WOODLANDS CEMETERY LOTHOLDERS'
MEETING.—A very large number of the lotholders of the Woodlands Cemetery, held an indignation meeting last evening at the Board of Trade room. Dr. A. L. Kennedy was called to the chair, and George R. Orme, Esq., appointed secretary.
Mr. McCurdy offered the following resolutions, which were briefly discussed and adopted:

Wiereas, During the past few days coly it has come to our knowledge that the managers of the Woodlands Cemetery Company have determined to sell a portion of the said cemetery grounds for building nurposes, and have, without our knowledge or consent, obtained legisnitive authority for such purpose; and whoreas we, the lotholders, believe any such action as that proposed by the manager's would be a violation of our rights and highly lujurious to the property and perpetuity of the cemetery as such, therefore, we most solemily protest against any such separation or dismemberment whatever. Futhermore he it

Resolved, That it is the unaltrable belief of those present that any such action as that now proposed by the managers of the said estate, unjust, unchristian-like, and viewed in any pripose other than that of interment a portion of the said estate, unjust, unchristian-like, and viewed in any light in which we can see it, appears unseemly and highly improper. The manner, also, in which this company opened their cemetery to the public and invited persons to purchase lots therein formed the basis with each purchase of a most solemn contract; the assumance, furthermore, was fully given that the whole varied persons to purchase lots therein formed the basis with each purchase of a most solemn contract; the assumance, furthermore, was fully given that the whole void be respected, that it protected by a benevolent and humane board of managers of any order the surfaces of the grave would be respected, and then owned by the company. We septimize of the grave would be respected, that it goes.

Resolved, That it goes.

Resolved, That it goes our unalterable belief that, if the THE CITY. affair attracted attention, and a police officer took the descerate individual into custody. He was required to enter bail in the sum of $1,500 to answer. WOODLANDS CEMETERY LOTHOLDERS' RAILROAD LINES. RAILROAD LINES. AUCTION SALES. AUCTION SALES. The Thermometer.

F-John W. Hey vs. The Second and Third-streets Passenger Railway Company. This was an action to recover dumages for the arleged unlawful ejectment of the plaintiff. from one of the passenger-cars of the defendants. From the evidence, it appears that the plaintiff got on one of the company's cars, at or near Arch street, unter the impression that it went all the way down Second street. It was one of the Richmond line, however, and turned around Dock street, and the conductor told the plaintiff to run on and catch a car that way just ashead, which was going all the way down, but gave him no cheek. Mr. Hoy overtook the car, but, after he rode a short distance, his lare was demanded: He explained to the connuctor low he had already paid on the other car and received no cheek. In he conductor refused to pass him down without a fare or encek, and finally called a police efficer and had him put out. Hence the action for damages.

Justice Strong instructed the jury that it was the duty of the conductor of the first car to have given plainsiff a check, and having failed to do so, the company was itable for the damages can-ed by the negligence of their servant. Supreme Court at Nist Prius—Judge Strong. REOPENING OF

ROMCIDE CASE.
Yesterday Henry Gilbert was put on trial, charged with the murder of Benedict Reinheimer, on the evening of the 18th of September last, at the larger-beer saloon of a Mrs. Hepp, in Bridesburg. From the evidence it appears that there had been a German propic at Bridesburg on that day, which Reinheimer and his wife attended. On returning, in the evening, they stopped at this saloon for the purpose of obtaining some beer. While there it e defendant and some others came in and made an indiscriminate attack upon all assembled there. Mrs. Reinheimer, at the commencement of the disturbance, wanted her busband to leave, but he refused, saying that they were not molesting any one, and these men would not disturb them. She went out, for a few minutes, to some relatives in the neighborhood, to get them to persuade her husband to leave, and when she returned she found her husband bleeding very freely from a stab that he had received. He died the next day. Gilbert was if entilied as one of the persons making the attack on Reinheimer, and some of the witnesses testified to his striking at him, and that he had something in his hand which gleamed, in the light. None of them, however, testified positively to seeing him have a knife. The evidence for the defence was to show an excellent character for the accused for quiet and good order; that on that day he was under the influence of liquor. The MANN'S BAGGAGE EXPRESS.

BLACK AND COLORED FANCY DRESS SILKS AND FOULARDS. During four months of the year accommodations were available for lodgers. Only two hundred, or about one-tenth the usual number, availed themselves of them. About one hundred and seventy people have received food transiently. To deserving persons, at their own rooms, there has likewise been distributed a suitable amount of meal, potatoes, and coal or cinders. Thirty-six garments have been disposed of in this way, and two families granted food and bedding. Two hundred and thirty-three baths have likewise been given to adults. No employment has been furnished to poor needlewomen, the outside demand for needlework being so great that every one capable of making a garment can obtain employment at higher rates than the House can afford to give.

The treasurer's report shows the amount of receipts to be $2,541; the expenditures, $1,562.93; and the balance, consequently, $778.07.

Riley, Esq., fourth district collector, has received notice from the chief Commissioner of Internal Revenue that but one stamp is required on a mortgage accompanied by a bond and warrant of attorney. The stamp on the single instrument must be the highest rate required for either of the instruments. It will be advisable in practice to place the stamp on the instrument to which reference is made by the other instrument or instruments. Where a bond and mortgage are given as securities for the same debt, the bond is usually the evidence of the debt; the mortgage is merely a collateral security. In such case the stamp is properly placed on the bond. Where a warrant of attorney accompanies a bond, the stamp will propenly be placed on the bond. A judgment note requires but one stamp, and that the stamp appropriate to the note. No stamp is needed for the accompanying warrant of attorney to confess judgment. A bond for money loaned without mortgage requires the same stamp as a bond for money loaned with the security of an accompanying mortgage. The stamp must denote a duty of ten cents upon every sum of $200, or any fractional part thereof.

The tax on conveyance is regulated by schedule B. Where land is sold subject to a mortgage without any covenant by the grantee to pay the mortgage debt, the stamp must be appropriate to the consideration of the grant, of which consideration the mortgage will not form a part. Where the grantee assumes to pay the mortgage debt, that debt is properly estimated as a part of the consideration, and the stamp will be such as is appropriate to the whole value of the land. This has been already decided in this office.

Alleged Perjury.

A woman, named Hannah Roberts, was arraigned before Recorder Encu. yesterday afternoon, on the charge of perjury. This case grew out of a series of facts that may be briefly stated as follows: Mrs. Roberts occupied part of a house-in Mary street, between Front and Second streets. On one occasion it is alleged that, while she was greatly excited, she made a great fars at the house, and particularly in the apartments occupied by a respectable old man, named Talford, and his wife. He put her cut, and she commenced hallooing murder. Thus the whole neighborhood was arcused. The police officers came, and she was arrested for a breach of the peace. Subsequently she entered a suit before Alderman Harmer against Mr. Talford for assault and battery. He desired the case to be returned to court. The alderman declined acceding to this request, and bound Mr. Talford over for breach of the peace, Price, $3. Mrs. Roberts then sued Mr. and Mrs. Talford far assault and battery, and swore that Mrs. T. struck her. This case was dismissed by the court. Mrs. Roberts is now charged with having committed perjury in false swearing. She was ordered to enter ball in $600 to answer at court.

Larceny Cases.

Cornelius Scanlan was arraigned before Mr. Alderman Beitler, at noon yesterday, on the charge of complicity in the robbery of Patrick F. Brady, perpetrated at a restaurant near Market and Kinth streets, as reported in The Prese on Sutrady. It is alleged that one of the women handed Scanlan the pocket-book, and he gave them some of the money. It was also in evidence that the defendant had obtained change for the two out-hundred dollar treasury notes. The officers searched his residence, in Fayette street, and found $272 beithat the washboard, where he had scerted it. Mrs. Scanlan was also taken into custody, on suspicion of knowing something about the robbery but was discharged. He was committed in default of $2,000 bail. The steamship steamer SAXON, Capt.
