RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE. Patriotic Sermon by the Rev. John H. Suydam. On the 22d of February, the Rev. J. H. Suydam, pastor of the First Reformed Dutch Church, Seventh and Spring Garden streets, preached a discourse ap propriate to the day; and on last Sunday evening in compliance with the expressed wish of a number of his parishioners, it was repeated, in the same pulpit, in the presence of a large congregation, notwith-standing the inauspicious state of the weather. The following is the text of Scripture upon which the discourse was founded: "Render, therefore, unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's." The theme deduced from these familiar words of Christ, addressed to his artful questioners, was that of Christian Patriotism, a subject which the preacher remarked was at once strijet which the preacher teachings of Christ, and kingly inculcated in the teachings of Christ, and heartfully all the life and practice of beautifully illustrated in the life and practice of

He diew a parallel between the Pharisees, who were seeking to entrap the Saviour by the question which drew from Him the words of the text in reply, which drew from Him the words of the text in reply, and those who are now given, up wholly to finding a fault with the Administration, and manifesting a fault with the Administration, and manifesting a more anxious concern about the letter of the Consti more anxious concern about the letter of the Consti for the salvation of the country, and concluded this part of the subject with these words, "No Constitution was ever formed for a Government, but that carries within it, as its very life and soul and constitutions." parries within it, as its very life and soul and es sence, the preservation of that Government. If it be not expressed in the letter, it is always in the be not expressed in the spirit. It was made for this very purpose. And a loyal people will ever support an honest Administration in even what may seem to be a violation of the form of the Constitution, provided it preserves the substance. This substance is the Government, for which the Constitution was made." The preacher then considered Washington in the three-fold view of patriot, statesman, and Christian. Each of these was separately illustrated by acts in the history of this great man, drawn from his life at Mount Vernon, his participation in the Revolutionary War, and his career as President of the United States. By way of contrast with Washington's patriotism, he exhibited the prevalent disloy alty of the present time, which he placed under three heads—technical disloyalty, or that manifested by resistance to law by force of arms; disloyalty and a sudden horror of war when we happen to be victorious; and disloyally spoken, or that which speaks out, but yet keeps beyond the hands of the law. The preacher maintained boldly that such treasonable utterances ought to be rebuked by all He then considered Washington's statesmanship as being founded upon right, and tempered with prudence and principles which might be applied to all emergencies. In this connection the preacher again contrasted the conduct of many of our people to. day with the noble example of Washington, in which connection the character and practice of professed oliticians, who make office a trade, and scruple not to do anything for self and party aggrandizement were graphically delineated. He urged that it was the duty of the good and the true men of the nation

upon any terms, or by the joyful expressi to take away the power from the hands of the ignorant and the corrupt. Finally, Washington's religious character was held up for the Christian patriot's imitation. The virtue of the people, he said, was the only sure defence of or the people, he said, was the only sure defence of a nation, and among the most prolific causes of our present troubles were the infidelity, dishonesty, and falsehood of the people's representatives; and un-less we sought a radical remedy in the promulgation of the truth as contained in the Word of God, he or the truit as consisted in the word of Gdd, according to proper to four ever securing a permanent peace. The God in whom Washington and his compatitots of the Revolution put their trust was to-day the only "sun and shield" of this Republic.

The sermon was interspersed with an episode of lamentation over the present condition of the country, eulogy upon her institutions, and an invocation for peace to return again, though only such a peace as would bring with it Union, and honor, and safety, to our whole people, and concluded with the application of the Saviour's argument to the people, "to cour whole people, and concluded with the application of the Saviour's argument to the people, "to cour whole people, and concluded with the application of the Saviour's argument to the people, "to cour whole people, and concluded with the application of the Saviour's argument to the people, "to four whole people, and concluded with the application of the Saviour's argument to the people, "to four whole people, and concluded with the application of the Saviour's argument to the people, "to four whole people, and concluded with the application of the Saviour's argument to the people, "to four whole people, and concluded with the application of the Saviour's argument to the people, "to four whole people, and concluded with the application of the Saviour's superscription upon the penny made it proper to pay it to him in tribute, then God's superscription, written upon the sky and the fields, the river and the mountain, in the Bible, in the human form, in the human soul, upon the cross of Christ, also made it proper that we should render to Him what is His due.

On Wednesday evening of this week the Vounce Men's Central Home Mission—a truly beneficent organization, instituted and conducted under the suspices of the Methodist Episcopal Church—held their annual meeting at Sansom-street Hall. The social and innocently festive character of these annual gatherings has rendered their return doubly cceptable to the hundreds in this city who cheerfully contribute of their means towards carrying on the humane work of this mission in what may be figuratively termed "the Five Points" of Philadelphia, the district to which their missionary efforts are mainly directed being confined to Bedford, Spafford, St. Mary, Baker streets, and vicinity. The "tea drinking," on Wednesday evening, although pleasant, was not the only attractive feature of the programme.

The hour announced for the guests to take their seats at the tables (which were abundantly supplied with good things) was 7 o'clock, at which time there were about six hundred people in the hall. An appropriate prayer was offered by the Rev. Mr. Smith, the close of which tea and coffee were served, and the whole company proceeded to discuss, in a quiet, social way, the bill of fare, the news of the day, the prospects of the war, the intrusion of copperheads in our patriotic Edens, even in some cases trans-forming pulpits in the loyal States into masked bat-teries of treason, &c., &c., until, at a given signal, after the tables had been relieved of a liberal share of their burden, the speech-making of the evening. was inaugurated, when capital speeches were de-livered by the Rev. Mr. Wiley, of Pennington Semi-nary; Rev. George F. Kettel, of Poughkeepsie; Rev. Samuel Thomas, and Thomas T. Mason, Esq., of this city. The collection taken on the occasion amounted to over $1,200. From the Tenth Annual Report of this Mission,

New Jersey Conference.

[Special Report for The Press.]

Thursday morning, eight o'clock, the Bishop being still absent, Dr. Brown resumed the chair. The Conference was opened in due form, by Rev. J. Ashbrook. The calling of the roll was dispensed with. Circular from the Sunday-school Union was read, showing that within the bounds of the M. E. Church are 30,301 Sunday-schools, 147,816 officers and teachers, 616,931 scholars, and 2,429,772 volumes; also showing that over 12,000 conversions have occurred in the schools during the past year. These figures show some decrease in these ttems, which the circular attributes to the slaveholders' rebellion. A letter from Rev. W. A. Wilmer, an aged member of the Conference, now residing in Illinois, was read, showing his ardent attachment to his brethren in New Jersey. In the case of the following young men, the report of the committees, in reference to their studies, was presented—their character passed: R. M. Stratton continued on trial; C. Hartranfft, W. Reeves, G. K. Morris, W. S. Barnart, and Dickinson Moore, continued as deacons, and S. F. Wheeler, L. Larue, G. H. Williams, Wm. E. Boyle, S. Chatten, and W. B. Gullis, elected to elders' orders.

The following were continued in a superannusted New Jersey Conference.

S. Charten, and W. B. Chins, elected to enters' orders.

The following were continued in a superannuated relation: M. German, G. A. Raybold, E. Page, J. J. Sleeper, R. E. Morrison, J. Chattle, J. C. Chew, J. S. Beegle, S. Rusling, J. Loudenslager, and J. W. Pachelden. J. S. Beegle, S. Kusing, J. Loudenbager, and S. H. Bachelder.

Before the division of the Church, in 1845, the publishing interest of the Church afforded dividends to aid in the support of our disabled ministers. This year there is a return to that custom, and an order for $400 passed, as also one for $30, from the "chartered fund," for the same purpose.

P. S.—A despatch has just arrived with the intelligence that Bishop Scott is sick, but hopes to be here by Saturday.

THE POLICE.

[Before Mr. Alderman Beitler.]

Professionals.

Two young men were arrested on Thursday night on the cars, at the New York Railroad depot, Kensington, on suspicion of being pickpockets. Their movements attracted the attention of Officers Alexander and Gorman, who felt themselves justified in taking them into custody. Yesterday afternoon the prisoners were arraigned before Mr. Alderman Beitler, at the Central Station. Several of the detective force were examined. One of the parties was recognized as a professional pickpocket. He was committed for ninety days under the name of John Price. The other prisoner was known to the detectives a year ago as a burglar. He was committed to await a further hearing. The penal code forbids pickpockets from entering railroad cars, but says nothing about burglars.

(From Le Follet.)

Nearly all ladies are becoming and look well in toilette de bal; but so much cannot be said of simple dress to which natural distinction and grace, personal to the individual, impart an inimitable stamp, even thereby adorning the literally unadorned. In keeping with this remark we may observe that walking dress, or morning dress, are more than ever simple and without effect; and in the street a lady ought to appear as it were inosgnito, or, at least, to be so dressed as to avoid the approach of wishing to be remarked by her toilet. The training dresses, except for ceremonial occasions, have been altogether abandoned and fairly driven out of fashion by those terrible shafts of ridicule to which French people of all classes are so peculiarly sensitive. The mode of wearing the dress drawn up (imitated, if we are not mistaken, from the English) is now becoming very genteel in Paris; the cage américani has prayed to be the only substructure capable of supporting the dress drawn up climitated, if we are not mistaken, from the English is now becoming very genteel in Paris; the cage américani has prayed to be the only substructure capable of supporting the drawn-up skirt gracefully and without leaving any disagreeable mark on the stuff.

This year cloth paletots are so much a la mode that they are worn either for a visit or for an ordinary promenade, varying only slightly in form and ornament, according to the importance of the occasion; the paletot with three seams in the back, ornamented with passementeric, is that usually adopted for the finest descriptions; occasionally a narrow band of astracan is sewn over three seams, which gives a rich effect to the garment. The most fashionable colors for such paletots are fawa and bleu de Mexique.

A total absence of exaggeration in the form and ecoration of chapeaux by the ladies who govern the French taste in such matters is all we have to mention for the moment on the inexhaustible subject of bonnets. mention for the moment on the inexhaustible subject of bonnets.

Walking Dress.—Black poplin robe, drawn up by interior lace over a colored jupon with clothband. Blue-cloth three-seamed paletot, trimmed on the sleeve with an ornament of passementerie of the same color. Black velvet bonnet, ornamented on the top with a liberal profusion of feathers, in the midst of which appear two blue flowers. Small muff, gants de Suéde, black kid boots, with high red heels, and violet stockings, complete this toilet.

Ball Dress.—Robe of white satin, with two very deep lace flounces on the skirt; the bottom of the dress, and the top of each flounce, are trimmed with a narrow silk ruching. The corsage is round-waisted, and provided with a bertha (of the same material as the dress), also trimmed with lace. The puff-sleeves are in tuile. A bouquet of light-blue flowers, from which descends on one side a similar colored floral train, imparts an additional grace to this charming ball costume. The head-dress, in the forme of a diadem, is composed of blue velvet, pearls, and a small white feather. Pearl necklace.

EVENING Dress.—Black moire antique robe, having round the edge of the skirt a narrow fluting of the same shiff; the peculiarly elegant trimming on the skirt, the plastron of the corsage, and the cuffs and jokeys of the sleeves, consist of white satin ribbon covered with black, passementerie, and produce an excellent effect. The top of the corsage is ornamented with a large blond bow, provided with wo short but wide ends edged with lace, now very much worn in Paris. The coffure is composed of black lace, and a tuft of roses, and rose leaves forming a diadem.

An Ugly Sneak Thief.

An man, whose ugitness of face was the subject of various comment, was arraigned on the charge of stealing a coat, the property of Mr. C. J. Tindale. The prisoner gave the name of Pat Goff. The ovidence was, that he walked into the counting-house of Mr. T., on Second street above Walnut, about 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and taking an overcoat from a hook, started away with it. He got some distance off before the theft was discovered. He was arrested on Front street. At the conclusion of the evidence the alderman asked the accused what had to say for himself. He replied:

"Nothing, sir."

TESTIMONIALS. ROM REV. JOHN NOTT, D. D., PROFESSOR IN UNIO COLLEGE, SCHENECTADY, N. Y. SCHENECTADY, January 17, 1862.

Dr. Lighthill-Sir: Having been cured by you of a discharge in an ear, which has been very offensive of late, and as far back as I can remember always more or less so; and having been much improved in hearing since under your care, I feel that I cannot withhold this acknowledgment from any use it may be to others, especially as I have applied in vain to my family physician and other physicians of reputation. Yours truly, JOHN NOTT. CATARRH OURED.

[FROM REV. P. R. RUSSELL, LYNN, MASS.] I have been much troubled with catarrh of the worst type for some twenty years. It gradually grew worse, producing cough and hoarseness, destroying the sense of smell, and breaking down my general health to such a degree as to compel me to resign my pastorate and suspend public speaking. I made diligent use of the usual remedies, such as snuffs of various kinds, nitrate of silver, tar-water, olive tar, and inhalations, but without any very salutary effects. Last summer I heard of Dr. Lighthill's successful mode of treating catarrh, visited him, and put myself under his treatment. I began immediately to improve, and this improvement has gone on to the present time. My catarrh has gradually melted away, my cough has disappeared, my voice has become natural, and I am once more able to preach the blessed Gospel. Let me advise all troubled with catarrhal difficulties to ap-P. R. RUSSELL. ply to Dr. Lighthill.

LYNN, Mass., Feb. 1, 1862. INSTITUTION FOR THE DEAF AND DUMB, New York, January 7, 1862. I have pleasure in testifying to the skill and kind attention of Dr. Lighthill, who has relieved me from a troublesome deafness, brought on by a severe cold. I shall be happy to answer any inquiries made by persons seeking information at my address ROBERT CLIVE, Book-keeper. This may certify that, having been afflicted during the year 1856 with severe and almost total deaf ness, and having tried the ordinary medical and surgical aid, under the care of those esteemed as eminent practitioners, I was induced at last to put myself under the care of Dr. E. B. Lighthill. His treatment was brief and successful. I was completelyr ored, and the cure is apparently permanent, have all confidence in Dr. L.'s skill and ntegri y in the diseases he makes specialties. JAMES CRUIKSHANK, LL. D.,

Editor N. Y. Teacher. ALBANY, Oct. 1, 1862. 740 WATER STREET, NEW YORK, June 5, 1862. Dr. Lighthill has succeeded in completely restoring my hearing, which was seriously impaired, although revious to applying to him I was treated by several physicians without the least benefit. Any further information I should be pleased to render on application to me at my residence, 173 Second street, Brooklyn, E. D., or at my place of business, 740

Water street. WM. H. WATERBURY. New York, July 28, 1862. I hereby certify that I have suffered during many years from trouble in hearing; one ear at last became entirely deaf, and the other so bad as to render conversation very difficult. I applied to Dr. Lighthill, of No. 34 St. Mark's Place, who in a short time, and without pain, restored to me the use of my ears, so that I can now hear perfectly well. J. BISCO, No. 158 East Twenty-third st.

METROPOLITAN HOTEL, New York, April 1, 1862. DEAR Siz: I take much pleasure in testifying, to the professional skill exhibited by you in your treatment of a case of severe inflammation of the throat and ear with which I have lately been afflicted. Upon coming under your charge I was immediately relieved, and speedily cured of a most aggravated complaint, which several physicians had previously sought in vain to mitigate. As I am somewhat of a stranger in the city, I would state that you are at liberty to substantiate my statements, if necessary, by reference to my relatives, Mr. A. V. Stout, President of the Shoe and

Leather Bank of New York, and to Mr. Everett

Clapp, of the Western Transportation Company,

No. 1 Coenties Slip.

With much esteem, I am, sir, Your obedient servant, FRED. M. HANKS. To Dr. Lighthill, No. 34 St. Mark's Place, N. Y. No. 11 DEY STREET, NEW YORK, Jan. 2, 1863. DR. E. B. LIGHTHILL-Dear Sir: It is with the kindest feelings toward you, and hoping to do service to some one who is afflicted, that I forward the enclosed document to you. To whom it may concern : I am personally acquainted with the success which attended Dr. Lighthill's treatment in a case of discharge from the ear and chronic inflammation of the throat, and would be pleased to give further information on application.

V. D. W. WEEKES. I placed my wife under the care of Dr. Lighthill for deafness in one ear, of nearly three years' standing, accompanied by constant noises. I am happy to state that her hearing is now entirely restored, and the noises removed. Those residing in New and the hoises removed. Those residing in New York, who are desirous of further information, may apply to my brother-in-law, Captain William Edwards, at No. 95 East Thirty-fourth street, who is acquainted with the circumstances of the case. FRANCIS GOULDY. Newburgh, 73 Grand street, Dec. 23, 1862.

I have been suffering for some time with noise in my head, and deafness. Having applied to Dr. Light-hill, I have great pleasure in saying that he has com-pletely relieved me, so that now I can hear as well as ever, and am not troubled with the noise in my I may also mention that a young man named Henry Laws, staying with me, was aslo afflicted in a similar manner, and Dr. Lighthill was equally successful in his case.

UNIONIST.

By R. S. Tharin, A. M., A native of Cherieton, S. C., for 30 years a resident of the Cotion States, a former Law-partner of Wm.
L. Yancey, and commonly known in the West as the "Alabama Refugee."
This remarkable and thrilling book gives such an inside view of events in the South as we have not heretofore had. It depicts the sufferings, the trials, the perecentions, the dangers, the escapes, of a Southern Unionist, in vivid and stirring lauguage; and while it possesses the fasc-nating interest of a romance, the character and social position of the author are warrants of its fidelity. BUREAU OF ORDNANCE. MAYY DEPARTMENT.

WASHINGTON GITY, March. 2, 1868.

This Bureau is desirous of ascertaining whether rifled cannon can be made of wrought iron of sufficient and uniform endurance and economy to warrant their being preferred to guns of cast iron only, or of cast iron attengthened with wrought iron.

Proposals will therefore be received from any manufacturers of forged iron, to furnish a finished gut, or a block of metal from which the same may be fluished. The said gun, when finished, to weigh about 10,000 pounds, as used in cast iron rifled cannon of tike weight; to be fired 1,000 times, with service charges of the same weight and kindef powder as used in the Parrott 100-pounder, viz: 10 pounds of No. 7, without bursting or wearing in guch a manner as to cause apprehensions of bureling.

The quality of metal, price, and other terms, are to be stated clearly in the proposal firwarded.

The Bureau reserves the right to itself of accepting or rejecting any of the proposals. The time for receiving the proposals will only be received from persons, actually, engaged in the Eabrication of wrought iron.
