FAIADE OF THE UNION LEAGUE, A general meeting of the members of the Union League was called yesterday afternoon, at four o'clock. The object was to form a compary for city defence, and tender their services to General Dana. There was quite a large number present. A roll was opened, and nearly two bundred names were signed to it. It was then proposed that the League should turn out on parade, and the proposition was agreed. to unanimously. The members were formed in line, in the spacious yard in the rear of the League House, and, preceded by Bergfeld's brigade band, marched into Ohestnut street. They passed into Giraut street, where they were reviewed by General Dana and staff. The General received loud cheers from those in the line. The procession continued down Ohestnut to Third, thence to Walnut, and then returned to the League House. The parade attracted great attention upon the street, In the line were many of our most wealthy difficense-manu-facturers, merohants. bankers, clergymen, and pro-minent officials. As they marched, two abreast, the procession covered nearly two equares, and several silk flags were carled in the line.
