PUNCTUATION.

Wo unto them that decree unrighteous decrees, and that write grievousness which they have prescribed; to turn aside the needy from judgment, and to take away the right from the poor of my people, that widows may be their prey, and that they may rob the fatherless! And what will ye do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far? to whom will ye fiee for help? and where will ye leave your glory? Without me they shall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

FRIE IN THE ELEVENTH WARD—LOSS fifty men were at work at that time. A small brass cannon was then mounted upon the rampart, and a national salute of thirty five rounds was given, making the surrounding hills echo for the first time with the record of the newly admitted sister State of Western Virginia. A plentiful collation of eatables and drinkables was then enjoyed beneath the shade of spreading trees, upon the broad table covered with nature's verdure instead of linen.

After the good things had been properly discussed, the Declaration of Independence was read by Professor John O. Cresson, Chtef Engineer of the City Gas Works, and an eloquent and stirring impromptu address was made by Frederick Fraley, Esq., who stated, among other matters of historic interest, that just fifty years before he had assisted in building fortifications to defend his native city against the invasion of a foreign foe as he had this day done to protect it from the threatened raid of a rebel horde.

After the conclusion of these ceremonies the workmen again resumed their voluntary labors noon the After the conclusion of these ceremonies the workmen again resumed their voluntary labors upon the defences, thus showing how/freemen can deny themselves their wonted enjoyment of a full holiday, even on the sacred "Fourth," when their country calls to other and more laborious duties.

In addition to the workmen detailed from the City Gas Works, the force was yesterday increased by a body of men from the brickyards of the First ward, under the leadership of their employer, Mr. Benjamin Allen, who has set an example worthy of all praise and imitation, by closing up his large establishment and leading to this duty thirty-five men of sturdy courage and strong muscle, whose services he continues to pay for without stopping to inquire who is to reimburse him for his sacrifice of time and money for the public good.

The regiment of Col. Small is filling up rapidly. Two of the companies, Captains Defraine and Robinson, have been in the advance in front of Harrisburg, working on the trenches, and doing efficient service for over a week. Several more will be sent forward with despatch. The headquarters are in Sixth street, below Chestnut. Nine companies of the Merchants' Regiment have left for Harrisburg. One company yet remains to be filled. The regiment thas been resead within a week. The structure was owned by Mrs. Caroline C. Haywold; and was occupied by Mrs. Caroline C. Haywold; and was occupied by Messis. Schutt & Seigel, manufacturers of sheep-skin linings. The fire had made great progress before it was discovered, and before the firemen could get into service the whole building was enveloped. The structure was totally destroyed, as well as its contents, consisting of fixtures, machinery, a large stock of sheep-skins, and about 200 pounds of wool. The building was partially insured. Messis. Schutt & Seigel estimate their loss at $2,000, upon which there is no insurance.

East of the factory and separated by an alley is a large double five-story brick building, owned by John W. Middleton. The fiames communicated to this building through the windows on the alley, and the whole interior, from the fifth to the second story, was destroyed. The loss of Mr. Middleton will be from $1,500 to $2,000, and is fully insured. The building was formerly occupied by J. A. Buck, morocco manufacturer, but for the past year has been vacant. The stock was mostly removed.

A stable on the west side of the alley, belonging to Fred. Shober, and occupied by Mr. Watson, flour dealer, was also slightly damaged.

The rear portion of the lager beer saloon of Antoine Henze also took fire, and sustained a trifling injury. The household effects suffered somewhat from water.

The total loss by the fire will be about $5,000, about one-half of which is covered by insurance. The origin of the fire is not known, but is being investigated by the Fire Marshal.

A serious fire occurred in this neighborhood on the 19th of May last, and at that time we stated that a number of men disguised as firemen had entered people's houses and robbed them. The same thing occurred at the fire of yesterday morning. Some men wearing equipments got upon a shed in the rear of the house of Mr. Henze and while Mr. H. was engaged in removing his wife, who was ill, the second-story window, which opened upon the shed, was broken open and a valuable gold watch and upwards of $100 in money were stolen from the front bed chamber. lvania. Each board met accordingly and organized as follows: BOARD OF CONTROLLERS OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS. This body met at 10 o'clock.
Dr. Yaugha was called to the chair temporarily.
Dr. George W. Nebinger acted as secretary at the organization.
After the reception of credentials, the members elect were aworn in by Mayor Henry.
Nominations were then gone into for president and secretary.
Messrs. Leonard R. Fletcher and Thomas N.
Marchment were nominated for president.

M This body met at 10 o'clock.
Dr. Yaugha was called to the chair temporarily.
Dr. George W. Nebinger acted as secretary at the man, a Genman, has a small carpet store and dwelling on Ridge avenue, above Thirteenth street. Several months ago a young Prussian, named Joseph Reiger, a cabinet maker, boarded at the house, and because of alleged, or supposed, familiarity with Mrs. Hartman, the boarder was required to leave. Yesterday morning Mr. Hartman returned from a visit to Egg Harbor, and on entering the house, went up stairs and found his wife's room fastened. He was informed by some one in the lower part of the house that she had gone up there some time before, and also that Reiger had followed her. The husband finding the door locked, burst it open, and to his horror, so. it is sald, found his wife lying on the floor behind a chest; she was badly wounded, one ball having passed through her body, and the other effecting a lodgement therein. Reiger was also lying on the floor badly wounded. He was removed to the hospital, where he died about seven o'clock last evening. The husband says that Reiger acknowledged perpetrating the act. The wife also told her husband that Reiger had done it. This is all that we could learn about the case. Reiger had recently enlisted in the volunteer army. The pistol with which the deed was committed is in the possession of the police. The attention of Chief Franklin having been called to the case, he at once ordered the arrest of the husband.

The Wounded D in the Field.—Mrs. Mary A. Brady. No. 136 South Fifth street and Marchment.
Mr. Fletcher was declared elected.
For Secretary—Megary Marchment.

Mr. Fletcher was declared elected.

For Secretary-Messrs. Adams, Cushman, Fitzgerald, Freeborn, Fletcher, Green, Haines, Hilles, Nebinger, Riché, Rittenhouse, Shipen, Stewart, and Vaughan (14) voted for Mr. Campbell.

Messrs. Belsterling, Brophy, Cooper, Fagan, Holt, Marchment, O'Kline, Roberts, Welsh, Witham, and Yeager (11) voted for Mr. Hemphill.

Mr. Campbell was declared elected, and a committee was appointed to notify him of the fact.

Mr. Fletcher assumed the chair, and returned thanks for the honor conferred upon him, in a brief speech, in which he referred to the successful management of the school interest aduring the past year; and he promised to use his best exertions in the future to further the cause of education.

Mr. Freeborn stated that the Committee on Semiannusl Commencement of the High School had, in view of the peculiar condition of national affairs, had under consideration the propriety of abandoning the usual public exercises. The favorable position of affairs had brought about a change of feeling, and the committee had this morning determined that the Commencement should take place as usual, on the 16th instant, at the Academy of Music.

THE WOUNDED IN THE FIELD.—Mrs.
Mary A. Brady, No. 135 South Fifth street, and Mrs. M. A. Dobbins, No. 1301 Mt. Vernon street, with Mrs. Ellen Robbins, north-west corner Thirtyfourth and Race streets, propose to make a fourth trip to attend to the wounded soldiers in the field.
They purpose to leave for the hospitals in the field, near Gettysburg, Pa., with a large tent, a cookingstove, &c., on Thursday next, and respectfully solicit further donations of suitable articles, which may kindly be sent to the office of Edward Brady, attorney-at-law, Honorary Secretary of the Ladies' Association for Soldiers' Relief, No. 135 South Fifth street, or to either of the above addresses. GUARDIANS OF THE POOR. This Board met at the office, in Seventh street, J. M. Maris, Esq., president, in the chair. Philip Lowry, Jr., elected by Councils, and Fred. A. Lowry, reappointed by the District Court, were sween in. A. Lowry, reappointed by the District Court, were sworn in.

An election for officers was then gone into. Mr. Maris was unanimously re-elected president, and Mr. Server-treasurer. The rules were suspended and an election was held for secretary. Mr. Charles T. Miller was unanimously re-elected.

Nominations were then gone into for members of the Medical Board. The present Board was renominated, and Drs. Stillé, Wilson, and Wallace were added to the list of nominees. The election will take place at the next stated meeting of the Guardians. The Board then adjourned.

BOARD OF REALTH. STABBING AND SHOOTING CASES.—Two men, one named William Nugent, other name unknown, got into an altercation on Sunday evening, about nine o'clock, at the Wheat Sheaf Tavern, Richmond street and Wheat Sheaf lane. Nugent was stabbed two or three times in the left breast. One wound is in close proximity to the heart, and is thought to be dangerous. The injured man was conveyed to his home. The alleged assailant escaped. A man named Lewis Walton was shot in the leg, on Sunday night, by some unknown person, at Whitehall, in the Twenty-third ward. The ball was extracted by Dr. Poor, but the wound is not considered serious.

TWENTY-THIRD-WARD TROOP.—A full officers:
President—James A. McOrea, M. D.
Secretary—William Taylor.
Messrs. Charles W. Churchman, Peter Armbruster, and James L. Claghorn were sworn in as members in the place of Wilson Jewell, M. D., John S. Little, and John Lindsay. The Board as at present constituted is as follows: Jacob B. Coates, Isaac R. Smith, James L. Claghorn, Charles W. Churchman, Rene La Roche, M. D., T. Stewardson, M. D., Peter Armbruster, James West, James Steel, and Arthur Hughes. . TWENTY-THIRD-WARD TROOP.—A full company of cavalry has been formed in the Twenty-third ward, and is commanded by Oaptsin William C. Murphy. The troop has been accepted by Major General Bana, and will be armed in a few days. The company is drilled twice every day. Yesterday afternoon there was to have been a turnout in honor of the glorious victory of the Union army, and a large number of citizens were expected to join in the cavalcade. On account of the Inclemency of the weather, the procession was postponed until Thursday afternoon at half past four o'clock.

JAY COOKE, subscription agent, reports the sale of $600,000 in five-twenties yesterday, in all parts of the Union, mostly from the Western States. The decision of the Secretary, continuing the popular agency through Jay Cooke & Co., is hailed with pleasure throughout the country, and the more so because the arrangements for carrying into effect the national banking law have not been fully matured in some of the most important sections of the country. Large accessions to the permanent capital may be fully calculated on.

THE PROVOST GUARD.—Eleven hundred TWENTY-THIRD-WARD TROOP.-A full MEETING IN BEHALF OF THE CHRISTIAN COMMISSION.—A meeting in behalf of the Christian Commission was held in the Church of the Epiphany, on Sunday evening. The arrangements had been made too late for any notice to be given through the papers, and yet the spacious edidoc was crowded. It was a scene of deep interest, in connection with the thought that the soil of our own State was then soaking with the blood of the brave men for whose welfare that vast audience was so deeply concerned. The delivered citizens, the peaceful worshippers, were there by the sacrifice of the thousands at that hour in agony or death upon the battle-field. Every heart seemed to have the scene presented to the eye, side-by-side with the imagination's picture of that distant field; and while the glad consciousness of the one pervaded the assembly with grateful, swelling emotions, the thought of the other cast a deep shade over that joy. Undersuch circumstances the speakers could hardly havelfalled of eloquence. Dr. Newton presided, and addresses were made by Rev. Dr. Faires, who had followed the advance of our militia, being with them during the shelling of Carlisle; Joseph Patterson, Esq., the treasurer of the first conflict, and was the first to receive the kindly attentions of the Commission, whose son lost his right hand in the first conflict, and was the first to receive the kindly attentions of the Commission, whose interests his father had so faishfully served; George H. Stuart, Esq., and Colonel Bowman, who led the charge upon the Heights of St. Marye at the last battle of Fredericksburg. The addresses were all powerful and touching, Mr. Stuart's thrilling relations of incidents in connection with the ministrations of the delegates drawing tears from very many eyes. His statement of the earthusiasm and self-saorificing liberality of the Western people for the objects of the Commission were of such a nature as to put to blush the comparatively little concern and small exertions of our citizens. The collection, however, realized $1,03 MEETING IN BEHALF OF THE CHRISTIAN THE PROVOST GUARD.—Eleven hundred and twelve men left the headquarters of the provost guard during the last month. Of this number, 52 were sent to their regiments, 54 to Fort Delaware, 32 to hospitals, and 73 to Provost Marshal at Washington, D. C.; 294 were delivered to officers, 220 transferred, and 382 discharged; 5 escaped, On Saturday over 100 rebel prisoners were sent to Fort Delaware. THE attention of the ladies of the First Baptist Church and congregation of this city is requested to an advertisement in one of our columns. It is sincerely hoped that the meeting will be largely attended, and that every possible effort will be made, without delay, to send for the use of our wounded soldiers the necessaries now so much needed. NEW COUNTERFEIT.—Peterson's Detec-FATAL FALL.—Thomas Collier, fifty-five years of age, fell through the hatchway at the Pennsylvania Sugar Refinery, at Crown and Race streets, yesterday afternoon, and was so badly injured that he died soon after being admitted to the Pennsylvania Hospital. THE COAL BUSINESS.—Coal shippers THE COAL BUSINESS.—Coal shippers have stated that the present advance in the price of soal will only be temporary, and that the price, as soon as the present excitement is over, may fall lower than it was before the advance. The increase of price, it is known, was carried by the action of the coal operatives, who agreed to send regiments to the field, and provide for a temporary suspension of operations in the mining region. The coal interest has supplied men and moneys with great promptitude and liberality. Many thousands of dollars were subscribed by individuals and by corporations.

$6,000 FATAL ACCIDENT.—Yesterday morning the coroner held an inquest upon the body, of William Spare, a single man forty years of age, residing at Germantown, who died from injuries received on Friday night, by being run over by a passenger railway car at Second and Green streets. Supposed to be Insane.—A man giving the name of John O. O'Brian, respectably dressed, and said to be from Pittsburg, was found in Arch street acting in strange manner. He is supposed to be insane, and was sent to the almshouse to await the action of his friends. ATTEMPT TO CUT HIS THROAT.—William Hickman, residing at 502 St. John street, while laboring under an aberration of mind, attempted to commit suicide, about 12 o'clock on Sunday night, by cutting his throat with a razor. He inflicted quite a serious gash, and was taken to the hospital WESTERN HOSE COMPANY.—The memstation is a yawl-boat, fourteen feet long, awaiting a claimant. A black-slik mantilla and numerous other articles are awaiting an owner at the Twenty-fourth ward station-house. The steam tug America will be sold to the Government for $35,000, and sent to New Orleans under the charge of Captain Smith, to be employed in towing on the Mississippi. COMMERCE OF PHILADELPHIA.—The arrivals at this port since the first of January, 1863, have been as follows, as compared with 1862: RUN OVER .- A lad, named Dougherty. | Total | For | Coast | Total | February | 37 | 1,044 | 1,081 | 38 | 989 | 1,027 | March | 61 | 1,911 | 1,972 | 48 | 2,242 | 2,290 | April | 63 | 2,977 | 3,030 | 70 | 3,477 | 3,547 | May | 72 | 3,558 | 3,630 | 72 | 3,758 | 3,830 | June | 68 | 3,492 | 3,558 | 67 | 2,802 | 2,869 | was run over by a carriage at Ninth and Arch streets, last evening, and seriously injured. THE POLICE. [Before Mr. Alderman Beitler.]

Professionals Discharged.

The professional pickpookets who were arrested a few days since and committed to prison, were arrested to read the committed to prison, were arrested to rain the committed to prison, were arrested to rain the central Station. There was no evidence adduced against them, and they were therefore discharged, having spent their Fourth of July in prison.

More Swindling.

A considerable number of females appeared at the Central Station yesterday morning and afternoon, and detailed the manner in which they had been awindled out of their hard earnings by a couple of sub-contractors who had employed them to make wagon covers. The fairest promises had been made, and upon appearing at the establishment at the time appointed to receive their pay, they found it closed, and, their employers among the missing. The sums of money due these operatives ranged from three to six dollars. (Before Mr. Alderman White.)

Larceny.

John Hartly was arraigned yesterday before Police Magistrate White, on the charge of stealing the sum of forty dollars from Patrick Collins, a sailor. The parties roomed together at a boarding house in Swanson street below Lombard. When Mr. Collins awoke on Sunday morning, he found his fellow lodger gone. The sum of forty dollars, all the money the defendant had, was also gone. During the day, Hartly was flush with the same kind of money that Collins had lost; he spent it freely in treating "all hands," at a tavern or two. These circumstances being developed, and taken into consideration with the fact that Hartly, as a general thing, never had any money, the magistrate thought there was probable cause made out. He therefore required the defendant to enter ball in the sum of one thousand dollars to answer. [Before Mr. Alderman Dougherty.] [Before Mr. Alderman Dougherty.]

Shocking Outrage.

Daniel Hanes, sged about forty years, was arraigned yesterday before Alderman Dougherty, on the charge of committing a violent assault and battery on a little girl, aged three years and six months, in the yard of a house in Cherry street near Third. The mother resides at Frankford, and with her child was on a visit. While in the house, and the little one playing in the yard, the assault and battery was committed. The man was seen by some parties, who immediately rescued the child from the defendant, and beat him in a most unmereful manner. The mother, regaining the child, started for Frankford, and has not been heard from since. The defendant was committed in default of one thousand dollars bail to await a hearing. PERSONAL.—Major General Winfield S. Hancock, commanding the 2d Army Corps of the Potomac, has arrived in this city, and is quartered at the La Pietre House. The General was wounded in the recent fight, while, like the lamented Reynolds, gallantly defending the soil of his native State. General Hancock has been in all the battles of the Army of the Potomac, and is a brave and searless officer, and has won for himself the admiration of all our old veterans. Generals Hancock and Sickles were both wounded about the same time, but it was through their united energy and determination that the rebels in their frightful charge were repulsed, and the victory of that day secured to our arms.
