RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE. RET. HENRY WARD BEECHER'S DEPARTURE FOR EUROPE.—The departure of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, for Europe, took place on last Saturday, and was made an occasion of public interest by the unusual escort which attended him down New York Bay-an escort, the like of which, for splendor of preparation, numbers, and enthusiasm, is said never before to have been tendered to a pri rate American citizen. Mr. Beecher was to make his voyage on the steamship City of Baltimore. His mac, to start two hours earlier, with him on board, for a trip past Sandy Hook, out into the blue water, and back again, planning to meet the outward-bound vessel at the light ship, and there set her remaining passengers on board. The escort consisted mainly of the members of Plymouth Church, but included a large number of invited guests, mostly professional gentlemen of New York. The affair is described as having been delightfully social in its character; the preacher gave a pastoral farewell greeting to each of his flock, and not a single speech was made, although the company numbered a score, or more, of professional speech-makers. Mr. Beecher is accompanied in his journey by the Rev. J. S. Holme, pastor of the Pierrepont-street Bap-tist Church, and Dr. John P. Raymond, of the Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. He expects to be absent about four months. He has not yet made up his mind where he will spend his furlough, whether in Great Britain or on the Continent. He goes mainly for recreation, but will not avoid public work if fit occasion lie in his way. He takes with him no manuscripts, no book of reference, no prepaation whatever, either for sermons, lectures, or ad dresses, and says his congregation must not be disappointed if he makes no speeches while abroad. THE CENTENARY OF METHODISM IN AMERICA. The current number of The Methodist devotes an in-The current number of the Approaching centennial anniversary of American Methodism, in which it recalls, as worthy of emulation, the spirit and manner in which the one hundredth year from the founding of Mr. Wcsley's societies was celebrated in England and America in 1839. With reference to the unpar-alleled strides which the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States has made since 1839, the writer says: It has been torn asunder by the Southern Secession, but despite that calamity, it has gone forward with unimpaired vigor. The twenty-eight conferences, North and South, have grown to the forty-nine conferences of the Church, North. The 740,000 members in 1839, have increased to the 250,000 of our awn branch in 1863; adding, that this numerical advance but faintly represents the growth of this branch of the Church in wealth, influence, and power, and urges, upon this ground, that the times are auspicious for the raising, in 1866, of such a movement of liberality of Methodist laymen as will be a perpetual witness of their devotion to and love for their church. A NOBLE CHRISTIAN WORK.—Among the many audable characteristics of the National Union League is its substantial sympathy and regard for hose who have been physically disabled in the service of the Union. A proposition has been set on foot under its auspices with a view to aiding these men in obtaining situations, where the em-ployment will be of a character suited to their com-paratively enfeebled condition, and Mr. Abraham Martin, the well-known and highly respected Sunday School Missionary of this city, has been appointed to take charge of this humane work. We understand that he has now registered on his books, at the Rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association, No. 1009 Chestnut street (where he can be found at almost all hours of the day), nearly two hundred and fifty names, embracing farmers and mechanics of various grades, but who are now unfitted for their former vocations. Many of them are qualified to act as assistant bookkeepers, clerks, tchmen, porters, &c., and those having situations to bestow will be serving themselves and a worthy object in calling upon Mr. Martin. NEW LUTHERAN CHURCH AT NORRISTOWN,-The Trinity Lutheran Church at Norristown, which was founded by the Pennsylvania Synod in the year 1849, has commenced the erection of a new edifice on the site of the old one. This church is under the pastoral charge of Rev. Mr. Baer, and the remarks ble prosperity which has marked its progress has rendered this improvement a necessity. The new building is to be completed during the present season, and will be one of the most tasteful and com-modious church edifices in the beautiful county-seat of old Montgomery. M. E. A NEW CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY, The cornerstone of the new university editice of St. Mary's of the Lake was recently laid by the Catholic citizens of Chicago, in the presence of twenty-five thousand people. The ceremony was performed by the Right Rev. Clement Smith, bishop of Dubuque, Iowa, assisted by all the Catholic clergy of Chicago, and a large number of bishops, the Right Rev. Bishop T. H. Rosecrans, bishop of Cincinnati (brother to Gen. Rosecrans), among the number. To the latter was assigned the honor of delivering the oration. SUNDAY SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY, - To-morrow afternoon the Sunday schools of the Fourth Baptist Church, corner of Fifth and Buttonwood streets, under the efficient superintendence of John M. Evans, Esq., will celebrate their anniversary. From the careful and judicious preparations that have heretofore marked these annual occasions, a very interesting time may be anticipated.

DR. STOCKTON'S SERIES OF BIBLE SERMONS.-The second sermon of his series on "The Book Above All," was delivered by the Rev. T. H. Stockton, D. D., in the chapel at the corner of Eleventh d Wood streets, on Sunday evening week. His theme on last Sunday evening was "The Bible and other Ancient Authorities—Electmen, Electangels, and Ohrist the Mediator." His subject on to-morrow evening will be "The Current Condition of the Bible—its Sole Visible Supremacy." From the second of these discourses we extract the following brief passage on the claims of Church and State, as eing an excellent specimen of the pulpit oratory being an excellent specimen of the pulpit oratory of this eloquent divine:

It is not too much to say, that both Church and State often, perhaps generally, if not indeed always, claim infallibility. Nor only so; but they claim it as Divine. They do not pretend that mere human wisdom is infallible. They assert a Divine gift, and official prerogative. They are infallible in virtue of their origin, and as essential to their office.

Even a slight acquaintance with civil and ecclesiastical history is sufficient to assure us that the fact is as thus reported. In all these connections, the agents, however, externally diversified, compose but two classes, which are easily distinguished. They are either believers or unbelievers, zealots or hypocities, fanatics or impostors; or, in the first class, those who are honest in their claims, however deluded; and, in the second, those who are either above or below delusion, deliberately and selfishly dishnest. An Impostor.

Henry Sweeny was urraigned as an impostor, and as such was committed for thirty days, under the vagrant act. Henry was dressed in a faded and torn uniform of a soldier. He had subjected himself voluntarily to the scorching rays of the sun, in order to brown his face. He appeared on Chestnut street, on Thursday, with his head bandaged and his right hand in a sling, pretty well stained with blood. Considerable sympathy was expressed for him by passers-by, until at last a true soldier came along. Who speedily ascertained the true character of the mendicant. The attention of a police officer, who had done the State some service in a military capacity, was called, and he entered into a somewhat extensive conversation with him; learned how he had fought, bled, and died almost, in the battless of South Mountain and Antietam. The "poor fallow," as many a sympathizing passer-by remarked, was taken to the lockup. The bandages were removed, and he was found to be unwounded, his head was sound, and his right hand fully capable to do hard work. He had collected quite an amount of money. Larceny of Knives. A young man, giving the name of Francis Brown, was committed yesterday, to await a further hearing, on the charge of robbing the cuttery store of Mr. Theodore Ashmead, on Market street, above Minth, of a number of knivee, about four weeks ago. The method practised by a class of theves, of which the prisoner is alleged to be one, cannot be too well remembered by storekeepers generally. The defendant and a confederate called at the store, and made a somewhat extensive examination of a variety of goods, there being no one present beside a boy. The customers went away, but presently returned again, and one, advancing to the middle of the store, said, "Oh, have you any hinges," They had seen such articles in the back part of the store when they paid the first visit. The lad in attendance took him to the rear part, and while showing him the binges, the other stole sbout forty dollars worth of knives. Yesterday morning the lad met the prisoner in the street, and had him strested. The accused was committed in default of $2,000 to await a further hearing. rally, are the leaders of the world—either its tyrants or deceivers, the fool-makers or slave-makers of the rest of the race.

Notwithstanding the obvious fact, that these authorities do, formally or virtually, urge this claim, it is still more obvious, if possible, that it is not to be justified, has no proper sanction, is a miserable and abominable imposition.

The state infallible! Put the history of monarchies under the title—the voice of the king is the voice of God. Put the history of aristocracies under the title—the voice of the nobles is the voice of God. Put the history of republics or democracies under the title—the voice of the people is the voice of God. And what blasphemy is here!

So it is with the church. The church infallible! Put the history of Roman or Greek Oatholicism under the motto—the voice of God. Pope, or patriarch, or council, is the voice of God. Pope, or patriarch, or council, is the voice of God. Pope, or patriarch, or council, is any of its forms, or the history of the church, in any of its forms, under the vaunted vanity—its voice is the voice of God. And who that has any reverence for God.—Father, Son, and Holy Ghost; who that has any respect for himself, or sympathy with mankind, can suppress the kindlings of indignation, or withhold the burning utterance of intensest wrath and scorn? Away with such abaurdities and cruelties!—away with them, at once and forever! [Before Mr. Alderman Welding.] Collision of Emigrant-Runners;
William Taylor was arrained yesterday, on the charge of committing an assault and battery upon Wm. Smith. The parties are rivals in the emigrant-running business. They met on Thursday on board a vessel having emigrants aboard, in the Delaware. Without much ado an attack was made upon the presentor, and there was a speedy downfall in the great Smith family. The defendant was bound over in the sum of $600 to answer. Mr. Smith is the main witness in the case of a man whom he had arrested on the charge of attempting to murder a sailor named John Nelson, a few nights since, in 'a fight that occurred at Penn and Lombard streets. BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITERS AND UN-Catharine f pelman was taken before Alderman White yesterday on the charge of committing an assault and battery upon a much smaller woman named Ann Gravleace. According to the evidence the attack was made without provocation. On Thursday night the defendant proceeded to the house of the prosecutive on Lombard street, above Fifth, and then and there made a most volcient attack upon her, blackening her eyes, and tearing out her hair. Infuriated almost to madness, she seized an axe, and while forming the thrilling tableau of standing over her with the weapon uplifted, several persons rushed in and saved the prostrate victim. The accused was ordered to find bail in the sum of $500 to answer at court. State Sabbath-School Convention. [Before Mr. Alderman Dougherty.] [Before Mr. Alderman Dougherty.]

Forcible Entry and Detainer.

Two young men, named Emanuel Steringer and Theodore Rittenhouse, were taken before Alderman Dougherty sesterday afternoon on the charge of forcible entry and detainer. The first-named was charged with committing an assault on a very old. infirm woman, named Ann Duffy. The facts are as follows; Mrs, Duffy and her daughter lived in a house at or, near Sixth and Farmer streets. The building was owned by Joseph E. Van Meter. The tenant was taken sick a short time since and got behindhand in her rent. It is alleged that the two defendants were sent to the house on Thursday evening for the purpose of turning the tenant and what little household goods she had, into the street. This was most effectually accomplished. During the turning out of the goods, Steringer struck the old woman in the face with his fist. He was committed to answer the charge of assault and battery. Both were held for forcible entry and detainer. HOTELS. METROPOLITAN HOTEL, PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE,

SECOND DAY.

The Convention met at 9 o'clock A. M., and spent half an hour in devotional exercises. On motion, the 7th, 22d, and 8th resolutions were consolidated. These resolutions recommend to the Christian people of the Commonwealth to put forth more vigorous efforts to give religious instruction to the young; to institute Mission Schools, and organize county associations, in accordance with the recommendation of the last Convention. This subject, or rather these subjects were discussed at great length. Sectarianism seems to have been the great barrier in the way of the success of these institutions and organizations hitherto. The resolutions as consolidated, were finally adopted. The further consideration of the paper was postponed, for the present, in order to make way for some resolutions on the state of the country. Wm. Getty, Eq., and Col. Cummins, offered the following preamble and resolutions, which were adopted by a rising vote, the assembly uniting in singing an appropriate portion of psalmody while they stood:

Interesting addresses were then delivered by Ralph Wells, Esq., of New York; Rev. Mr. Taylor, of Bristol, Pennsylvania; Rev. Mr. Chidlaw, Dr. Bomberger, and Alfred Huntingdon, Esq., secretary of the New York Sabbath-school Union. The effect of this meeting was most thrilling. Every heart was moved as the hundreds of youthful voices poured forth their song of praise to the great Oreator and father of all. The declining sun gave brilliancy and enlivening beauty to the scene, as he poured his genial rays through the variegated glass of the magnificent building, and blended them with the radiant smiles of at least fourteen hundred youthful faces. EVENING SESSION.

The Convention reassembled at 7½ o'clock P. M., Rev. Dr. Douglas in the chair, and was opened with singing and prayer. The subjects dissussed were the responsibilities and duties of teachers to carefully prepare the lesson, make a systematic visitation of the scholars, and be regular and punctual in their attendance. The importance of cultivating habits of systematic beneficence from the earliest period of life, by encouraging weekly contributions to missionary and other religious objects, was next discussed. The subject of music in the Sabbath school was then debated at great length. Col. Cumins moved to amend the resolution on the subject by adding, "and it is advisable to devote a portion of one day in each without discussion.

THIRD DAY.

The Convention met on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, and spent half an hour in devotional exercises, Dr. W. Kenney in the chair. The Convention agreed to hold its next meeting in Harrisburg on the first Tuesday of June, 1884. J. S. William Watkins, convicted of larceny, picking the pocket of a woman, to fifteen months in the county prison. It cleanses and removates the blood, instils the vigor of health into the system, and purges out the humors which make disease. It stimulates the healthy functions of the body, and expels the disorders that grow and rankle in the blood. Its extraordinary virtues are not yet widely known, but when they are, it will no longer be a question what remedy to employ in the great variety of afficing diseases that require an alterative remedy. Such a remedy, that could be relied on, has long been sought for, and now, for the first time, the public have one on which they can depend. Our space here does not admit certificates to show its effects, but the trial of a single bottle will show to the sick that it has virtues surpassing anything they have ever taken. THE POLICE. The gist of the evidence in the case is that the moulders are now on a strike, and object to the employers taking more than a certain number of apprentices. They relinquished work and, though not having committed any breach of the peace, have annoyed the men who have taken the places, and thus interfered with the rights of Messrs. Stewart & Peterson and the present employees. The defendants named were each ordered to enter bail in the tum of $500 to answer at court. The five defendants no named were simply charged with standing in a squad and speaking contemptously of a boarding house where the present employees live. They were discharged from custody. MEDICAL. READ THE FOLLOWING CARE-VANISM. MAGNETISM, and other modifications of ELECTRICITY: the following resolutions were unanimously passed:

Recovered, That, as we have been eve witnesses for many weeks in the Institution of Prof. Bolles, and have good reason to believe that he has discovered new principles in the application of the different modifications of Electricity to the various diseased conditions of the human system; and that, in the treatment of different diseases, we have been convinced that, in his hand, as also his Students; the application of Electricity is a reliable therapeutic; and that he has taught us a new, rational, and scientific Philosophy, and we believe the only rollable theory of disease and mode of cure.

Recoved, That, in our judgment, the philosophy advanced, and so clearly demonstrated in the Course of Lectures, is entirely new and original with Prof. Bolles, and not known to the Medical Profession, and that the great success which has attended his practice in this city is alone the result of his scientific discovery of Electrical laws hitherto unknown to man, and that the many failures of other men in this city using this mighty agent is their ignorance of the true principles of Electricity.

Recoved, That we, in duty to suffering humanity, and for the great progress of the human race in approximating to a condition of health and happiness, commend the Professor and his theory and practice to the public, and bid him God speed, as we believe his great mission is one of benevolence and mercy, and calculated to benefit humanity in the only scientific and reliable way to a final restoration of health and happiness, commend the Professor and his theory and practice to the public, and bid him God speed, as we believe his great mission is one of benevolence and mercy, and calculated to benefit humanity in the only scientific and reliable way to a final restoration of health and physical happiness, Recolved, That we tender to Prof. Bolles our thanks for his lucid instruction and kind attention to us, individually and mind.

Also, Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by each member of the class, and published in the city papers.

FIRE! FIRE! FIRE! PHILADELPHIA, May 30, 1883.

M. C. Sadler. Esq., Agent for Litlie's Safes:

Dear Sig. During the night of May 19, 1883, our Grocery and Provision Store, at North Second and Willow streets, took fire at about 2 o'clock A. M., and as the store was a two-story wood building it burnt rapidly, and before the fire-engines could act upon the fire, our whole stock of goods, including much combustible material, and amounting to over $2,000, were wholly destroyed. We had one of your No. 11 Chilled Iron Safes, which was in the hottest part of the fire, and it came out of the fire and it came out of the fire not in the least injured, except the melting off of the name, plate and paint. The conclusts inside were not affected in the least, and we consider the Safe just as good a protection against fire now as before, and shall use it hereafter with increased confidence. The lock works as perfectly as before the file.

Yours truly, McManus & Croffy.
