MAY 15, 1863. 6A. m... 12 m....3 p. m. 6A. m... 12 m....3 p. m. 65.68 course of pulpit discourses is about to be commenced by the Rev. Thomas H. Stockton, D. D., late chaplain to the United States House of Repre-NNE....ENE WNW..WNW..WNW sentatives, and now pastor of the Church of the New Testament, which worships in the chapel at Eleventh and Wood streets. Several of the sermons to be included in this series were delivered some years ago in Cincinnati, Baltimore, and Philadelphia, and some of them were afterwards printed for circulation. The Doctor now proposes to complete the course then commenced, in the light of, and, in a neasure, with reference to, events at present transiring in the theological and political world. The opening discourse in the series will be given tomorrow (Sunday) evening, and will have for its theme, "The Bible and other Current Authorities, Natural and Social, being a Review of the Character of Creation and Providence, the Church, and the State." The course will consist of ten sermons, the whole to be issued in book form, immediately after their delivery. All who attend these sermons will enjoy a rich treat, and those who hear, will, we doubt not, be doubly anxious to possess and pre-serve them for future reference. THE INDEPENDENT ON THE LATE REBEL GEN. JACKSON .- The current number of The Independent, in a leader upon Thomas Jefferson Jackson, the minent rebel general, who died a few days ago from wounds received in the confusion of the battle of Chancellorville, at the hands of his own men, says: "Henceforth we know him no more after the flesh, He is no longer a fee. We think of him now as a noble-minded gentleman, a rare and eminent Ohristian! For years he has been an active member of the Presbyterian Church, of which he was a ruling elder. He never, in all the occupations of the camp, or temptation of campaigns, lost the fervor of his piety, or remitted his Christian duties. "We know that before every important move he spent much time in prayer. He had so put his soul in the keeping of his master that he was relieved from all thought of self, and had the whole power of his life ready for his work. Officers of Fremont's army who pursued him in his famous retreat from the Shenandoah valley, found him to be greatly beloved by the common people, among whom, in for-mer times, he had labored, in prayer meetings, in temperance meetings, and in every Christian word and work. No wonder he fought well along a region whose topography he had mapped down with prayers, exhortations, and Christian labor. "Let no man suppose that the North will triumph over a fallen son with insulting gratulations! Nowhere else will the name of Jackson be more red. Not for adhesion to the cause of slavery, but for his untarnished personal character, for his devout piety, and for his military genius." A RECREANT CHAPLAIN .- A correspondent of the Boston Recorder writes that a chaplain of a Massachusetta regiment, in the Army of the Potomac, not long since introduced his sermon on Sunday morning in these words: "I shall take my text on this occasion from a well-known author, or at least from one who should be well known, and in these words: Let us be jolly.' You will find this in the Gospel according to Dickens." Then followed address in keeping with such a text and introduction, to the manifest disgust of even the most irreligious in the regiment. This jolly chaplain, it is said, has, since then lost his situation in the regiment above referred to, but, strange to say, has been appointed to officiate in that capacity in one of the German hos-BISHOP SIMPSON'S REMOVAL TO PHILADELPHIA. -The Chicago Advocate, in speaking of the contemplated removal of Bishop Simpson, one of the most eminent divines in the Methodist Episcopal Church, to this city, says: "We regret to learn that Bishop Simpson has decided upon a removal to Philadelphia. The Northwest can ill afford to spare him, and will regrethis removal. He is needed here, and surely episcopal supervision is needed here, and through the Northwest. We must submit, but it is not with patient resignation. We suppose several weeks will elapse before the removal, as the Bishop is still East astending his conferences." A FRENCH PILGRIMAGE TO THE HOLY CITY .- A caravan of French Roman Catholic pilgrims to the Holy City recently arrived in Jerusalem. They entered with great solemnity, at the first sight of the city alighting and kissing the ground, and immediately proceeding to the alleged tomb of Christ to offer prayer. The cupola covering the sepulchre, it is said, presents a melancholy spectacle, being in a very dilapidated state. A plan for its reconstruction has but it has not yet been approved by the French, Russian, and Turkish Governments, although fresh diplomatic conferences have been opened at Constantinople to arrange the matter. The African Methodist Church has now an opportunity of purchasing the Xenia, Onio, and its members are making strenuous efforts to secure it for the benefit of their race. More Criticism on Bishop Colernso's Book.—It is now alleged that the second part of Bishop Colernso's attack on the Pentateuch was not really written by the Bishop himself, from the internal evidence that, while the first part of the work betrays, in almost every page, the Bishop's ignorance of Hebrew, the second rests almost exclusively on his claim to an intimate and scholarly acquaintance with that language.

Religious Scandal About the Penne of Wales to be "a great public scandal," and churchmen are reminded that it took place on the 12th of March, which is the feast of St. Gregory the Great, and that "there is some doubt whether a royal marriage, celebrated in Lent, might not hereafter be impeached in the ecclesiastical court."

Rev. Mr. Channing on Genebal Hooker and His Arny.—The Rev. Mr. Channing, of Washington, who had just returned from the army, where he witnessed Sedgwick's fight on Monday, and has since talked freely with the men, both in camp and in the hospitals, declared in his sermon, last Sunday, that the morade of the soldiers, and that triumph having been strengthened with every battle, while the rebels fought in anger and enmity.

THE CHURCH OF ROME AND THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT.—The influence of the Rome Catholic Church on French society appears to be increasing. The Empress is known to be a zealous member of the Church, and her example induces thousands of officials, many of whom care personally as much about Mohammedanism as about Roman Catholicism, to display the greatest eagerness in promoting the interests of the Church. It has become fashionable again to speak of the peculiar mission which France has to perform as the oldest daughter of the Church, and in foreign countries in particular, the agents of the French Government regard it as a safe road to preferment, to extend to the Roman Catholic missionaries the most energetic patronage. There are also other influences at work in French Bociety, which are strengthening the foundations of French Catholicism, by re-establishing in thousands of young men and women a firm betief in the truth of the Roman Catholic system, and by changing the zone of public opinion, which always, since the times of the French Revolution, has been more or less Yoltairian. We refer to the so-called Liberal Catholic School, whose leaders are not only gaining a marked influence on the religious and political destiny of France, but on the whole Catholic Church, and even beyond the pale of the Church of Rome, on the religious and political destiny of France, but on the whole Catholic Church, and even beyond the pale of the Church of Rome, on

Mr. Stakey endeavored to cross-examine the witness, and essayed to argue the various points that arose. He was checked by the magistrate, who desired him to confine himself strictly to the rules of law. In doing so, he made the case worse against himself than even the evidence in chief.

Mr. Wilson begged off: he said that he would not go to the meetings any more if the prosecution should be withdrawn. The defendant was committed to await another hearing. ment has gone on to the present time. My catarrh has gradually melted away, my cough has disappeared, my voice has become natural, and I am once nore able to preach the blessed Gospel. Let me advise all troubled with catarrhal difficulties to apply to Dr. Lighthill. LYNN, Mass., Feb. 1, 1862. INSTITUTION FOR THE DEAF AND DUMB, [Before Mr. Alderman White.] Lacceny.

A woman giving the name of Ann Bush was committed yesterday afternoon to answer the charge of stealing $2.50 from Mary Hughes. The loser lives in Gilles' alley. She was asleep at her residence, with the money in her bosom. During her somnolent condition, it is alleged the defendant removed the money. Two witnesses testified that they saw her with the pocket-book containing the change. I have pleasure in testifying to the skill and kind ttention of Dr. Lighthill, who has relieved me from troublesome deafness, brought on by a severe cold. I shall be happy to answer any inquiries made by persons seeking information at my address Look Out for Swindlers.

A pretty-well-dressed woman stopped at the residence of Anna Ruhl, a German woman, No. 9 Bowery place, near Tenth and Willow streets, some time since, and swindled her out of $33, by practising an "old dodg." The stranger said that she and her husband had been living at Richmond, Va. Her trunks, after a deal of trouble, had been brought to Philadelphia, and they remained at the express office, because she had not the sam of $35 to pay the expenses of bringing them. She so operated upon the sympathetic German woman as to induce her to advance the required sum; tendering, as collateral security, a gold watch and chain, with cherms attached, one of them being a cross, the emblem of Christianity.

The stranger had a smooth tongue. She said she had plenty of noney in her trunks, and after she obtained a house to live in she would call and not only redeem the watch, but make a present to her kind benofactress. Since that transaction she has not been heard of. Mrs. Ruhl entered a complaint y esterday at the Central Station. The watch is known as a "stuffer," not worth over a dollar. change. Look Out for Swindlers. as above. ROBERT CLIVE, Book-keeper. This may certify that, having been afflicted during he year 1856 with severe and almost total deafness, and having tried the ordinary medical and surgical aid, under the care of those esteemed as eminent practitioners, I was induced at last to put my elf under the care of Dr. E. B. Lighthill. His reatment was brief and successful. I was completely resto ed, and the cure is apparently permanent. I have all confidence in Dr. L.'s skill and integrity in the diseases he makes specialties. JAMES ORIUKSHANK LL. D. Gone to New York. Mrs. Purfell alias Emma Smith, an account of whose arrest was published yesterday, accompanied Detective Dusenhery, of New York, to that city yesterday afternoon, the "splendid mantilla," "love of a bonnet," and all. She appeared to be rather melancholy as she retired from the office. ALBANY, Oct. 1, 1862. 740 WATER STREET, NEW YORK, June 5, 1862. Dr. Lighthill has succeeded in completely restoring my hearing, which was seriously impaired, although A day or two since a gentleman stepped into a wholesale liquor store, and engaged the attention of the proprictor, tasting his wines and liquors; and talking largeity. While so engaged, a well-dressed man came in, seemingly in a hurry, and, handing a bank note to the proprietor of the store, asked him whether he thought it a counterfeit. He went to the counting room in the rear part of the store to examine the detector. The inquirer followed of course. At this moment the man who had called respecting a purchase of wine and liquor started towards the door as if he intended to go away.
The proprietor did not want to lose a customer, so he handed the detector to the man in the counting-room to make an examination, and then started to the front of the store. Both men finally retired. In half an hour after this scene a little boy came to the store with a package in his hand, which he said a man at the corner told him to bring. It was received, and, upon being opened, indge of the surprise of the storekeeper to find it made up of papers of no use to anybody but himself. The papers had been taken out of the open five proof safe by the counterfeit-note man. Both the men were strangers to thus torekeepear, but acted in concert with each other. previous to applying to him I was treated by several physicians without the least benefit. Any further information I should be pleased to render on application to me at my residence, 173 Second street, Brooklyn, E. D., or at my place of business, 740 I hereby certify that I have suffered during many years from trouble in hearing; one car at last became entirely deaf, and the other so bad as to render conversation very difficult. I applied to Dr. Lighthill, of No. 34 St. Mark's Place, who in a short time, and without pain, restored to me the use of [Before Mr. Alderman Haines.] [Before Mr. Alderman Haines.]

Alleged Robbery.

Afull-grown boy, named John Mooney, with several aliases attached to his name, was arraigned before Alderman Haines, vesterday morning, on the charge of burglary and robbery, in breaking into the tailor store of Mr. J. H. Johnson, on Girard avenue, near Tweith street. Between three hundred and four hundred dollars' worth of clothes was stolen, some of which were recovered. He was committed in default of $1,500 bail to answer. J. BISCO, No. 158 East Twenty-third st. METROPOLITAN HOTEL, New York, April 1, 1862. Daring Robbery.

A man giving the name of John Johnson was committed by Alderman Ramsdell yesterday morning, to answer the charge of the larceny of a carpet bag, the property of Joshua Garsed, the receiver of the Ridge avenue Passenger Railroad Company. It seems that the defendant had taken passage in one of the cars. The carpet bag, pretty well filled with articles of value, was in the car. As he was about going out, be picked it up, and was arrested while walking away with it. Upon coming under your charge I was immediately relieved, and speedily cured of a most aggravated complaint, which several physicians had previously sought in vain to mitigate. As I am somewhat of a stranger in the city, I would state that you are at liberty to substantiate my statements, if necessary, by reference to my relatives, Mr. A. V.
