Captain Todd, who some time since had the misfortune to fall into rebel hands, and had cound out to torm in one of the Biohemet minered striber, Davis. Captain Todd, who some time since had the misfortune to fall into rebel hands, and had served out a term in one of the Richmond prisons, happened to come into the Secretary's office, stated his belief that Dr. Wilmer was one of the most bitter rebels whom he met during his sojourn in Richmond. Upon searching the rebel D. D., a number of letters, directed to Slidell in France, and to other parties in Europe, were found upon his per-son. Upon these facts coming to light the parson was arrested and committed to the Old Capitol to await-not his secution, but an exchange. As additional of Dr. Wilmer's duplicity, it is stated that he addressed a letter to the General Con-vention that met in New York last October, wherein he beseeched his brethren to advocate no division in the Church, and his letter was frequently quoted by the Secession admirers in that body as evidencing a Union spirit. Dr. Wilmer's nault for Phil-more, once rector of old St. Paul's Church in this city, and the late lameated Dr. Levi Bull, of Chester county. He is a native, however, of the "Old Do-minion," and from the influences brought to bear through marriage, family connections, and slavery, early gave his influence and sympathy to the rebels. That he regretted it afterwards we have not a doubt, as he was strongly tempted to write a letter to Bishop Meade asking him to absolve him from the promise meationed above. Had he carried out his honest convictions he might have now been enjoy-ing the esteem of a large and flourishing congrega-tion, and the respect of a community that now de-spines him. The Church Janthas the following in reference piese him. The Church Journal has the following in reference to this clergyman: "We learn that the Rev. Dr. Wilmer, who was arrested some time since for coming within the Union lines without a pass, and has since been in custody lines without a pass, and has since been in custody

LOTTERY DEALERS.—In reference to lot-tery dealers, the acting commissioner of internal revenue has decided that article 37 of section 64, as smended in the first section of the act of March 3, 1863, is considered to authorize a person, association, firm, or corporation, to sell lottery tickets under a license, as contemplated in said article, at a place of business specified in the license granted. It cannot, however, be considered as authorizing the agents of such person, association, firm, or corporation, that may have been licensed as aforesaid, to sell at places other than that named in the license. The particular application of this rule would au-thorize the corporation to sell lottery tickets, at its place of business, whenever licenses shall be applied for and granted. If, however, corporations shall employ agents in various parts of the State to sell tickets upon commission, auch agents will be re-quired severally to take licenses under said article. THE PASSENGER RAILROADS.—On Thurs-day last a resolution was adopted in Councils, re-questing the Chief Commissioner of Highways to inform that body how many of the passenger rail-road companies have paid their ear license, the amount that has been paid for the present and pre-vious years, together with the amounts now due. Such information has long been needed, and the Commissioner has prepared the necessary data. Passenger railroad cars are assessed by Councils $30 each. The total amount of money paid in, however, as license, is not generally a criterion of the number of cars employed by a company. The time for pay-ing license is in the month of January—a time when but few cars pass over any of the companies (we had almost said all) put on many extra exes, for which no license is paid. Of course, no blame can rest upon the Commissioner of Highways If $30 be, not obtained for each car, as he collects the license only for the number of cars returned. -The following statement is an answer to the resolution of Coursils: CAR LICENSES FASSENGER RAILWAYS. THE CATAWISSA RAILROAD.-The annual report of the Catawissa Railroad, which was read at the annual meeting on Tuesday, shows the net earnings of the year to be $66,609. A comparison of the business of the road, during the years 1861 and 1862, shows as follows:

Decrease of 16 per centum The business offered to the road from local sources, during the whole of the past year, has been largely in advance of both their motive power and capacity, which, with the necessities of the railway, con-strained the expenditure of $130,152.60 for new stock and improvements. The "through business" from Elmira-to Philadelphila, during the past year, amounted to 20,487 tons, yielding to the Catawissa, for its own and leased roads, but $20,663.12, being at the rate. $436 of a cent per fon, per mile. he rate .8475 of a cent per ton, per mile.

FLAG ERESENTATION AT THE WEST PHILADELTINA HOSPITAL.-A few days since, a handsome flag was presented to the West Philadel-phia Hospital, by the ladles connected with the reading room of that institution. The parade ground attached to the hospital was selected for the cere-mony, and, as very many ladles and other visitors had assembled, it presented a very gay appearance. The flag, which will doubtless figure on dress parade and all festive occasions, is made of silk, and of very superior work manship, and Dr. Porter, who acted as representative of the ladles, took the opportunity, when presenting it, to allude to the dangers which now threaten our national banner, and in patriotic and appropriate works urged upon the troops the importance of maintaining it unsullied. He then delivered it over to Sergeant major Stale, the com-mander of the guard, who acknowledged the gift in a most gentlemanly and soldierlike address to the fair donors, and caused it to be unfurled to the pleas-ant breeze which opportunely at that moment sprung up. The guards then went through battalion drill, and the manner in which the various evolutions were effected was most satisfactory-calling forth the warmest encomiums of the military officers present, and very much to the credit of the sergeant-major, who evidently has drilled the men to a very perfect standard, taking into consideration the frequent changes necessarily occuring at this institution. The soldiers, in the afternoor, paraded through the principal streets, and were afterwards provided with a liberal entertainment, through the kindness of Dr. Hayes, the surgeon in charge of the hospital.

THE POLIOE. IBefore Mr. Alderman Welding, J Fined. James Sullivan was atraigned yesterday afternoon be-fore Alderman Welding on the charge of trandling a two-wheeled barrow on the sidewalk. It seems that Officer Hutchinson drove the defendant from the side-walk. After reaching a short distance, and supposing he was beyond the vision of the official, he attempted to get on the sidepavement again. Just as he had pushed one wheel up the curbstone, he was taken into custody. After the development of the above facts, the witness de-sired to ask the officer some queetions. Certainly, replied the aldernam. Question. "You told me to get of the sidewalk, didn't you?" Answer. "I did." Answer. "I did." Q. "Did I do it?" "Did I do it, "You did." "You didn't tell me that I shouldn't get on." "You know it's against the law to wheel your bar-you the sidewalk." "Well, sir, can you say under oath that I did get Q. "Well, sir, can you say under oath that I did get on?". A. "You had one wheel up, and were getting on as fast as you could." Mr. Sullivan now briefly summed np. Said he: It ap-pears by the evidence that I was on the sidewalk, and I got off when the officer told me to do so; I therefore obeyed the law represented by its agent. Now, sir, is there any offence in this? Again, sir, is there any law which says a man shall not attempt to get on the side-walk? Then, again, sir, if I was only half on, ought I to pay more than half the fine? These questions the alderman answered by saying that he had no business to be on the payement in the first place. Had he not attempted to get on the second time he would not be here. Mr. Sullivan paid the fine and departed. Disorderly House.

he would not be here. Mr. Sullivan paid the fine and departed. Disorderly House. About ten o'clock list evening Officer Adams, with a posse of police, made a descent on a public house, on Eighth street, above Wood, kept by Mary Phillips. The warraut was issued by Mayor Henry, and called for the arrest of all pursons found in the house. Five women and two men were taken into cuttody. Officer Boyd Adams, on beiog sworn, testified that the warrant had been issued by the Mayor on complaint of neighbors who were very much annoyed by the bolste-rous conduct of people who frequent the house. He asked that the parties be held for another hearing to allow time for the neighbors to appear. The defendants were required to enter bail in the sum of $500 each to appear this afternoon at two o'clock.
