They handle money, buy and sell merchandise, compile original sets of tooks, and make out all the business papers involved. This new system of commercial instruction, which is nuknown to any similar institution in this city, has been in successful operation in our rooms during the past three weeks, and already the students in practice exhibit a marked predictency in the detail of business transactions. Young men who contemplate entering upon a beniese career, before doing so should pass through the course of instruction given at this institution.
