Of all the discoveries that have be n made to purge it out, none have been found which could equal in effect AYER'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SARSAFARILLA. It deaness and renovates the blood, instile the vigor of health into the system, and purges on the humors which make disease. It stimulates the healthy functions of the body, and expelse the discoders that grow and rankle in the blood. Its extraordinary virtues are not yet wide-ly known, but when they are, it will no longer be a question what remedy to employ in the great variety of afflicting diseases that require an alterative remedy. Such a remedy, that could be relied on, has long been sought for, and now, for the first time, the public have one on which they can depend. Fox and Joseph Budd vs. Robert Hume and James Hume. An action of ejectment to recover possession of a house and lot at the northwest corner of Fifth and Noble streets. The action was brought against the defendants as tenants, and a Mrs. Hankenson, who claims to be the owner, came in and defends. From the evidence, it appears that the plaintiffs having obtained a judgment against Thos. Hankenson, the husband of Mrs. Hankenson, issued their execution and levied on this property as his. At the sheriff's sale notice was given this the property was the separate estate of Mrs. Hankenson, and did not all belong to her braband. The plaintiffs purchased the property for 300, and then brought this action of ejectment. Jury out. Geo. W. Thorn for plaintiffs. Frederick Heyer for defendant. Court of Common Pleas-Judge Allison.

Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions-Judge Thompson. FURTHEB AROUT THE POSTPONEMENT OF THE HOMICIDE CASES-REMONSTRANCE OF A JUNCE.

FURTHER ABOUT THE POSITONEMENT OF THE HOMICIDE CASES-RENONSTRANCE OF A JUROR. Yesterday one of the jurors asked and obtained leave of the court to say a few words in roph to the remarks of the District Attorney of the day before, that the Com-monwealth do not deem it safe to try any vohite man for myrder before the present panel. He said he had been summoned to serve as a juror in this sourt, not, certainly, by his own desire. He had been sworn to try the cases, and to render a verdigt according to the evidence; that in the conclusions arrived at he had been totally uninfluenced by fear, favor, or affec-tion, and had throughout had in view only a conscien-form. So far as he was concerned, he would, as a juror man as he would those of a white man, for they were as dear to one as the other. Having said so much for him-self, he would say for his associates on both jurles. he was satisfield they had only had throughout a consi-encious desire faithfully to perform their duties. After this explanation the current business of the court was resumed. All of the day's seasion was devoted to the tries on cases, the dock being crowded with prisoners.
