A friar of orders gray the service said:
Oft bent his knee, oft bowed his shaven head;
Oft crossed him thrice, now smote upon his breast;
Now turning, hailed the multitude and blest.
Choirs answered him with anthems soaring loud,
Incense curied up, and wreathed on high a cloud.
In choral ranks the palled procession trod,
Hymn'd every saint, and chanted praise to God.
While through each aisle the faithful gazing stood,
Or reading knelt, and signed the holy rood;
Till heard the warning of a silver bell,
To earth all prostrate, bowed the face and fell;
The primate roze—the hierarchy up—
The priest thrice offered Heaven the host and cup;
And all tongues choired, adoring cup and host,

A SARSAPARILLA.—No one remedy is more needed in this country than a reliable Alterative, but the sick have been so outrageously cheated by the worthless preparations of Sarsaparilla abroad that they are disgusted even with the name. Yet the drug cannot be hamed for the impositions from which they have suffered. Most of the so-called Sarsaparillas in the market contain title of the virines of Sarsaparilla or anything else. They are mere slope—inert and worthless, while a concentrated extract of the scire variety of Sarsaparilla compounded with Dock, Stillingia, Iodine, etc., is, as it ever will be, a powerful alterative and an effectual remedy. Such is Ayer's Extract of Sarsaparilla, as its truly wonderful cures of the great variety of complaints which require an alterative medicine have abundantly shown. Do not, therefore, discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something precienting to be Sarsaparilla. While it was not. When you have need Ayer's—then, and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agent below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.

Prepared by Dr. J. G. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by MR. BEECHER'S BEGINNING.-H. Ward Beecher MR. BEFCHER'S BEGINNING.—H. Ward Beecher has made one speech in England, at the opening of a new chapel. In it he says: "I began my ministry in a chuich in the wilderness, where there were nineteen women and one man, and I wished him out more times than one. [Laughter.] They were the saints, and he was the slinner. [Renewed laughter.] I was at that time sexton and general undertaker for the church. I swept it, I bought the lamps, and lit them; I would have rung the bell, but there was none. [Laughter and applause.] I did the preaching, was superintendent of the Sabbath school, and did everything else there was to do; and though many years have passed, and I have seen other scenes, I have never had happier hours since." [Cheers.] genes, I have never had happier hours since." [Cheers.]

AMEN.—Dr. Gulick, of the Micronesian Mission, says that when translating selections from the Gospel, the translator was long in doubt what native word to use to signify "Amen." After careful inquiry among the natives, he hit upon what he supposed would most nearly give its idea. What was his supprise to find, awhile later, that his synonym for the devout word which ends the Christian's prayer had the equivocal sense of—dry up!

Lineral Contributions.—Four years ago, the Broadway Tabernacle Church in New York took possession of its new house of worship. Since May, 1859, the society retaining the ownership of the pews, has received in yearly pew rents $38,600; has raised for the extinction of the building debt, &c., about $30,000. In the same period, upwards of $30,000 have been given by the Church to various objects of benevolence, making a total raised for religious purposes in four years of about $100,000. And all Druggists. The following resolutions, passed by the 34th Regiment of Illinois Volunteers, in regret of the and solder, only to be equalled by that of his afflicted family, with whom we shed tears of sympathy and sorrow.

2. Resolved. That while every impulse of our hearts is in unison in offering condolence to the family, we commend that no the soothing mercies of Him who, alone, can give peace to the troubled soul. We, his social and military admirers, find comfort and consolation in the reflection that his life is to us a history of examples, the emulation of which inspires us to a higher and holier ambition. His death is a sacrifice such as seldom adorns the page of ancient or modern history, and we are happy in the belief that generations yet unborn will revert with pride to the memory of him whose loss we now deplore.

3. Resolved, That to know him, as we knew him, is to challenge admiration. Many of us were intimately acquainted with him as a citizen and neighbor; all of us knew him well, as a military commander; and it is with heartfelt pride we bear willing testimony to his uniform courteous and gentlemanly mien as the former, and his gallant, chivalrous, noble, Christian spirit as the latter.

4. Resolved, That copies of these resolutions be furnished the family of the deceased, the Chicago Journal, the Chicago Tribune, Forney's Press, Philiadelphia, the Springfield Register, the Sterling Republican and Gazette. the Dixon Republican and Telegraph, the Ogle County Reporter, and signed in behalf of the officers and men of the 34th Illinois volunteer infantry.

M. C. Badler. Esq., Agent for Lillie's Safes:

DRAR Sire: During the night of May 19, 1883, our Groeavy and Provision Store, at North Second and Willow streets, took fire at about 2 o'clock A. M. and as the store was a two-story wood building it burnt rapidly, and sefore the fire-engined could act upon the fire, our whole stock of goods, including much combustible material, and amounting to over $2.000, were wholly destroyed. We had one of your No. 11 Chilled Iron Safes, which was in the hottest part of the fire, and discame out of the fire not in the least injured, except the melting of of the name, plate gand paint. The contents inside were not affected in the least, and we consider the Safe just as good a protection against fire now as before, and shall use it hereafter with increased confidence. The lock works as perfectly as before the fire.

Yours truly, McManus & CROFT.

Attention to the above certificate is particularly ve-Late 439 North SECOND Street.

Attention to the above certificate is particularly requested, as it is the first trial of LILLIE'S SAFES in an accidental fire in Philadelphia.

I would say to all parties who want a Fire and Burglar-proof Safe that LILLIE'S WROUGHT AND OHLILLED IR'N SAFES are much the cheapest and the only real Fire and Burglar-proof Safes now made; and to those who want simply a Fire-proof, I would say that LILLIE'S WROUGHT IRON SAFEs fully equal in all respects to any of the most-approved makers, and it sold at fully one-third less price.

I also am receiving daily in exchange for Lillie's Wrought and Chilled Iron Safes other Safes, and keep constantly on hand a general assortment of HERRING'S, EVANS & WATSON'S, and other makers, many of them almost new, which I offer at, and even below, suction prices.

All parties interested are particularly requested to axprices.

All parties interested are particularly requested to examine the Safes above described at my depot.
