NEW PUBLICATIONS; PROPOSALS. AUCTION SALES. An Old Hero at the Continental.-AN OLD HERO AT THE CONTINENTAL.—
Mr. John L. Burns, of Gettysburg, arrived in the city yesterday, and is stopping at the Continental Hotel. The readers of The Press are all familiar with the active part taken in the battle of Gettysburg by Mr. Burns, and in which he was severely wounded. The old hero looks hale and hearty, notwithstanding his age and the severity of his injuries. He has served gallantly in defence of the Grvernment. He was in the war with Eogland, in 1813, having marched to Canada, and after participating in several battles on the line, he was discharged, but he again entered the army in 1814, and was at Marcus Hook, engaged in the erection of fortifications. During all that service, Mr. Burns won a soldier's reputation, a reputation which he re-established on the bloody field of Gettysburg. RICHMOND ITEMS. THE CITY. A SSISTANT QUARTERMASTER

The high prices of farming implements, wearing apparel, etc., is the great excuse of some farmers for their excribitant charges for what they have to soil. If one of them has to pay four times the usual cost for a soythe blade, he cries out extortion, while at the same time he is selling potatoes and corn at ten and fitteen times the old prices. The desire to make money has taken possession of all classes, but none of them seem more bent on getting a big bite than farmers. The waste lands of Virginia, if put in order this fall, and cultivated next spring, would produce a sufficiency of grain to supply the army. For every field of a hundred acres or more the Government could well afford to exempt one man to insure its The regular stated meeting of both branches of Dity Councils was held yesterday afternoon. SELECT BRANCH. CARLETON, Publisher, New York, 413 BROADWAY, cor. sufficiency of grain to supply the army. For every field of a hundred acres or more the Government could well afford to exempt one man to insure its cultivation. Producers are now as essential to our success as soldiers, and the law makers should have an eye to this matter in drafting their militia bill. Fire negroes, from all sections of the Confederacy, have flocked here since the commencement of the war, in search of easy employment. To get rid of them the Mayor has put his officers at work, and in a very short time will have them all under his control. The males, it is intimated, are to be turned over to the Confederate authorities, to be employed in the batteries and other public works, and the females will be sent back to the places from whence they came, or sold into slavery.

Bogus substitute papers, said to be numbered by tens of thousands, are about to get their holders into serious trouble. The Government officers are drawing their coils around these worthy gentlemen in all sections of the Confederacy, and in the course of a few weeks, at farthest, several regiments of them are expected to be sent to the field. Bogus Maryland papers have also kept many able bodied men from the field; but they, too, have had their day.

Cotton Frauds in Texas.—The Galveston New has information that in Anderson county, Texas, certain parties openly boast of having made $100,000 clear money by buying cutton as Government agents, while they admit they had no authority as agents. It doubts not a full investigation will show that similar impositions have been practised in nearly every cotton growing county of the State. General Kirby Smith has appointed commissioners to look in these matters.

Another Lineral and Patritoric Deed.—The Eagle Manufacturing Company of Columbus, Ga., have long been noted for their liberal deeds and patriotic acts. They have given of their abundance, and bountifully, whenever called upon and wherever opportunity offered. They now propose to pay twenty-five dollars per barrel for flour, to the ex President LYND in the chair. The reading of the journal was dispensed with.

Petitions, Communications, &c.

The commission for the erection of a Municipal Hospital presented a communication stating that they had awarded a contract for the erection of the same, to Messrs. Balderston & Alverson, at a cost of $45,932. This was the lowest of all the bids received, and is higher by $10,000 than the sum appropriated for that purpose. The commission think the sum is reasonable in view of the increased price of building materials.

An ordinance was then introduced making the additional appropriation of $10,000, the sum required, which was agreed to.

A communication was received from the City Treasurer elect, submitting his sureties. Referred.

Also, one from the citizens of the Twenty fourth ward, desiring the laying of water-pipe in that ward. One for the paying of Beach and Plum streets was referred.

Gottleib Reber was put on trial yesterday, charged with the larceny of $900, the property of Henry Roth. From the evidence, it appears that Mr. Roth is the keeper of a public house, and had this money, which was all in specie, in a trunk in a second-story back room of his house. On the evening that the money was stolen the defendant was in the bar-room, and Mrs. Roth testified that she saw him pass through the kitchen. When the larceny was discovered the defendant's house was searched, and some pieces of money were found, which the prosecutor identified as his, although at the time of the earch the constable testified he could not positively identify them. Every facility, it appears, was afforded the officers by the defendant; some $350 in specie was found.

The defence set up was of course a total denial of the charge, and evidence was offered to show that the money found in his house was the product of his own economy; that he had been saving his money, and had thus collected the amount the officers had found. Evidence of good character was also introduced. The case was not concluded when the court adjourned. 64 Inches wide, to weigh 16 ounces per yard.

The papers state that it is becoming quite a common thing to see French soldiess lying dead in the streets of Mexico, covered with dagger wounds.

At a representation given in one of the theatres for the benefit of an actor, there occurred a passage in a poem of Zarilla in praise of Mexico, conveying the idea that those who were born Mexicans had no reason to regret it. The people immediately broke out into loud huzzas and the cry of "Viva Mejico! Viva Is Republica!" The French quelled the outburst by promptly sending gendarmes into the theatres and arresting several citizens.

There are several conflicts with guerillas reported, in which several French soldiers have been slain. The guerillas, it is said, are growing bolder and more numerous every day, and not only do they attack the French convoys from Vera Cruz, but make raids up to the gates of the city.

Arrests continued to be made of Mexicans'on suspicion of being concerned in the late assassination of a French Zouave at Tlalpan. A number of the parties so arrested were to be sent to Martinique, while others are to be held as hostages, to be put to death if any further assassinations should occur. Speaking on this subject, the Independencia Mejicana says: The barbarous measure adopted by Forey of apprehending the peaceful mhabitants of Tlalpan as hostages to be shot if any Frenchmen should be killed in encounters with the guerillas of Ajasco, demands, however repugnant to our feelings and character, that we should use the right of reprisal according to the decree of the 16th, and seize as hostages, from among non-combatant French, men to be shot in like manner; in there is no other means of bringing the French to the practice of the rights of nations, and of the laws of war among civilized nagations. The following is the tribute of a gallant and faithful soldier to the President, whom he has had the tutmost opportunities of knowing, and whom the Copperhead press unite in reviling: "There are not a few who have quasiled before the magnitude of the task. Of those, thank Heaven, the President is not one. He whom the burden has most bent, has never faitered in heart or purpose. He is sustained, as is just, by the great mass of the nation, by the potential force of the press, and by the armies and fleets of the Union. Grappling with administrative questions more difficult and delicate than ever before tried the sagacity and courage of our statesmen, he has so borne himself that every loyal heart acknowledges the candor, ability, and tact, which signalize the character of our First Magistrate. 8026-tde31 No. 13 North FIFTH Street. A MILITARY REPUBLIC.—By the census of 1860, there were 27,000,000 of white people in the United States. Of these, 20,000,000 belong to the loyal States, one half of whom, or 10,000,000, are males. Of these males 34 per cent. are between the ages of 20 and 45, making 3,400,000 of our arms bearing population. These loyal States have sent 1,350,000 men to the field, or slightly over 1 to 2½ of all between the ages of 20 and 45! And yet we have enough left to whip out the rebellion and carry forward the great interests of the country as if no war was on our hands. It was not thought possible that a Republic could be a military nation; but the fact, as now demonstrated, is not the most encouraging to foreign nations.
