PENNSYLVAAIA.

BRUTAL MURDER.—We learn from the Berwick Gazetic that on last Friday, a colored man by the name of Thomas Stookey, was brutally murdered by a man by the name of Samuel Iddings, at Pine Grove Hotel, in Columbia county. It appears that Stoolecy was out on horseback in search of a dog of his which had strayed away, and stopped at this hotel to inquire if they had seen him. Iddings, who was intoxicated, had cleared the house of its inmates, by threatening their lives, he having a loaded re-volver in his hand. As Stookey rode up, he went out and met him and enught his horse by the bridle and demanded him to dismount, threatening to shoot him if he disobeyed. On remonstrating with him and pleading to be left alone, to pursue his journey, he attempted to move on, when Iddings discharged the contents of his pistol, which passed throughfils stomach and lodged in his back, killing him almost instantly. instantly.

Instantly. A MysTERY.—Mr. Peter Van Devander, of Peters-burg, Huntingdon county, Pa., in company with one or two others, started to hunt deer on Thursday, January I, in "Diamond Valley," in the neighbor-hood of Barre Forge, and soon after reaching the hunting ground the party separated with the under-standing that they would meet at some given point in the evening. The others were there at the ap-pointed time, and Mr. Van Devander not coming, his comrades started home, and upon their arrival found that he had not reached there. Not arriving that night, search was made for him, but without success, until Sunday last, when his lifeless body was found in the woods with a bullet-hole in the head. His gun was still loaded when found leaving no other conclusion to be arrived at than that he was fould dealt with. The deceased leaves a wife and foully dealt with. The deceased leaves a wife and several children.

A LARGE SELL .- The Williamsport Gazelic BAVS A LARGE SELL.—The Williamsport Gazelle says that for some time past an insane man, named Sidel, has been staying about Williamtport. His peculiar hallucination is that he owns everything, and since his sojourn here he has sold at public auction, per-emptorily and without reservation, the properties of Judge Maynard, Judge Armstrong, F. O. Campbell, Esq., all the railroad buildings, the West Branch Bank, and the United States Hotel, Parke's Hotel, one half of the borough of Muncy, &c., &c. Dustoff HIGHWAN BORDERS—On Thursday

One half of the borough of Muncy, &c., &c. DARING' HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—On Thursday morning last, as David L. Smith, mail carrier from Pittsburg to Independence, was on his way with the mail, about half way up Saw-Mill Hill, on Wash-ington Pike, before daybreak, two scoundrels sprang-forward and pulled him off his horse. One of them placed his knee on Smith's neck while the other drew a knife and cut through his overcoat and dress-coat pockets. extreating his pocket-book containing coat pockets, extricating his pocket-book, containing fifty-two dollars. ATTEMTT TO COMMIT MURDER.—On last Wed-nesday evening as Mr. Joseph MoNeil, of Indi-ana, was passing along one of the streets of that bo-rough, he was assaulted by two ruffans armed with knives, one of whom struck at his breast and cut through the lappel of his coat when Mr. McN. knock-ed him down; the other made a blow at his head but fortunately the knife passed through his hat. Mc-Neil then took to his heels and escaped from the rascale. rascale.

CAMP CURTIN,-This famous camp of instruction for a long time the central rallying point of our own and the militia of other States, contains at present scarcely more than one respectable sized company. scarcely more than one respectable sized company. The deserted appearance of the place contrasts strongly with its former scenes of bustling activity and warlike preparation. Perhaps from no similar camp in the country have there gone forth to the battle-field such numbers of our countrymen.

Boyer, Esq., of Har-risburg, came into possession of a German Bible last week, published at Frankfort-on-the-Main, by Ohristian Egenolff, on the first day of March, 1534. Mr. Boyer purchased this ancient and valuable relic of J. C. Monn, below Chambersburg, which he first saw while there on duty as one of the Pennsylvania militia, in September last. Mr. Monn had pur-chased it years ago for six cents at a public vendue. Accupentation Super Super Country Smith, a son of ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.—Dwight Smith, a son of William Smith, of Conewango township, a lad about 15 years of age, while attempting to remove a loaded shot gun from a skiff, on Thursday last, aca loaded shoregue from a skill, on Thursday last, ac-cidentally caught the hammer upon the edge of the skiff, and discharged the gun. The entire load, con-sisting of a heavy charge of buckshot, entered his left side, and lodged near the backbone. At latest accounts there was some hope of his recovering.

ACCOUNTS THERE WAS SOME HOPE OF THIS RECOVERING. ATTEMPTED SUIDIDE.—We learn that Spencer Johnson, Esq., a respectable citizen of Farmington township, while in a fit of derangement, on Monday last, attempted to take his own life by cutting his throat. He succeeded in inflicting a terrible wound, but at last accounts it was thought he would sur-vive. Ill health is assigned as the superinducing cause of his derangement. cause of his derangement.

THE OLD THE ARCHIGGEMENT. FIRE NEAR MILFORD.—Last week the Shocapie School House, together with a large farm barn, situ-ated about one and a half miles from that place, were consumed by fire. The barn contained a large quantity of hay and grain, and also two horses and a colt-all burned.

NE.....N by E....NNE E.....NE.....NE THE MERCHANTS' FUND-ANNUAL MEET-

ING .- The annual meeting of the Merchants' Fund Society was held yesterday afternoon, at their room, N. W. corner Seventh and Sansom streets. The president, Mr. John M. Atwood, called the meteing to order. Mr. Thomas Robins acted as president, and Wm. H. Bacon, Esq., acted as secretary.

The ninth annual report of the managers was read by Mr. Atwood, giving a very gratifying account of the prospects of the society and its beneficent workings during the year. The report is as follows: ings during the year. The report is as follows: The continuance of the great national calamity which in two previous years seemed to justify the omission of a more public observance of our anni-versary, has induced the managers to forego the gratification on the present occasion. They trust, however, that the time will come when the reunions which heretofore, and in crowded halls, have con-tributed so much to deepen our interest in the object of the association, and to draw in closer bonds the merchants of Philadelphia, may be appropriately resumed.

committee, to hold forth to the suffering merchant its proffers of assistance, and has ministered to his wants. During the past year the committee have made forty-six donations. Some of the beneficiaries were vecy aged; most of them had suffered silently, and suffered long, and it was only after the failure of every effort at self-support, and the disappoint-ment of every hope, that they sought or accepted the help which this institution gives. The annexed extracts from some of their letters will exhibit a specimen of the grateful emotions which the bene-factions of the society have excited in the hearts of the beneficiaries. the beneficiaries.

the beneficiaries. It is gratifying to state, that while owing to the present troubles the income from annual subscrip-tions has been lessened, we have still been spared the painful necessity of withholding assistance in any proper case which has been brought to the no-tice of the committee. Only ten persons now re-ceive a stated allowance.

Although the aggregate of these donations is not far from twenty thousand dollars, the pecuniary sum but poorly expresses the amount of blessings conforred upon our suffering brethren. It is not merely that pressing wants have been supplied, and almost unhoped-for comforts brought to many dwellings, but the recipient has felt that he was again brought within the direle. of sympathies from which he seemed forever cast out, and was not, as he had feared, left like the wounded soldier on the battle-field—uncared for, unheeded, forgotten. It cannot, ought not to be overlooked, that the charity contemplated by this society deals with peculiar circumstances in respect to those whose morning and mid-day life were full of promise of security, and gave no preases of future destitution. From their position and success in life they had supposed it their mission to succor the needy, not to share in this penury; and now, when age, poverty, and sickness have come upon them, and the grave has closed over those whose tried friend-ship would have been ready with its aid, and they are left confessedly helpless and dependent, their condition is still peculiar regression for the relief of the poor when we say that they do not meet the case of these sufferers—the supply of their necessities through such a channel would be at a cost of mental suffering, which the physical relief would not compensate. compensate.

The receipts of the year from all sources, as shown by the annexed statement of the treasurer, have been $4,678.43, and the expenditures $2,182.90, leav-ing a present balance of $2,730.35, of which $2,500 belongs to the permanent fund. Through the kindness of Messrs. M. L. Dawson, Wm. Biddle, and Thomas Williamson, executors, there has been appropriated from the bequest of the late Josiah Dawson, the liberal sum of five thousand dollars as a donation to our society. This donation they have made from the "conviction of the great good which the merchants' fund was capable of; ac-complishing." This amount will be separately in-vested in the name of the "Josiah Dawson Fund," and its income be separately appropriated, thus per-petuating on our records the name of the benevolent gentleman to whose thoughtful provision for his

In consequence of continued ill-health William C. Ludwig, Esq., has felt himself obliged to resign the office of treasurer, which he has held from the forma-tion of the Society. The association is deeply in-debted to this gentleman for his able and faithful scrvices in this work of beneficence, and the neces-sity of his resignation is greatly regretted by the sity of his resignation is greatly regretted by the Board.

One of these, for a long period an in-valid, had formerly held a highly important public office, the duties of which he discharged, we believe, without reproach. The aid rendered to him by this society was auxiliary to that of a daughter, by whose filial piety her aged father wast chiefly supported, not without much labor and self-denial. Dr. Herzog, of Erlangen, Germany, was read by the translator, Rev., Dr. H. Harbaugh, of Lebanon, Pennsylvania. "In the course of the arguinent it was remarked that the people of Zurich, on account: of their religious susceptibility, were disposed toward carrying through the Reformation. Zuringle, beyond all others, was fitted to advance the spread of the Reformation. The Gospel was not, however, to be helped on by the civil sword. On the 13th October, 1531, he explated for his error through the blood-thirsty vengeance of the Catholic Canton: Among the French Reformers Calvin stood out by far the most prominently. Calvin was fitted to render ser-vice in the second period of the Reformation. The was a powerful organizer of the Church. The con-trast between Zuringle and Calvin was identical with the contrast afforded between the strugglings of a gifted and ambitious youth and the endeavors of a self-possessed, well-balanced man. The reading of the essay occupied an hour. It was followed by an extemporary address, in Ger-man, by Rev. Dr. J. S. Kessler, of Allentown, Penn-sylvania. The speaker remarked that the Swiss, like the Americans, are a free people. The Re-formation in Switzerland had received its com-plexion from the constitutional courage and love of liberty through which they had achieved the ir indeentitled "Swiss Reformers," and composed by Rev like the Americans, are a free people. The Ke-formation in Switzerland had, received its com-plexion from the constitutional courage and love of liberty through which they had achieved their inde-pendence. This inherent spirit of reedom, however, had not been kept within judicious limits. Luther fought with one Pope ; Zuringle grappled with two-one the Pope of Rome, the other a false spirit of liberty rife among the friends of the Reformation. The latter, as led by Luther, was favored with the patronage of princely powers; as led by Zuringle it could boast no such support; consequently unity marked the Germation, division the Swiss. Diversity af view as well as of action impeded the latter's progress. To-day, after centuries of influ-ence and of endeavor, the Swiss Reformed Church was without a general central synod-the Protes-tant cantons of Switzerland were destitute of cen-trality in feeling and action. Switzerland's na-tional unity indeed binds its natural divisions into one general confederation, and supersedes in some degree the necessity for ecclesiastical oneness. Resolved, That each pastor present be directed to furnish his name, with the names of the delegates from his charge, to the member of the committee be-longing to his classis. Lay delegates present, with-out their pastor are requested to report their names to the committee separately.

The subject which next occupied the attention of the meeting, was the essay entitled "The Authors of the Heidelberg Oatechism," composed and delivered by Professor Thos: C. Porter, professor of Natural Sciences in Franklin and Marshall College, Lan-caster, Pennsylvania. In this the history of Caspar Olevianus and Zacharias Ursinas was delineated in faithful and glowing colors. It was both well writ-ten and well read. The sentences were full of mean-ing, and the description very judicious. After the reading of the essay was finished, our attention was called by Rev. Dr. E. V. Gerhart, president of the Marshall and Franklin College, to the ter-centenary edition of the Heidelberg Catechism. A critical edi-tion of this work is expected to be ready for delivery by the first of May next. It will probably cost $2.50, but not over $3. After the announcement was made, Rev. Mr. J. S. Dumond, of Lancaster, Pa., made a few remarks in regard to the character of the Heidelberg Catechism in the Nether-lands." ## MISCELLANEOUS.

PEONAGE AND SLAVERY IN NEW MEXI-CO.—The annual message of Governor Arny, of New Mexico, shows that the Territory is out of debt, with a balance of sixteen hundred dollars in the treasury. The Governor devotes a large part of his message to the question of peonage, commenting upon the territorial law, which makes hired laborers on the farm responsible in their scr-vices for any advances of money or goods to the laborer. New Mexico has its slavery question in the cases of some six hundred Indian captives, who are held as slaves. These are so held under an old custom of the Mexicans. The Governor sees diffi-culties in emancipating them, or turning them loose, but still advises that their owners be compensated by the United States, and that the Indians be re-turned to friendly tribes, when they belong to such tribes, and when not, be disposed of as Congress in its wiedom may think best. PEONAGE AND SLAVERY IN NEW MEXI-

COST OF WAR.—From 1632. to 1815, England was for more than half the time—sixty-seven years —engaged in war. The war of the Spanish succes-sion cost over $300,000 in eleven years; the seven years' war cost $560,000,000; our Révolu-tionary war cost England $680,000,000; and that of the French Revolution $2,320,000. When at war with Napoleon, from 1803 to 1816, England raised by taxes the enormous sum of $1,940,000-an average of over $1,322,000 per day. It has been said that for minety days previous to the battle of Waterloo, she spent an average of $5,000,000 per day. The people of these countries are still overburdened with taxes and the poor needle have a slim abarce to diverso seven years' war cost $560,000,000; our Revolu of these countries are still overburdened with taxes —and the poor people have a slim chance to advance in wealth or position. —TOBACCO.—A wagon-load of this staple attract-ed considerable attention in our streets yesterday. It was raised by Mr. Samuel Smith, two and a half miles west of this city. Mr. Smith cultivated four acres, and the yield is upwards of 4000 pounds. He informs us that one hand could attend about four acres, and the yield is upwards of 4000 pounds. He informs us that one hand could attend about four acres. The product of an acre is about $150, ren-dering the culture of tobacco more profitable than almost any other crop which can be put in. The quality of the tobacco was very fair, and Mr. C. claims that he raised some which is very superior. Sangamon county is peculiarly adapted to the growth of this great staple, and farmers are beginning to turn their attention to its culture.—Springfield (III.) Journal. (Ill.) Journal.

(III.) Journal. BELLS AT PISA.—A writer in Notes and Queries says: On the top of the famous campanile at Pisa, better known by the name of "Hanging Tower," are five bells; on one of these is the following in-scription, in Lombardic capital letters, which has been forwarded by a friend: "Lotteringus Pepisis me fecit Corad Hospitularius Solvit, A. D. M. O. O. LX11." There are some running ornaments, ro-settes, &c., about the bell, and "Ave Maria, G. P.," between two angels, followed by some other inscrip-tion my friend could not make out. If this date, 1262, be correct, this must be the oldest bell in the world, unless there are any Russian bells to contest the palm of antiquity. the palm of antiquity.

The paim of antiquity. A SHARP RASCAL.—A man named John Tyroe, employed by Grover & Gardner, commission mer-chants of Baltimore, got cashed in Washington, the other day, a draft for $46,000 belonging to his em-ployers, getting "greenbacks" for the whole amount, and then hurried to New York, where he converted his paper into gold, and at once embarked for Eu-rope. It is thought he has swindled others out of money, by borrowing, &c., and that his delinquen-cies will not fall short of $70,000.

cies will not fall short of $70,000. IMPORTANT DECISION.—That was a very important decision of Judge Shipman, in the case of Boucieault vs. Fox, to the effect that the represen-tation of a play, by the consent of the author, gives no right to others to play it without his consent. The author's right to his play, book, lecture, sermon, or what not, is protected by common law, and by the law of copyright, when published. Literary men have been trying for years to obtain such a judgment as this at the hands of justice, but have never suc-ceeded till now. VALUABLE INFORMATION.—The London ceeded till now. VALUABLE INFORMATION.— The London Weekly Dispatch, in a recent violent attack on the United States, says that it is notorious that no per-son of color has a vote, even in the free States; there is a reign of terror at the ballot-box; there is no career for any man independent of a faction and electioneering trickery; and free persons of color are prohibited from holding lands, or so much as setting foot within Ohio, Illinois, and other New England States.

VICTOR HUGO'S GOOD BISHOP.-We learn that the real bishop, whose good deeds are almost literally narrated by the novelist, was Charles Eran-cis Melchior Bienvenu Miollis, Bishop of Digne, who was born in 1753, and died in 1843. These figures who was born in 1753, and died in 1843. These figures do not exactly correspond with Victor Hugo's, the Bishop's birth having been moved backward thir-teen years, and his life shortened by eight years, simply to suit the story. The good man lives anew in the world after his death, and "being dead, yet speaketh." THE LAST ODDITY.—Among the last heard of

THE LAST ODDITY.—Among the last heard of oddities attracted to Paris by various motives is said to be a Russian prince of great wealth, his fortune being estimated at the respectable figure of $650,000 a year. A Paris correspondent of a Canada paper says he spends much of his time in travelling, and, having a passion for wild beasts, carries an exten-sive menagerie around with him. He is fond of "seeing the elephant," no doubt.

BAD SIDEWALKS.—The Supreme Court of New York has affirmed a verdict of $1,000 which a t blind lady had recovered against the city for a defect in the sidewalk, by reason of which she claimed to have received damage. The court holds that it is the duty of the corporation to keep the sidewalks in such repair that even the blind shall be protected from injury by reason of defects therein.

Depond fourscore, would recall to the memory of our older merchants one formerly engaged in exten-sive commercial business. His upright and blame-less conduct, in the days of his prosperity and in the reverses which befel him through misplaced con-fidence in others at a period of general commercial distress, won for him a degree of respect not often enjoyed, and never more justly earned. That the last years of the life of this estimable man were not embilitered by ward or the painful apprehension of last years of the life of this estimable man were not embittered by want or the painful apprehension of t, was owing to the regular provision for his sup-port from the funds of this institution. In view of these and similar illustrations, which re daily presented in the progressive history of this lan of benevolence, can it be doubted that there hould cluster around the Merchants' Fund the warm regards of the merchants of Philadelphia, which should insure its greater ability and more certain permanence? If our profession be one of acknowledged usefulness—if the general integrity which characterized it has secured a well-attested confidence at home, and reflected honor on the repu-tation of our city abroad—if it is exceeded by no tation of our city abroad—if it is exceeded by no other in the munificence of its private charities and generous support of our public institutions of be-nevolence—if at the call of our country, and in defence of her Constitution and laws, it has freely expended its blood and treasure, there may be surely claimed for its own members in destitution and sorrow a peculiar sympathy, and that it should so minister relief as to indict no wound upon the suf-ferer, nor exact any humiliation as the price of its gifts. To do this in the best way, and to assist the worthy and deserving even as a brother helps a brother in his need the Merchants' Fund was in-stituted, and there has come upon it the "blessing brother in his need, the Merchants' Fund was in-stituted, and there has come upon it the "blessing of" many "who were ready to perish." The following extract of a note from Horace Bin-ney was read in connection with the report: "In the course of an active professional life, I had constant opportunities to observe how vasily the cases of good faith among merchants and men of business in this city outnumbered the cases of an opposite description, where at the same time there was neither formal security nor competent proof to insure fidelity. I should say, the proportion was greater than a thousand to one." The treasurer's report showed receipts amounting to $4,913.25, and expenditures to $2,182.90. The sum of $1,975 was expended for beneficiaries, leaving a balance of $2,730.35.

THE MUNICIPAL SWORD TO THE LATE GEN. C. F. SMITH .- It will be remembered that, shortly after the downfall of Fort Donelson, the City Councils of Philadelphia, by a unanimous reso-lution, voted to present to the hero of that victory, lution, voted to present to the hero of that victory, Major General Chas. F. Smith, a handsome sword, in testimony of their appreciation of his brave and gallant conduct. Gen. Smith being a Philadelphian, was the more entitled to the substantial recognition of our municipal authorities. The sword was at once ordered to be manufactured, but, before it reach-ed completion, he for whom it was intended, died h from the wounds received at Donelson. The testi-monial, however, was presented, privately, on Mon-day evening to the family of the lamented soldier by Mayor Henry, assisted by Theodore Cuyler, Esq., president of Select Courcil. The Mayor, in presenting the sword, delivered a neat and graceful address, referring in terms of the warnest eulogy to the merits and bravery of the gallant hero. It was received by Mrs. Smith in simple and touching language, which bore ample testimony to the worth of her distinguished husband. The sword itself is a finished piece of workmanship, the hilt blazing with diamonds and enriched with amethysts, pearls, and the most exquisite enamel.

A YER'S SARSAP ARILLA IS A CON centrated extract of Pare Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still preater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is surely within the by those who suffer from Strumous complaints and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of im-mense service to this large class of our afficied fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints: SCEOFULA AND SCEOFULOUS COMPLAINTS, EENFTIONS AND EAUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, STPHILIS AND ST-PHLITIC AFFECTIONS, MEECURIAL DISEASE, DROFST, NEURALGIA OR. TIC DOLOREUX, DEBILITY, D'ESPERIA AND'INDIGESTION, ENTSTELAS, HOSE OV ST. ANTHON'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from LAPURITY OF THE BLOOD. This compound will be found a great promoter of health when taken in the spring to expel the foul hu-mors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disor-ders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, snare themselves from the endurance of hold by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out he vitia-ted blood whenever you, fud its impurities bursing it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is fell people enjoy theter health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with the pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsa-parilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curtaive properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which Sod the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloguy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irre-sistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. READ THE FOLLOWING CAREFULLY. About twelve months ago I had a severe attack of Diabetes, attended with other difficulties too numerons to mention. My desire for drink was constant, and al-though I drank gallons per day, my thirst was never allayed I was only able to sleep at short intervals, which seemed like a trance. The mucous surface of my mouth and throat had becomes so parched and frequent in the horrors of Dysperia, loss of appetite, Nan-sea, and frequent and severe attacks of vomiting; and so prostrated was my general system, that J was scarcely able to move about. Thad availed myself of the science and skill of distinguished medical men, both of the Allo-pathie and frequent system, that J was scarcely able to move about. Thad availed myself of the science and skill of distinguished medical men, both of the Allo-pathie and frequent and severy ray of hope seemed para-lyzed, I heard of the discovery of Professor Bolles in the nee of Electricity, and the wonders he was performing in curing disease, and placed myself under his treatment; and, to the astonishment of myself and friends, in two operations my Diabetes was controlled, and other diffi-culties scond disappeared in yappetite has returned, sleep undisturbed, and, in fact, I feel like one made anew.
