In November last I grew worse, and the consumption diarrheas set in and lasted about eight weeks. We had tried all and everything that is could graep at like a dying person, for my diseases—consumption and liver complaint—but of no avail. In January, 1883, I was brought down, again on my bed, and was not expected to live the night out. My busband staid at my side, with other friends, and they all gave me up to die. At this time every one who saw me did not think I ever would leave my bed a living woman. The first night I was attacked with spasms, and was deranged most of the time. A friend, Mrs. Harris, came in to see me the last of the week, and brought the Svanday Mercary. In it was an account of a great cure performed by Dr. Schenck. She read it to me, and it was so much like my disease that I asked my	GILT ANCRES AND CYLINDRES. PLATED ANCRES AND CYLINDRES. For Sale at Low Rates to the Trade, by	ASSEMBLY BUILDINGS. LAST WEEK.
