was held yesterday afternoon. A communication was received from the directors of the Thirteenth section, stating that in the John Q. Adams girls grammar school Miss Emma Walter had been promoted to third assistant, and Miss Mary E. Benners had been elected fourth assistant. An increase of salary for the Rockinburg school was asked for. From the Fiftcenth section a requiest was made that the second story room of the building at Nine-teenth and North streets be rented for a primary school. The directors of this section also informed the Board of the creation of a fifth division in the school at Twentieth and Coates streets. The Twenty-second section requested, by resolu-tion, that the grade of the Offley school be changed from that of an unclassified to a grammar school. The directors of the Twenty-fifth section requested that the Board rent a building in the visinity of Frankford road and Somerset streets sufficient to accommodate 480 scholars. It is posi-ticly asserted that Governor Johnson, of Tennessee, and ex-Governor Wright, of Indiana, will be pre-sent, and address the meeting. These men are among those few of the Democracy who remained the company for the same. The resolution wars adopted, and the Board ad-journed.

GERMAN INSTRUCTION .- Professor C. C. Schaeffer, of the University of Pennsylvania, announces that he will commence a series of lectures nounces that he will commence a series of lectures upon the German language, on the 23d instant. The system of instruction adopted by Prof. Schaeffer is spoken of, by those who have experienced it, as eminently simple, and yet comprehensive, conveying to the student a clearer insight into the idlomatic construction of the language than is generally obconstruction of the language than is generally ob-tained from the popular text books on the subject. The proposed course will consist of about fifteen , and will embrace a variety of topics interesting to beginners.
