4. Resolved. That with no ordinary leelings of grief we most sincerely sympsthize with the relatives of the deceased, in the loss which they have sustained in the death of our departed brother of the Bar.

5. Resolved. That a committee of five he appointed by the president to communicate to the family of the deceased a copy of these resolutions, signed by the officers of the meeting.

Judge Parsons followed with a sketch of Colonel Jones' career as a Judge of the Common Pleas. Judge Parsons followed with a sketch of Colonel Jones' career as a Judge of the Common Pleas.

Addresses were made by Messrs, Benjamin Gerhard, Charles Ingersoll, Josiah Randall, Judge Kelley, Judge King, Judge Knox, and Mr. Rawle. The resolutions were then adopted, and Messrs, Parsons, Randall, Knox, Allison, and Birney appointed the committee under the resolutions. REWARD OF TRUE MERIT.—Colonel John REWARD OF TRUE MERIT.—Colonel John Ely, of the 23d Pennsylvania Regiment, to reward true merit, has announced to the regiment that he will, upon the 20th day of June next, present to the most meritorious non-commissioned officers of the ten companies who prove themselves efficient in all the duties of the soldier, especially in attention to cleanliness of their person and accourtements, and neatness and policing of the company streets and grounds adjoining, a handsome medal, on which will be inscribed "Marye Heights, Fredericksburg, Va." He also intends presenting ten medals, one to each company, with the same inscription, to be given to the most meritorious private in each company, who shall prove himself most conspicuous for the above-named qualities.

The competition for these medals will be entirely amongst those who were with the regiment in the first movement upon the heights, or when they were stormed. Judgment reversed and record remitted, with instructions iver indgment as for a conviction on each indictment for an assault, and defendants discharged from custody of worden of Eastern Penitentiary, and recommitted to custody of sheriff of Carbon county, on the said sheriff producing and delivering to said warden a certifled copy of this judgment of reversal from the record of the Gourt of Quarter Sessions.
The following order was also entered:
Ordered that the Court adjourn to meet at Philadelphia
on Wednesday, the first day of July next.
Court of Common Pleas—Judge Ludlov.
Application for An Injunction Against the City. Court of Common Pleas—Judge Ludlow.

APPLICATION FOR AN INJUNCTION AGAINST THE CITY.

Becket et al. vs. the City of Philadelphia. An application for an injunction against the city to restrain them from opening to its full width Spring Garden street, between Sixteenth and Seventeemth streets. The full width of the street is one hundred and twenty feet. On the sorth side, in the block named, is Norris foundry; on the north side there are no buildings. Injunction granted on security being given in $1.000.

The current and deferred motion list was then taken up. High Court of Oyer and Terminer—Judges Thompson, Allison, and Ludlow. SENTENCE OF DEATH. I

Jeremiah Dixey (colored), convicted of the murder of Peter Miller, on the night of the 26th of July, 1858, in the rear of the Philadelphia Institute building, on Lombard street, above Bixth, was called up for sentence on Saturday, Judge Thompson referred to the atroclousness of the crime, and said that justice, though sometimes slow, was always sure. When called upon to say why sentence of death should not be pronounced against him, the prisoner protested his innocence, saying that the two witnesses who testified against him on the trial were the guilty parties. He appeared to be perfectly unconcerned. Judge Thompson then proceeded to pass sentence of death upon him.

A perfectly pure and healthy beverage, guarantied free from Dandelion, Chickory, or any deleterious substance whatever. Price-A, 20 cents per pound: B, 10 cents whatever. Price-A, 20 cents per pound: B, 10 cents per pound. Sold by EDWIN A. THOMAS, my2-lm* 48 North FRONT St. Philadelphia.
