The Governor and all hands were completely deceived, and the Marshal returned to the penitentiary, presented the pardon to the warden, Cross was released from confinement, delivered into the Marshal's charge, and was by him conveyed immediately to Washington. Arriving there, they at once proceeded to the Secretary of War's office, and here a most amusing scene occurred. The Marshal whispered in Secretary Stanton's ear. "He don't know that he is pardoned." Completely mystified, the Secretary drew the Marshal aside, and in the same tone inquired: "Who don't know that he is pardoned." Dompletely mystified, the Secretary drew the Marshal aside, and in the same tone inquired: "Who don't know that he is pardoned." Explanation ensued; the Secretary Interval of the secretary is keeping him in ignorance, and finally sent for that gentleman.

Mr. Watson made his appearance, but only to exhibit the same astonishment as Mr. Stanton. He read his letter to the Marshal several times, taxed his memory, looked puzzled, and, finally, said he did not recollect writing any such letter. The return of the warden to the writ was presented on Saturday. It admits the issuing of the pardon, and the delivery of the prisoner to the United States Marshal, and the return of Cross to the pentientiary by that officer on the day following. It avers that it was obtained on false and forged papers, and is, therefore, void. This return was traversed, and the hearing was then proceeded with. return was traversed, and the hearing was then proceeded with.

The warden had not produced Cross, and the court directed him to be brought in, and the warden returned to the penitentiary for that purpose. In the meantime the case was proceeded with.

Eli Slifer, Secretary of the Commonwealth, testified to the issuing of the pardon in consequence of the papers above set forth, but stated that it was distinctly understood that Cross was not to know of the pardon, and it was not to be delivered to him until he had performed the services required of him by the Government.

U. S. Marshal Millward testified to the facts we have embodied in our narrative, and also stated that he had never informed Cross of the pardon. On the return from Washington, Cross said that he would not have been at liberty a month before he would have made a hundred thousand dollars on treasury notes. He protested against going back, and demanded his release.

A short time after the Marshal had concluded his testimony, the warden of the penitentiary returned with Cross. The court room had by this time become crowded to excess, and great anxiety was manifested to get a sight of the man who has made himself so famous. Cross took a seat in front of the bar of the court, and, unmindful of the curiosity of spectator, s watched with a tranquil air the progress of the proceedings. He looked remarkably well, considering the close confinement he has been subjected to, and this was the topic of general remark.

His counsel then proved and offered in evidence an extract from the warden's journal, containing an entry of the delivery of Cross to Marshal Millward, under authority of the pardon from the Governor. The warden was then examined, and testified to the release of Cross in consequence of the pardon, and his return to the prison by the Marshal, substantially the same as that gentleman had narrated.

This closed the testimony, and the argument commenced. Edw. H. Weil, Esq., for the prisoner, contended that the pardon was a valid and binding one, notwithstanding it had never been delivered to the prisoner. Wm. M. Meredith, Attorney General of the State, and William B. Mann, District Attorney, appeared for the Commonwealth, and replied to Mr. Weil. On the conclusion of the argument the Court reserved its decision. Cross was conveyed back to his quarters, and the crowd dispersed. Hendrick Kirch, K, 74.

Larceny of Coats.

A young man giving the name of Wm. F. Brown was arraigned on Saturday at the Central Station on the charge of the larceny of a coat from the Girard House and another from the hotel of Mr. Bloodgood. Mr. B. was present at the hearing, and stated that the coat stolen from his hotel belongs to an agent or owner of the steamer Niagara; he had gone to New York on Saturday morning, but would return on Wednesday. Both the coats were recovered by Detective Levy. The further investigation of the case was postponed until Wednesday.

Another Arrest.

A man named Gilbert was arrested a short time since, for stealing one or two barrels of molasses, which he asked persons to help him to roll up the curbstones at the street crossings. He was committed at the time, as we have already stated. On Saturday evening, it is alleged, a barrel of the molasses was found at the house of a man named Aaron F. Caze, in the upper part of the city. Caze was taken into custody, and had a hearing on Saturday evening, before Alderman Ogle. He was committed to answer.

Buchanan Cross vs. The Warden of the Eastern Penitentiary. On Saturday morning, the case of the celebrated forger, J. Buchanan Cross, was heard sur habeas corpus, praying his discharge from custody, on the ground that he had been fully and unconditionally pardoned by the Governor. The celebrity attained by the prisoner, as well by the skilful forgeries he has perpetrated, as by his ingenious attempt to effect escape from the penitentiary, has invested his case with a degree of romantic interest that sufficiently justifies the review as by his ingenious attempt to effect escape from the penitentiary, has invested his case with a degree of romantic interest that sufficiently justifies the review we propose giving it. Most of our readers will probably recollect that, in 1861, Cross was convicted of the forgery of a bank cheek, and sentenced to the Eastern Penitentiary for five years.

After his conviction, and preceding his sentence, he was remanded to the County Prison, and on the morning of the day that sentence was to have been imposed Officer Porter was detailed to bring the prisoner up to court. Cross was no common felon, and, therefore, received no common treatment, and accordingly, instead of riding to court in the prison wan, Officer Porter accommodated him not only with a carriage, but with a visit on the way up to his boarding house, where he desired to obtain some necessary articles of clothing. Unsuspecting treachery there, the officer weat into the prisoner's room, and quick as thought Cross fied out the door, boited to answer. Daring Robbery. An express wagon, containing a load of goods, stopped in front of a house in the Eleventh ward on Saturday evening, and, while the driver was delivering some articles, a thief noiselessly approached the wagon and took therefrom five or six pieces of muslin and gingham. As the thief made no noise it is supposed that he had gum shoes on. He made his escane with the booty. escape with the booty. The India-Rubber Man. Some of the reporters, who have not been able to trace the India-rubber man, have, in their attempts to disparage the proper statements published, introduced "hobgoblin" stories, to divert attention from trace the India-Rubber man, have, in their attempts to disparage the proper statements published, introduced "hobgobiln" stories, to divert attention from the true issue.

In the first place, we have never stated that there is an organized band of India-rubber men going about the streets after nightfall, to rob females. We do say, however, that several people have been robbed recently in the streets, by persons who have made no noise in their movements. The excitement that has attended this subject may be attributed to the efforts of some of the reporters to render ineffective a somewhat thrilling story, which they did not chance to learn anything about until The Press gave it to them, as well as the community.

Magisterial Reform.

The great probability is that an application will be made to the present Legislature to reform the magistracy of Philadelphia. The subject has been in contemplation for several years. Indeed, it was not presented. As near as we can understand, it is desired to organize a court for the trial of the many petty cases which, under the present organization, annually cost the citizens of Philadelphia an immense amount of money. From the present-adderment there will be selected a number, probably five, who will be the judges of the court. Cases of petty larcenies, such as the stealing of a door mat from a door step—a broom from a store, or other articles of trifling value—cases of assaults and batteries, and many others of the petty misdemeanor class, are to be adjudicated by this court. The subject is one that demands attention. The arrangement in its details must, of course, be left to the wisdom of the Legislature. There should be established with this court a House of Corgetion,

Officer Porter effected his release just in time to be too late to recapture in and then conta himself. Officer Porter effected his release just in time to be too late to recapture his prisoner, and for a long time Cross remained at liberty. Treachery, however, finally served justice, and Cross was rearrested, by the bad faith, it is asserted, of an accomplice in whom he reposed confidence. Sentence was immediately imposed, and he took up his residence in the penitentiary, for, as every one supposed, a long term. His ingenious mind, however, was soon at work devising a plan of escape, and the scheme adopted came so near success that its failure was miraculous. The carefulness and excellence of its arrangement stamp it as one of the most brilliant frauds ever perpetrated.

those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of inmense service to this large class of our afflicted fellowcitizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases
to be found in the following complaints:
Scroyflla AND Scroyflous Complaints.
Experions
AND ERUFIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES,
AND ERUFIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES,
AND ERUFIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES,
AND INDIGESTION, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALHA OR TIO DOLOREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPESIA
AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHON'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from Impurity of the Broom.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health when taken in the spring to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year.
By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid diself of corruptions if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in plimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with the pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Somer or later something must go wrong, and the ap21-ly And for sale by Druggists generally. to cure.

del0-wfm2m HEALING POWERS OF ELECTRISAND INVALIDS, AT 1220 WALNUT STREET, PHILADELPHIA.

The object of the following certificates is to show that cures at 1220 WALNUT Street are permanent and reliable. The first cure was performed nearly three years ago, the second was performed nearly three years ago, the second was performed nearly one year ago, the third about one year, and hundreds more of like cases might be shown.

READ THE FOLLOWING CAREFULLY.

About twelve months ago I had a severe attack of Diabetes, attended with other difficulties too numerous to mention. My desire for drink was constant, and although I drank gallons per day, my thirst was never allayed; I was only able to sleep at short intervals, which seemed like a trance. The mucous surface of my mouth and throat had become so parched and feverish, that I was in constant misery. I was also suffering from all the horrors of Dyspepsis, loss of appetite, Nausea, and frequent and severe attacks of vomiting; and so prostrated was my general system, that I was scarcely able to move about. I had availed myself of the science and skill of distinguished medical men, both of the Allopathic and Homeopathic school, and exhausted their catalogue of remedies, but found only temporary relief.
In this condition, when every ray of hope seemed peralyzed, I heard of the discovery of Professor Bolles in the use of Electricity, and the wonders he was performing in curing disease, and placed myself under his treatment;
and, to the astonishment of myself and friends, in two operations my Diabetes was controlled, and other difficulties soon disappeared; my appetite has returned, sleep undisturbed, and, in fact, I feel like one made anew.

I would further state that I have seen other remarkable cures performed by Prof. Bolles, and would advise the diseased to call at 1220 Walnut street, and be restored to health. I shall be glad to give any one information calling on me.

Rose Mill, West Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, May 1st, 1850. HEALING POWERS OF ELECTRI-Episcopal Church, No. 1633 Helmuth street, Philadelphia:
In attempting a definition of my disease, I can only give some of the many symptoms which, taken altogether, were the most horrid; and even medical men did not know my disease from pathological symptoms. However, Professor C. H. Bolles, by whom I was cured, located my disease in the pelvic viscera, in five minutes after I entered his office, and offered to warrant a perfect cure in eight applications. And I frankly admit that in eight applications of Electricity, administered by Professor Bolles, 1220 Walnut street, Philadelphia, I am perfectly cured; and to me this is most astonishing, for I had exhausted the catalogue of old-school remedies, and grew worse all the time.

I had long believed that in Electricity resided a potent agent for the cure of disease, if a right application could be made; and now I can comprehend, from its powerful effects on me, for a speedy cure, although no shocks were given. All was pleasant, and accomplished as if by magic.

I will give most of my symptoms, for the benefit of N. B.—It will be well for the diseased to recollect that Prof. B. has given a word of caution in his pamphlet to gaard them against trusting their health in the hands of those in this city claiming to treat diseases according to his discovery. This caution may seem severe on those using Electricity at hazard, but it is the severity of truth, and designed for the good of humanity. See advertisement in another column.
