After a few days' text that these measures are unconstitutional. We text that these measures are unconstitutional. We quote from the sermon as follows: "The attacks of the Pharisees and Sadduces upon the Saviour were repeated, persistent, and most bit-ter. And in order to have a plausible plea for their con-duct, which might blind the eyes of the mass of the people, they manifested a very anxious oncerni for the provisions of their Constitution I If the bleased Jrsus healed a sick man upon the Sabbath Day, they cried out in plous astonishment 'He is violating the Constitution !' If he commanded another, whom he had valk, though upon the Sabbath, again they ex-claimed, 'Doth not our Constitution forbid this? They were greatly alarmed! If together with his disciples he pulled the ears of corn upon the Sabbath to satisfy the natural cravings of hunger, they ima-gined their dearest pivileges were being destroyed! If he sat down to meat without subjecting himself to their customary ablutions, they denounced him as a radical, and, horror stricken and in despair, cried out to the people', 'Oh, think to what this will lead See what a precedent is being established!' Not constitutional to lead the sick, to appease hunger, to save life! Not constitutional to give ease to the burdened beast, and to alleviate the sufferings of hun-are done upon the Sabbath days ! Such was never God's law, though it should be written with his own hand. It may be in the letter. But that is the letter which killeth. Beneath it there is the life giving spirit. Always away back of such written charac-ters is to be found the living principle, 'It is lawful to do good on the Sabbath days.' Of this one thing a neoul, and essence, the preservation of that Go-vernment. But it carried with it as its very life, and soul, and essence, the preservation of that Go-vernment. By its officers it is characterized as a year of great pros perity. The receipts for the year amounted to $422,-588. The whole issues of the year were 1,257,249 volumes of Bibles, Testaments, and parts of the Bible. GEN. MCCLELLAN HAS JOINED THE CHURCH .--Among those who united with the Rev. Dr. Adams' (Presbyterian) Church, on Madison Square, New York, at their late communion, was Gen. George B. McClellan. He joined on confession of faith. On the same occasion his mother-in-law and sister-in-law, Mrs. Marcy and daughter, were admitted by letter The scene is said to have been witnessed by a large and deeply-interested congregation. ANNIVERSARY SERMON AT THE SECOND RE-FORMED DUTCH CHURCH.-On last Sunday morn-ing, the Rev. T. De witt Talmage, pastor of the Second Reformed Dutch Church. Seventh street. above Brown preached his first anniversary sermon, in the course of which he very properly took occa-sion to sum up some of the visible results of his first year's labors in his new field. He stated, among other facts, that the amount contributed by the congrega-tion during the year for benevolent objects was 1,-331.05; the contributions in all for religious pur-poses were $6,688.37; increase in the income during the year, $1,200. He acknowledged, also, having received gifts during the year, independent of his salary, to the amount of $1,500. Thirty members have been added on confession of their faith, the whole number of accessions during the year being estimated at about fifty families. BAPTIST.—The pews in the First Baptist Church, in Hartford, Connecticgt, have just been rented for the year, at an advance of more than a thousand dollars over the amount of any former year. LiBERAL GIFT.—A few members of the First Presbyterian Congregation, of Syracuse, lately surprised their pastor by presenting to him a purse of eighteen hundred dollars.

WORTHLESSNESS OF DEATH-RED REPENTANCE .-The Rev. Albert Barnes in a sermon at his church on Washington Square, delivered last Sunday evening, gave it as the result of forty-years' observation in the pastoral office, that "he had not met with a ngle instance of sick-bed repentance which, upon the recovery of the individual, turned out to be genuine." That which satisfied him of the genuineness of the dying thief's repentance, he continued, " was not what he said, but the testimony of One who could penetrate beneath the surface and know what we never can-the reality of man's prefession."

AROHBISHOP HUGHES .- Archbishop Hughes has published a reply to the statement of the Dubuque Herald, that the prelate had turned War Democrat, and was "favoring the new conscription law and all other outrageous measures of this Administration ;" but that "in politics he is of no more consequence than the humblest citizen." The Archbishop says if a conscription law had been put in force twenty months ago at the North, as it was at the South, the result would be of more humane consequences to both sections than they are to-day. As for the statement that he is of no more importance in politics than the humblest citizen, Mr. Hughes says that "the Archbishop of New York, if he were to employ, even for twenty four hours, his influence in what the world calls politics, could make a deeper sensation. than Mr. Mahony and the Dubuque Herald could effect in twenty-four years." The influence of the Archbishop is undoubtedly poten tial, and it is an honor to him that he has chosen to exert it on the right side in the present struggle between patriots and traitors. In answer to the above retort by the Archbishop

Mr. Mahony publishes the following card in the current number of the Boston Pilot:

New YORK, April 7, 1863. Archbishop Hughes is entirely mistaken in assun-ing, as he does in the Herald of this morning, that I wrote the paragraph in the Dubuque Herald of April 2, which has offended him, and to which he has taken such just exceptions in his card. I was as much pained at the appearance in the Herald of the para-graph to which he alludes as he was justly offended. D. A. MAHONY.
