drexel, who pronounced them genuine. The check was, therefore, cashed by Ferree & Co. Melville boarded at the public house of Mr. Lukens, near Market and Twelfth streets. He induced the proprietor to go with him to the banking house to vouch for him. THE INITIATORY STEPS TAKEN. It seems that early in October an advertisement appeared in one of the papers that if Captain Melville, of the 88th Pennsylvania, was in town, he might see his brother by calling at Lukens' Hotel. On the morning the advertisement appeared a lady called at the hotel. This was the wife of Captain Melville. She was introduced to her supposed brother-in-law, and had a friendly chat with him for court in the She appreciaged berself gratified at spening.

She expressed herself gratified at seeing her husband's brother for the first time in her life, of course, he acted accordingly as the exigencies the case seemed to require. was ascertained that on December 26, 1862, a was ascertained that on December 26, 1862, a meck had been drawn by W. F. Emory and Charles Manning, and cashed by the City Bank of Cleveland, Ohio, for the sum of $964 40. This purported to have been signed by Edward Parsons's Co.; madepayable at the Bank of the Republic, New York. In a few days the check was discovered to be a forgery. The parties, however, suddenly left the city, and the next we hear of them they draw a check on the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Bank, at Pittsburg, for the sum of $3.34. The sum of at Pittsburg, for the sum of $3,934. The sum of $3,000 was paid, the remainder being left with the bank officer to send, by Adams' Express, to Philadelphia by the train of the next day. CHIEF HAGUE APPEARS. The discovery of this heavy forgery at Pittsburg was made known to Mr. Robert Hague, chief of police of that city, and from certain indications he thought the parties may have come to Philadelphia. A trick of this kind is sometimes performed by heavy forgers: that of ordering a balance to be sent to a certain place, as though the forger intended to go there himself, when, in reality, he does not intend to go. This is resorted to in order to put the police detectives off the track. Chief Hague, however, came on to Philadelphia and had as intension. ever, came on to Philadelphia, and had an interview with Officers Carlin, Henderson, and Chief Franklin, and these four men adopted the best measure to secure success. They, therefore, made up a DECOY PACKAGE of money, and entrusting the secret of the affair to the proper officer at Adams' Express office, that gentleman was anxious to serve the cause of justice. He was instructed to say, if any man called for a package, such as that expected from Pittsburg, to play off on him a little, and to tell him to come again. This, we understand, was done in a style highly pleasing to the sharp defectives. They were sent for, and promptly did they respond. At about quarter past nine o'clock, yesterday morning, the two detectives were very busily engaged in looking about Adams & Co.'s Express office. Presently a gente 1-looking man, wearing spectacles, stepped up to the delivery clerk's desk, and asked if the remittance had come to hand. The clerk responded in the tance had come to hand. The clerk responded in the affirmative, and handed THE PACKAGE o the strange gentleman. Just about this moment.

when everything, in the opinion of the officers, was ripe, and the fruit worth gathering, Detective Hen-derson made himself known, and took the suspected individual into custody and ran him into the Central Station. This man turned out to be Mr. Emory, who had answered the advertisement above alluded to. He said he boarded at the Ashland House. The officers, on proceeding to that establishment, ascertained that such was the fact, but he had registered his name as Major Dana, U.S. A. His accomplice had yet to be arrested. This was, perhaps, a difficult matter, because none of the officers knew him. Chance, however, favored them. While Henderson was attending more particularly to Emory. Mesers was attending more particularly to Emory, Messrs. Hague, of Pittsburg, and Carlin found it convenient to keep the Ashland House under surveillance. They soon ascertained from the proprietor of the Ashland that a note had been left directed to Major Dana. "Let me have that," said Carlin. The worthy host produced it. The officer read it, as follows: "Please call at 428 North Eighth street to-day.
"CHARLIE,"

Messrs. Hague and Carlin answered the note by going at once to the place indicated in the note. They had some difficulty in getting in. They rang the front door bell several times; no one answered. The officers were sure somebody was in the tenement. They firmly believed they were recognised by some one from the window. In this emergency it was agreed that Chief Hague should remain at the front of the house and arrest anybody who should come out. Carlin was to go to the rear and if it should be necessary he was to FORCE THE HOUSE and deport himself as the occasion should warrant. The back door gave way under outside pressure, and the officer went in. He found nobody but females beneath that roof. He arranged matters that not a single individual should leave the premises. Between 12 and 10'clock success crowned their efforts. Charles Melville arrived and rung the bell at the front door. From certain descriptions already obtained by the officers, they were sure he was the very man who desired an interview with Major-Dana. When arrested he affected much surprise, but yielded gracefully to the power of the detectives, and accompanied them to the Central Station, where he met his companion, Mr. Emery. The interview possessed no interesting incidents. MONEY FOUND. The officers found upon the person of Emory $2,140, and on Melville, mostly in United States treasury notes, $2,100. There were also recovered a considerable amount in Confederate notes and scrip, treasury notes, $2,100. There were also recovered a considerable amount in Confederate notes and scrip, of various denominations, all of which are supposed to be forged. They are, of course, about equivalent in value to the most genuine kind of the issues of the bogus Confederacy. Besides this, lots of type, blank checks, papers, jewelry, and other things of value were recovered, at the apartments of the two prisoners. It is alleged these are the men who did forgeries to the extent of $7,000, at Newark, N. J., about the same amount at Lock Haven, Pa., and four or five thousand at Jersey Shore, Pa. The description of the men who successfully passed the forged checks seems to answer very well for the two prisoners, except perhaps that of the Lock Haven forgers. There has yet been no public hearing, but the officers assure us they have the parties "dead to rights." They are regarded as the most expert men of this profession, that have thus become publicly known, since the days of Buchanan Cross. Parties have been telegraphed for, and it is supposed those from Newark will be in attendance, at two o'clock this afternoon. It is intended to send the prisoners to Pittsburg this evening.

The following is all that we can gain as to the antecedents of the prisoners: Mr. Emory was born at Bangor, Maine, and a few years ago was a member of the bar, and practised for some time in Boston. Here he was engaged in a heavy case, and was finally arrested on the charge of forging some depositions. He was tried, convicted, and sentenced to five years' imprisonment. Whether he was liberated or served his time out we could not learn. The next we hear of him he was editing a paper at Baltimore, and was forced to leave that position and city early after the rebellion commenced. He came to Philadelphia, and entered Rush's Cavalry as a private, and served in this capacity for one year. He then obtained a position in the commissary department, and this is the last heard of him until the present arrest. He is a fluent speaker—says he belonged to the staff of General Fremont—was wounded in his little finger, a portion of this having been shot away during a battle. It is alleged that he is the one who does the filling of the checks. Melville gets them cashed.

In regard to the last-named person very little is known about him. He was born in Baltimore. His parents reside in Boston, Massachusetts. THE ACCUSED.

AUTOGRAPHS.

Among the many papers found in the personal effects of the prisoners was one of the election circulars of F. Carroll Brewster, the recently elected Republican city solicitor. This document contained the lithographic autographs of a number of the most influential business men and firms in Philadelphia. The circular furnished the idea of the signatures, and several checks that had not yet been presented were also found, signed and filled in, excepting the numbers. The arrest is animportant one, and will form a bright page in the annals of the police of Philadelphia. AUTOGRAPHS.

[Before Mr. Alderman Beitler.] Military Fisticuffs.

Lieut Geo. E. Johnson, of Col. Murphy's Regiment, was arraigned before Alderman Beitler, yeslerday afternoon, on the charge of committing an assault and battery on Lieut. Col. Charles Parham. The scene is alleged to have taken place at the recruiting quarters, Jones' Hotel, on Chestnut street, above Sixth. Lieut. Johnson was taken prisoner at Front Royal, at the time Stonewall Jackson made a raid up the Shenandoah Valley. He, with most all who were captured, stood his ground and battled with the enemy. Lieut. Col. Parham, of the regiment, escaped capture. After the safe retreat of the main part of Gen. Banks' division to the Potomac, Lieut. Col. Parham, arrived in Philadelphia, suffering, it was reported at that time, from a wound he had received. The evidence developed the interesting quarters above mentioned, some rather taunting remarks ensued between the Lieutenant Colonel and Lieut. Johnson, during which the latter implied cowardice, and said that it was just such persons as the Lieutenant Colonel that caused some of the soldiers to be taken prisoners. It is said that the lie was given to Lieut. Johnson, and the next moment the parties came in physical conflict, the Lieutenant rather making the advance. The Lieutenant Military Fisticuffs. lie was given to Lieut. Johnson, and the next moment the parties came in physical conflict, the Lieutenant rather making the advance. The Lieutenant Colonel received a pretty severe blow on the nose, causing that important organ to bleed freely. The parties were separated. After a hearing, the alderman required the defendant to enter $300 ball to answer at court.

Before Mr. Alderman Shane.]

A Somewhat Singular Case.

James Belshey and James Madden are the names given by a couple of men arrigned 'yesterday morning before 'Alderman Shane. They were charged with burglary. It seems that at about 2 o'clock in the morning two men with their faces blackened forcibly entered the house of Mr. Belshey, on Seventh street, near Poplar. They proceeded to a bureau and took therefrom a five-dollar note that was wrapped in a piece of calico. Mrs. Belshey, was awakened from her sleep, and screamed. One of the parties threw a pitcher at her, and she sprang from the window into the street. Fortunately she was not much injured. From some conversation overheard by neighbors it is believed that one of the men was Mr. Belshey, the husband. He was recognised by his voice. It seems that when the defendants were arrested, their faces were clean, but their hands looked as if they had been recently blackened. These are about all the developments made in what may be considered a rather novel affair. The parties were held to await a further hearing. [Before Mr. Alderman Shane.]

a further hearing. [Before Mr. Alderman White 1 A Frenk of Mania-n-Potu.

Yesterday afternoon a very respectable and well-known citizen, Mr. Charles Neff, who resides on Carter street, above Second, was arrested on the complaint of a man giving his name as John E. Webb, of Cape May, charging the prisoner with having robbed him of $30 on Sunday evening. Webb seemed to talk in a sensible manner at first. He stated that he had arrived from Cape May, and met with Mr. Neff on Sunday night, who robbed him of his money. After a few questions by the magistrate, who seemed to distrust the prosecutor, although the evidence so far was consistent, the complainant further testified that he had the money yesterday morning; went up town, where he met Mr. Neff; then, after a while, he came down town, missed his pocket book, and he thought Mr. Neff had taken it. He applied to one of the reserve police, who made the arrest. Mr. Neff offered to prove his entire innocence; he had not been out of his house; has not been north of Market street for a long time. The alderman finally, after close-questioning the prosecutor, came to the conclusion that the fellow was laboring under an attack of mania-a-potu. The case was therefore dismissed. A Frenk of Mania-a-Potu.

Lombard streets, and had something to drink. A difficulty ensued about the payment, and presently Ellis sprang behind the bar and seized an oysterknife, with which he assaulted the proprietor. Several parties interfered and prevented Ellis from inflicting any injury with the weapon. He was ordered to enter bail to answer at court. [Before Mr. Alderman Harmer.]

Arrest of Boys.

Owing to many complaints lodged at the Mayor's office, of gangs of boys, especially in the southern part of the city, meeting on Sundays, especially, to engage in pelling each other with brickbats and other missiles, the police took into custody about a dozen of the most active, on Sunday afternoon. The fronts of handsome houses have been defaced by these reckless gangs of boys; windows have been broken, and street-lamps smashed. The paoners taken on Sunday were arraigned yester ap before Alderman Harmer, who, after a patial hearing, bound the accused over to be of future odd behavior, and to keep the peace. and to keep the peace. Doings in the Quarter sessions Yesterday. Doings in the Quarter essions restorday.

The whole of yesterday, session was consumed in the trial of Andrew Lovery policies. The evidence charged with selling toonsisted principally of a witagainst the defendat he purchased a ticket from a ness who alleged sence of one of the defendants, and person in the same number of lottery tickets in their the finding possessified was conducted by F. C. Brewster and The Bougherty, Esqs. The character of the pro-Dayor for truth was attacked, and it was also harded that he had instituted the prosecution for the purpose of extorting money from the defendants. Just before the hour of adjournment Judge Ludlow charged the jury, and gave them permission to seal their verdiet, and bring it in this morning.

The object of the following certificates is to show that cures at 1220 WALNUT Street are permanent and reliable. The first cure was performed nearly three years ago, the second was performed nearly one year ago, the third about one year, and hundreds more of like cases might be shown.

READ THE FOLLOWING CAREFULLY.

About twelve months ago I had a severe attack of Diabetes, attended with other difficulties too numerous to mention. My desire for drink was constant, and although I drank gallons per day, my thirst was never allayed; I was only able to sleep at short intervals, which seemed like a trance. The mucous surface of my mouth and throat had become so parched and feverish, that I was in constant misery. I was also suffering from all the horrors of Dyspepsia, loss of appetite, Nausea, and frequent and severe attacks of vomiting; and so prostrated was my general system, that I was careely able to move about. I had availed myself of the science and skill of distinguished medical men, both of the Allopathic and Homoepathic school; and exhausted their catalogue of remedies, but found only temporary relief. In this condition, when every ray of hope seemed paralyzed, I heard of the discovery of Professor Bolles in the use of Electricity, and the wonders he was performing in curing disease, and placed myself and friends, in two operations my Diabetes was controlled, and other difficulties soon disappeared; my appetite has returned, sleep undisturbed, and, in fact, I feel like one made anew.

I would further state that I have seen other remarkable cures performed by Prof. Belles, and would advise the diseased to call at 1220 Walnut street, and he restored to health. I shall be glad to give any one information calling on me.

THOMAS HARROP,

Philadelphia, May Ist, 1860. HEALING POWERS OF ELECTRI-

Rose Mill, West Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, May Ist, 1860.

Read the following from a preacher of the Methodist Episcopal Church, No. 1633 Helmuth street, Philadelphia:
In attempting a definition of my disease, I can only give some of the many symptoms which, taken altogether, were the most horrid; and even medical men did not know my disease from pathological symptoms. How ever, Professor C. H. Bolles, by whom I was cured, located my disease in the pelvic viscera, in five minutes after I entered his office, and offered to warrant a perfect cure in eight applications. And I frankly admit that in eight applications of Electricity, administered by Professor Bolles, 1220 Walnut street, Philadelphia, I am perfectly cured; and to me this is most astonishing, for I had exhausted the catalogue of old-school remedies, and grew worse all the time.

I had long believed that in Electricity resided a potent agent for the cure of disease, if a right application could be made; and now I can comprehend, from its powerful effects on me, for a speedy cure, although no shocks were given. All was pleasant, and accomplished as if by magic.

I will give most of my symptoms, for the benefit of suffering humanity. I had dyspensia, bad marasmus, or wasting, of the tissues of the whole body; at times a difficulty of breathing, some palpitation of the heart, much bronchitis, trembling of the limbs after exercise, aversion to business and company; at times gloomy, inability to collect my thoughts vigorously on any subject, a loss of memory, pain in various parts of the body; suffered much from lumbago, deranged secretions of the kidneys and other glands of the system, constant draging pains in the lumbar region, and severe nervous dizziness.

I believe it is my duty, as a lover of humanity, to recommend this discovery of Professor BOLLES to the kidneys and other glands of the system, constant dragging pains in the lumbar region, and severe nervous dizziness.

I believe it is my duty, as a lover of humanity, to recommend this discovery of Professor BOLLES to the afflicted of all classes. There seems to be no guesswork, no confusion, no matter of doubt in his treatment. He proceeds on fixed principles, and according to fixed laws, which seem to me infallible and harmonious. He warrants, by special contract, the most obstinate, chronic and acute cases, and charges nothing, if he fails. I advise all of the diseased to try his treatment.

EDWARD T. EVANS, Preacher in M. E. Church, 1633 HELMUTH Street, Philadelphia.

ANOTHER CURE OF PARALYSIS OF THE LOWER LIMBS (Paraplegia) AND APOPLEXY COMBINED. Read the following:

PRILADELPHIA, March 31, 1862.

PROFESSOR BOILES, 1220 Walnut street: The remarkable cure which I have derived from your method of applying Electricity compels me to thus acknowledge the great obligations I am under to you for snatching me, as it were, from immediate death. About two years ago, while a resident of Cincinnati, Ohlo, I was visited with an attack of paralysis of the lower extremities, which readered me, almost entirely unable to stand upon my limbs. I employed some of the most celebrated physicians to be found in that section, but received no suparent benefit, and after a lapse of about eighteen months was taken with a spasm, which one of my physicians pronounced a fit of apoplexy. Two weeks elapsed from that time before I became the least conscious of anything that had transpired, nor could I concentrate my mind or converse upon any subject without becoming very visionary and excited, until I placed myself under your valuable treatment. After my arrival in Philadelphia my attention was called to your treatment by a pamphlet handed me by my father, which contained the names of some gentlemen whom I had been formerly acquainted with, and whose statements I could rely upon. I immediately made up my mind to place myself under your tre

N. B.—It will be well for the diseased to recollect that Prof. B. has given a word of caution in his pamphlet to guard them against trusting their health in the hands of those in this city claiming to treat diseases according to his discovery. This caution may seem severe on those using Electricity at hazard, but it is the severity of truth, and designed for the good of humanity. See advertisement in another column. PROF. C. H.
