Supreme Court at Nisi Prins-Chief Justice Lowrie. The court was engaged with the Motion List on Saturday morning, and a number of cases disposed of. Among them are the following, with which our readers are somewhat familiar: Theid vs. The Insurance Company of the State of Pennsylvania. Rule for a new trial; point re-served. The case was an action on a policy of in-surance on the brig John Welsh, which was captured by the pirate Jeff Davis, and the point reserved was whether the loss was caused by the acts of pirates, a peril not covered by the policy. The fole Justice on Saturday morning discharged the ule for a new trial, and entered judgment for the defendants on the point reserved, saying that the Jeff Davis was clearly a pirate, under the criminal act of Congress, but was not so under com-mercial law. They were public enemies, and the loss by their acts was not a peril insured against. The case will be taken to the Supreme Court in Banc.

The case will be taken to the supreme court in Banc. Hodgson vs. Millward. The Jeffersonian newspa-per selzure case. Before reported. The motion by defendants for a new trial was discharged. Devine vs. Philadelphia, Wilmington, and Balti-more Railroad Company. Motion for preliminary injunction to restrain the company from laying a track along a private alley way of complainant. Ar-gument fixed for Wednesday morning.
