

THE DRAFT.-The time for hearing the claims of exemption, offering substitutes, or re-porting for duty, of all drafted men in the Sevencenth and Eighteenth wards will expire to day, after which time all who have not been reported are accounted deserters. The business at the various headquarters progresses steadily. Occasionally cases arise which show to what extent men will venture who desire to avoid being held liable to military service. Feigned diseases are boldly pleaded by the most robust men whom the draft drew into its em-braces, and the boards of enrolment have become so accustomed to hear the most extravagant pleas of exemption by men who have never known disease n any shape, that they have become quite stoical, and what would occasion a laugh among ordinary cople scarcely occasions the slightest disturbance of their risible nerves. of their risible nerves. In the Second district, a day or two ago, a youth haimed exemption on account of being under age. He claimed to have been born in 1845. Appearances ed the Board to auspect a false statement of fact, and they required some better evidence than his own affdavit. His mother produced the family Bible, where it was duly recorded that the youth was born in the year aforesaid. The mother, who did not he-theto to evit that the argone was correct in the year aforesaid. The mother, who did not he-sitate to say that the record was correct, was some-what taken aback when her attention, was called to the fact that the Bible was not printed until 1881, as was shown by the title page. How could Captain Palmer know but that the entry of the birth was made a short time ago for the purpose of deception. The youth will either shoulder his musket, or fur-ish his substitute. The medical examination in the Second district is evaceding attrict and he who can mage Surgeon Fathers of motherless children ... Inly sons of helpless parents..... Two of the family in service..... [Before Mr. Alderman Beitler.] Finally Committed. Emeline Anderson, alias Wallace, alias Miller, who has had several hearings at the Central Station on as many charges of larceny, was finally commit-ted, yesterday atternoon, for trial. A considerable quantity of goods, recovered at the pawn-shop of Mr. Brant, in South street, were displayed at the hearing. Several pleces were identified by Miss Jennie Clark as her property. They were stolen from her residence, No. 507 South Twelfth street. Elizabeth Stewart, a colored woman, residing at 1205 Rodman street, identified several articles. It was stated, during the investigation, that Mr. Brant had received goods from the defendant for which he did not issue certificates of deposit. On being ques-tioned as to this fact he admitted it. He was repri-manded strongly by the magistrate, who intimated that he could be prosecuted for the offence of vio-lating the factor law. Larceny of Money. lating the factor law.
 Larceny of Money.
 James McNamee was charged with stealing the sum of $198.50 from Mrs. Catharine Zeigenfuss, residing in Callowhill street, above Twenty-fourth.
 Mrs. Z.'s son has been almost ever since the commencement of the rebellion in the United States Army. The money stolen had been sent home by him to his mother. She placed it under the bed, on the sacking bottom, for safe keeping. A woman whom the defendant called his wife, occupied the same room as the old lady did, and was aware of the screting of the money. She had been living there about four weeks, and he used to visit her occasionally. On Tuesday night last, some time after Mrs. Ziegenfuss had retired to bed, she felt somebody pulling the bed-clothes off, and springing up, discovered the defendant. His wife was absent. On questioning him what he was doing there, he replied that he only wanted to frighten his wife. The next morning the money was missing, and so was Mrs. McNamee. It was ascertaiced that she had suddenly started for Pittsburg, Pa., on Thursday night. The defendant was held in $1,200 bail to await a further hearing on Tuesday next. au29-s3t CARLETON, Publisher, New York, THE LIFE OF VIOLOIS HOGO TOLD BY A WITNESS, [Madame Hugo].

SUBSIDENCE OF THE JERSEY SHORE .--SUBSIDENCE OF THE JERSEY SHORE. According to a correspondent of the New York Evening Pesi, at Cape May, the shore of New Jersey has been, and now is, subsiding at the rate of two feet in a hundred years. The tide waters are ad-vancing on the land "at the mouth of Dennis creek, and for many miles along the Delaware bay shore the marsh is washed away, according to the reports of local aturveyors, on an average of about one rod in two years, and from early maps this would ap-pear to have been going on at this rate ever since the first settlement of the country. Thus, an island which is laid down on a map of 1694 as containing 300 acres, now shows at low water only half an acre, and at high water is entirely covered."

Elegant octavo, cloth bound, Price $1.25. Elegant octavo, cicin bound, Frice 51.30. This magnificent work, which has just appeared in Paris, and a translation of which is now offisred to the American Public, is, to all intents and purposes, an Antobiography, for its enuivocal title-pare is but a mask to conceal the real author—Victor Hurgo himself—the creator of that masterpiece "Les Miserables."

Receiver Bound Over. Francis P. Keeper, the proprietor of a "junk shop" on Callowhill street, was arraigned at the Central Station yesterday afternoon, on the charge of receiving stolen goods. Several small boys have purloined brass rules, type metal, &c., from the foundry of Mr. L. Johnson, on Sansom street, and sold the goods to the defendant. A search warrant was issued, and pieces of metal and brass rules were recovered. Some of them were identified by Mr. J. E. Jackson, the foreman of the foundry, as the pro-perty of Mr. Johnson. One of the little boys said the defendant told him, if, anybody asked him what he had old to him, to say that it was old iron, then if he (the lad) got into a sorape, the defendant could keep out of it. The defendant was required to enter bail in the sum of $1,500 to answer. The boys who did this work are very young; they almost come under the head of infants in law. The magistrate read the defendant a good, sound lecture on the enor-mity of leading such children astray. THE LIFE OF VICTOR HUGO. "The story of such alife as M. We had one of your NO, 11 Chilled from Safes, which was in the hottest part of the fire, and its and of the fire not in the least inlured, except the melting of of the fire not in the least.
