OFFICE, No. 111 SOUTH FOURTH STREET.

 R. Thirdly, Judge Woodward is opposed to the war, and in favor of pence, on any ferms i as much so as Vallandigham for Fernando Wood. I have heard it stated, that, on former occasions, he rebulked the earlier concessions of his own parky to the patriotic war spirit of the country. But we have no need to place this upon any uncertain authority, we have hear it stated, it South Carolina go out of the Union penceably if asy, let her go peaceably, if she go at all. And in 1868, after South Carolina had gone out, and ien other rebellious States with her, to repeat such language is to asy 'let them all go peaceably, 'Truly, with the success of such a candidate 'and such principles, Gettyaburg will have been fought in vain, the battle for the defence of our own soil against the rebellion is still to be fought." These were my remarks, so far as they related tespecially to Judge Woodward, somewhat fuller than the report, but substantially as delivered. They are atyour service.
 You will pergeive that no statement is made upon my personal knowledge as derived from him, but the sources of my information are indicated in every case. I may add, sit, that the most material part of the language above quoted, apart from the speech of 1860, was derived by me from a public address delivered in 'this city, by a gentleman of the highest of the hearers, as presenting the rare moral phenomemor of a cultivated and. Likelev by most of the hearers, as presenting the rare moral phenomemor of a cultivated and. Likelev proved and the senter is a signal ow judice address delivered from the source of a cultivated and. Invester of error that sp their PHIA. ΞE WO RS IN O 1 ST. held the Government, with whatever influence I possessed. Impressed with the transcendant importance of . the issue now before the people of Pennsylvania, I spoke at the meeting on Wednesday evening of the opinions of Judge Woodward with plainness, and, I hope, with courtery and fairness. If in my remarks either sentiment or language was attributed to him which he disavows, I stand ready to make the cor-rection. But if, on the contrary, they are substan-tially accurate you must agree with me that is would be difficult to hind a better living representative of the principles of John C. Calhoun than your candi-date. I am, sir, very respectively. N. B. BROWNE. GS. The ball of the level of the principles of Judge Woodward with plainness, and, I hope, with courtesy and fairness.  MR. EVERETT AND THE OHIO ELECTION.—At a large Union meeting held at Oirsleville, Ohio, on the 29th ult, the following letter was read from Hon. Edward Everett: ARCH phia. ND.

it stated, that, on former occasions, he rebuked the

 The state of the south muker. If the last generation of elitizen and becen up to their duty, they would have the south much guilt and punishness, and the South much guilt and punishness, and the south of the duty, there have a secondarce with the bears of the south the south of than the principal Democratic nominees at the North. To say nothing of the candidate for the Governorship of Ohio, it might be affirmed of Judge Woodward, the nominee in this State, that if John C. Calhoun himself-that arch-traitor-could be raised from his dishonored grave and placed in the gubernatorial chair of Pennsylvania, he could not serve the interests of the rebellion better. I say this without any want of respect to Judge Wood-ward; for his ability, high character, and sincerity, are undoubted. But these very qualities, in the present case, make such opinions the more danger-ous, and lend them an influence more potent for evul. are uncoded. But these vuly quarters, in the present case, make such opinions the more danger-ous, and lend them an influence more potent for evul. "'To prove this, I have only to ask your attention briefly to his views on the three issues, at this time tranecending all others in importance; I mean, Slavery, e eccession, and the War for the Union. On each of these Judge Woodward entertains the views of the most extreme Southern radicalism.-"First, as to Slavery. He is not content to stand with the State Kights Democracy of other days, and leave slaveholders in the possession of such rights and protection as they had under the Constitution; but in his speech of December, 1860, he boldly pro-claims that 'human bondage and property in man is divinely sanctioned, if not ordained?' and that 'Negro Slavery is an incalculable blessing.' These opinions, thus uttered, have lost nothing by the lapse of time; for, on another occasion, he declared, unregervedly and emphatically, that 'to think against Slavery is a Sin, to talk against it is a Grime!' And 'more lately he has alitmed, that 'agitation on the subject of Slavery is Infidelity, and comes from the instigation of Sata.' "But, as to Secession. Judge Woodward approves of the course, and justifies the act of Sceession, if has appears to hesitate as to the absolute right of it. Although looking in the opposite direction, he-yet-sustains and encourages Secession ali no man need go further. Practically, the same road. He may be sincere and conscientious in his views, but he must bear the responsibility of having given the sanction of his name and high position to their re-bellious course. For if his speech of 1800 left any doubt on that point, the recent approval and endorse-nient of it, on his behalf, by the Onsirman of the Democratic State Central Committee, removes that doubt. To republish such sentiments, after the fast of Secession, is an aggravation of the original of-fence, hard to reconcile with loyalty. G. "Thirdly. Judge Woodward is opposed to the war

The Horrors of the Libby Prison. [From the Hartford Press.] If it is possible for our Government to do say-thing to mitigate the horrors of the Libby Prisewat Richmond, the press ought to importune it zight and day, until the poor fellows who are imprisoned there are treated with some little humanity. The stories of suffering that reach us from day to day, proof accumulating upon proof, leave us no doubt that the condition of the inmates of that prison is horrible beyond expression. The the carly days of the war, when the Libby was open to receive the instalment of Bull Run expires, it was a comparatively clean, decent place, and though the fare was rough, and the treatment's com-times brutal, yet there were some mitigations to the confinement. If the prisonershad money they could purchase some comforts. Latterly, however, com-forts are not to be had in Richmond, at least by prisoners; and the premises, and the prison itself, have become noisome and filthy, sad the rebels have steadily grown more rigorous and inhumaa. Rich-mond is a centre of real hate of the Union men. It outdoes Charleston, even. Indeed, nowhere else in the whole South are prisoners to barbacrously treated. There are not in other places wanting in-stances of kindness, and in many locsitties the priseners fare about as well as the rebel soldiers thereives, except that the side and wounded are almost invariably neglected. We pristed in the this pastificous prison is indescribable, it out is thereally neglected to almost the science of the the thereive, and almost incredible, we have reason to believe it to be literally true; and that the testimony on the subject is sufficient to arouse the indignation of the North. These papers have been submitted to the President of the United States, and I am charged by him to inform you that he has read them with the most lively satisfaction, and with a profound sense of the obli-gation which the reverend religious pastors in France and the reverend religious pastors in the Christian ministers and pastors throughout the United States. he down in him life Deasts. They maunder over this digusting food with childiah fondness. This candition would wring pity from any hearts but the savage. From a private, but trustworthy letter, written at Annapolis August 22, wetake some side confitma-tion of the shocking treatment of prisoners every-where in and about Richmond, and bearing out the loathsome narration in the Heraid. It seems to be the rebel policy to exchange, if possible, the sick and broken down soldiers. Rise, they being selectad so that the Union army will get no recruits. Regi-ments and companies captured, are disorganized as much as possible, and the healthy are retained in confinement. Some shree flundred paroled prisoners had just arrived at Annapolis from City Point, and one hundred and sizty-eight of them went as once into the hospital: "They all show rough usage, and speak of their sojourn apon the Island as being accompanied by theatment bad in the extreme, being nearly starved, and shot at for the slightest offence. The rebels seem bound to test to the ythest their powers of englurance. The men seem to be be-numbed—a general stupar of the faculties and ener-gies. They report some four thousand still on the Island, and shat the Oharleston priseners are ar-riving there." "Some vary pitiable stories of the sondition to which some of the prisoners are relaxed for food in 'Libby' are related. A subler, arm of much in-telligence, portrayed some of the somes, with tears in his eyes, of men who had become almost idlots, who would acize their crumb (of food) with childish eagerness, and delight only to say and play with it, and then lay it away, to alterwards find it stolen, when the old vacant expression would astile on their countenances, and they would sit down in hopslees despair." This is horrible? And these men are our frienda, brothers, neighbors, good soldiers, gentiemen, the loved of women, those who have homes, and have never known before what it was to want food and, at least, decent lodging. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPEA, Sept. 7, 1863.

There is a steady stream of buyers of gold in the market, while sellers are far less numerous. Addi-tional European complications are having conside-rable weight with that class of people who, when the war broke out, rushed into the market and con-verted all their property into solid gold. Of course, verted all their property into solid goid. Of course, it is a man's own business if he chooses to do this, but we deplore the effect a simultaneous move-ment of this kind has on the market.
