THE POLITICAL CAMPAIGN.-The political campaign has been opened, and Woodward, speeches and Curtin lectures will be in order until October, when the momentous question will be setled at the ballot-box. It is not our special province to offer any opinion as to the merits of either candidate; but we have no hesitation in saying that the best and most elegant suits for either soldiers or civilians, adults or youths, are those made at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth.

Newmarket style. It is usually made of a rich Vandyke color, the material being thin and finenough to drape elegantly over the hips. The alceves are of medium width all the way, and the ouff is round. Persons desirous of obtaining the riding coat, or any other garment, of a superior quality and make, can do so on application to Granrille Stokes, 609 Chestnut street, above Sixth.

TON .- "You cannot be too decided or too explicit in making known to the French Government that there is not now, nor has there been, nor will there be any, the least, idea existing in this Government of suffering a dissolution of this Union to take place in any way whatever."
