

Encouraging News. REPORTS OF A GREAT VICTORY.

GETTYSBURG IN OUR POSSESSION.

THE REBELS DRIVEN TWO MILES FROM THE TOWN.

Thousands of Rebels Captured.

A Large Number of Cannon Taken.

The Enemy Contemplating Retreat.

THE ACCOUNTS OF FRIDAY'S BATTLE.

THE ENEMY REPULSED WITH TERRIBLE HAVOC.

Despatches from Gen. Meade.

Surrender of a Rebel Brigade.

Reported Death of Gen. Hill and Longstreet.

General French at Williamsport.

Rebel Pontoons Destroyed.

Another Account of Friday's Battle.

THE UNION LOSS 20,000—REBEL LOSS 30,000.

From 12,000 to 20,000 Prisoners Taken.

The Wounded Union Prisoners Recaptured.

GEN. PLEASANTON IN PURSUIT.

with them the irreparable loss they had sustained. The rebels were driven back to the mountain, and the Union forces pursued them to the foot of the mountain. The rebels were captured in large numbers, and their arms and baggage were taken. The Union forces then moved on to the next day's operations.

The Union forces were in a state of high spirits after the victory at Gettysburg. The army was well supplied with provisions and ammunition, and the soldiers were confident of their success. The Union forces were now in a position to move on to the next day's operations.

The Union forces were now in a position to move on to the next day's operations. The army was well supplied with provisions and ammunition, and the soldiers were confident of their success. The Union forces were now in a position to move on to the next day's operations.

The Union forces were now in a position to move on to the next day's operations. The army was well supplied with provisions and ammunition, and the soldiers were confident of their success. The Union forces were now in a position to move on to the next day's operations.

The Union forces were now in a position to move on to the next day's operations. The army was well supplied with provisions and ammunition, and the soldiers were confident of their success. The Union forces were now in a position to move on to the next day's operations.

The Union forces were now in a position to move on to the next day's operations. The army was well supplied with provisions and ammunition, and the soldiers were confident of their success. The Union forces were now in a position to move on to the next day's operations.

The Union forces were now in a position to move on to the next day's operations. The army was well supplied with provisions and ammunition, and the soldiers were confident of their success. The Union forces were now in a position to move on to the next day's operations.

The Union forces were now in a position to move on to the next day's operations. The army was well supplied with provisions and ammunition, and the soldiers were confident of their success. The Union forces were now in a position to move on to the next day's operations.

The Union forces were now in a position to move on to the next day's operations. The army was well supplied with provisions and ammunition, and the soldiers were confident of their success. The Union forces were now in a position to move on to the next day's operations.