taken a number of our men prisoners, and to have killed General Sleele. General Stevenson says he can hold the works indefinitely. Five hundred rounds are being discharged from a huge Rodman gun, on the beach in front of the fort to test its value, resistance, enduring powers. This gun is larger than any heretofore made after the Rodman pattern, being sixteen feet long and throwing a thirteen-inch shell. The metal, is of a very fine yet soft quality, slightly steeled, and the than can be found in the columbiads that lie scattered and dismounted in great profusion upon the sand. The trial of to-day was not for the purpose of getting the range or expulsive power of this enormous gun, but to see if there was much possible lity of its exploding. Upon the top of the cartridge, composed of thirty pounds of powder, was pressed a solid ball weighing 275 pounds, which was fired into a large pile of sand at point-blank range, and demolishing the shifting pyramid at each discharge. For a gun of such heavy calibre the recoil was very slight, averaging but six feet in every fifty dis-

To-day the election is going off smoothly. State and municipal officers are to be chosen. The Administration ticket has the name of Francis H. andria, for Lieutenant Governor; and S. Ferguson Beach, of Alexandria, for Attorney General. All these candidates were nominated by the regular anticipated during the election, but thus far nothing notable has transpired, save that the two candidates for Congress in this district-Segar and Watsonhave each a poll, where their friends are brought up to vote. At Portsmouth much anxiety was prevaclared their intention to have their candidate elected by fair means or foul. For some time previous, the nost bitter of the Secessionists in Norfolk have een resorting to every conceivable method of deterring young men of strong Union proclivities from ring young men of strong Union proclivities from voting. And, although this man had resided in Norfolk ten years, yet he was plainly told he would not be allowed to vote. The reason is apparent-he was going to vote for Pierpont, the "bogus Governor

THE SIEGE OF VICKSBURG.

Sherman's Captures at Haines' Him. The Correspondence of the Office of the O from the 15th Corps, Young's Point, May 20th, confirms the reports which we have received of the extensive captures at Haines, Bluff : tensive captures at Haines' Bluff:

I write you amid the severest roar of artillery that ever I heard. Firing commenced at four o'clock this morning from our mortar boats, which dropped near to Vicksburg, a point of land and the river only separating, and has now become general and in every direction. The fighting that is going on to day is very hard. Yesterday Haines' Bluff succumbed to our forces under Sherman, after a heavy and sanguinary engagement. The result of the victory was gloriou. We captured seventy-five pieces of artillery and nine thousand prisoners. I have not ascertained the losses on our side, but they must be considerable. on architery and nine houseau prisoners. I have not ascertained the losses on our side, but they must be considerable.

All day yesterday, even until after dark, Grant was engaging the enemy all along the rear of Vicksburg, while our sunboats were blazing away at the lower end of the town. I mounted a horse, and rode down as near to the city as it was prudent. The streets were clouded by dust and artillery, and bodies of troops were bustling about in every direction, probably going to reinforce weak points. Although the air was still, the dust and smoke were so great that the prospect was very much impaired. Yet I saw much, and that, too, of a nature that I may never again witness. Grant evidently has taken some of the outer fortifications near the city, and I noticed a battery on the bluff back of the upper part of the town in engagement with one of the rebel water batteries, which clearly indicated the presence of our troops. Several hundreds of our men, who have been taken prisoners in the recent engagements, have been paroled and sent over to us.

Vicksburg.

There are no guns mounted in the rear of Vicksburg, although there is every likelihood there will be now, that we are menacing the city from the rear. There are heavy breastworks thrown up at intervals of two or three hundred yaids, regular in conformation, and ready to receive artillery at short notice. These extend back from Vicksburg for five miles, and are account restored to the area.

The fighting was going on furiously when the City of Memphis left.

CINOINNATI, May 29.—Rumors and reports from Vicksburg are abundant. The latest definite intelligence is a price despatch to the Commercial, dated "On the Field, near Vicksburg, Saturday, May 28d," which says, "There is no fighting to-day. The troops are resting from yesterday's assault. Our repulse was complete on all parts of the line. No discouragement need be entertistical as foom restored be entertistical and must succumb to our attack, sooner on later. We are enterenching and building rifle-pits. Cavalry have been sent out towards Conton, to assertain General Joe Johnston's whereabouts. Our loss yesterday was not far from one thousand. It is tolerably certain that the works cannot be taken by assault. A regular siege must reduce them. Two weeks will probably be consumed."

General Banks' army is reported coming up.

The rebels report General Cheatham and Featherstone woulded in one of the Mississippi fights, and General Johnston massing a large force at Black liver Bridge.

The report via Memphis, that Grant had captured every-redoubt, is discredited.

General Joe Johnston is rapidly receiving reinforcements in the vicinity of Jackson; with the intention of attacking Grant's rear.

He is reported to have said that if Vicksburg holds out fifteen days, he will throw 109,000 troops into it, if it requires the relinquishment of every foot of territory in his department to effect it.

Sr. Louis, May 29.—A. special despatch from Memphis, dated the 28th, says: The first lot of wounded from Grant's army have arrived; among them Colonel Massendy, Lieuteaant Colonels Mo-Auley and Zecher, of the 11th Indiana, and Lieutenant Colonel Barton, of the 24th Indiana. The 11th and 12th Indiana lost about 250 men each. ANOTHER REPORT. The Cincinnati Gazette, of May 28, contains the

The Cincinnati Gazette, of May 28, contains the following:

Munfressoro, May 27.—Under a fiag of truce, to-day, about thirty individuals, of all sexes, ages, and sizes, were carried beyond the lines of our army and left in Dixie. Some of them were compelled to go: others went in accordance with their own wishes. Of these latter, several found their courage failing them when they and their traps were put off the ambulances which carried them through the lines, and begged to be taken back again. Some of them shed tears.

The party which accompanied the flag learned that a despatch was received last night by General Polls, containing the very latest news from Vicksburg. This morning the same individual received another despatch, containing nothing new, but confirming what had previously been obtained. You may have the same or later intelligence from other sources. But as it is perhaps the very last word on the rebel side, I think it best to send. The despatch declared that Grant's forces had made six distinct assaults upon the inner works at Vicksburg, and were each time repulsed. Grant was making formidable preparations for another attack, from which the rebels seemed to fear much. much.

Pemberton, with the remnant of his army, was immediately in Grant's rear, where he has been joined by Johnston with twenty thousand, and both these rebell leaders were near enough to resist Grant, who was in possession of the outer works of the city. The conversation of two intelligent gentle-

MENTH'S, May 23.—The first load of wounded from General Grant's army has arrived. Among these are Col. Meavendy, Col. McGinnis, and Col. Lecher, of the 11th Indiana. Wounds severe, but not dangerous.

In the severe battle the 11th and 24th Indiana lost about 250 men each. Captain Holman, of the 24th, is killed. Gen. Hovey's Indiana division, at Champion Hill, maintained the brunt of the fight, against an overwhelming force of rebels, under Joe Johnston.

Gen. Carr and Lieut. Col. Cameron, of the 34th Indiana, are reported killed. Lieut. Col. —, of the 24th Indiana, had his right hand shatfered while grasping the colors of his regiment, and endeavoring to rally his men, under a murderous fire.

MURFREESBORO REPORTS.

The following from Murfreesboro, dated Thursday, throws some light on some of the late reports from Vicksburg:

"Unofficial reports have come to us from two or three different sources with regard to Vicksburg affairs. So far as they go they may be considered trustworthy, but the news in them, meagre as it is, is probably anticipated from other sources. Grant, according to the very latest advices, was still in position before Vicksburg.

"The firebel accounts of six successful assaults upon the city are exaggerations. They seem to have magnified every reconnoissance into an assault. It seems certain, however, that once since Saturday Gerleral Grant did make a pretty general attack upon the works but failed to carry them, and, consequently, the place was too strong to be taken in that way.

THE FIGHTING ON SATURDAY.

CHIOAGO, May 29.—The Times has a special dated. In the field near Vicksburg, on the 23d, at 9 o'clock P. M., which says:
There has been no fighting to-day (Saturday.) Our troops are resting from yesterday's assault.
Our repulse was complete on all parts of the line, but no discouragement need be entertained of our final success.
We are entrenching ourselves and building rifle pits.
The cavalry have been sent out towards Canton, to 'ascertain the whereabouts of Johnston's forces.
Our loss yesterday was not far from — thousand.
The Times' special Memphis despatch, of the 27th, says the steamer Sultana, from Young's Point, is reported lost.
On. Friday the Federal forces were repulsed at Vicksburg.

LATER—GEN. HOVEY'S ASSAULT.
The steamer City of Memphis, from the vicinity of Vicksburg on Monday, arrived to-day, and reports General-Grant as having captured every rebel redoubt.
At one place it was necessary, owing to the steepness of the bill, to scale it with ladders. Gen. Hovey led the assault. The rebels rolled shells down the hill at the Federals, which, exploded amongst them making fearful havoc.

Annual Sessions of the Episcopalians and Presbyterians The subject of a division of the Diocese of Pennlvania occupied the attention of the Episcopal Convention during its entire morning session yesterday. The advocates and opponents of the measure were equally represented on the floor by the intelli-The morning session was quite animated; and though the discussion of so important a matter is calculated to deeply interest every member, the deliberations were of the most calm and placid character. The attendance of ladies was quite large, and the numbers generally manifested the warmth of the numbers generally mannested the warmen of the feeling with which the proceedings of the Annual Convention are regarded. The Presbyterian assembly finished, yesterday, its eighth day proceedings, which were of an important character. THE EPISCOPAL CONVENTION, Bishop Potter presiding, called the Convention to or-ier at the usual hour, and the usual devotional exercises ook place.

vote for division as being for the best interests of the Cborch in the West.

Mr. Wm. Welsh advocated a middle course. The action of the member of the committee, he thought, in leaving it before final action was taken, was reprehensible.

Mr. Slatterly, in excuse, stated that it was The Rev. Mr. Slatterly, in excuse, stated that it was unavoicable.

Mr. Welsh offered the following resolutions:

Wherevo. There may be more than one portion of Pennsylvania which may be canonically prepared, and may wish to be organized as separate dioceses; and, whereas it is desirable that the future relations of such new diocese to the parent diocese, to each other, and to the Church at large, should be matured, considered, and well settled; therefore,

Resolved, That a committee of seven, selected from the various parts of the diocese, be appointed to investigate the facts and principles involved, that to them be referred the papers now laid before the Convention, and any others connected with the subject, and that they be required to report at the next Convention, and that this Convention is prepared to recognize the desirableness of an early division of the diocese.

Dr. Newton made a motion that the resolutions be divided.

he was at all times in favor of inquiry of all kinds, and anything that might bring enlightenment to darkened minds.

Rev. G. E. Swope said that the request for striking out the final clause contained all the merit it possessed. He would accept the resolutions offered by Mr. Welsh only because of that clause. He would ever maintain the report of the committee was a majority report, and that a denial of that would be a repudiation of their own action. He could not see that such weight should be given to the ipper of a majority of the committee.

Dr. Newton rose to a point of order. He contended that the report was not accepted as a majority report, it was only the expression of opinion upon the part of three members of that committee.

Mr. Swope thought that all precedents were in favor of the ground he had taken. In the Legislature of this State fifty-two members constitute a quorum, and any part of that number might pass a bill. The people of the West did not ask for a division of the diocese from any feelings of discontent. In support of that he would instance the affectionate, loyal greetings ever extended to the Bishops in their valus to the West. The work was too arduous for any man, as the State was now districted. He disclaimed any personal motives in the matter, his actions were guided solely by a desire to advance the Church and the principles she espoused. He believed the Episcopate to be an office of Divine appointment; he was not one of those who believed the episcopate to be an inculus—an evil; a necessary evil perhaps, and the least that was seen of it the better. He was of those who believed its was entailed upon them by Divine Providence and that God's strong arm and support was with it. The report is a final lone and it is presumed to speak the truth. It rishes. He desired to go behind the report to obtain facts. One parish mentioned as self-supporting he was connected with was deriving a support from the Diocesan Missionary Society. It had been said that no difficulty could arise in the support of the episcopate. Sundry churches had promised to duble, treble, and, in one case, make it ten times greater than the amount now contributed to the Biscopal and. It was songet to create an impression that the West was abundantly able to support a bishop. He red a few facts concerning the contributions of a church said to be self-supporting. The church which had promised to increase the amount of their contribution ten times. Ind desired him to protest against the report. The member of the vestry who had promised this support was a member of another parish. He regretted exceed insity that he was compelled to refer to these things, but duty compelled had a the truth before the Convention, no matter. We disagreeable to him personally. Mr. Brunot stated that the salary of the Bishop $3,600 per annum. The assessment of thirty-one churches in per annum. The assessment of thirty-one churches in 1822 they paid towards the support of disabled obersymments. They had drawn from that fund $950.

The West wastaxed $1,49; for the support of missions in 1822 they had contributed towards the support of missions in 1822 they had contributed $571.43. The speaker knew that furures made dry speaking, but he thought that he had proved the deficit in the Episcopal fund was now $2,552; in the Convention fund $955. These were the amounts as he had found them in the report of the thirty-one churches who were to constitute the new diocess. The people in the Rast would be overrun with persons asking assistance for the support of Western parishes, if a new diocesse was created. By the proposed division, Trinity church, Pittsburg, now assessed for the support of the Episcopale $10, would be charged in the new diocesse. Mr. Peter's Pittsburg, $683; ts. Resolved, That the committee on the division of the diocese be continued and increased in number to thirteen, and the whole subject of the division of the diocese of Pennsylvania to two or, four dioceses be referred to fail committee, to report at the next Convention.

The Rev. Benjamin P. Douglass decried the imputations made by members upon evidence offered. The question was, "What constituted a self-supporting parish?" The northeastern portion of the State desired that a committee should be appointed from the State at large. They had no desire to sever their connection with the Convention; but ff, in God's Providence, it should be forced upon them, they would abide the result. Some time ago a parish, to be considered self-supporting, was required to be able to give a single man $500. per annum as a support, and a married man $700.

Rev. J. Livingston Reese, of Lockhaven, stated that the church at that place had no sympathy for any other than the church as it was. They were attached to the old diocese by strong, social ties, and he begged leave to say, on behalf of St. John's, Bellefonte, that she too was utterly and entirely opposed to being classed with the churches forming the proposed new diocese. The vestry of the latter church were reported as being divided on the question of division in the report of the committee, Judge Bale, delegate, desired it to be known that the church was opposed to it. The Rev. Mr. Troope arose, on he states had arisen on the part of the committee as to the church at lockhaven. The Bishop stated that he had not time to appoint the committee of seven on the division of the dicesse, but would do so at an early day.
Several notices were then read, and the Convention adjourned sine die, with singing by the congregation standing, of the Gloria in Excelsis. PRESBYTERIAN ASSEMBLY. The morning session of the eighth day commenced at nine o'clock. The first hour was employed in devotional exerciser, Rev. Mr. S. H. Gridley conducting them. Prayers and addresses were likewise made, and at ten o'clock the moderator took the chair. The minutes of the previous day were read and approved. On motion of the Rev. Dr. Clarke, the order of the day was suspended for twenty minutes, in order to hear the report of the Committee on Home Missions, in consequence of the fact that Rev. Dr. Kendall, chairman, was to return to New York to-day, owing to sickness in his family. The report represents that the work in charge of the committee was progressing in the most encouraging manner. It was observed that, although over $30,000 had been given to the American Home Missionary Society for this purpose by the Churches of the Assembly, yet the executive committee of that esciety had declared that this money could not now be used for the behoof and benefit of this denomination. This was believed to be altogether wrong and unjust, and the donors were apprised by this Assembly committee that every dollar of this money was now alienated from our cause. The committee recommend that every effort he made now to make the Home Missionary Society of this denomination more efficient than herectore. The following committeemen are recommended for reelection: Rev. Mr. Stearns, Rev. Dr. Darling, Hon. Judge Allison, and Dr. A. C. Post. Rev. Dr. Kendall said that this society had only about one-third as many men at work in the cause as the American Society and EIGHTH DAY-MORNING SESSION.

of the committee enough indust of enable it to produces a quicker rate than the snail pace in which movement has hitherto been made.

Rev. Mr. Johnson spoke of the great necessity of employing the press exiensively in this religious enterprise. The irreligious press, he said, was the instrument of Satan to prejudice the people, and we must use this instrument religiously to consteract this influence. He referred to the influence and important work done by the book concern in the Methodist Church, and to the Board of Publication of other denominations. It was shameful, in this view, for this committee to go about begging for the paltry sum of $25,000. He had presented the matter to the people of his church as strongly as he could a short time ago, and as a consequence he had brought with him as a contribution to this cause the som of $331. This announcement was received with applause. The moderator again took the chair and Mr. Barnes retired. Judga Allen moved that Dr. Skinner be authorized to open a corresp-indence with the bouse in Scotland engaged in the publication of Calvin's Instituties in reaction to the purchase of the "cheap stock" of that work. Nev. Dr. N. S. S. Beman, of Troy, then presented a report on publication. The report was a general one on publication, prepared by a committee appointed at the last annual seesion, to report to his. It provoked some discussion. Rev. Dr. Spear, with respect to it, spoke with brevity, and yet with und force and spirit that the time he occupied seemed even briefer than usual. Our publication cause, our churcherection, and church expublication cause, our churcherection, and church expublication and all other causes, furnish us, he thought, with a very grand future.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the publication cause should now be considered one of the established institutions of our Church.

These call for all our pecuniary means. If we heartily co-operate, we can afford to spend money by thousands to supply our churches with all that they need. To co-operate thus heartily, and notificientally, with the Board, would, the speaker thought, be the desiron and aim of each member of the Assembly. Disorderly House—Murder Cried.

Richard McCarty and Lydia Gibson were arraigned before Alderman Dougherty, yesterday, on the charge of keeping a disorderly house at No. 140 Water street. The cridence developed the facts, that at about 2 o'clack yesterday morning the police in the neighborhood were attracted by the cry of murder. They entered the house, and captured all the persons therein. It seems that a man named Patterson indulged himself in beating a woman named Evans, cutting her eye in a most shocking manner. The defendants, who are alleged to be the keepers of the house, were required to enter $600-bail to answer at court. The remainder of this party were bound over to be of future good behavior.

[Before Mr. Alderman Beitler.]

Caught in the Act.

Bernard McIllhaney, who has been in the hands of the civil anthorities many a time, but who had as many times escaped, was caught rather "foul" in one of the Baltimore cars, late on Thursday night. Yesterday he was arraigned, on the charge of stealing a watch, the property of Mr. R. C. Rowe, of New York. Mr. R. had been in the smoking car, and after the arrival of the train he proceeded to another car to get his valies. As he was going through the passage-way, inside the car, three young men entered at the other end, and thus confronted. him. He stepped aside to let them pass, but they halted, as though they did not wish to pass. He felt a jerk at his watch, and putting his hand on his pocket found it come. McIllhenny was the nearest one of the trio to him: Immediately, Mr. Rowe got between him and the other two man. He charged him with stealing his watch. McIllhenny became quite indignant. Just at this moment, Mr. James A. McLaughlin, who had been watching the 11 seving trio for some time, entered the car, and took the defendant into custody. The prisoner dropped the was committed in default of $2 000 to answer.

Testerday afternoon-another charge was preferred against him—that of stealing a watch valued at $35, the property of Henry H. Sailor, on the night of the 14th onto o'clock in the morning, and he went away. He had to go through the crowd, after which he missed his watch. He saw the prisoner at the ball walking around, but did not see him taking any active part in it, such as dancing. There was no evidence implicating the defendant in the robbery. This case was therefore dismissed.

Asault and Battery.

Asnult and Battery.

Ann Delaney and her daughter were, arraigned before alderman Comly, at Frankford, on Thursday, charged with remmitting a revere assault and battery on Mr. Hugh Dornoy, a resident in that ancient and interesting village. It seems that the defendants, proceeded to the residence of Mr. Donnay in relation to the ceremony of standing as a godnother to his child. Mrs. Delaney desired to oc. mry that position, but Mr. D., refused her, in terms that were decidedly emphatic. Some pretty hard words ensued, and finally a free fight was indulged in, which resulted in Mr. Donney getting his head cut socrety with a teakettle lid. One of his thumbs was also baily bitten, but from the teath of Mrs. Delaney or Miss lielsney the depenent did not clearly state. The mother and daughter were required to enter bail to answer at court
