NEWTON PEIRCE, Principal. and entertained those present with a recital of the THE Democratic City Executive Commitand entertaint those present with a Fettal of the many supposed grievanes under which the people groan in consequence of the vigorous policy of the Government in carrying on the war. The importance of the coming election was descanted upon at length, the speaker urging upon his auditors not to forget that every vote east for the Domocratic candidates was one more ballot in support of right and liberty, as against tyranny and usurpation. If the opposite party proved successful, then the people of the country would indeed be enslaved, and in view of the likelihood of such a contingency the speaker advised all of his political associates to be ready to leave the State forthwith. In referring to the elections held in other States, he expressed the belief that military intervention had had much to do with the result, and deploted in glowing colors the frightful outrages upon the privilege of the elective franchise committed by a lawless and brutal soldiery. In the town of New Castle, at the last fall election, so he was informed by an eye-witness of the affair, a squad of soldiers actually drove the citizens away from the polls and, allowed certain persons to vote, while they prevented others. The speaker appeared to manifest a nervous apprehension that what he termed military interference would be put into requisition in Pennsylvania, and remarked that though the Democratic leaders had taken every ordinary precaution to insure success, they had not been able to devise any plan by which to overcome this new and monatrous difficulty which had suddenly risen in their path.

On the subject of taxes, the orator grew very inmany supposed grievances under which the people TCKENDORFF'S MILITARY ACA-1 1EMY will reopen on MONDAY, 4th inst, at 4 o'clock P. THE CONSCRIPTION ACT CONSTITUTIONAL—THE DE-CISIONS OF THE BOARDS OF ENROLMENT NOT FI-NAL, BUT SUBJECT TO REVIEW BY THE COURTS ON HABBAS CORPUS. MR. WINTHROP TAPPAN'S CISIONS OF THE BOARDS OF ENROLMENT NOT FINAL, BUT SUBJECT TO REVIEW BY THE COURTS ON HABEAS CORPUS.

Yesteriay Judge Cadwalader announced the decision of the court on the point raised in the recent habeas-corpus cases of drafted men as to the finality of the decision of boards of enrolment on claims for exemption under the lith section of the conscription act. The parlicular case before the court was that of a drafted man whose claim for exemption on the ground of being the sole support of a widowed mother had been refused by the board. The argument in this case and on others that were presented at the same time, all being argued together, took a very wide range, and instead of being confined to the immediate questions raised by them, embraced a review of the whole act. The opinion of the judge was a very learned and elaborate one, and Justice Grier, of the Supreme Court of the United States, although not present at the argument, sat with Judge Cadwalader yesterday, and assented to the decision of the principles of law embraced in the opinion. We hope to be able to present it in full tomorrow, but for the present must restrict ourselves to a brief but aubstantial statement of its points.

It is decided that the right of Congress to pass the conscription act is legally and constitution giving Congress the power to raise armies, &c., which is distinct control over the militia.

In regard to the administration of the powers conferred upon the boards of enrolment, the judge decides in substance that its decision shall be final, does not necessarily make the decision conclusive as to the right which was in question."

Futher, it is decided that "the provisions of the 14th section of the act of Congress of 3d March, 1863, ch. 75, requiring the presentation by drafted persons of all claims of exemption to the board of enrolment, and making the board and disallowed, preduide the subsequent consideration, under a writ of habeas corpus, of the question of his right of exemption." Thomas McCarthy, the superintendent of the Franklin Square, was put on trial yesterday, charged with having committed an assault and batterry on James McKinby. The prosecutor alleged that he was forcibly ejected from the aquare, after being charged with improper conduct, by the superintendent, and taken to the station-house. The superintendent alleged, on the other hand, that the prosecutor had been behaving improperly with a female in the square, and was ordered to leave, and refused, using insulting language; thereupon, he was put out. Judge Ludlow instructed the jury that the superintendent's duty was to preserve order in the square, and could use as much force as was necessary to prevent disorder. It is expected that the bill providing for the raising of the salaries of the police officers, upon the propriety of which there seems to be no difference of opinion, will occupy the attention of Councils at an early day. The necessaries of life are twenty percent, higher than they were when the late of salaries was fixed a few years since. So far as the officers themselves are concerned as a general body, they have not their equal in any part of the country. They are well drilled in military tactics and ready for an emergency. Indeed, it would be a calamity to the city to lose the services of such men. Occasionally a bad officer may get on the force, but he is sure to be weeded out.

For months prior to the date of that invasion the committee had by resolution abstained from paying bounties, not deeming them necessary to the recruitment of soldiers for the army; but when the emergency found Pennsylvania without an organized militia, and Philadelphia threatened by the enemy, the committee promptly dame forward with an offer of ten dollars brounty per man and twenty dollars per company for all recruits for the defence of the State at that crists.

The example set by the committee was soon followed by the coal dealers, who raised a fund large elough to pay $25 bounty per man of two regiments; by the Corn Exchange members, who paid bounties of like amount to a regiment; and by an association of Market-street merchants, who gave similar bounties to the Microbant? Regiment; land the Union Lesgue, which gave bouncies to three regiments. The influence of the early movement of the Citizens' Bounty Fund Committee was undoubtedly wholesome, and caused confidence among officers, who, in the twenty dollars per company, had at least a basis for the payment of recruiting expenses. Notwithstanding the large and steady drain upon this fund since its establishment, it still has some fifty thousand dollars left in its various divisions, though there are some outstanding claims yet to be met.

At various times and under various circumstances this o minities has done more than merely pay out bounties. It furnished Captain Star's battery with pistols, and the Dana Troop with horses. It had twelve pieces of artillery belonging to the city, which were useless on account of their peculiar calibre, lebored and prepared for use. It has forwarded artillery to Harrisburg, at the request of the Governor, in cases of sudden danger. It has loaned money to the city, bounty fund, and awaited payment by the city. It has, in fact, done a great deal of practical good beyond the paying of bounties. Applications for relief are now pending before the committee from volunteer organizations of great merit, whose expenses in the late emergency were very heavy. "A Laugh on the Other Side of the Mouth."
At the six o'clock hearing, last evening, at the Central Station, rather an unusual scene occurred. Two men, affecting to be German gentlemen, who really appeared so, as far as their wardrobe was concerned, were arraigned for drunkenness and discorderly conduct. One man was large, had curly hair, and looked as though he could drink any amount of lager beer. He gave the name of Charles Wilson, certainly a misnomer, as it is by no means of German origin. The other defendant was a mannikin, and called himself Doctor Michael Blums. The parties had arrived within a day or two from New York, and they stopped at the Girard House, where they put on airs, and imbibed considerable of the liquor kept at that establishment. Then they proceeded to the Continental, and tested the various brands of that great establishment. Then they became intoxicated, like gentlemen will on some occasions. They wasked arm in-arm up and down the marble-paved vestibule on main avenue, and then imbibed again. Presently they went over to the Girard, and called for some liquor, just like drunken gentlemen. It was refused, and they became uproarious. Their dignity was grossly insulted. Philadelphia all at once became a one-horse town—New York was the metropolis; there gentlemen could get what they desired, and as much as they wanted. The attendant did not choose to put up with such conduct. He ordered the intruders to leave; they refused. A couple of stalwart officers of the Reserve Corps were called in, and the two insbriated gentlemen were arrested and conducted to the lock-up.

When the defendants were arraigned, they seemed Number of Taxable Inhabitants.— The following is the number of taxable inhabitants as made out by the City Commissioners, upon the basis of which the proclamation of the Sheriff will as made out by the City Commissioners, upon the basis of which the proclamation of the Sheriff will be issued, as to the number of Councilmen to be elected in the respective wards. It will be seen that the First ward has the largest number of 4axables. The population there has rapidly increased; the ward being semi rural, many new buildings have been erected within its limits, and more are going up. It is quite probable that, in another year, the ward will be entitled to four members of Common Couroll. For every two thousand taxables there shall be elected one Councilman. At this rate we compute the number of members of the next Council: Taxables. Com. Council. gentlemen were arrested and conducted to the lockup.

When the defendants were arraigned, they seemed to be very merry, regardless allke of gentlemanly deportment and consequences. They heard the charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct preferred against them. At this they burst out into a hearty horse-laugh that rather touched the official dignity of the magistrate, who discoursed quite eloquently on the impropriety of such conduct.

"What have you to say in regard to the charge?"
said the alderman.

"Say!" reiterated the large defendant, "Why all we have to say is ha! ha! ha!" Here they both joined in full chorus, and seemed to laugh all over at what they thought was the richest joke of the geason. G. H. CROSMAN, Ass't Quartermaster General U. S. A. Institution offers the accumulated advantages of fifty years of successful operation.

This was received with another round of immoderate laughter.

The Alderman kept his temper very well, and warned them against such indecorum. All his remarks on this point seemed to have no desired effect.

"You are fined for drunkenness," were the words that fell from the official lips of the magistrate.

Instantly they pulled out their pocket-books, and burst out laughing even more immoderately than both and the state of the fine," said the Alderman, "you must enter bail in the sum of $300 each to be of future good behavior."

At this they did not know whether to laugh or not.

"We'll pay the fine," said the little Doctor.

"I'll not receive it until you are ready to enter bail," replied the magistrate, as he was fast filling up the commitment.

The defendants began to change sountenance, and the voice of the policeman, "come along," fell like a wet blanket upon them. They were led to the lockup down stairs, and, in a little while, were provided with a free passage in the prison van to the stone palace in the First ward. By this time they probably began to "laugh on the other side of their mouth." WATER IN WEST PHILADELPHIA.—An exouse why the people in the Twenty-fourth ward do not receive a supply of water is, that the military hospital draws so heavily as to exhaust the supply. A simple fact exhibits the fallacy of this filmsy pretext, which the following letter from a little paper published by the soldiers in the West Philadelphia Hospital shows:

"Think of over 3.000 sick and wounded from with grant "stand-pipe;" and yet such is the fact. Frequently there is no water at all in the hospital; it is almost constantly scarce, and on Thursday last we could only obtain water by hauling it in barrels; and this for an establishment where the legitimate consumption is one hundred and thirty thousand gallons daily. This nuisance has lasted about a month, and we hope that some one in authority will look to it. In a few days we shall have a new steam pump, to suck from the pipes what water we can; but if the works don't force any water into the pipes, what then?

The truth is, the present authorities who have control of the department desire the people to petition Councils for additional works. One thing is very certain, that if the stand pipe is kept full there will be an adequate supply. That it can be kept full by the powerful Cornish engines will not be denied by any person who cherishes a good moral or official repuration. The people of the Twenty-fourth ward should send active, intelligent men to represent them in the Common Council. that the defendant, Sarah Rchinson, does not reside in the State of Delaware, but resides in the city of Philadelphia.

And now, to wit, this 3d day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, this cause coming before the Chancellor, upon the motion of Jos. P. Gomezy, Esquire, the complainants' solicitor, and the writs of subpona aforesaid, and the Sherill's returns thereon being seen and examined, and the affiday tof the aforesaid G. W. White being heard, it is ordered by the Chancellor that the aforesaid defendant, Sarah Robinson, appear in this cause, on MONDAY, the 28th day of September next: And it is ordered and directed by the Chancellor, that a copy of this order shall, at least thirty days before the next Term of this Cont. be inserted in The Press, a newspaper published in the city of Philadelphia, in the States of Pennsylvania, and shall be continued in said newspaper for the space of thirty days next after its publication; and also, that a copy of the said order shall, within the said thirty days, be posted up in the office of Register of this Court, and at the Gourt-House door of this county.

State of Delawars, Kent County, 3s: [SEAL.] I, William R. Cahoon, Register, in the Court of Chancery for the State of Delaware, in and for Kent-county aforesaid, do hereby certify that the above is a correct copy of the order made by the Honorable SAMUEL M. HARRINGTON, Chancellor of the State of Delaware, in said case. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court, this 15th day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand suffixed the seal of said Court in Chancery.
