STEARNS, Assistant Adjutant General United States Volunteers, is hereby announced as Recruiting Grammissioner for the United States Colored Troops, subject to such instructions as he may from time to time receive from the Secretary of War. By order of the Secretary of War: (Signed,) Assistant Adjutant General. To Major GEO. L. STEARNS, assistant digeneral U. S.	THE SUBSURIBER MAKES THE opportunity of anouncing to his friends and the public that he will this fall resume the duties of his profession in the channel in which they were originally undertaken. It may be remembered that, five years ince, he began life by devoting himself to the education of boys, but that, at the expiration of a year, he was compelled, by impaired health, to abandon, temporarily, his School, began under the fairest ausy ces. He is now happy to state that, with health and strength fully restored and confirmed, he takes up his work again with every assurance of making it permanent. His purposes are the same now as they were; his views regarding the influences that should shape the school education of boys have only received additional confirmation from further reflection and experience; and his best hope is that he may be able so to realize these views as to make his labor contribute a real value to the educational interests of the city with which he feels himself identified. Boys will be prepared for any of our Colleges or for Commercial life. In either case the aim will be to develop, from the details of ordinary school routine, a high and generous school culture.
