Gold Speculations of Baltimore Disloyalists.

[From the Baltimore American, Monday.]

ists. [From the Baltimore American, Monday.] It has been frequently announced during the past two months by the New York brokers, that the greater portion of the demand for gold in that city was from Baltimore purchasers. This demand was from leading disloyalists, who were cognizant of the purpose of the rebels to invade Pennsylvania and capture Baltimore, and who had confidence in their ability to successfully accomplish the under-taking. Thus it was that they would not believe that Vickaburg had fallen, and were bolstering up their investments and their credit by the free ex-pression of their disselief. On Saturday, however, the bubble burst, and the consequence was that quite a number of the heaviest dealers had their notes protested. The folly of being too wise is often demonstrated increase the delars file with ooal at nice and ten dollars pri too, whild the with ooal at nice and ten dollars pri too, whild the with ooal at nice and ten dollars pri too, whild in their supplies later in the season at six dollars. Those who were the full scon get a premium, as well as interest, on their investment, whild their creditors will, who, we hope, are all of the seme these reasonable pensuenon the great all of the seme trans on the interest is accru-ing, will scon get a premium, as well as interest, on the fir investment their creditors will, who, we hope, are all of the seme transonable pensuenon the dollar, or rather their creditors will, who, we hope, are all of the seme transonable pensuenon the dollar, or rather their creditors will one of gold mow sarried by our Baltimore banks, for holders in this diy, that cost them fifty, sixty, and some of it even seventy per cent, premium. It is now at their present premium, and we hope to have the pleasure of quoting it at twenty by the close of another week. The taking of Port Hulson and the final route of Lee's army will do this, whilst the humbling of Charleston will coust a a resumption of specie payment. So mote it be. The Intal route of Lee's army will do this, whist the humbling of Oharleston will cause a resumption of specie payment. So mote it be. The wiseacres in York county, Pa, who had learned the grips and pass-words of the K. G. O'a, thought this would save their horses and cattle, while the Union men drove theirs to hiding places in the mountains, and thus saved them from the grasp of the spoiler. This is another instance of the folly of too much wisdom is times of civil war. DEATH OF THE FATHER OF HOMCEOPA-THY.-The death of Count S. G. S. M. Dei Guidi is reported at Lyons. The Count was in his ninety-fourth year, and was the father of homeopathy, having in 1528 converted Hahneman from allopathy. Count Di Guidi had previously been a Neapolitan-conspirator against Queen Caroline (in 1799), a pri-soner, exile, professor of mathematics, Inspector of the University of Grenoble, a doctor of medicine, and, finally, of anti-medicine, and has died a cheva-lier of the Legion of Honor.-Galignani.
