THE SUFFOLK PARK RACES.—The arrangements in progress for the races to come off this week, at Suffolk Park, are of a character to give assurance that they will equal, if they do not excel, in merit and brilliancy any of the races that have occurred there for many years. Numerous entries always add much to the interest of races, and it will be the good fortune of those who visit Suffolk Park this week to see many competitors for each prize.

On the first day there will be three races, including the great post stake, for all ages, two mile heats, $200 entrance, play or pay, with $500 added, for which there are five subscribers. In this race, each subscriber having the right to start what he chooses, five of the best horses in the country will certainly come together, and a desperate contest is more than probable.

On the second day the great match for $10,000, three mile heats, between Blackbird and Idle wild, will come off. Both animals are doing finely, and a fast race is predicted.

On the third day four races will be run, closing with a dash of four miles for a purse of $500, free for all ages.

The horses already entered form the largest and THE CITY. It is, of course, almost too early in the progress of the movement to definitely state the nature of the ceremonies of the day, but certain features of the programme have been certainly determined upon, and a brief reference to them will indicate how heartfelt is the enthusiasm of the particular that will attend its success. At daybreak national salutes will be fired from batteries stationed at various points. The State House bell will be struck eighty-eight times in commemoration of the eighty-eight imnes in commemoration of the eighty-eight anniversary, and the different church bells and fire-alarm bells will be rung. A fine band of music will also be stationed in the State House steeple, and at, sunrise the melody of the national airs will welcome in the day. It is also proposed to erect, along the route of the procession, which is to take place, arches in honor of the day, and its memories; and at Independence Square five trimphal arches are to be raised, at the intersection of Fifth and Sixth, and Jwalut, and Fifth and Sixth and Chestnut streets, and at the main entrance leading into the Square on Walnut street. These latter will be dedicated respectively to Liberty, the Union, the Arny, and the Navy, and the filmoored Dead, whose lives have been offered up in the struggle for national existence. The resident of the United States has positively promised to attend, and he will be accompanied by the members of his Cabinet, Senators of the United States, and such of the Diplomatic Corps as can be in attendance. The many memories associated with this institution are in the main as pleasant as they, are diversified. From the date at which it was opened, on the lat of September, 1828, by Mr. W. B. Wood, until the time it closed on the 9th of May, 1863, by Mrs. John Drew, it has met with the usual successes and non-successes of theatres. The Archstreet Theatre is the seventh theatre built in Philadelphia, and its erection met with similar opposition from many of the religious community that the erection of the others did. Immediately after this the different theatres held jealous and antagonistic relations to one another. In January, 1828, the Walnut-street Theatre had been opened by Insiee & Blake, and in January, 1829, Pratt & Wemyas were the lessees of the Chestnut-street. A history of histrionics at this period cannot with precision be given. Everything was upside down, and everything theatrical in conglomerated disorder. The present prosperity of the theatres superinduces such reflections and reminiscences as these. The Arch has been very successful in the season just over, and will, no doubt, be equally so in the season to come. The improvements being made will be an additional argument for this. Its present condition is suggestive. The portice, the pillars, and the Apollo, no longer hold their relative positions to each other. The awkward and unusual manner in which this was put up is noticeable. The latter was not carved from a single block of stone, but was in separate pieces. These blocks, in their rough condition, were built in the wall, and the sculptor performed his work on a temporary staging that was erected in front, and that was enclosed in weather boarding. The work was a long time in progress, and great curiosity used to be felt to know what was going forward behind the wooden spreen which disfigured the front of the theatre for so long a period. In the t THE OLD AND NEW ARCH.-The old THE TRANSATLANTIC TELEGRAPH.—Mr. Cyrus W. Field, who delivered an address before the Board of Trade of this city, a short time since, relative to the completion of a telegraph across the North Atlantic via Queenstown and Newfoundland, has left for Europe in order to complete his arrangements. Signor Artura de Marcoartu, chief engineer of the Spanish corps, is now in the city preparing to undertake to lay a telegraph cable across the Southern Atlantic from Cape St. Vincent to Cape St. Roque. The latter genteman has published a very interesting pamphlet, in which he fully and clearly explains the enterprise in which he is engaged, and demonstrates its feasibility and the certainty that it will be amply remunerative.

In his pamphlet Signor de Marcoartu gives a brief, impartial, and intelligent account of the various submarine telegraphs now in actual operation, and from their success he deduces the conclusion that the lines in contemplation will be successful also. The Signor claims for the route which he has selected the important advantages that the distance between Europe and America is least, and that it passes "by many important is lands and by various capes and banks favorably situated for the subdivision of the length of the line into short sections—shorter, indeed, than many of the lines already established between other point." A GOLORED BRIGADE TO BE RAISED IN PHILADELPHIA.—The bravery and endurance displayed by the 2d Louisiana colored regiment, at Port Hudson, has settled all doubts as to their fighting qualities. Gen. Lafayette Bingham, of Washington, is now in this city and will at once commence the work of organizing a Philadelphia colored brigade, having been authorized to do so. This evening he will deliver an address at the Union League room, on Chestnut street, relative to the subject. If proper efforts are used, there will be no difficulty whatever attending the raising of a colored brigade in this city. whatever attending the raising of a colored Drigaue in this city.

On Saturday morning about two hundred colored recruits, raised in the interior of the State, passed through the city on their way to Massachusetts. Their appearance created quite a sensation among the colored people in the southern section of the city, and hundreds followed them through the streets cheering loudly as they took their departure. PRESENTATION.—A handsomely made set of (quipments for Mr. Wm. Dickson, of the Hiberia Steam Fire Engine Company, having been finished to the order of his friends, a committee proceeded to Washington, D. C., on Saturday, for the purpose of presenting them. Mr. John Sheehan, obairman of the committee, was selected to make the presentation speech. The equipments are made of the best fabric and finished in excellent style. The hat has what is known as a twenty comb, and is appropriately inscribed, to Wm. Dickson, as the efficient engineer of the Hiberia Steam Engine, now in service at Washington, D. C. The buttons of the coat are silver mounted, the belt of enamelled leather, the shirt and pants of the best fabric, all very handsomely stitched by the use of Grover & Baker's sewing machines. the principle of the company, having been finished to the order of his fields, a committee property of the committee, was elected to make of the part having and the committee of the committee, was elected to make of the part having and the committee of the committee MAYAL CELEBRATION.—Yesterday a grand naval dinner was given on board the Genoese man-of-war San Giovanni, now lying opposite the navy yard. The dinner was given by the commander of the ship, sad a number of prominent citizens and American naval and civil onicers were among his guests. Salutes were fired at 8 A. M., 12 M., and 6 P. A YER'S PILLS.—ARE YOU SIOK, OTHER SILLS.—ARE YOU SIOK, A FREELE, AND COMPLAINING? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings ancomfortable? These symptoms are often the preducts to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take A YER'S PILLS, and cleanse out the discordered, hamors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They atimalist the functions of the body into vigorous activity, nurify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold sottles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react innon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, sufforting, and disease. Whills in this condition; oppressed by the derangements, take A YER'S PILLS, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling the conditions of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling the right of health sgain. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same puricative effect expeis them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly and many of them surely, cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they care, such as Headachs, Font Stomach, Dysentery, Biltons Complaints, Indigestion, Derangement of the Liver, Costiveness, or Constipation. As a Dinner Pill they are both agreeable and effectual. Price 25 cents per box, or five boxes for 81.

READ THE FOLLOWING CARE-FULLY.—At the close of a Course of Lectures, delivered to us. Members of one of the many Classes of PROF. C. H. Resolved, That, as we have been eye witnesses for many weeks in the Institution of Prof. Bolles, and have good reason to believe that he has discovered new principles in the application of the different modifications of Electricity to the various diseased conditions of the human system and that, in the treatment of different diseases, we have been convinced that, in his hand, as also his Students, the application of Electricity is a reliable therapeutic; and that he has taught us a new, rational, and scientific Philosophy, and we believe the only reliable theory of disease and mode of cure.

Resolved, That, in our judgment, the philosophy advanced, and so clearly demonstrated in the Course of Lectures, is entirely new and original with Prof. Bolles, and not known to the Medical Profession, and that the great success which has attended his practice in this city is alone the result of his scientific discovery of Electrical laws intherto unknown to man, and that the many failures of other men in this city using this mighty agent is their ignorance of the true principles of Electricity.

Resolved, That we, in duty to suffering humanity, and for the great progress of the human race in approximating to a condition of health and happiness, commend the Professor and his theory and practice to the public, and bid him God speed, as we believe his great mission is one of benevolence and mercy, and calculated to benefit humanity in the only scientific and reliable way to a final restoration of health and physical happiness.

Resolved, That we tender to Prof. Bolles our thanks for his lucid instruction and kind attention to us, individually and as a class; that he has redeemed every pledge or assurance made by him, and that in parting from him he has our best whiles for his happiness and prosperity, and we heartily commend time that in parting from him he has our best whiles for his happiness and prosperity, and we Infammation or Ulceration of the Bladder and Kidneys, Diseases of the Pros-tate Gland. This Railroad Bridge is now being constructed in the best manner with stone piers and abutments, and iron superstructure, after a plan prepared by J. H. Linville, civil engineer and approved by J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvaria Railroad Company.

This bridge, when completed, will form part of a through line from Pittsburg' to Cincinnati, under one management, twenty-nine miles shorter than any other route, and fifty-eight miles shorter than any other route, via Crestline. It is expected that the line will be ready for business throughout its whole extent by July 1, 1864, and it must eventually become the great through route for both passengers and freight to and from the South and Southwest.

The Tolls that will be charged by the said company under its charter, for the use of this bridge, are specifically pledged to the payment of the interest on the bonds, and twenty per cent. Por annum of the earnings, after payment of interest and such expenses as may be necessary to a sinking fund for the redemption of the principal of the bonds at maturity.

The amount of traffic passing over this bridge will yield, under a limited estimate, a fund amply sufficient to provide for the interest and the necessary accumulation for a sinking fund, to provide, for the principal of the bonds at grand, to provide for the principal of the bonds before they mature. The bonds are, therefore, recommended as a first-class security.

Any further information desired will be interested the under signed. [my 28-tjel6t] EDMUND SMITH.
