Academy of the Fine Arts. [Before Mr. Alderman Williams.] FOR SALE AND TO LET. RATEROAD LINES. RAILROAD LINES. ATICTION SALES. Larceny by a Domestic.

Mary Wagner was arraigned yesterday on the charge of purioning a quantity of jewelry valued in all a about $70. She was employed as a domestic in a family residing in New Market street, above Callowhill. The articles being missed by the mistress of the house search was made for them, and they were found secreted in the bed occupied by Mary. She protested against any knowledge of them, but as they could not got them without hands, and as there were no other hands convenient, suspicion fell upon her. After a hearing, she was required to enter ball to answer. Yesterday was the last day for receiving pictures, A SSISTANT QUARTERMASTER

Alleged Larceny.

Rather an ill-looking fellow, giving the name of George Wilson, was arraigned at the Central Station, vesterday afternoon, on the charge of, stealing a sum of nearly seventy dollars, the property of Dominick Kender, the keeper of a store at Market and Touth etreets, it was stated in evidence that the def ndant was received in the employment of Mr. Kehoe lest Friday at the rate of one hundred dollars per year, boarding and lodding included. On Tuesday evening he was suddenly missed from the store; the sum of about $70 heing missed from the desk, the absent young man was suspected. Search was made for him, and finally. Frank Stars, a clerk in the establish ment of Mr. Ke, found the fugitive at the Baltimore depot, Broad and Frime streets. He arrested him, and the services of Officer Helvesty were called into requisition. On being taken to the station-house of the First district, he was searched. A purse, containing about $17, was found upon him. He said this was all the money he had, and made a positive denial of the robberty. "greenbacks," were found in his watch-iob in the pautations. Among these notes was a five on the Mar ne Bunk of New York. A note of this kind was stolen room the desk of Mr. Kehoe. The other notes were the sa on in denomination as those stolen—one twenty, one ten, and, the remainder in lives. The accused had no explanation to make. He was committed in default of $300-ball to answer. POSTPONEMENT OF HEMICIDE CARES—THE VERDICT IN GILDERT'S CASE THE CAUSE.

Yesterday was the day fixed for the trial of Niebert and wife, on the charge of murder, but the District Attorney refused to proceed with it. saying:

May it please your Honors: This day was fixed by me for the trial of Niebert and wife, on the charge of murder. But I must say to the court, that now it is appointment, I will not call it up for trial now, because, after the result of yesterday's trial, I do not deem it safe for the Commonwealth to try any white man for murder before this panel of jurors.

Judge Thompson, in reply, said it was with the District Attorney to say whether he would call up this case. The court certainly looked for a different verdict in the case tried yesterday.

The District Attorney thep said that he would not call the case up before the present panel, and the jurors were dicharged.

The case to which the District Attorney had reference was that of Henry Gilbert, charged with the murder of Benedlet Reinhart, on the 15th of September last, at Bridesburg.

We reported the case during its progress, and it will be recollected that on the part of the Commonwealth it was alleged that Reinhart, while sitting quietly in a lager-beer saloon at Bridesburg, was attacked by othert, and stabbed in the abdomen. From the effect of this wound he died the next day. There was no testimony, either by the Commonwealth or the defence, that the deceased did or said anything to provoke an attack. When Gilbert was arrested, a few hours after the commission of the offence, he was drunk, and he said. "Yes, I stuck him, and I would like to stick a thousand like him." subject?

The witness replied that he would. There being no further questions to ask him, he was allowed to retire. Morris Solomon, a brother of one of the defendants, was now called to the stand.

We may here stale that he took the oath in the usual way. Something was said about a Jew swearing with his lat on, and upon the open books of Moses. The witness had his hat off, and kinsed the closed book.

Some reference having been made to this, the Hon. Mr. Phillips, counsel for the defence, said that a person of the Jewish persuasion may take the eath in the usual form. This preliminary having been settled, the svidence, which we present in detail, will be found curious and intere ting when viewed with the schedule of articles enumerated above, names, &c.
