"A BREATH OF FRESH AIR."-This is "A BREATH OF FRESH AIR."—This is The expressive title of a remarkable, large size paint-ing in oil, recently executed by Mr. Wenderoth, of the firm of Wenderoth & Taylor, and now on ex-hibition at their free gallery, No. 912 Obestnut street. The picture is worthy of notice for two reasons: First, its intrinsic merits as a work of art, and secondly, on account of the new field which its talented author has thereby opened in the science of photography and its correlative arts. The can-vas of the picture (which is displayed in a massive Trame) is eight feet by six. The subject of it is at one pleasing and suggestive. A lady, painted lifeof photography and its correlative arts. The can-vas of the picture (which is displayed in a massive irrame) is eight feet by six. The subject of it is at once pleasing and suggestive. A law, painted life-mize, coouples the centre, and around her are blended, with admirable effect, a succession of accessaries, which tell poctically the story of their de-sign. The lady is richly attired in an evening-party dress, and has embraced an opportune moment to escape the heat and mazes of the dance within for a glimpse at the cool blue heavens and a "breath of fresh air" without. Her countenance speaks the thoughts that would be most natural un-der such direms mances. While not wholly abstract-ed from the giddy spectacle she has just left, she mevertheless seems much absorbed for the moment in the refreshing scenes upon which she is now gazing in the quiet midnight, and the contrast which they picture to her mind. The blue sky, heautified by the virgin moon just then flipping in the garden in front, mingling their spray with the indis-int to refreshing scenes upon which as a schewed in of this work of art Mr. Wenderoth has achieved a triumph in the combination of difficult lights that stirkes the eye of a connoisseur at once. Back of "the figure, through the open hall, the warm gas light is depicted so naturally that our sympathies are in-stinctively with the votary of fashion now enjoy-ing "the breath of fresh air," in front, the coid, but moonlight assumes an etherial naturalness that makes one almost forget the canvas for the beautiful reality, while midway between the artist pas achieved one of the most difficult fasts in his profession-mamely, the confitto of these opposing lights. The remaining features of the picture are all admirably disponed for the best effect, imparting an ir of real life to the whole that we have never seen in elaborated photographic pictures; for it must be borne in mind that, in a primary sense, at least, the picture we are noticing is a photograph. Mr. Whitall, guardian for the third district, stated that the contract for furnishing wood for the out-door, poor in that district had been awarded to Jas. Galbraith, at the price of $3 per cord. An election for chief apothecary was then gone into. The nominees were: Messrs. Shingle, Wea-ver, and Bender. After a number of ballots without result, the election was postponed. The election of superintendent of manufactures was likewise postponed. A. Redstreet was unanimously elected visitor of the second district. On motion of Mr. Lowry, the Committee on Ma-nufactures was authorized to employ a proper per-son to fill the place vacated by Stephen Franklin as superintendent of manufactures, until his return from the army. The steward's requisition was then read and granted. Wr. Waris offered a resolution, that the Commit-

Mr. Maris offered a resolution, that the Commit-tee of Classification and Diet, together with the chairman of the Committee on Insane Department, be a special committee to report on the practica-bility of concentrating the 'power to make requisi-tions on the store in the hands of fewer parties than now possess that power, and that the chair-man of classification and diet be the chairman of said committee; which was adopted. and hencer I have not recurred to it much in tasking the view herein expressed. That a Government like that of Great Bitlah may record to conveription to fill the ranks of her armites, and has done so on many occasions, is no argument or precedent for that practice under the Federal Constitution. Even in England this is far from the ordinary mode of re-cruiting the army, and it will hardly be contended that the exception to the rule will establish a cu-tom, by which to define the meaning of the words "to raise and support armies," used in our Federal Constitution, so that an vi lermini, conscription or draft, both involuntary modes, were thereby meant. But the precedent would go for nothing in this inquiry, even if the practice hadbeen common in England, The difference between the constructions of the British and Federal Constitutions is radieal. In the former, all governmental powers not expressly prohibited to the Government, may be ilawfully exercised. In the latter, whatever powends not expressly granted is withheld. There is no grant of euch a power to the latter, whatever powends not expressly granted is withheld. There is no grant of show, and no restraint upon it in the former, as the exercise of it proves. "This remark is equally applicable to the difference between them that same difference in construction ex-ists. The Governmental powers of the State extend to all rightful subjects not prohibited, and the na-tional only to such as are granted. It therefore does who contend for the constitutionality of the con-scription act, to point out instances in which drafts have been made by State authorities for militia men in a just proportion to population. Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions-Judge Ludlow. Geo. Tustin was put on trial yesterday, charged with assault and battery, with intent to kill one Samuel Bastian. The prosecutor and defendant are brothers in-law, and reside in the First ward. On the 13th of April last Bastian and Tustin met in a field close to defendant's house, and it is alleged that Tustin at once attacked Eastian, and fired at him five times with a revolver, four shots taking effect. He was confined to the house for some time. The defence set up was that for some time before there had been a series of provoations offered by Bas-tian, and threats made to take Tustin's life, which so worked on his mind as to render him partially insane. On the day in question Tustin saw him ap-proaching, and fearing an attack, drew the pistol and fired. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty, but recommended him to the mergy of the court. District Court-Judge Stroud. William P. Brewer vs. Holmes B. Kelly. An ac-tion on a promissory note, to which there was no defence. Verdict for plaintiff for $532.97. Edwin F. Schull vs. Gideon F. HOSPITAL ITEMS.—A fata accident took place, yesterday afternoon, in West Philadelphia. A soldier named John McMichael, aged 32 years, belonging to the 34th New Jersey Regiment, while stepping from one car to another on the Pennsylva-nia Railroad, missed his foothold and fell between the bumpers of the cars crushing both legs and arms in a horrible manner. He was conveyed to the Pennsylvania Hospital, where he died in about three hours after his admittance. He resided in Lancas-ter, Pennsylvania, where he leaves a wife and two children. A young girl named Ellen Morris, between seven-teen and eighteen years of zee, employed at No. 1530 Cherry street, was shockingly burned on Sunday afternoon by her clothes taking fire from a grate. She had charge of a sick child at the time of the ac-cident, and was preparing something for it, when her dress came in contat with the grate which is-mited it, and before the flames could be extinguished she was burned badly about the body. The sufferer was conveyed to the hospital yesterday, but it is though that she cannot live wer to-day. FATAL RALEROAD ACCIDENT.—Two wo-men, named Leena Renter and Louiss Seifer, were run over, about half past 4 o'clock yesterday after-noon, by a coal train, at the junction of the Reading railroad and Sixth street. in the Nineteenth ward. One of them was instantly killed, and the other died shortly after she was taken home. They both re-sided in the vicinity of Sixth and Dauphin streets, where the Coroner was notified to hold an inquest, which will take place to-day.

The ser-vice of Mr. Henderson was called into requisition, and he at once proceeded to the office in response to the published address. He played his card well and obtained the game. The doctor was highly pleased with the gentie-man's visit, and entered quite elaborately into the wonderful mysteries and virtues of his profession. He charged ten dollars for the instrument intended for use. The detective having made a clean job of the whole affair, retired. Yesterday morning De-tective Lamon with the warrant, based upon, the affidavit of Mr. Henderson, proceeded to the office of the doctor and arrested him. Inclous humbug. IBefore Mr. Alderman Beitler. J Barefaced Robbery. A yellow man, calling himself John Jones, be-longing to Washington, D. C., was arraigned at the Central Station by Detective Lamon, yesterday afternoon, on the charge of atealing ninety-two doi-lars, the property of Thomas Jordan, a colored man who keeps an eaking and boarding house on Pine street. It is known as the Hanover House. It seems that on Saturday night the defendant called at the Hanover House and was furnished lodgings. Early on Sunday morning he got up and was ob-served creeping on the floor. The pocket-book, containing minety-two dollars, belonging to Mr. Jordan, was subsequently missed, as few moments after the defendant had departed. He was arrested when about to start for Washington. Most of the money was found upon him. A portion of it was identified by the owner. Jones was committed, in default of $1,500 ball, to answer at court. Finel Henring. Supreme Court of Pennsylvania ACT OF CONGRESS OF 3D MARCH, 1863, COMMONLY CALLED THR "CONSORIPTION LAW," DECLARED UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Henry S. Kneedler vs. David M. Lane et al., Francis B. Smith vs. same, and Wm. F. Nickels vs. same. Three bills in equity, and on a motion in each case for special injunction.

OPINION OF JUSTICE THOMPSON. We have published the most important passage of the opinions of Justices Lowrie and Woodward declaring the conscription law unconstitutional. The following will show the tone of Justice Thomp-

Menufed by the owner. Jones was committee, in default of $1,500 bail, to answer at court. Final Hearing. Mary Sullivan had a final hearing yesterday afternoon on the charge of stealing two pieces of cloth or cassimere. She was arrested by officer Sam. Smith, of the Sixth ward, who found upon her a "lifting bag," in which the stolen goods were discovered. The pieces were stolen from the store of Mr. J. Young, on Fourth street. Mary said she was a stranger, having just come from Pottsville. Several detectives having dat this assertion. She retured to tell where she lived in Philadelphia; in fact, she said she did not know that she could find the house, because of the city being strange to her. She was committed, in default of $1,500 bail, to answer at court.
