FIRE! FIRE! FIRE!

FIRELI FIRELI FIRELI PHILADELPHIA, MAY 20, 1563, M. C. Scadler, Eeg., Agent for Lillie's Safes: DEAR SIE: During the night of May 19, 1563, our Gro-cerv and Frovision Slove, st North Second and Willow streets, took fire at about 2 o'clock A. M., and as the store was a two-story wood building it barat rapidly, and before the fire-engines could act upon the fire, our whole stock of goods, including much combustible ma-terial, and amounting to over $2,000, were wholly de-stroyed. We had one of your No. 11 (Chilled Iron Safes, which was in the hottest part of the fire, and it came out of the fire not in the least, injured, except the melling off of the name, plate and paint. The contents inside were not affected in the least, and we consider the Safe just as good a protection against fire now as before, and eshall use it hereafter, with increased confidence. The look works as perfectly as before the fire. Yours truly, MolANUS & CROFT, Late 4239 North SECOND Street.

Late 429 North SECOND Street. Attention to the above certificate is particularly re-quested, as it is the first trial of LILLIE'S SAFES in an accidental fire in Philadelphia. I would say to all parties who want a Fire and Burglar-proof Safe that LILIE'S WROUGHT AND GHILLED IB'N RAFES are much the cheapest and the only real Fire and Burglar-proof Safes now made; and to those who want simply a Fire-proof. I would say that LILLIE'S WROUGHT INON SAFE is fully equal in all-respects to any of the most-approved makers, and is sold at fully one-third less price. — I also am receiving daily in exchange for Lillie's Wrought and Childel Iron Safes other Safes, and keep constantly on hand a general assortment of HERRING'S. EVANS & WATSON'S, and other makers, many of them almost new, which I offer at, and eyen below, auction prices. — All parties interested are particularly requested to ex-amine the Safes above described at my depot. — M. C. SADLER, Agent, je2-tf No. 21 South SEVENT Street.

erty. Discharged Soldiers Requested to Remain. Mr. GREDLE stated that he understood that three regiments returning from the Army of the Potomac would pass through the city to-night. He thought that an endeavor should be made to induce them to remain, and take part in the defence of the city. Mr. Richte offered the following: Whereas, Several regiments from New England will pass through the city to-morrow morning, the first of July, on their way to their several rendez-vous, to be mustered out of service; therefore, be it. Revolved, by the Select and Common Council, That a joint committee of five members of each Chamber be appointed to solicit them to remain for a short time to assist in the public defence in the present emergency.

Dr. UHLER moved to add that they receive the same pay and bounty as our own citizens. Agreed to remain here for a rew days, or "until the scare is over." Dr. UHLER replied that these men were needed. He believed that the city was in danger. Pay-day will come, but we may have to pay it to Gen. Lee. However, money. don't fight rebels--men fight re-bels--and it we can get these veterans, good Union men, it is all the better for us. This bounty was for men who have fought well and long for the country, and are entitled to go home. They are to be given the same as those who have staid at home, and not fought.

Mr. KING opposed the resolution. He was not in favor of paying bounty to men from New England to remain here for a few days, or "until the scare is over."

Mr. BRIGHTLY said that the United States Go-vernment now offered $300, in addition to the former bounties, to any soldier who has served nine months and will re-enlist. He was not in favor of adding to this liberal bounty. Dr. UHLER remarked that we want men who are skilled and expert. Every one of those men is fit to their work. Mr. ZANE moved to strike out the word "bounty."

Mr. ZANE moved to strike out the word "bounty." Agreed to. Mr. ZANE was not quite satisfied with the bill. He thought that some inducement should be given to these men, and suggested that $20 for each man should be made. If it does take money, money is mothing in these times. It will only take $20,000, and who would not give $20,000 to keep these rebel hordes from our doors? Mr. KING said that he was here as a member of Councils to protect the interests of the eity. The gentleman had talked about money. Perhaps he will know what it is to pay taxes. He desired to be just to those who have to pay the money. Mr. RIOHE thought that it was better to pay $50, or $100, to these men, rather than have these rebels destroying our property.

or $100, to these men, rather than have these rebels destroying our property. Mr. ARMSTRONG remarked that this was no time to talk about taxes. The enemy is marching upon us, and it is the duty of every loyal citizen to do what he can to repel him. Mr. Armstrong was in favor of $50, or $100, if necessary. Mr. Kins esait that if the members would vote money away so extravagantly as this, he would properly have originated. The debate was continued at some length. Mr. BRIGHTLY said that when he made his former remarks he misunderstood the question. He thought that the bounty was for men to remain a few days, and thought that a bounty should be offered by all means.

The Families of Volunteers. Mr. Strains offered a resolution directing the Committee on Defence and Protection to make such provision for the families of persons who volunteer for the defence of the sly as they may deem ad-visable, out of the appropriation heretofore made for that purpose, and authorizing the Mayor to draw warrants for the same:

Recall of General McClellan.

Recall of General McClellan. The resolution calling upon the President of the United States to place General McClellan at the head of the army gave rise to considerable dis-cussion. Mr. BRIGHTLY favored the resolution. He de-clared that General McClellan was called for by everybody. He (McClellan) possessed the confidence of the people, and was beloved by the army. He could bring around him more men than all the boun-ties that can be offered. Mr. BUCHE remled to Mr. Brightly, and in the instance, it is said the lad has not had proper moral training. Scarcity. Police items of an interesting nature were rather scarce yesterday. The haul of pickpockets, and the incarceration of the prisoners for ninety days, by Alderman Ogle, stamps that magistrate as a most excellent officer. The light-fingered gentry were rather scarce yesterday. IBefore Mr. Alderman White.] The Volunteer Refreshment Saloons. A civil suit was adjudicated before Alderman white, yesterday afternoon, which had rather a patriotic termination. After the hearing, the gentleman against whom the suit was brought, said he could appeal if he chose, but he would rather give the money to the Volunteer Refreshment Saloons. The plaintiff promptly assented to this. He is William Mann, the stationer. The Alderman was requested to make the disburstenent, and within half an hour after the proceedings closed he handed the sum total of the suit, $14.75, to a member of the Cooper-Shop Committee, to be divide equally between the two saloons.

Eliza Taylor and Margaret Wax were committed, yesterday, by Alderman White, to answer the charge of the larceny of a watch, the property of Jacob Tol-bert. It seems the owner had been very active during Monday in recruiting colored men, and in the evening seated himself on a box in Lombard street, near Eighth, and fell asleep. When he awoke he found his watch missing. It had his name en-graved upon it. A woman named Taylor called upon a pawhoroker and offred the timepiece. She was told to come again. In the meantime the pawn-broker made known the circumstance to Mr. Tol-bert, whom he knew. The trap being thus set, the two women above named were arrested. They were confederates.
