CHARGED WITH PASSING ALTERED TREASURY NOTES.

Charles Wallace and George Williams were put on trial, yesterday, charged with passing an altered ten-dollar treasury note. From the evidence, it appears that one of the defendants went into a dry goods establishment in Manayunk, and purchased some muslin, for which he offered in payment a tendollar treasury note which, it was discovered, had been altered from a one-dollar note. Both parties were arrested in the neighborhood, and near where they had been standing a roll of altered notes was discovered. It was also in evidence that one of the defendants had passed an altered note purporting to be a fifty-dollar treasury note on a tavern keeper in the neighborhood.

The defence did not offer any testimony, but contended that the defendants had no knowledge of the spurious character of the notes. Jury out. Leonard Fletcher, Esq., appeared for defendants, and United States District. Attorney J. Hubley Ashton for the Government. Nos. 139 and 141 South FOURTH Street. WATER WORKS IN THE TWENTY-FOURTH WARD.—Many of the inhabitants of the Twenty-fourth ward justly complain that they do not receive a supply of water, for which they have paid in advance. Even in that section of the ward, on a level with the grade of Thirty-sixth and Locust streets, the residents have not had a supply for some time. They are, therefore, annoyed. Many of the dwellings have all the modern improvements, such as hot baths, for which water-backs and circulating bollers have been introduced, and in order to prevent an accident, the fancets have to be kept open to prevent explosion. Complaints have been lodged at the office of the Department, but no satisfactory explanation has been yet elicited. The people are told that the works are kept going at their full capacity. This, of course, is simply a downright fabrication, because the fact was well established when Mr. Birkinbine was the engineer, that the head of the beauting that is now not supplied at all. The works have recently been put in order, and they ought to be as good as ever. If, in the attempt to put them in order, the worken ruined them, then it is the fault of the Department certainly, and the people ought to have their money refunded, because they have paid in advance for a necessary article they do not receive.

The works have never been so shamefully mismanaged, and the people of that ward never so grossly misrepresented in the City Council by one man who persistently holds his seat there at the expense of election officers, who are now paying the pensity for perjury, owe it to themselves to hurl into merited insignificance that party or men who have not intelligence or honesty enough to deal with them fairly. rels. The present water works, when full, are sufficient for an adequate supply of water, or else water does not reach its own level. The "lacteal fuld in this cocoanut" may be accounted for as follows: The present vultures, who hold the power in the City Councils by base forrery, deaire to prevent a supply of water so as to induce the inhabitants of the ward to petition for extensive works. This will require a heavy outlay of funds, and it is desired that the contracts shall be given out before the next Council comes into power. The jobbers of the present party have an eye to this business, but it is assirely probable they are smart emough to ensbroud the optics of the prople of the Twenty-fourth ward. All along the wharves were many evidences of prosperity and industry. Everybody was lively, for everybodys eemed to be up to his elbows, or his head and ears, in business. Low down in the river, from the place we took our view, the back ground was filled in with ships-of-war, lying off the navy yard. Five steamboats rounding Greenwich Point at one time, gave a lively finish to the scene. Watermelons, cantelopes, and peaches, were on the bosom of the river, in Jersey "smacks," destined to supply Philadelphia with the luxuryl which God's own bounty has given to all. A Knock Down and Robbery.

Two young men, George and Frank Morris, brothers, were arraigned at the Central Station yesterday afternoon. The following evidence was elioited: On Thursday night, Mr. W. J. Stephenson, while quietly scated at Fifth and Spruce aftects, was suddenly assalled by a person who knocked him down and robbed him of his gold watch and chain, valued at $100. Officer Levy, of the detective force, arrested Geo. Morris, on Locuststreet, near Eighth. At the time defendant and his brother Frank were in company. The latter broke the hold of the officer, and George dashed off at the top of his speed, down Acorn alley, thence into Spruce street, and finally took refuge in a store at the corner of Eighth street. During the race officer Levy discharged his pistol, not at the fugitive, but into the air; but it had no intimidating effect. He might have shot George, but this he did not desire to do.

The alarm attracted general attention. Several officers arrived, and one of them, Mr. John Lindsay, of the First division, arrested Frank.

Mr. Stephenson testified that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, George Morris is the one who committed the assault and battery, and stole the watch. LOR SALE-ONE OF THE MOST [Before Mr. Alderman Baitler ] TUMELLE'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF DOOK.

FOR NEW YORK—NEW Robbery on the Cars.

Frank Costello, whose photograph has been placed in the detectives gallery, was arraigned at the Central Station on the charge of robbing Mr. Alfred Fitler of a gold watch and chain, valued at $365. The robbery took place on the evening of July 3d, on one of the passenger cars. Detectives Taggers and Levy have been on the qui vive for Costello ever since. They aucceeded in arresting him yesterday.

Mr. Fitter, who is rather hard of hearing, testified that on the evening of July 3d, he took passage in a car at Fifth and Chestnut streets, to go home; he resides in the vicinity of Second and Poplar; the defendant was already in the car; at Market street another fellow got in, who seemed to be acquainted with him; at Fifth and Race streets an officer and a lady got in the car, and the defendant, who had a seatinside; arose and gave it to the lady, and came outside and stood close to me on the hind platform; we were all talking about the news from Gettysburg; I was robbed somewhere between Callowhill street and Green, but I did not miss my watch until I reached home; I am satisfied the defendant is the man who stole my watch, or else it must have been his ghost.
