FOREIGN MISCELLANY.

FOREIGN MISCELLANY. A New BALLOON.—A meeting composed of mem-bers of the National Institute, of various scientifio-ors of the press, was held in Paris, a few days ago, at the manufactory of M. Nadar, to hear his expla-nation of a new balloon. M. Nadar explained to the assembly his theory of aerial locomotion by the sub-situation of a screw and of inclined planes for the present system of air balloons. He admitted that in the was predicted that the screw would be em-ployed in aerial navigation. M. Nadar concluded by appealing to the company to assist him'in making his system known, and in reducing it to practice. M. de la Landelle, who is connected with Nadar in the construction of the balloon, confirmed his col-league's statement, and set in motion several mo-dor d'Annecourt, who is likewise a partiner in the affait. These balloons were raised auto-matodity, lifting graduated weights so perfectly as in appearance to demonstrate the accuracy of the theory. It is announced that an Anglo-French com-pany is formed to provide the amount necessariles, including, it is said, a printing press. The diameter which will contain provisions and other necessaries, including, it is said, a printing press. The produce of the exhibition is to be employed in the construction of a definite aerial locomotive. "CLOS DE YOUGEOR."—We see it stated that the fsmous Olos de Vougeot is to be sold. The vineyard that produces the most genial and generous wine of the Burgundy virtage is to be knocked down (oh, profanation !) not to the hardest drinker, but to the highest bidder ! The announcement has caused a rush of all the great wine dealers from all points of the compass to the city of Dijon, where assuples of the dilferent vintages of the Clos Yougeot are held at the disposal of the tasters. The Clos Yougeot is considered in the east of Europe as the very best wine of French produce. The south profers the vin de Grave, while Chambertin and. Nults are more favored by the English amateur. Some time ago the eccentric Gen. de Castiglione, being at the head of his trongs on leaving Dijon, caused his men to draw up in array before the hillside, where hung basking in the sun the ruddy vines of Clos Yougeot. Solemnly was the name pronomeded, and at the sound the flags were unfuried, the drums beat the royal aslute, and the troops marched by, presenting arms as to the most honored sovereign in the universe. Such is the high esteem in which Clos Yougeot is held. The most fearful forebodings are uttered at this moment, the most terafile prognosities pronounced concerning the probable transferring of Olos Yougeot into the hands of the English ; but Russia has already deputed hor agents to oppose all bidders. She has not been able to subdue Poland, will she be powerful enough to conquer Clos You-geot? A curious circumstance has been brought to light by the competition. It appears that the best Saint Quilion produced in France is for the Sultan's table. Just facey this son of the proble getting jolly in the infiringement of the law, tempted by the nectar of the Christian dogs into disobedience!

THE RESTORATION OF PICTURES .- A Munich etter describis a marvellous discovery which has been made by a Herr Pettenkofer: "He has conletter ccecriois a marveilous discovery which has been made by a Herr Pettenkofer: "He has con-trived a process whereby the rayages of half a dozen centurise can, in the course of a few days, be re-mored to perfection. A painting which the encrus-tations of ages have rendered an unintelligible blotch, on which neither form nor color is any longer distinguishable with certainty, becomes in Petten-kofer's hands transformed at once into a picture so fresh and brilliant that the most experienced con-noisseur would judge it to have left the easel by yesterday. By the most convincing and unin-peachable experiments Pettenkofer demonstrated before the Government committee and the Munish Academy of the Plastic Arts, the truth of this the-ory, and the worderful perfection of his new pro-cess. As Pettenkofer has scientifically ascertained the true cause of the effects in question, he is able to produce the work of centuries in a few days or hours. He can not only make an oi picture look like a new one-he can do the reverse. He can make a picture which is fresh from the artist's hand look as if Twere four or five centuries old, putting in cracks, blotches; discoloration, encrustations, in a way which would deceive the most experience ege."

THE AMBASSADOR'S DOG.-A question of inter-THE AMBASSADOR'S DOG.—A question of inter-national law of small proportions has just been de-oided in favor of M. Hildyard, an attachć of the British embassy in Parié. Mr. Hildyard keeps a dog in respect of which he lately received a tax-gatherer's paper claiming a duty of ten shillings in pursuance of the new act rendering dogs liable to taxation. Mr. Hildyard claiméd exemption on the ground that inasmuch as foreign ministers' dogs were not taxed in England, his dog ought to be free on the principle of reciprocity. The head of the tax-gathering department thought this a good plea, but the question was nevertheless brought before a court of law for decision. At the hearing M. de Guignć, the judge advocate, was of opinion that the nevertheless thought that Mr. Hildyard's dog was childe the around that Mr. Hildyard's dog was

She had scarcely breathed her last when they bogan to appropriate her wardrobe, trying on dresses, &c. Her husband entreated them to desist, asking them to wait until she was buried. This he finally pre-vailed on them to do. He thought they would wait at least until the day after the funeral, but what was his surprise, on returning from the grave, to see the carriage containing the mourners appear before his door, said mourners being evidently intent upon assuaging their grief by a partition of the worldly goods of the deceased. The husband begged them, for shame's sake, to wait another day, and finally told them plainly that nothing should be touched that day, but they commenced stripping the homes, tearing up the carpet, &c. Guight, the judge autogate, was of opinion that the nevertheless though that Mr. Hildyard's dog was entitled to repudiate the tax, because he inhabited Lord Cowley's house, which, by a recognized fiction of international law, is British territory. The court, adopting this view, decided that Mr. Hildyard's dog stood upon precisely the same footing as all the other personnel of the embasay. SINGULAR DISCOVERY NEAR WESTMINSTER ABERT.-A'very curious case of discovery of hilden treasure has just come to light. Workmen are em-ployed in pulling down some old houses adjoining Westminster Abbey. The other day, while so em-ployed, one of them found in a groin of an arch a number of rose nobles of Edward IV's reign. The man appears to have sold them for 275, and shared the money, with his fellow-workmen. The matter came to the ears of the canons of the Abbey, and they instituted an inquiry. The result was that the laborer who found the gold was brought up at the westminster Police court, but has since been dis-charged, the magistrates being of the opinion that, although he found and sold the valuables, no charge of felony could be sustained against him. An AUESTRIAN CARANGE of the opinion that, although he found and sold the valuables, no charge of result he many has held an extraordinary bet of felony could be sustained against him. An AUSTRIAN CAVALTY officer, whose name is not given in the papers, has laid an extraordinary bet with two of his comrades. In the course of Sep-tember he engages to ride to Paris, statting from Presburg, and perform the entire distance of one thousand miles within twenty one days. He is to use one horse only for the journey, making about fitty miles a day; he is to tend, feed, and groom his nag himself. Free to choose his route, he will be accompanied by horse or rail as they like. Stakes, 6,000 to 10. THE military budget of Austria for 1864 shows

6,000 fo 10. THE military budget of Austria for 1864 shows that notwithstanding the uncertain aspect of the political horizon, the army of the empire will un-dergo important reductions. The total number of effective and non-effective for 1864 is 417,697 men and 59,216 horses. These figures are less by 56,963 when and 7,144 horses than in 1863, and less by 125,976 men and 15,853 horses than in 1862. The new Lewish aspaceuse which has here built

THE new Jewish synagogue, which has been built at Berlin, surpasses in size and in magnificence the largest buildings of the kind in Europe-those at Pesth, Vienna, and Cologne. The edifice has in the interior five large and five small cupolas, lighted from above. In the Consistory of September the Pope will in-troduce the question of Poland, treating it, howev-er, with great prudence and moderation. He will also speak of the position of the Church in New Qranada, where the Catholics, and especially the elergy, are great sufferers. ONDE OF IRON SHIPS.—The whole of the armor plates of the zupola ship Royal Sovereign are to be covered with a vitreous sheathing, which consists of a surface of glass based upon small plates of iron, aufiloiently thin to be to a certain extent flexible, which are applied to the ship by a new adhesive process, and have been ascertained to be capable of resisting all ordinary contingencies from pressure or abrasion. The cost is is, 66, per square foot. "THE Paris journal Le Temps says that the Empe-or of Austris will authorize the Archidue."

'I complain,' said Burke, 'of being obliged to stand upon my defence by the right honorable gentleman, who, when a young man, was brought to me, and evinced the most promising talents, which I used my best endea-vors to cultivate; and this man, who has arrived at the maturity of being the most brilliant and power-ful debater that ever existed, has described me as having deserted and abandoned every one of my principles? Enter, I did, and stood before a man of about forty winters. His face was so swart that I could see only the German in the blue eye, and at once imagined that a stream of Plutonic fire had stream-ed into his veins from some more Orients1 race. I stammered out an apology for my intrusion, but told him how irresistible were such subtle threads as Schumann's "Garnival" had project-ed through the walls which separated our rooms. "Florestan," I said, "was too much for me." Then his eye lighted up as might that of some Arctic voyager, which, having for bleak months
