EFFECTS OF THE HEAT.—The extreme heat of the weather of the past few days caused many houses in our city to become vacant. There was a perfect hegina to the sea shore, the country in-land, or to the Blue Mountain retreats of Pennsyl-vania. Of course the police will be more than vigi-lant in their patrol. So well organized is the police system, that our citizens may feel confidence in its members, many of whom, like the Chief, are gentle-men, firm, and resolute. The weather was so excla-sively hot on Sunday, Monday, and yesterday morn-ing, as to cause men and horses to drop dead on the streets. Over a dozen of horses were led to the southern rural parts of the city on Monday night, by moonlight. The animals had been over-come by the heat of the day, and one or two of them died from the effects thereof before morning. Seve-ral men and women dropped by the way-side. On Monday afternoon a man, very fleshy by nature, hurried toward the wharf, as he feared he would "lose the boat." He did lose it, indeed, for he fell, was taken into a neighboring house, where he re-the oppressive heat of yesterday was somewhat dis-sipated by a grateful canopy of clouds that let down just enough of their watery particies to send the mercury down from 33 to 52 degrees. MEMORANDA.

Monday afternoon a man, very fieshy by nature, hurried toward the wharf, as he feared he would "lose the boat." He did lose it, indeed, for he fell, was taken into a neighboring house, where he re-mained in a critical condition several hours. But the oppressive heat of vesterday was somewhat dig-siphated by a grateful canopy of clouds that let dow just enough of their watery particles to send the mercury down from 93 to 52 degrees. Prostrate hur manity felt refreshed, and the temperature was at 20, yet it was quite agreeable. CORONER'S INQUEST AND VERDICT.—The corner yesterday resumed and finished the investi-gation in the case of Enos McKee, who was shot to death a few evenings since while returning from plicinic excursion that had been made to Strawberry Mansion. The following additional evidence was elleited: Teonard W. Lynch testified that at the Strawberry Mansion he met Henry Young, and was introduced to David Hazzard, who passed by the name of Mur-phy witness and others got out, and found researtly there was a diatrobance; a pistol was finted ut by whom witness alid not know; in a moment after this Hazzard walked up to a man and fires william Kendail, the keeper of a tavern on Race william Kendail, the keeper of a tavern on Race street, Near Mansion, and soon left the place; on street, near Thirteenth, testified that at the tables and Young fighting with a soldier, trying to take kis gun from him; witness assisted in taking a black jack from Young. William Kendail, the keeper of a tavern on Race street, Young, said that he had been shot at, st trawberry Mansion, and soon left the place; on the near morning, having asserbated that young and young stopped at his house; Young said that he had been shot at, st trawberry Mansion, and soon left the place; on the near morning, having asserbate that young and bas place and the the st morning, having asserbate that young and young stopped at his house; Young said that he had been shot at, st the the st morning, having asserbate the place; on the near morning.

FIRE! FIRE! FIRE!

FIREI FIREI FIREI FIREI PULADELPHIA. May 30, 1863. M. C. Sadder. Esc., Agent for Leille's Safes : DEAR SIR: During the night of May 19, 1863, our Gro-err and Provision Store, at North Second and Willew streets, took fire at zhout 2 o'clock A. M., and as the store was a two-story wood building it burnt rapidly, and before the fire-englines could act upon the fire, our whole stock of goods, including much combustible ma-terial, and amounting to over $2.000, were wholly de-stroyed. We had one of your No. II Chilled from Safes, which was in the hoitest part of the fire, and it came oul of the fire not in the least injured, except the melting of of the name, plate and paint. The coulents inside were not affected in the least, and we consider the Safe just as good a protection against fire now as before, and shall use it hereafter with increased confidence. The lock works as perfective as before the fire. Yours truly. McMANUS & CROFT, Liet 429 North SECOND Street.
