THE TER-CENTENARY JUBILEE.-The introductory exercises of the Ter-centenary Jubilee in honor of the formation and adoption of the Heidelberg Catechism were inaugurated by the delegates in the German Reformed Church, Race street, below Fourth, on Saturday evening last, at seven o'clock. The opening sermon was delivered by Rev. Samuel R. Fisher, D. D., from Hebrews ii, 1-3.

Netok. The Opening seming seminal was derivered by Rev. Samuel R. Fisher, D. D., from Hebrews ii, 1.--3. At the same time an opening sermon was discoursed in the German tongue by Rev. Phillip Schaff, D. D., in the Salem German Reformed Church, St. John Street, from Hebrews xiii, 7.-8. Upon Sunday Rev. John W. Nevin, D. D., preached from Hebrews xiii, 8. The essay, "The Organism of the Heidelberg Catechism," was read in the evening by Rev. T. G. Apple, of Greencastle, Pa.
The regular exercises epened yesterday morning at ten o'clock, in the Race-street German Reformed Church, (Race, below Fourth), Rev. Dr. Bomberger, pastor. After singing, the opening prayer was made by Rev. Dr. B. C. Wolff, of Mercersburg. In low and earnest tones he thanked the good Providence which had permitted the assembly thus to meet together; he asked that in all that was said and done a due appreciation of the result might be evinced. To due appreciation of the result might be evined. To have a good conscience, void of offence toward man and God; to plant throughout all the vineyards of the Lord the blessed seed of their goodly heritage; ito ever have a wish and will to pray to God for just resconing and for right conclusions and to aver size ever nave a wish and will to pray to God for just reasoning and for right conclusions, and to ever give praise to Him, to whom alone it was due—this should be the spirit moving the meeting. Rev. Mr. P. C. Prugh, of Xenia, Ohio, was then chosen scoretary of the organization.

He himself felt deeply the importance of the occa-sion which had called them together. No symbol in the Protestant Ohurch possessed so much intrinsi interest as that attached to the Heidelberg Cate interest as that attached to the Heidelberg Cato-chism inaugurated on the 19th January, 1563. In-his own church, and in the sister churches of the Netherlands, its principles had been inserted. The life of the present should always renew its connec-tion with that of the past. All varieties of life must feed upon memory-can only live in connection with past history. IThe object of the present celebration was to restore and quicken the sense of their histo-riest connections with the past of their Church. A conscious connection with the past must ever be en-tertain by him who would advance steadily in the path of improvement. The relations of the churches should be understood on all sides. As a distinct part of the Reformed Ohurch in general, the German Reformed has its peculiar and important mission. The Lutheran confession has a grand mis-sion of its own. These two might work together without sacrificing anything of vital interest in either. In conclusion, the speaker hoped that God would so lend his spirit to the meeting, as that its actions should redound to his glory, and the truest interest of the Church. The essay composed by Rev. Dr. Hundeshagen, of Heidelberg, was then read. The reading occupied three quarters of an hour. It had been translated, and was read by Prof. Thomas C. Porter, who was introduced to the assembly by Rev. Dr. Schaff, of the Theological Seminaries of Mercersburg and An-dover. It was then moved by Dr. Bomberger that all the clergy from evangelical churches be invited to take seats and report their names. Agreed to. The second essay was then read by Rev. Dr. B. S. Schneck, of Chambersburg. The subject was "Fre-derick the Pious." Both of these essays were eru-dite and perspicuous in the extreme. They dealt in history, and delineated the rise and progress of the Heidelburg Catechism, in its influence and results, with great force and accuracy. They were listened to with very great interest by a congregation at once intelligent and numerous. with very great interest by a congregation at once telligent and numerous.

LATE FROM THE SICK AND WOUNDED IN TENNESSEE.-Rev. Mr. Cummings, of the Christian Commission, writes thus from Murfreesboro, dated January 11, to Mr. Stuart, President of the Commission in this city :

MURFREESBORO, Jan 11 .- In view of the fact that MURFREESBORG, Jan 11. — In view of the fast that a very large portion of the wounded, and, for the most part, the most severe cases, were necessarily detained here, it was deemed best to visit this place. Rev. Mr. McAulley, with his force and part of my own, is laboring in the hospitals at Nashville. I have regretted very much that the stores had not arrived when we left, having shipped them from Louisville some hours before leaving there. You are aware, perhaps, that twenty miles of the rail-road between Louisville and Nashville have been destroyed by the rebel. Morgan and his banditti, Elight miles of the distance our party were compelled to walk.

In addition to these, there are about 1,550 rebel-wounded here. The condition of things is sad, in-deed, and at least a fortnight must elapse before the disorder and confusion that now prevails gives place to system and regularity. The wounded are crowded disorder and confusion that now prevails gives place to system and regularity. The wounded are crowded together in public and private houses, most of whom are severely wounded, whilst considerably the largest portion, having been but slightly' wounded, have been taken to Nashville." The United States Sanitary Commission have representatives here, but have no stores, although a supply is daily expected. This, in connection with the fact that every store in the town is closed, and the inhabitants having fied to "parts unknown," renders it impossible to make the condition of these martyrs on the altar of their country as comfortable as could be desired. This state of things, however, can last but a very short time. Gen. Roseorans, whose headquarters are here, kept me in conversa-tion with him to-day about a half hour. He has en-dorsed an order on my Commission "to the officers and surgcons of the Department of the Cumberland," to render me every facility in, the prosecution of the work of the Commission. The stores we have with us were purchased in Nashville, and we have been very busy to-day in ministering to the physical and spiritual condition of these andfering men. Very many cases of most touch-ing interest have come under our notice. In view of these asses of tattered limbs and mangled bodies, caused by this desolating war, we are ready to ex-claim, Oh I Lord, how long? When shall victims cease to be slaughtered to the dreadful demon 3 In deserved wrath remember mercy. One of our number will go to Nashville to-morrow to procure an additional supply of stores. It is hoped those sent forward from Lousville have already are to procure an additional supply of stores. It is hoped those sent forward from Louisville have already arrived there.

There are numerous hospitals about Stone river, two of which contain over 1,000 patients. They will be visited before leaving here. General Negley gave me a most cordial invitation to visit his headquarters, and promised to render every assistance in his power. His division took a very important part in turning the tide of battle in our favor in the late contest. He is a military man all over, and a son of the Key-stone State besides.

stone State besides. I have much more to say, but must now conclude. Should any inquiries be made of you respecting the body of Private Orlando Weikel, you may state that he is buried one mile beyond Lavergne from here, or fourteen miles from Nashville, on the pike near a burned brüge. The grave is marked by two stones. Also the body of Frank Eaton, of whose death I advised you by telegraph, lies buried in this town, in the cemetery of the Presbyterian church. You will excuse the paper upon which this letter is written, as it is all I can get in the house, and the contraband servant cannot go out at night without a demoralized. MONDAY MORNING.—Having received an addi-tional sheet of paper, I would add a few more lines, communicating some facts that may be important. You may not be aware that, at the meeting held You may not be aware that, at the meeting held on the evening of our departure, a large number of the friends of the Anderson Cavalry boys made a special request that I should telegraph to them when it was ascertained that their loss was not so great as was at first represented. It was deemed prudent not to send despatches announcing the safety of those for whom their requests had been made, lest it might be inferred that those of whom nothing had been commu-nicated were not safe. I wish, however, to mention the case of E. E. Griffith Commany H. who is asfe. His friends gave hand, and a claimod liability by force merely of the-words of the statute, regardless of the element of knowledge or assent, on the other. Did the Legiala-ture mich in this set position to be the true interpre-tation of the clause! Unless it plainly appears that liability, without any reference to knowledge or intentional violation of the provision in question was meant, we should not give it a construction leading to such penal con-sequence as is contended for. It would be contrary to natural justice, and this result should not be ar-rived at by interpretation, unless it be inevitable. It is a maxim of justice which declares that no one shall suffer for another's fault: "Nemo punitur pro aliene delice." I admit there are exceptions to the rule, however. Things mala prohibita may incur liability, sometimes, without the knowledge, really, of the party actually liable. So, in cases of surety-ship, liability always arises out of the acts or omis-sions of the principal ; but, in these cases, the con-sequence results from positive municipal regulation on the one hand, and the nature of the engagement on the other. But neither of these relations exists here. I cannot find any warrant, under a fair inter-pretation of this clause of the statute, for holding that the special partner is a guarantor for the gene-ral partners, further than his definite acceding to the contract, nor that it is to be construed as a penal statute. I think that an analysis of the statute itself will show that its considency can only be preserved by holding the special partner to be in-volved only by his own acts of violation, or by assenting to those of his copartners, when he knows, or is presumed to know, them. . . We have no decisions on the precise point under formang of this dause by the light of other provisions in the statute involving the same responsibility. Dissolution of the pusiness in an associated and general form of partnership, without the limitation provisions, and holding all liable as general partners. It is the orarying on of the business after a violation in any of shife. Thus, there would be no distinction between intentional violations and those neither intended nor known. In many other provisions of the statute, the conse-quences of violations are fixed to the extent of general liability of the special partner—but without exception, I think, they all imply the knowledge or assent of the party to be charged of the asts done to which the consequence is attached. A false statement in the original certificate will have this effect, and this must be made by all. So, after organization, transacting the business of the firm, or acting as agents or attorney for it, or interfering in its business, and perhaps for withdrawing capi-tal, will each render the special partner liable, but they all imply violation with knowledge of the adt. The 20th and 21st sections of the act especially exhibit the rule of justice evidently intended by the Legislature. Assignment for certain purposes, and with certain intent, after insolveney or contemplated insolvency by the firm, or by a partner under the same circumstances, is forbidden ; and the 22d section provides that if any special partner shall violate any of these provisions, or assent to any such violation of the act, or assenting to its violation by copartners. I argue, therefore, that if the statute throughout, as I think it does, fixes the consequences of violations of its provisions to be general liability, and they ne-cessarity imply nowledge and assent, we may fairly presume that the same cause was supposed to be necessary to produce the same result in the clause in question. If the change of the nature of the business, therefore, by his copartners, was not known by the defendant Kelly, and the business was carried on afterwards, without his knowledge that it had been changed, he would not be liable in consequence thereof.

Yours fraternally, J. S. C. P. S.—There is not the slightest appearance of the Sabbath here. The whole population is completely

During the investigation some evi-dence was adduced that tended to implicate some one or more of the prisoners in the robbery of the store of Mr. George Riche, at Front and Otter streets. Two of the prisoners, Duffly and Reigel, were identified as being a part of a gang of six per-sons who knocked down and robbed Louis Machesia of the sum of $25 on Saturday night. The parties thaving been arraigned, the proceedings progressed as follows: words of the statute, regardless of the element of knowledge or assent, on the other. The officer here produced an iron pry, a broken staple; several keys, and Government musket screw-driver, a new pocket-book--nothing in it--no store mark upon it. Here a question may arise whether the orime, if any was committed, is burglary or not: Robert M. John P. The alderman asked the prisoners whether they had anything to say. Reigel replied that he went up town with a couple of fellows; found the store of Mr. Paist open; went in and took a seat on a box; only. knew one of the fellows; they call him Scotty; never saw this man (pointing to Duffy) before to-day. "Have you anything to say, Duffy?" inquired the alderman. "Yes, sir," replied the prisoner. "At the time this affair happened I was in the lager-beer-saloon on Third street, below Chestnut; two police officers were in there at the time; I'm sure they would know me again if they could see me; I went up town and atopped at Front and Otter streets, where the officer arrested me." Mr. Thomas Paist, on being asked, said it struck him very' forciby that he had seen Reigel and Duffy about the store on Friday evening. Mr. Taylor said the dwelling part of the house at Front and Otter streets is occupied by the family of Mr. Vandyke.

EVENING SESSION.

EVENING SESSION. The evening session was more fully attended than the morning. The exercises commenced with sing-ing and prayer. The Rev. Dr. Ebrard, of Ealargen, Germany, delivered an essay upon the "Melanctho-nian tendency, and its relation to the German Re-formed Church." The logic of the discourse was clear, and its treatment very able. It was listened to with the utmost attention, and discussed with more than ordinary interest. The assembly then ad-joured, to meet again this morning at half past nine o'clock, at the same place.

A COMMENDABLE ASSOCIATION. - The

constant appeals for aid and sympathy on behalf of the suffering freedmen in various parts of the country induced a number of Friends of this city to form an association to furnish clothing, medicines, &c., to meet the temporary necessities of this destitute class of people.

The society was organized April 15, 1862, since which time, with the exception of a few weeks during the summer, the meetings have been held weekly, on the third floor of the Friends' Meeting House, Race street above Fifteenth.

Donations in money, goods, and part-worn cloth-ing have been received from persons residing in this city and its vicinity, from Checker, Bucks, and Westmoreland counties, of this State, and from the Westmoreland counties, of this State, and from the States of New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Mary-land, and Indiana. The Association has endeavored to make a judi-cious appropriation of the means entrusted to it for distribution, and from the acknowledgements re-ceived from the various places to which the articles have been sent, the members are encouraged to be-lieve that their efforts have accomplished the pur-poses intended, as far as the limited supply would allow

1,500 new and about 2,000 part-worn garments, pieces of uncut goods, comfortables, books, medi-cines, needles, thread, buttons, &c., &c., which were packed in twelve boxes, have been sent to the fol-lowing places and distributed : Washington, D. A NEW KIND OF MONITOR .--- A gentleman, of Montgomery county, has just completed a model of a new yessel-of-war, and has addressed a model of a new vessel-of-war, and has addressed. a number of merchants of this city, with a view to secure their endorsement of the usefulness which he claims for his boat. It is constructed differently from the Monitor or Merrimac, and is designed to ride and crush, or sink any iron-clad whose sides are of an elevation less than fifty degrees. The boat is partially of a flat bottom, and the bow is heavier than the stern. The smoke stack can be raised or lowered at option. The port holes are provided with a sliding door, which can be lowered in an in-stant.

They must also be prepared to endure some privations in sleeping and eating, and in other respects. I must now close. veroating. It was attempted in that case, as in this, to hold the special partner liable as a general part-ner. One ground was, a mistake of a month in the advertisement, in setting forth the commence-ment of the firm to be in November instead of Octo-ber. The court there held that, as there was no evi-dence of an intentional violation of the statute in the mispublication, the special partner was not liable by reason of it. Another ground claimed for liability was the investment of a large portion of the capital in the purchase of real estate not within the scope of the business of the firm. The special partner's liability was made to turn on the question of know-ledge and assent to the purchases, although the con-veyance was taken in his as well as that of his co-partner's name. Bronson, J., said: "I cannot think him liable for the wrong done by his copartners, without showing that he participated in the act." In the same spirit is Bowen vs. Migall, 24 Wendall, 497. We are of opinion, therefore, that there was no error in the ruling of this point in the court below. We see nothing in the other specifications of error requiring special notice. We agree with the court below, that we see no reason for holding that the special partner had anything to do with the care and enverse at the down that the set and Mr. Henry P. Wrs. Wilson, special partner had anything to do with the care and collection of the debts of the firm after it failed. If he was not involved as a general partner, he had no concern in it. His money was in it, and applicable to the debts, and, that was the only extent of his connection with it. to the debts, and that was the only extent of his connection with it. There was no offer to show that Kelly assented to any assignment of assets, so as to render him liable on that score, and the court properly rejected the offer to prove that the general partners made some such assignment.  Supreme Court of Pennsylvania – Chief Justice Lowrie and Justices Woodward, Thompson, and Strong.
 THE BROAD-STREET RAILWAY CASE, --PRELINF-NARY INJUNCTION GRANTED.
 Commonwealth of Pennsylvania vs. The Navy Yard, Broad-street, and Fairmount Railway Com-pany et al. In this case, which was argued on Sa-turday, on the information filed by the Attorney General of the State, praying an injunction against the company, Chief Justice Lowrie stated yesterday that in this case he deemed it proper to announce that the Court intended to grant the motion for a preliminary injunction. They would not now define the extent of that injunction, except to state that the company has no rights but those of a street passen-ger railway company. The Court would write an opinion, but they made this announcement in order that neither party should incur additional expense. The Chief Justice, in reply to a question from Mr. Knox, one of the counsel for the company, said that the opinion would be read some time this week. THE COMMON COUNCIL INJUNOTION CASE.
 Kerr vs. Trego et al. The application by the De-mocratic organization of Common Council for an in-junction against the Union organization, was to have been heard yesterday morning before a full Coart at Nisi Prius, but the Chief Justice stated that owing to the inability of Justice Woodward to attend, the case would have to go over until Wednesday.
 The following opinions were delivered, among them an interesting one on limited partnerships, by Justice Thompson, as follows:
 Thomas Singer vs. Charles Kelly: Error to the District Court. Opinion of the court by Thompson, J. On the 16th of June, 1856, a copartnership was formed for the transaction of a general commission business, in the eity of Philadelphia, between Wil-liam J. Martin, William McCallaster, and Charles Kelly, under the firm name of Martin & McCallaster-it was to be a partnership under the act of Assembly of the 21st of March 1856. the jury rendered a verifie of not guilty. tendants, but as the counsel for the others were not present, he suggested a postponement. Mr. David W. Sellers, for the Commonwealth, de-sired to hear one or two witnesses-namely, Messrs. Robert Ewing, ex-sheriff, and Saml. P. Hall, who

Robert Lwing, ex-sherin, and Sami. P. Hall, who prepared the proclamation. There is such an evident desire to procrastinate the hearing that the case may be inquired into at once by the grand jury, and the return made to court in a style that will be apt to rather astonish some of the legal fraternity. The following evidence was elicited:

[Before Mr. Aldorman Gibson.] Caught at Last. Wm. Mullin and James McArnish, a couple of bad boys, were arraigned before the alderman yes-terday, and were held to bail to be of future good behavior, and to keep the peace. For some time past, a number of boys have amused themselves by standing on a bridge that overlooks the German-town cars, and throwing stones at the conductors or passengers. Several persons have been injured by the boys. Complaints having been made to the lieu-tenant of the police, he stationed a couple of officers in a convenient place, and on Saturday the two above-named prisoners were captured in the act of pelting the cars. The alderman reprimanded them severely, after which he ordered them to enter bail as above stated. [Before Mr. Alderman Gibson.]

as above stated.

Three Warnings. A number of instances have been reported at the Central station of persons calling at the houses of some of the best residents of the city for clothes to wash, stating that because the washwoman being sick, she could not come herself and had sent the ap-plicants. It was subsequently ascertained that the parties had not been sent for the clothes. Warning number two may be stated as follows: Quite a number of poorlyclad, women have been going around from house to house with doleful stories about their husbands being in the army-re-ceiving no pay-landlords about to turn the dis-consolate wives and children into the street because of the non-payment of the rent. Some of these women act in so plausible a manner, that in many instances they have received a considerable amount of money by these means. It was stated that one female had actually, by retailing out these pitiable stories, accumulated nearly fifty dollars in a single day. Warning number three may be disposed of as HOMICIDE CASE. Gilbert Lewis was put upon trial yesterday, in this court, charged with the murder of Benjamin Scott. It appeared that the defendant occupied a room in the second story of a building in the neigh-borhood of Seventh and Bedford streets, from which a passage-way led to an opening, from which a lad-der descended to the ground, a distance of some nine feet. At the foot of the ladder was a paling fence. On the night of the 12th of November Scott, very much intoxicated, called on the defendant at his room, and while there an altercation occurred be-tween them, in the course of which the latter order-ed him to leave his house. In doing so, Scott either fell down the ladder or was pushed down it by the defendant, for he was found against the fence with three of his ribs fractured, and a severe contusion on the head. He was taken to the hospital, and, in two days afterwards, died from apoplexy, induced by his injuries. Dennis O'Brien, who represented the Com-monwealth, after the evidence on the part of the prosecution had been heard, abandoned the case, and O'Byrne, Esq., appeared for the defendant, having been assigned hy udder Ludlow as coursel OFFICE OF THE ASSESSOR OF THE OFFICE OF THE ASSESSOR OF THE SECOND COLLECTION DISTRICT, PHILADA., Jan. 3, 1862.—FRANCIS P. The firm was duly organized, and Kelly paid in $20,000 in cash, his agreed contribu-tion to the firm. The firm commenced business, but in about six months failed, sinking the entire sum contributed, by the special partner, and had an un-liquidated indebtedness of some $78,000, which the assets were totally inadequate to satisfy. Philadelphia, January 10, 1863. ja10-14-17-20-22-24 certificate, rendered him liable. The evidence of a change consisted of two distinct purchases by Martin & McCallaster; one on the 26th of June, 1857, of fifty bales of cotton, amounting to $4,200, for which they gave notes, and the other, four days after, of sixty tierces of rice, at $2,100, also on a gradit of four months can be obtained at any time. Mr. Sellers, while he felt willing to accommodate an be obtained at any time. Mr. Sellers, while he felt willing to accommodate his professional brethren at all times, modestly con-tended that Mr. Hall could be examined now, as his evidence forms the basis of the prosecution. Mr. Hall was sworn. I prepared the proclamation of the last general election (printed copy of the docu-ment here shown); I received a list of the taxables from the City Commissioner; the Fifth ward was excepted; that was left out; there was some dispute between the assessors; I had not the list of that be letween the assessors was concluded, and, therefore, made out the proclamation without the list of Fifth ward; because of the erasure spoken of there was no reference made to the election of a member of Common Council, Fifth ward; I treated the erasure as though it had been a blank. Question by Mr. Sellers. Before the proclamation came out did you not get a corrected return? A. T don't remember having received it; I know the dispute was still pending, and the case came up in the dispute was still pending, and the case came up four days after, of sixty tierces of rice, at $2,100, also on a credit of four months. The learned judge of the District Court who tried the case was of opinion that there was no proof of knowledge or assent by the special partner to these purchases, not within the legitimate scope of the business of the firm. He, therefore, reserved the point whether a special partner could be made liable for a charge in the business without a knowledge that it had taken place, and directed a verdict for the plaintiff, subject to the entry of judgment for the defendant non obstante veredicto. Subsequently, and after argument in bane in the District Court, judg-ment was entered for the defendant on the point re-served. UNITED STATES INTERNAL REVE-U. ago, the second was performed nearly one year ago, the third about one year, and hundreds more of like cases might be shown. READ THE FOLLOWING CAREFULLY. About twelve months ago I had a severe attack of Diabetes, attended with other difficulties too numerons to mention. My desire for drink was constant, and al-though I drank gallons per day, my thirst was never allayed; I was only able to sleep at short intervals, wich seemed like a trauce. The nuccons surface of my mouth and throat had become so parched and feverish, hat I was in constant misery. I was also sufforing from all the horrors of Dyspepsia, loss of appetite, Nan-see, and frequent and severe attacks of vomiting ; and so prostrated was my general system; that I was scarcely able to move about. I had availed myself of the science and skill of distinguished medical men, both of the Allo-pathic and Homeopathic school, and exhausted their catalogue of remedies, but found only temporary relief. In this condition, when every ray of hope seemed para-lyzed, I heard of the discovery of Professor Bolles in the use of Electricity, and the wonders he was performing in ouring disease; and placed myself and friends, in two operations my Diabetes was controlled, and other diffi-culties soon disappeared in y appetite has returned, sleep undisturbed, and, in fact, I feel like one made anew. I would further state that I have seen other remark-able cures performed by Prof. Bolles, and would advise the diseased to call at 1220 walnut istreet, and be restored to health. I shall be giad to give any one information calling on me. THOMAS HARROP, Neiladelphia, May 1st, 1860. Episcopal Church, No. 1633 Helmuth street, Philadei-phia: In attempting a definition of my disease, I can only give some of the many symptoms which, taken altoga-ther, were the most horrid; and even medical men did not know my disease from pathological symptoms. How ever, Professor C. H. Bolles, by whom I was cured, Io-cated my disease in the polyic viscera, in five minutes after I entered his office, and offered to warrant a perfect cure in eight applications. And I frankly admit that in eight applications of Electricity, administered by Pro-fessor Bourgs, 1220 Walnut street, Philadelphia, I am perfectly cured; and to me this is most astonishing, for I had exhausted the catalogue of old-school remedies; and grew worse all the time. I had long believed that in Electricity resided a potent agent for the cure of disease, if a right application could be made; and now I can comprehend, from its powerful effects on me, for a speedy cure, although no shocks were given. All was pleasant, and accomplished as if by magic.

I had dyspepsia, bad marasmus, or wasting of the tissues of the whole body; at times a difficulty of breathing, some palpitation of the heart, much bronchitis, trembling of the limbs after exercise, aversion to business and company; at times gloomy, ina-bility to collect my thoughts vigorously on any subject, a loss of memory, pain in various parts of the body; suf-fered much from lumbago, deranged secretions of the kidneys and other glands of the system, constant drag-ging pains in the lumbar region, and severe nervous dir-zinges.

Thelieve it is my duty, as a lover of humanity, to recommend this discovery of Professor BOLLES to the afflicted of all classes. There seems to be no guesswork, no confusion, no matter of doubt in his treatment. He proceeds on fixed principles, and according to fixed laws, which seem to me infallible and harmonious. He warrants, by special contract, the most obstinate, chronic and acute cases, and charges nothing if he fails. I advise all of the diseased to try his treatment.

 PROFESSOR BOLLES, 1220 Walnut street: The remarkable cure which I have derived from your method of applying Electricity compels me to thus acknowledge the great obligations I am under to you for snatching me, as it were, from immediate death. N. B.-It will be well for the diseased to recollect that Prof. B. has given a word of caution in his pamphlet to guard them against trusting their health in the hands of those in this city claiming to treat diseases according to his discovery.
