KING, NO. 1026 CHESTNUT Street, will open a handsome assort- ment of Spring and Summer Millinery on THURSDAY, April Sth	Few years of Military Annals are so fertile in events as that which has just expired. Full of varied chances, the year 1862 ought to leach us a great lesson. It ought to remind us that "The great principles of war cannot be violated with impunity." It may be interesting as well as useful to investigate the causes, both of the great dis- astrix which have befallen our armies, and of the sac- cesses which have befallen our armies, and of the sac- distribution in eview the different operations, and by discussing them from a strictly military stand-point, we may so perceive the errors of the past campaign as to be able to avoid similar ones in the campaign as to be. These reasons have induced me to write a Military Re- view of the Campaign of 1892, and even to discuss ope- rations which will probably take place in 1863.— Preseace.
