[From The Commercial Advertiser.]

The author of "Two Lives" and of "Charms and Crunter Charms" will never lack readers, and in the volume before us she has transcended herself. There are thickly scattered through "Two Pictures" some of the truest touches of human nature and some of the most pointed applications of principles that we have ever met with. Moreover it is a truly American uovel in secure and tone, and notly philanthropic in sentiment. We commerd it to our readers with the most perfect confidence that none can peruse it without being charmed and profited.
