Letter from the Venerable Josiah Quincy to President Lincoln.

Hon, Abraham Lincoln:

to President Lincoln. Hon. Abraham Lincoln: Sin: Old age has its privileges, which I hope this letter will not exceed. But I cannot refrain from expressing to you my gratification and my gratitude for your letter to the Illinois Convention; happy, timely, conclusive, and effective. What you asy concerning emacipation, your proclamation and your course of proceeding in relation to it, was due to truth and your own character-shamefully assailed as it has been. The development is an im-perishable monument of wisdom and virtue. We way clavery and possibility of emanoipation have been subjects of my thought for more than seventy years; beirg first introduced to it by the debates in the Convention of Massachusetts for adopting the Constitution, in 1788, which I attended i had, subsequently, opportunities of knowing the views on that subject, not only of such men as Hamilton, King, Jay, and Pinckering/lot also of dis-tinguished slaveholders-of both Pickneys, of Wm. Smith, of South Carolins, and of many others. With the first of these I had personal intercourses and arguaintance. I can truly asy that I never knew the individual, slaveholder on non-slaveholder, who did not express a detestation of it, and the desire and disposition to get rid of it. The only difficulty, in case (of emancipation, was, What shall we do for the master, and what, shall we do with the slave? A satisfactory answer to both these ques-tions fhas been, until now, beyond the reach and the grasp of human wisdom and power. Through, the direct influence of a good and gra-cious.God, the people of the United States have been invested with, the power of answering satis-factorily both these questions, and also of providing for the difficulties incident to both, of which if they jail to avail themelves thoroughly and conclusive-ly, they will entail shame on themselves, and sor-row and misery on many generations. It is impossible for me to regard the power thus granted to this people of the united States hav

The only possible way in which slavery, after it had grown to such height, could have been abolished, is that which Heaven has adopted.

had grown to such height, could have been abolished, is that which Heaven has adopted. Your instrumentality in the work is to you a subject of special glory, favor, and felicity. The madness of secession and its inevitable consequence, civil war, will, in their result, give the right and the power of universal emancipation sconer or later. If the United States do not understand and fully appreciate the boon thus bestowed an them, and fail to improve it to the utmost extent of the power granted, they will prove recreant to themselves and posterity. I write under the impression that the victory of the United States in this war is inevitable. Compromise is impossible. Peace on any other basis would be the establishment of two nations, rily hostile, their territories interlocked, with a ten-der or to never ceasing hostility. Can we leave to posterity a more cruel inheritance, or one more hopeless of happiness and prosperity? Pardon the liberty I have taken in this letter, and do not feel obliged in any way to take notice of it; and believe me. Liver your grateful and obliged servant. QUINCY, September 7, 1863.

tune.

Morgan's Chief of Staff and his Misfor-tune. [From the Dayton Jonral, Oct. 2.] Oolonel Allston, John Morgan's chief of staff, has been paroled, and is wending his way South. The Columbus Journal published a story about him, which went to show that he was a repentant rebel. "Hespoke in desponding terms of the rebels regard the success of the peace men of the Vallandigham school as their only hope of being vistorious. He looked upon Vallandigham as a true friend of the rebels, and would hall his election as a promising indication of a speedy termination of the war, by the withdrawal of our armies from the rebel States." This rebel Oolonel Allston, decorated in Secesi uniform, out a large swath in Columbus before he left, on Wednes-day, and nobody rebuked him; but on his way to Zanezville, via the Central Ohlo Railroad, he fell into the hands of one of the faithful. The incident was described to us by an eye-wintess. Clonel Allston ast with a brawny Copperhead on one side of the car vomiting out treason, which his fellow traitor meekly accepted. Colonel Gran-ville Meody, with his daughter, sat opposite him, reading a newspaper. Colonel M. was restive, but restrained himself for some time. At last the rebel and defiantly, eridently desirous to attract atten-tion—sid that it was "the duty of the peace Demo-erats to elect Vallandigham. It was necessary to save them from Lincon's cured tyranny. It was the most dammable tyranny on the face of the earth. Three months hence, you pelle of the North will appeal to us (rebels) huplinitly to come up and resous you from Lincol's despotiam. Hardiy was the sentence concluded when Colonel Moody, faming with indignation, dashed his paper to the floor, sprung across the car, selzed the inso-lent rebel by the throat, and thrusting his knuckles into his face, hissed through his teeth. "You in-ferent with your treason 1. How dare you pollute this atmosphere with your insults to my converti-pent with your treason 1. How dare you pollute

Brothers Joseph A. Warne and Jeffery assisted in the services. Brother Jeffery offered the following resolution, Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed to prepare a series of resolutions expressive of the views of this body on the state of the country. The reading of the letters was continued until 3 o'clock.

The reading of the letters was continued until 3 o'clock. Brother Purinton, district secretary of the Ame-rican Bapliat Home Mission Society, offered the following resolution: Resolved, That the determination expressed by the Board of the American Baptist Home Mission to raise, during the current year, $80,000 for the great work in which they are engaged in destitute places, among feeble churches, foreigners, and freedmen, is fully justified by the unprecedented openings now presenting themselves, and we recommend that every member of every church in this Association contribute something to this important work. The resolution was adopted after an earnest ad-vooaxy of its theme by Brother Purinton. Brother A. H. Danforth offered at the request of Brother French, and addressed the Association at some length, viz: Whereas. Chur Foreign Mission work is enlarging Police Civilities. Mr. Daniel Carpenter, first superintendent of the New York police, arrived in Philadelphia yester-day, and was welcomed by Chief Ruggles, who ex-tended the usual civilities inoident to such an occa-sion. Mr. Carpenter is the person who, when Lee's left wing was in New York, gave orders to his men to "shoot the rioters down; take no prisoners." This order was implicitly obeyed, and the section of the city where the riot, or rather part of the riot, prevailed was soon restored to tranquility. Mr. Carpenter, in company with Chief Ruggles and staff, visited many of the prominent places in and about Philadelphia yesterday. Brother French, and addressed the Association at some length, viz: Whereas, Our Foreign Mission work is enlarging on our hands, and is becoming one of great magni-tude, including not only the work of preaching the Gospel to the heathens, but also the education of several hundred native preachers, and the publica-tion of Bibles and testaments, and a religious litera-ture in many languages till recently unwritten and untranslated : therefore, Resolved, That we express our continued interest in the cause of Foreign Missions, and recommend to all our churches and to every member to cherish them by increased contributions, efforts, and prayers.

After prayer, the Association adjourned thi 10 A. M. to-day. FOR THE UNION STILL.—Col. John K. Murphy, of the 29th Regiment Pennsylvania Volua-teers, will support the Union ticket in the coming contest. Col. M. was taken prisoner at one of the battles of Winchester, and when offered to be libe-rated on his parole indigantly refused, regarding the rebels as armed rioters arrayed against the con-stituted authorities. Col. Murphy was taken to a Southern prison, where he suffered enough to break down any man who had not an iron constitution. He could see from his prison-windows, every moring, half famished children collected in front thereof, holding up their attenuated hands and arms for a lew morsels of prison fare that might be thrown from the window. Col. Murphy, half starved as he was, shared his fare with the disconsolat groupe of children. He was defiant to the rebels, regarding them, in their true light, as rioters. After several months imprisonment, he was libera-ted, and he returned to his native city. Philadelphia, broken down somewhat in constitution, but not in spirit. Before the recent Convention of that party that has assumed the name of Democracy. Colonel Murphy was a candidate. His name being mentioned, one of the "wire-pullers" said: "What! vote for him ? No, indeed! Why he organized and led a whole regiment against us." This came to Colonel Murphy's ears, and to his utter astorishment he found himself in the "wrong party. He withdrew from it, and ranked his time-honored name with scores of intelligent and influ-ential Democrats, who rally around the old flag, and its great standard bearer, Andrew G. Curtia. Colonel Murphy says the present Democratic par-ty occupies the same ground exactly as the Federal party did in the war of 1812.
